At Police Shoot

The annual four-day pistol shoot sponsored by the Arlington Heights Police Department attracted 523 individual entries and more than 100 teams Jan. 15, 16, 22 and 23.

Conducted at the basement pistol range in the Municipal Building, the shoot was televised on a closed circuit system for the benefit of spectators. The television program included demonstrations in use of closed circuits for traffic and crime control. It was set up by the designers, Detection Systems Inc., 1600 E. Davis St., Arlington Heights.

The shoot attracted police officers and civilians from all over the metropolitan area.

Will It Ask Township Cash Again?

Over 50 Club at Fork in Road

By MARY SCHLOTT

Arlington Heights senior citizens face a dilemma.

They will decide Thursday (today) at an Over 50 Club meeting, whether they want to ask Wheeling Township electors for a share of township excess funds again this year.

A year of affluence and a year of running their own activities, rather than letting the Arlington Heights Park District set the program's course, has brought both satisfactions and disagreements to the elder citizens' group.

WHETHER the troubles cited by some members will be enough to persuade the group to give up its independent status will be decided by the club members at an after-lunch business meeting at Pioneer Park.

The park board promised Over 50 Club members, before they applied for the township money, that they would be welcomed back in the park program, at some future date, if the township money was not available. But the emphasis at that time was on the club's chances of being denied the township money, rather than on their refusing to ask at all.

Mrs. Elizabeth Meyer, the club's hired director, is among those who would like to see the Over 50 Club be put under the park board again, rather than be on its own. Hired by the park district, she directed club activities before the Wheeling Township money made the group independent. Now she is employed by the incorporated club and must receive officers' approval of all activities planned and money spent.

Of the $10,000 allocated by Wheeling Township electors last April to elder citizens' groups, $6,250 was given to the 250 - member Arlington Heights Over 50 group. The rest goes to clubs in Wheeling and Buffalo Grove as they are organized.

THE ARLINGTON Heights club has about $2,300 of its township funds remaining, having paid out $2,000 for large equipment and for supplies, trips and parties. Their big purchases were for a TV set, a kiln and pool tables; the one-time total was $1,200.

According to Mrs. Jenny McInnes, treasurer, Mrs. Meyer receives $175 a month for her services as director, the cost to the club (including benefits) totaling $2,178.75. She also received $125 a month for seven months for work in organizing clubs in Buffalo Grove and Wheeling.

Mrs. Ruth Gotshall, Over 50 Club president, says the officers will make no recommendation to the club as to whether township funds will be sought again or not.

15 ENTER NAMES FOR SCHOOL POSTS

Caucus To Pick 2 Names

By EUGENE NOJEK
Staff Writer

The Nominating Committee for candidates for the District 25 School Board last Thursday took the names of 15 proposed candidates for two board positions open in next April's elections.

Thursday's meeting was the second of three which will result in selection of a Caucus slate of candidates for the positions of Mrs. Dennis R. Malcolmson and Joseph Faner, whose terms expire this spring.

Faner will not run again, but Mrs. Malcolmson is seeking the Caucus nomination. Her name was among the 15 proposed by Caucus delegates.

OTHER names submitted for nomination were William Griffin, 1521 W. Oakton; Harry A. Kunberger, 926 N. Kennicott Ave.; Charles H. Vetter, 813 N. Patton Ave.; Robert E. Dallstream, 2305 N. Lafayette; C. Russell Lockwood, 515 E. Orchard Lane; Harry L. Segal, 809 S. Burton Place; H. Robert Powell, 110 S. Kennicott Ave.

Wilburn F. Bridwell, 724 W. Gettysburg; William C. Meinhardt, 208 S. Reuter; James W. Penn, 2211 N. Champlain St.; Henry J. Rebman, 414 W. White Oak Drive; Elaine Craynon, 1264 S. Walnut Ave.; James F. Lee, 611 E. Frederick St.; and

No Opposition, Novotny Named To Lead Regular Republicans

Early rumors of a possible opposition candidate were dissipated last Thursday as Thomas Novotny was elected president of the Wheeling Township Regular Republican Club.

Novotny, who recently was dismissed as a precinct captain by Township Committeeman Thomas Houser, succeeds Thomas Hanlon.

Hanlon, an Arlington Heights village trustee, also was recently dropped from the precinct captains' list by Houser. The reason reportedly given in Houser's letters to the two was their "nonperformance," particularly in collecting party funds.

ELECTED WITH Novotny were H. F. (Pete) Bunnelle, vice president; W. L. (Buck) Buchholz, treasurer; Mrs. Betty Arnold, recording secretary; Mrs. Kenneth A. Grogan, corresponding secretary, and Edward Welflin, sergeant-at-arms.

Named as directors were Glenn Anderson, Victor Beisler, Donald W. Goodman, Mrs. Edward Kilfoy, Fredric Marks, Mrs. Albert Miller and Charles E. Perrin.

Only one "no" vote was heard in a motion to cast a unanimous ballot for Novotny, but party splits were evident later in the meeting as Novotny was barraged with questions by John Gillen, the lone "no" voter, and drawn into a tense discussion of the precinct captaincy change.

NOVOTNY

Novotny first refused to comment on his dismissal, saying, "I will not throw gasoline on a fire I did not start," then briefly defended his own fund-raising record. He said he would be glad to go into the matter after the meeting with anyone who wished him to.

WHEN ALBERT Miller rose to defend Novotny, saying that Novotny had originated the GOP's local solicitation program, he was politely but firmly refuted by Richard Cowen, finance chairman for the precinct captains' organization.

Cowen said he agreed with Novotny and Miller that the question of Novotny's dismissal was not relevant to a discussion of the Regular Republican Club program. Then he went on to call Miller's statements "not accurate" and "not supportable." He said he too would be glad to talk about the issue after the meeting.

Both Cowen and Novotny refused, however, to go into the subject further when asked to do so later by a Herald reporter.

Eugene Schlickman, state representative from Arlington Heights, was among those who questioned Novotny at the meeting. He elicited a statement from Novotny that the president-elect had "no new concepts," "no new purposes" to suggest for the Regular Republican Club. That evening, Schlickman's appearance on a Regular Republican Club pro-

Big Bargains: Dollar Days Are Monday, Tuesday

Dollar Days, the semi-annual sales event for Arlington Heights retailers, is scheduled for Monday and Tuesday, Jan. 31 and Feb. 1.

Over three dozen merchants are cooperating this year, offering the public special values in the popular sales event.

John Bowen, retail chairman of the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce, spoke the thoughts of merchants last week as the final plans for the event were set: "Dollar Days have been traditional in Arlington Heights, with shoppers by the thousands taking advantage of the special prices. Women shoppers of the community are certain to be pleased again this time."

Hasbrook to See High School Plans

Hasbrook Civic Association, expecting that students from the subdivision will be assigned to the new District 214 high school when it opens, will have a special meeting Sunday at which plans for the new building will be displayed.

William E. Morrison, civic association president, says that the public will be welcome at the 2:30 p.m. meeting in Patton School.

Appearing to explain plans for the $6.5 million proposed new high school which District 214 voters will be asked to approve in a referendum Feb. 5 will be Jack Martin, assistant to District 214 Supt. H. L. Slichenmyer; Dr. Edward H. Gilbert, assistant superintendent; two school board members, and a representative of the architectural firm of Berger, Kelley, Unteed & Associates of Champaign and Arlington Heights.

THE ARCHITECTURAL firm has done the plans for the proposed school, to be located on Willow Road a quarter mile east of Rand Road in Prospect Heights. They also were the designers of Wheeling High School and Elk Grove High School, now being completed.

Morrison said that letters announcing the meeting had been sent to all 518 homes in Hasbrook. The school site is expected to be annexed to Arlington Heights.

Morrison said he hopes for a good attendance. "We think it is very likely that Hasbrook students will be going to the new school eventually. If we have any comments on the way the new school is designed, this would be a good time to make them."

If voters in District 214 approve construction of the new high school—the sixth to be built in the two-township district—it will open in 1968.

Apartments Proposed For Farms

Rezoning of the former Pingel and Hildebrandt farms is sought in a hearing scheduled by the Arlington Heights Plan Commission at 8 p.m. Feb. 16.

The two farms, totaling more than 52 acres, were annexed to the village last summer. The village board acted on a year-old annexation petition which the owners apparently felt was inactive; one has since filed suit in the Circuit Court challenging the annexation.

Zoning on annexation was 23 acres of R3 (single family), about 22 acres of R5 (apartment) and about seven acres of B2 (general business).

THE PRESENT owners, unidentified in the petition, are seeking to have 2.8 acres of B2 changed to R5, 19.5 acres of R3 zoned to R5, 2.5 acres of R5 rezoned to B4 (limited service) and 6.5 acres of R5 zoned B2.

The net result would be a development of about 34.5 acres of apartment zoning, 10.7 acres of general service zoning, 3.5 acres of single family and 2.5 acres of limited service. The farms are northeast of Wilke and Algonquin Roads.

Integration Peace Plan Told

By DAN BAUMANN
News Editor

A five-part program to insure racial integration comes peacefully to Arlington Heights was outlined by Village Pres. John G. Woods last Thursday to the Arlington Heights Human Relations Committee.

"When social change first occurs," Woods said, "there should be immediate notification of the board of trustees, the village president, manager and police chief."

That will be no problem, Woods quipped to his listeners, since "I have been notified at least a half dozen times already" about rumored move-ins.

SUBSEQUENT steps:

—Full information would be developed about the new resident through personal interview. "Complete biographic information serves a good purpose."

—The Ministerial Alliance, League of Women Voters, Human Relations Committee and "any other group or person who we feel would have a useful function" would be notified and used, as necessary.

—The village, he said, has a "working relationship" with the communications media which would help in insuring peaceful integration.

—If children are in the Negro family, the park and school districts would be notified.

WOODS SAID THE listing was "not a complete, chronological listing of events," and he stressed the need to remain flexible.

Woods appeared, at the request of the human relations group, with Village Mgr. L. A. Hanson and Trustee John J. Walsh Jr., human relations liaison member of the village board. Also attending the session were Trustees John White and Frank Palmatier, along with about 50 members of the human relations committee.

This first full fledged encounter of top village officials with the committee membership was arranged by Walsh and committee officers several weeks ago. The committee, which had its genesis in a League of Women Voters study a year ago, was organized basically to work for creation of an official human relations commission.

It has not succeeded, and its relations with the village board have been unstable. The relations appeared moderately friendly as the village spokesmen appeared for the discussion at the Lutheran Church of the Cross.

WHILE WOODS reminded committee members the board has decided against an official commission—an arm of the village government — Trustee Walsh told them, "We welcome your views" and "You are free to try to change our minds on this."

Walsh added, "I don't think there is any difference in our objectives. It is a matter of approach to what we recognize as a problem or potential problem."

Indicating a long-term concern of elected village officials, Hanson said one of Woods' first acts as village president in 1961 was a discussion "to test out my ability to cope with problems that might arise."

Hanson, who is ultimately responsible for the police department's activities, praised Chief L. W. Calderwood as a man of long experience in an integrated community. All officers on the force receive training which in-

Ordinance Revisions To Be Heard March 3

A hearing on Arlington Heights ordinance amendments affecting duplexes, private roadways and planned developments will be held by the plan commission at 8 p.m. March 3.

The hearings were scheduled last week, after a subcommittee recommended ordinance changes.

1) THE ZONING change on duplexes would prohibit their development in all but R4 zoning districts. By present ordinance, they can be built in R4 (two-family) and R5 (apartment) districts. Several requests for duplexes in large R5 districts spurred the change.

The plan commission indicated it wanted to keep close tabs on duplex construction through zoning. Duplexes and townhouses generally are regarded as contributing more children to the school system, per acre, than apartments.

2) THE PLANNED development change would be procedural. It would require all planned developments be submitted to the building department for approval before going to the plan commission. One recent planned development had been approved by the plan commission when the building department ruled the buildings could not be constructed under Arlington codes.

3) THE THIRD change is intended to discourage use of private roadways, in lieu of dedicated streets, in multiple family developments.

It restricts the length of private roads to 300 feet and requires the developer to deduct 20 per cent of his land area from the area used in determining the number of apartment units permissible. The 20 per cent must be discarded from the calculations whether streets are public or private.

A subcommittee recommendation that similar restrictions be enforced in single family areas was dropped. Chairman Harold Carlson said he only knew of a handful of private roads approved in single family subdivisions in his 10 years on the commission. He said they were required because the parcels were landlocked and standard street dedications would have made the parcels virtually unusable.

School Advisory Groups Go into Action This Week

Two of the four sub-committees of Arlington Heights residents assisting elementary District 25 with its new survey of school needs and resources will have their first meetings next week.

The school income subcommittee, assigned the task of evaluating the district's prospects for future revenue, will meet at 8 p.m. Monday, Jan. 31, in the conference room of South Junior High School's administrative wing.

The subcommittee which will determine how the elementary district's money now is spent will meet in that same room on Tuesday, Feb. 1, at 8 p.m.

MEETING WITH both groups will be Prof. J. Alan Thomas of the University of Chicago Midwest Administration Center, which has contracted to do the survey for the Arlington Heights public school system. The other two subcommittees will meet Feb. 7 and 8.

Working with the University of Chicago group on the subcommittees are 42 Arlington Heights men and women belonging to organizations represented on the School Nominating Committee — the school caucus.

The District 25 school board hopes the survey will provide what Supt. Ralph Clabaugh calls an "objective, disinterested but not uninterested" evaluation of the schools' use of tax revenues in meeting local children's school needs.

THE BOARD hopes, too, for guidance in how to solve its big financial riddle: how to provide quality education in a district in which the per-child assessed valuation is going down

District 25 is a largely residential district, with little space available for increasing its tax base through industrial growth. Superintendent Clabaugh told the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce board last year that his school system's only hope for a jump in assessed valuation lies in downtown redevelopment and predicted that District 25 may someday be a poor neighbor of nearby suburban towns.

Planners Approve Eberhardy Project

Arlington Heights Plan Commission has approved a preliminary subdivision plat and planned development layout for Arlington Highlands, a 17-acre single-family and apartment development on the north side.

The favorable recommendation will go to the village board Feb. 7. The subdivision is north of Arlington Knolls, east of Wilson School and south of Palatine Road. It includes four 12-unit buildings of two-bedroom apartments.

THE MAIN stumbling block to approval of the development planned by builder Harold Eberhardy has been an access to Arlington Heights Road. The plan commission solved that, to its satisfaction at least, by approving a layout with the new Lillian Street extended straight east, between properties owned by Pure Oil and the Market Basket shopping center.

The plan commission indicated the 243 feet of the proposed street across those properties should be installed by assessment against the abutting property owners; it recommended the extension be referred to the board of local improvements, which supervises assessment work.

Book Storage Space Sought

Space to store new books is being sought of the village by the Arlington Heights Memorial Library.

The library board Tuesday asked Secy. Elsie Hubbard to write the village manager asking whether space is available in the Municipal Building. Board Pres. Mrs. Florence Hendrickson said it was suggested by Norval B. Stephens, co-chairman of the library citizens committee.

Head Librarian Mary Lee Ewalt, noting the library will begin acquiring books in anticipation of opening the new library next year, said storage space probably will be necessary by mid-summer.

Ordinance Revisions To Be Heard March 3

A hearing on Arlington Heights ordinance amendments affecting duplexes, private roadways and planned developments will be held by the plan commission at 8 p.m. March 3.

The hearings were scheduled last week, after a subcommittee recommended ordinance changes.

1) THE ZONING change on duplexes would prohibit their development in all but R4 zoning districts. By present ordinance, they can be built in R4 (two-family) and R5 (apartment) districts. Several requests for duplexes in large R5 districts spurred the change.

The plan commission indicated it wanted to keep close tabs on duplex construction through zoning. Duplexes and townhouses generally are regarded as contributing more children to the school system, per acre, than apartments.

2) THE PLANNED development change would be procedural. It would require all planned developments be submitted to the building department for approval before going to the plan commission. One recent planned development had been approved by the plan commission when the building department ruled the buildings could not be constructed under Arlington codes.

3) THE THIRD change is intended to discourage use of private roadways, in lieu of dedicated streets, in multiple family developments.

It restricts the length of private roads to 300 feet and requires the developer to deduct 20 per cent of his land area from the area used in determining the number of apartment units permissible. The 20 per cent must be discarded from the calculations whether streets are public or private.

A subcommittee recommendation that similar restrictions be enforced in single family areas was dropped. Chairman Harold Carlson said he only knew of a handful of private roads approved in single family subdivisions in his 10 years on the commission. He said they were required because the parcels were landlocked and standard street dedications would have made the parcels virtually unusable. (A

Two of the four sub-committees of Arlington Heights residents assisting elementary District 25 with its new survey of school needs and resources will have their first meetings next week.

The school income subcommittee, assigned the task of evaluating the district's prospects for future revenue, will meet at 8 p.m. Monday, Jan. 31, in the conference room of South Junior High School's administrative wing.

The subcommittee which will determine how the elementary district's money now is spent will meet in that same room on Tuesday, Feb. 1, at 8 p.m.

MEETING WITH both groups will be Prof. J. Alan Thomas of the University of Chicago Midwest Administration Center, which has contracted to do the survey for the Arlington Heights public school system. The other two subcommittees will meet Feb. 7 and 8.

Working with the University of Chicago group on the subcommittees are 42 Arlington Heights men and women belonging to organizations represented on the School Nominating Committee — the school caucus.

The District 25 school board hopes the survey will provide what Supt. Ralph Clabaugh calls an "objective, disinterested but not uninterested" evaluation of the schools' use of tax revenues in meeting local children's school needs.

THE BOARD hopes, too, for guidance in how to solve its big financial riddle: how to provide quality education in a district in which the per-child assessed valuation is going down

District 25 is a largely residential district, with little space available for increasing its tax base through industrial growth. Superintendent Clabaugh told the Arlington Heights Chamber of Commerce board last year that his school system's only hope for a jump in assessed valuation lies in downtown redevelopment and predicted that District 25 may someday be a poor neighbor of nearby suburban towns. (A

Wood to Resign From Library Board

Library director James E. Wood notified the Arlington Heights Memorial Library Board Tuesday he will resign from the board.

Wood said he is retiring from his job with Montgomery Ward and will move to Oxford, Wis. Wood lives at 1106 W. Clarendon Road.

A RESIDENT of the village for 27 years, he has been on the library board for about two years. He was elected last April to the post he had originally filled by appointment. Previously, he served six years on the District 25 School Board.

Library directors will name a replacement after Wood submits his formal resignation.

Non-Resident Book Fee Hiked to $15

Arlington Heights Memorial Library Board Tuesday voted to increase its non-resident fee from $10 to $15 a year per family.

The change is effective Feb. 1.

It was recommended by Head Librarian Mrs. Mary Lee Ewalt. She said similar increases have been approved in Palatine, Des Plaines and Mount Prospect, with varying effective dates.

SHE SOUGHT the increase not for additional revenue but to discourage "shopping" by persons who live outside library districts: "We are overcrowded now." The librarian said village auditors told her the former fee was a "bargain." gain."

At present, there are roughly 800 nonresident card holders.

Arlington Heights has real need for a Candlestickmaker.

It already has one Butcher and 19 Bakers, a quick check of the new Paddock Directory of Arlington Heights reveals.

Also nine Cooks, eight Butlers, three Carpenters, six Sanders and four Fishers.

Reading the directory can be both informative and entertaining, I found one night recently when the television fare was so rotten even I couldn't stand it.

BAUMANN

For example, even with the Candlestickmaker crisis, Arlington Heights has an abundance of royalty. Ten Kings, one Viscount, one Prince, two Dukes and one member of the house of Bourbon.

For the religious, there are two Bishops, one Pope, one Priest and one Cardinell. Protestants will find a Luther and a Wesley (sorry, no Calvin).

There is no Tree, no Messey, no Shoe, though you will find a Bush, Tidey and Stocking.

There are eight Wests, two Easts, four Summers, one Winters, three Snows and one Rains.

There'll always be an England. Plus an Ireland, a Flanders and one Hollander.

You'll find six Rapps, one Knox. One Peek, one Boo. One Rivers and seven Pooles. One Train, two Carrs.

We have a colorful village: 24 Browns, 17 Whites, six Blacks, 10 Greens.

Arlington Heights has one Faust, two Faulkners, a Wisdon and a Wit, a Suave and two Savages. Five Young, one Elder. Four Wolfs and two foxes.

One Sparks, seven Burns and no Blisters.

One Cain, one Abel.

You'll even find one Yonkers. A Flatbush? Of course not. This is Arlington Heights.

Memorial to Stay as Part of Library Name

The new Arlington Heights library, when it is opened next year, will still be known as the "Arlington Heights Memorial Library."

That assurance was given the Veterans of Foreign Wars in a letter from the library board. The VFW participated in the financing of the present building, and a memorial plaque was included in the lobby The VFW was told the plaque will be transferred to the new building.

Library Intends To Join System

Arlington Heights' Library Board Tuesday approved a resolution of intent to join the proposed Library System 5.

The system is one of a series across the state approved by the legislature last summer. Head Librarian Mary Lee Ewalt explained the resolution of intent is a preliminary step in forming the system; libraries serving 150,000 minimum must agree to formation of a system.

SHE SAID 23 communities in the north and northwest areas of Cook County already have stated their intention to join System 5. The system will be financed by state funds.

Mrs. Ewalt said the value of the new system will be "virtually nil for the first five years. It takes a long time to build a good reference center."

Main advantages of the system, she said, are creation of a reference center, which will be at Evanston initially, and development of inter-library lending.

"Many years in the future," she commented, speaking of the development of special collections by individual member libraries.

Emerald Shop Goes Out of Business

The Emerald Shop, women's apparel store in Arlington Heights for the past 40 years, is going out of business.

Liquidation sale starts at the store, 10 N. Dunton Ave., Thursday (today). First location of the Emerald Shop was on Evergreen Avenue, across from the theater. Miss Emma Wilke purchased the four-year-old business in 1930, moved it to the corner of Evergreen and Northwest Highway and later to its present location.

She sold it in 1946 to Dan W. Senne of Arlington Heights who later took Earl Gromer, Elgin attorney into the business as a silent partner. Gromer took over full ownership in 1960. He owns several commercial properties in Elgin.

Arlington Federal Assets Set Record

Assets of Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan Association grew more than $7.5 million during 1965, the greatest total asset growth for the association since it began operations in 1953.

This is the report of Paul E. Collins, president of the association, who said total assets were $42,480,964 on Dec. 31, 1965. He said this figure represents a 22 per cent increase over Dec. 31, 1964, and 10 per cent above June 30, 1965.

Collins also remarked that savings assets rose to $33.9 million, representing a 10 per cent increase over the same period in 1964.

"Although this increase is considerably higher than our prediction, our experience has been that when our national economy expanls, Mr. and Mrs. John Public do not save money, rather they spend it when there is 'easy credit'—which has been the situation for some 60 months now," said Collins.

COLLINS continued, "The proof of the pudding, so to speak, is in the fact that we have made more home loans during 1965 than in any comparable year, while at the same time we have attracted what we consider to be only moderate increases in savings deposits."

Arlington Heights Federal Savings paid $659,209 in dividends to savings customers on Dec. 31—the 26th semi-annual earnings distribution by the association. Total earnings paid to savers during 1965 amounts to $1,285,418—since 1953, a grand total of earnings paid to savings account holders reached $7 million. (A

2 Injured in Collision at Algonquin Rd.

Two housewives were treated for injuries at Northwest Community Hospital Sunday after an automobile accident at Algonquin and Arlington Heights Road.

Police charged Mrs. Jo Ann Christy, 2213 Central Road, Rolling Meadows, with running a light. She was treated for neck, head, and leg injuries.

Mrs. Doris Brown, of 531 Walnut Lane, Elk Grove Village, a passenger in the second car, was treated for chest pains.

PTA Group Makes List For Offices

The nominating committee of Kensington PTA completed its work last week.

Representatives from the PTA executive board are Mrs. Richard Glasby, Mrs. Walter Soderholm and Mrs. Evert Hoglund as alternate. Mrs. Katherine Shrepferman, Mrs. Edward Vrablik and Mrs. William Weiland as alternate, represent the association. Karen Roock is the faculty representative and Mrs. Kathryn McElroy, principal of Kensington School, will serve as adviser. Elections will be held at the March PTA meeting.

"TURN OFF THE T-V set," advised Clifford Lothery, program coordinator of the Des Plaines YMCA, at Kensington's January PTA meeting. Other tips on keeping children physically fit were: "Walking to and from school, getting active in sports, family walks, no snacks, exercise, family bike-riding and old fashioned running."

Lothery told the Kensington parents about a test given a few years ago to American and British children, and the British were outstanding in every competition except throwing baseball. The U.S. Olympic future depends on the physical fitness of today's children, he commented.

The fourth grade class of Mrs. Anita Drake won the PTA attendance award. Kensington PTA welcomed Mrs. Karen Smirl to the school's teaching staff. (A

Tumbling, Trampoline Classes Set

Tumbling and trampoline classes meet for the first time Saturday, according to Bill Appleby, superintendent of recreation for the Arlington Heights Park District.

Registration will continue until classes are filled. Children may attend instructions at Recreation or Pioneer Park.

The 6 to 8 year beginners will meet at 9 a.m.; the 9 to 13 year beginners meet at 10 a.m., and the advanced students (those who have taken at least one previous session in either the summer or winter program) meet at 11 a.m.

THE LESSONS ARE $2 for a group of 10 one-hour meetings. Instructing classes at Pioneer is Tom Toman, and at Recreation Park classes follow the instruction of Jerry Gregory.

Children should register soon, as class capacity may be filled early. (The 9 a.m. session at Recreation Park is closed.) For registration, contact the park district office at CL 3-0620. (A

A tour orginally scheduled Jan. 13 has been rescheduled for Feb. 22. Reservations must be made by Feb. 19.

Ceramics, crafts, cards and pool are held every Friday at Pioneer Park from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Bus service is available to both parks at $2 a month; passes are being sold at the club meetings. Service will be extended for Saturday night events if enough Over 50 residents use the bus. (A

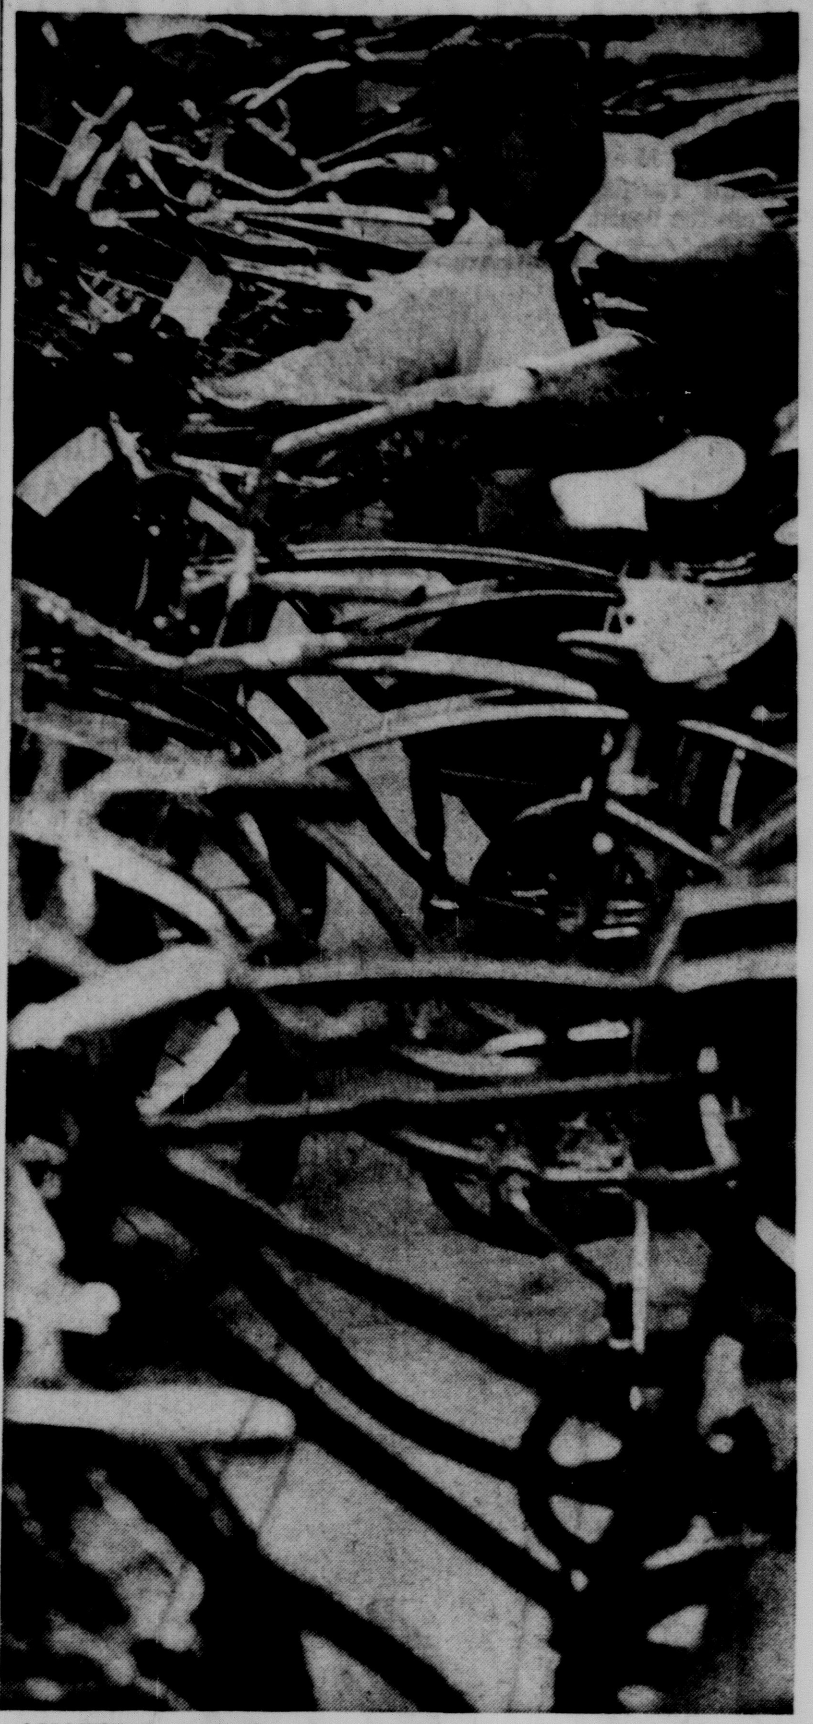
Offer Judo Instruction To District

Lessons in judo and self defense are being offered by the Arlington Heights Park District as a part of the winter program.

Young people from fifth through the eighth grades may enroll for the class on Thursday evenings at the Arlington High School. Class time is 7 p.m. High school students and adults may register for the 8:30 to 10 p.m. class, also at the high school.

CLASSES TEACHING confidence, self reliance and sportsmanship will be held in the Sunken Gym, Room 119. Directing the class will be Richard Jankiewicz, black belt instructor. The fee for 10 weeks is $4.

A newly-formed Judo Club, also under the direction of Jankiewicz, is conducted at the high school on Tuesdays from 7 to 10 p.m. For further information, contact the park district office at CL 3-0620. (A



ANOTHER BATCH of lost and abandoned bikes will be put on sale next week by the Arlington Heights police department. Stewart M. Grant, village finance director, tags one of the 33 bikes available. The bikes may be viewed in the Municipal Building basement, and sealed bids will be accepted from Monday until noon Friday. Any resident whose bike is among those on sale may claim it before the sale starts, if he can identify it. (Staff photo)

6 Men Elected To Church Council

Six men were named to posts on the church council at the recent annual meeting of the Lutheran Church of the Cross of Arlington Heights.

Elected for terms of three years were: Al Selkurt, Karl Nystrom, Carl Baardsen and W. E. Teske. Elected for a term of one year was Richard Vande Vegte. George Swain was elected for a term of two years, but resigned due to school obligations. Sam Johnson was appointed to fill his term.

THE CONGREGATION voted to purchase a new organ. Since the music of the Lutheran Church is an integral part of the worship, the people felt that it was time to buy an adequate instrument for the Lutheran liturgy. Also the congregation approved the recommendation from the finance committee to negotiate a loan for $6,000 to pay for the organ and to conduct a fund raising drive.

Responding to the needs of the community and to the growth of the church, the congregation decided to parallel its worship and church school. This will enable more to attend the worship service while still emphasizing family worship and education. This program will go into effect in September.

The meeting concluded with a fellowship hour during which John Holland, the church architect, reviewed the building plans of the church. Construction of the new unit will begin in March and be completed by September. (A

Emerald Shop Goes Out of Business

The Emerald Shop, women's apparel store in Arlington Heights for the past 40 years, is going out of business.

Liquidation sale starts at the store, 10 N. Dunton Ave., Thursday (today). First location of the Emerald Shop was on Evergreen Avenue, across from the theater. Miss Emma Wilke purchased the four-year-old business in 1930, moved it to the corner of Evergreen and Northwest Highway and later to its present location.

She sold it in 1946 to Dan W. Senne of Arlington Heights who later took Earl Gromer, Elgin attorney into the business as a silent partner. Gromer took over full ownership in 1960. He owns several commercial properties in Elgin.

Arlington Federal Assets Set Record

Assets of Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan Association grew more than $7.5 million during 1965, the greatest total asset growth for the association since it began operations in 1953.

This is the report of Paul E. Collins, president of the association, who said total assets were $42,480,964 on Dec. 31, 1965. He said this figure represents a 22 per cent increase over Dec. 31, 1964, and 10 per cent above June 30, 1965.

Collins also remarked that savings assets rose to $33.9 million, representing a 10 per cent increase over the same period in 1964.

"Although this increase is considerably higher than our prediction, our experience has been that when our national economy expanls, Mr. and Mrs. John Public do not save money, rather they spend it when there is 'easy credit'—which has been the situation for some 60 months now," said Collins.

COLLINS continued, "The proof of the pudding, so to speak, is in the fact that we have made more home loans during 1965 than in any comparable year, while at the same time we have attracted what we consider to be only moderate increases in savings deposits."

Arlington Heights Federal Savings paid $659,209 in dividends to savings customers on Dec. 31—the 26th semi-annual earnings distribution by the association. Total earnings paid to savers during 1965 amounts to $1,285,418—since 1953, a grand total of earnings paid to savings account holders reached $7 million. (A Ceramics, crafts, cards and pool are held every Friday at Pioneer Park from 10:30 a.m. to 3 p.m. Bus service is available to both parks at $2 a month; passes are being sold at the club meetings. Service will be extended for Saturday night events if enough Over 50 residents use the bus. (A

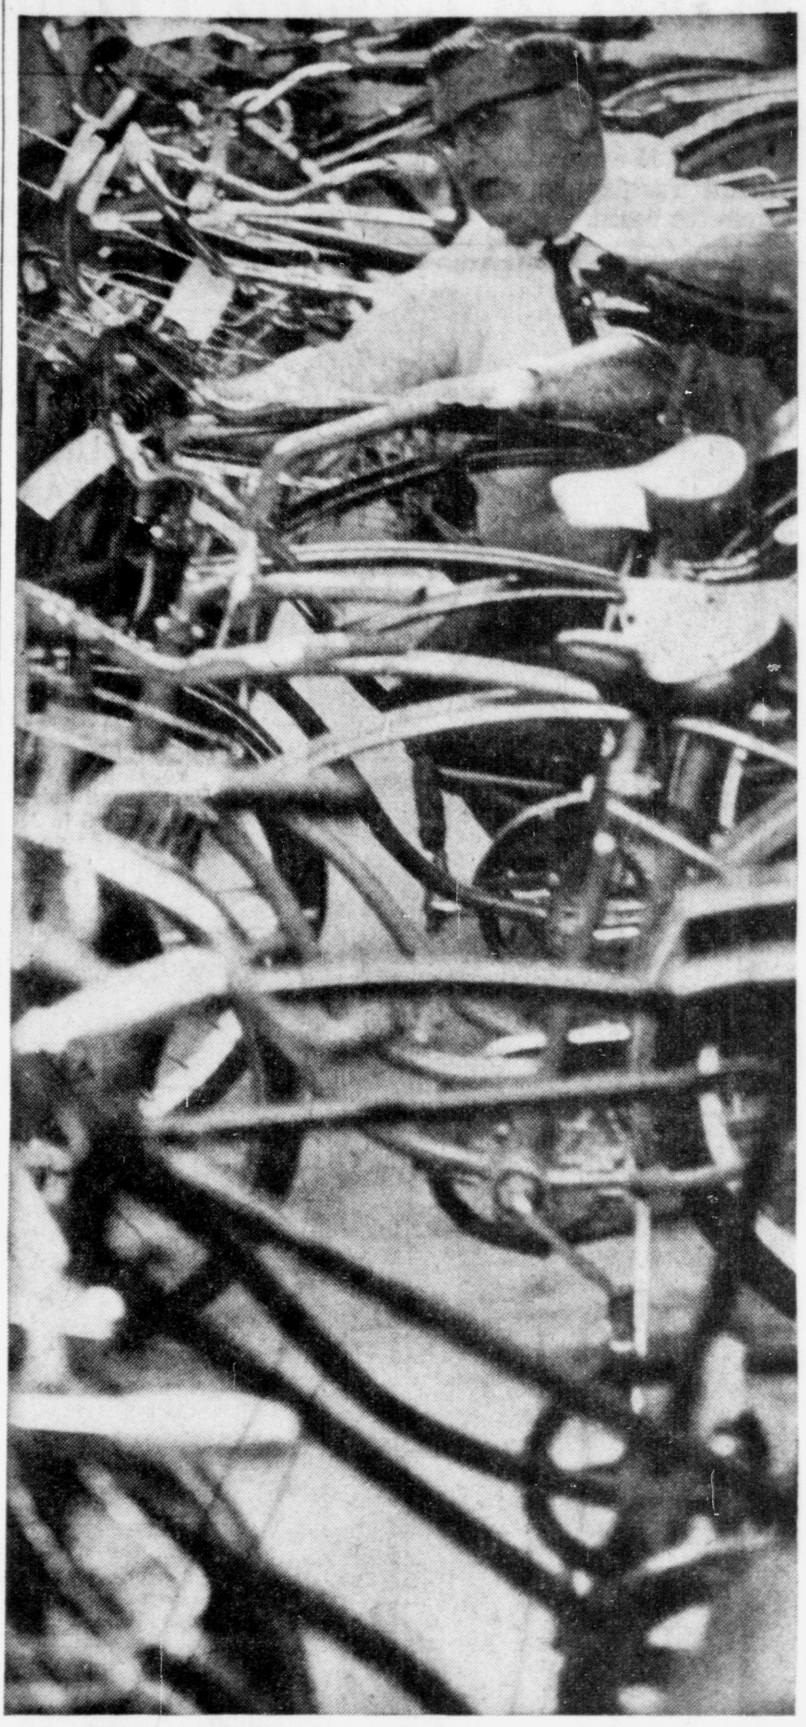
Offer Judo Instruction To District

Lessons in judo and self defense are being offered by the Arlington Heights Park District as a part of the winter program.

Young people from fifth through the eighth grades may enroll for the class on Thursday evenings at the Arlington High School. Class time is 7 p.m. High school students and adults may register for the 8:30 to 10 p.m. class, also at the high school.

CLASSES TEACHING confidence, self reliance and sportsmanship will be held in the Sunken Gym, Room 119. Directing the class will be Richard Jankiewicz, black belt instructor. The fee for 10 weeks is $4.

A newly-formed Judo Club, also under the direction of Jankiewicz, is conducted at the high school on Tuesdays from 7 to 10 p.m. For further information, contact the park district office at CL 3-0620. (A



ANOTHER BATCH of lost and abandoned bikes will be put on sale next week by the Arlington Heights police department. Stewart M. Grant, village finance director, tags one of the 33 bikes available. The bikes may be viewed in the Municipal Building basement, and sealed bids will be accepted from Monday until noon Friday. Any resident whose bike is among those on sale may claim it before the sale starts, if he can identify it. (Staff photo)

6 Men Elected To Church Council

Six men were named to posts on the church council at the recent annual meeting of the Lutheran Church of the Cross of Arlington Heights.

Elected for terms of three years were: Al Selkurt, Karl Nystrom, Carl Baardsen and W. E. Teske. Elected for a term of one year was Richard Vande Vegte. George Swain was elected for a term of two years, but resigned due to school obligations. Sam Johnson was appointed to fill his term.

THE CONGREGATION voted to purchase a new organ. Since the music of the Lutheran Church is an integral part of the worship, the people felt that it was time to buy an adequate instrument for the Lutheran liturgy. Also the congregation approved the recommendation from the finance committee to negotiate a loan for $6,000 to pay for the organ and to conduct a fund raising drive.

Responding to the needs of the community and to the growth of the church, the congregation decided to parallel its worship and church school. This will enable more to attend the worship service while still emphasizing family worship and education. This program will go into effect in September.

The meeting concluded with a fellowship hour during which John Holland, the church architect, reviewed the building plans of the church. Construction of the new unit will begin in March and be completed by September. (A

Vending machines, rather than a cafeteria, will supply lunches to District 214 students assigned to the proposed high school on Willow Road.

Members of the District 214 board gave their unanimous okay Monday for the use of vendor food service in the proposed sixth school, which voters will be asked to approve in a referendum Saturday, Feb. 5.

As they deliberated, some board members munched cold chicken, sandwiches or cake like those supplied by the vendors. About half the board members tried the samples offered.

The change from the cafeteria food service now used at Arlington, Prospect, Forest View and Wheeling will save the district money but cost each student more for lunch.

THE HIGH SCHOOL district initially will save $70,000, estimated cost of kitchen equipment for the new school. The district will also have the option of using the kitchen space for classrooms or reducing the new school's size. Supt. H. L. Slichenmyer estimates the floor space used for a cafeteria kitchen would hold three classrooms.

But teenagers attending the school at Willow Road location will have to spend more money for their lunch.

Mrs. Mary Handlin, director of food service for District 214, says that Type A plate lunches sell in the cafeteria for 40 cents, including one-third of a quart of milk. Pie or cake is 10 cents more.

An Arlington Heights vending firm consulted by Slichenmyer can supply a catered hot plate for 50 cents, without dessert or milk. An area industrial concern sells its vended pie for 20 cents a wedge, milk at 10 cents a half-pint. Assuming the student takes two half-pints, his vended meal would cost him 40 cents more a day.

ARLINGTON HIGH School sells hamburgers for 20 cents apiece, while vendor quotes given the school board were 25 cents for hamburgers, with a probable raise to 30 cents by 1968. The same area industrial concern sells vended hamburgers for 35 cents, cold sandwiches for 30 cents (egg salad) on up. The Arlington High School a la carte line sells sandwiches with home-made bread and six kinds of fillings, for 25 cents apiece.

Differences in cost are possible because the high school cafeterias are self-supporting but make no profit and receive federal subsidies, besides. The district receives a subsidy of 13.2 cents per Type A plate lunch, part of it as a direct payment and the rest in savings on surplus foods. Vending concerns are businesses; their prices must provide a profit rather than just cover costs.

SUPT. SLICHENMYER put the vending machine proposal on the board's agenda after he, Asst. Supt. Edward Gilbert and Business Mgr. Frank Coleman inspected vending-type food service setups at the University High School, Normal, and at Nuclear-Chicago Corp. in Maine Township. He said the vending machines would provide greater choice of foods, take up only one-fourth the space needed for the cafeteria kitchens, but would include some foods prepared the day before.

But Slichenmyer made no recommendation, giving board members instead a list of advantages and disadvantages of both types of school food service.

The suggestion that the sixth high school use vending machines, rather than a cafeteria, was originally made in December by John Auld, president of the Citizens Committee for the proposed sixth high school. Auld, president of Barrington Vending Company, suggested places where such setups could be inspected and accompanied the District 214 administrators on their trips.

Slichenmyer told the board that approval of the food service innovation was needed so that architects can begin working drawings as soon as possible. Selections of the supplying company would be made later, through bids.

Asked if the district had considered buying the vending machines and providing its own food for them, Slichenmyer said he thought it would probably cost District 214 more to do its own catering than it would to contract for the vending.

Action on Migrant Housing Pledged

The Elk Grove Village Human Relations group's special committee to improve substandard Mexican - American housing has received pledges of coooperation from landowners involved, including a property owner in the Arlington Heights area of Elk Grove Township.

Carl Klehm, nursery owner and employer of many Mexican Americans, has promised to build new housing for his employes. During a Saturday morning meeting with the Rev. J. Ward Morrison of Queen of the Rosary Catholic Church, Elk Grove, Village Pres. Jack Pahl, and Trustee Charles Zettek, the nursery man described three plans he was considering for housing.

FR. MORRISON reported that Klehm's promise meant housing for 18 to 25 families working for him. Klehm is considering building a small Spanish style village on land he owns near the Centex industrial park. This housing would be compatible with surrounding housing. This plan would have to get village approval.

If he cannot build on his land near the industrial park, Klehm will try to build on land he owns near Route 59, Penny Road and Bartlett Road. It already has water and sewer facilities.

The third plan he would consider is purchase of a trailer camp that has utilities and sanitation facilities.

Klehm pledged to make immediate repairs in his workers' homes so they would pass the state fire marshal inspection.

Morton in National S & L Post

Donald F. Morton, executive vice president of Arlington Heights Federal Savings and Loan Association, has been appointed deputy governor of the American Savings and Loan Institute for the State of Illinois. The announcement of Morton's appointment was made by Robert S. Brown, president of the institute.

As a Deputy Governor, Morton will act as a consultant to Illinois chapters of the institute, providing them with liaison to the national headquarters. Morton is past president of Chicago Chapter 64 of the American Savings and Loan Institute and is also a member of the board of directors of that organization.

Absentee Ballots Available

To aid the area's industry get skilled workers, the adult education department of High School District 214 will start a special class in wiring and soldering techniques on Monday.

The class will begin that evening at 7:30 p.m. in Arlington High School.

Arrangements for the course were made by W. L. Randle, Director of Adult Education.

Randle says a number of the area's industries — among them Chicago Aerial Industries, Televiso and Acromatics Corp. — are advertising for experienced wirers and solderers at attractive pay rates.

HOUSEWIVES, unemployed women, and women hoping to upgrade their employment level will experience little difficulty in finding jobs after having had this training, Randle says.

Topics to be covered in the 12 hours of instruction include color codes, electronic symbols, basic meter reading, testing and mechanical assembly as well as training in using soldering irons, fluxes, hand tools and the like. All material and tools will be furnished by the high school district.

Tuition for the six weeks class will be $6, plus a $1 registration fee. More information can be secured by calling Randle at CL 3-1700.

Challenged Youth Flees Liquor Store

An underaged youth who attempted to purchase liquor from Parkway Liquors in Arlington Heights Friday with false identification cards left hurriedly when the owner started to telephone police.

Owner William Karavioas confiscated the youth's identification cards and when police arrived they verified his suspicions about their authenticity.

First Big Three

New York, Virginia and Pennsylvania were the first three states to reach 1,000,000 population. All three achieved the distinction in the census of 1820.

American citizenship is a precious thing. In our office we find this out every day. If you travel outside the limits of the U.S.A., you may be asked to prove your citizenship upon your return.

Wayne Griffin

For many trips to Nassau, the Bahamas, Bermuda and Jamaica a passport is not needed, just proof of citizenship.

For a more extended vacation, you may need a passport. This requires photos and again—proof of citizenship. To enter many countries, a visa may be required as a grant by that government to allow you to enter.

Yes, it's a lot of red tape, but it is necessary. If you don't have valid certified proof that you are an American citizen, you should start checking up on it.

Roundup Of Area News

DuPAGE COUNTY—Voters in DuPage County will go to the polls Saturday to elect a seven-member board of trustees for their recently established junior college district. Forty-one candidates have listed their names on the ballot.

WHEELING—A five per cent utility tax for the Village of Wheeling was proposed Monday. The tax would cover three business categories—electronic transmission of messages, and distributing, furnishing, selling or supplying of gas and electricity—and affect Commonwealth Edison, Northern Illinois Gas and Illinois Bell Telephone. The tax would apply on business originating within the village, and not cover interstate transactions. Village trustees tabled the proposal until April.

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS—Fifteen candidates have submitted their names to the Arlington Heights District School 25 Caucus in hopes of winning support for the two school board positions open in the April election. While independent candidates also may enter the race, Caucus candidates have traditionally been victorious in Arlington Heights.

ADDISON—Two rural Roselle men were charged for the brutal beating of a young Addison mother, Mrs. Susan Vyhnanek of 412 Winthrop Ave., last Friday. Arrested by Addison police less than three hours after the attack were Donald Thomas and William Brigance.

ELK GROVE VILLAGE—Several major landowners in Elk Grove Township have promised to cooperate in upgrading substandard housing used by Mexican-Americans. The special Elk Grove Village Human Relations housing committee will recruit volunteers to make immediate repairs to eliminate fire hazards, required by the state fire marshal after the death of two youngsters in a blaze which destroyed one of the houses.

SCHAUMBURG TOWNSHIP—The District 54 School Board has rejected a plan for teachers to participate in an area-wide instructional resource and service center financed by federal aid. The center, to serve High School District 214 and 211 and underlying elementary districts, was approved recently by the federal government. The District 54 decision could be changed; it was taken in a tie vote, with one member absent, and he could change the balance.

PALATINE—Teachers in Palatine-Rolling Meadows District 15 schools will all get raises next year, thanks to an increased scale approved by the board last week. In the over-all increases, starting wage for a teacher with no experience was boosted to $5,400 from $5,200 per year. The total of $123,000 in raises will come out of increased income based on rise in assessed valuation, with no change in the tax rate.

HANOVER TOWNSHIP—Possible merging of the villages of Hanover Park, Bartlett and Streamwood has been suggested by Nick Kosan, Streamwood village president. He urged officials to study the possibilities.

SIXTH HIGH SCHOOL—This is an artist's sketch of the proposed sixth high school for District 214. The new building will have a 2,750 capacity—2,500 students in the comprehensive high school and another 250 students in a new vocational training area. The compact design of the central school area is possible because the building will be air conditioned. The building will have a larger language labs area, to serve increased student interest, and a library with an outdoor exit for easier use at night. Voters will be asked to approve the building program in a referendum on Saturday, Feb. 5.

Sixth High School to Cost Less for Typical Taxpayer

The taxpayer price tag will be the smallest yet.

That's a fact that should comfort Wheeling and Elk Grove Township residents as they are asked to vote "yes" on a High School District 214 building bond referendum on Saturday, Feb. 5.

The referendum asks approval of a sixth high school for the growing district. To pay for it, and for purchase of another building site for later use. citizens are being asked to allow the high school district to issue $6.8 million in building bonds. Of this $6.5 million will be for the new school building and $300,000 will be used to purchase the new site.

Student population growth has made the new school necessary. By the time the new school—to be located in Prospect Heights just east of Arlington Heights village boundaries—is opened in 1968, growth estimates predict the district's student population will be 14,500. The present five high schools—Arlington, Prospect, Forest View, Wheeling and now-building Elk Grove—together can handle 12,500 boys and girls.

BUT THE SAME growth that makes the new school needed softens the tax bill blow. The local resident who pays taxes on a $20,000 home will have his tax bill raised $3.57 if the new school is approved.

The tax increase on a $20,000 home from the Wheeling High School building levy was $4.14. The yearly cost for Elk Grove High School to the $20,000 home owner is $4.43.

But back in 1959, when building of Prospect High was approved, the taxpayer with a $20,000 home had a $14.53 tax increase to face. The reason for the lowering in per-taxpayer costs is obvious; it comes from the spectacular assessed valuation increases that have accompanied the area's population growth.

The new high school—still unnamed—will go on a site the district owns on Willow Road (Thomas Street, it's called in Arlington Heights) just a quarter mile east of Rand Road. The area round it is expected to be largely residential by the time the school is built.

THAT WAS one reason why the 86 area leaders on the Citizens Committee recommended use of the Willow site, rather than two others that District 214 has in reserve. With the school in the area of residential growth, there will be less need for busing. And the Willow acreage's location is central enough that it can ease the load on Arlington, Prospect and Wheeling High.

Cost of the building will be $6.5 million—highest yet. Wheeling High School cost $4,900,000 and Elk Grove High School (identical to Wheeling but constructed two years later) was $5,350,000. Life Safety Code requirements and a 10 per cent climb since then in construction costs—raises in such things as steel and wages—are the main reasons why the new school will cost more.

Also included is a 250-student vocational training area, to be provided in addition to the 2,500 - student comprehensive high school that is the pattern in this district. Inclusion of the technical trades area was recommended by a special committee of industrial leaders and okayed by the Citizens group as well.

THE NEW school is designed with air conditioning. But this feature, which some might call a frill, is stoutly defended by Citizens committee members as a savings.

Citizens Committee member Albert Miller of 501 S. Patton, Arlington Heights, made that point at the Wheeling Township Regular Republican Club last Thursday.

"If we didn't have air conditioning," he told the GOP group, "the building would need a more sprawling layout and more outside walls. The cost of the air conditioning will be more than made up in the savings from the more compact design."

Arlington Heights vehicle stickers are now on sale at the Municipal Building, 33 S. Arlington Heights Road.

The new $10 stickers have two distinctive features:

1) Art work, intended to stress the theme of downtown redevelopment, is somewhat reminiscent of world's fair advertising.

2) The sticker itself is scored to prevent theft. It can't be lifted from your windshield without tearing at one of the score marks. Village Finance Dir. Stewart M. Grant, noting the feature, advised residents to remove the sticker carefully from its backing sheet to avoid tearing.

Arlington Heights' Chamber of Commerce will observe its 19th anniversary at a Lincoln Day dinner and dance at Old Orchard Country Club Feb. 12. The affair will include installation ceremonies for new officers.

ALSO AT their second meeting, the 50 Caucus delegates selected eight of their number to serve on a screening committee which will interview the potential candidates.

The four members of the screening committee elected by the Caucus were Jane Toot, Fred Leydig, Anne Galloway and Bernard Clark. Caucus Chairman Jim Warriner then appointed Roger Burke, James E. Stoll, Robert Metz and Ray Erickson to the committee and asked Roger Burke to serve as chairman.

The screening committee will hold an organizational meeting on Jan. 29. On the weekend of Feb. 5 and 6, they will interview the proposed candidates and prepare a summary of their capabilities which will be distributed to members of the Caucus.

The full Caucus will then hold its third meeting Feb. 17 to select a slate of two candidates out of the 15 proposed.

Rehearing Denied in Bank Suit

The Illinois Supreme Court Monday denied a petition by the village of Arlington Heights to rehear a case the village lost to the Arlington Heights National Bank.

Douglas Dodds, executive vice president of the bank, said he was notified of the decision by phone Monday. Involved is a suit brought by the bank to enforce the strict terms of a 1963 agreement between the village and bank to permit the bank's expansion.

A BASIC issue was the status of Davis Street adjacent to the bank, between Dunton and Evergreen Avenues. The Supreme Court last November said the village must abide by its agreement to vacate the street and ruled that later conditions applied by the village were invalid.

The case has been remanded to Circuit Court for issuance of a decree favoring the bank. Dodds said he expects a consent decree will be negotiated with the village to settle the issue. The bank executive has indicated the bank wants to construct an office tower at the site.

gram was left out of a recital of past club events—not the first time, observers said, that the state representative had failed to be recognized at meetings of the group.

SOME PERSONS active in the party have been unenthusiastic about the newspaper articles telling of Houser's dismissal of Hanlon and Novotny. As a result, Houser has been asked by the township precinct captains' organization to give notice of any further changes verbally, rather than in writing, with the thought that this might cut down the chance of the news being made public.

The post of township committeeman is among those to be voted on in the spring primary. There have been reports that Novotny would challenge Houser himself or give his support to some other Houser opponent, should Houser run again.

cludes racial problems, Hanson said.

WHILE HE WAS manager of Cadillac, Mich., Hanson added, that community was integrated without incident.

Committee members asked the village to consider two actions: adoption of a "more positive" statement on human relations and creation of a commission.

One committee member, referring to a statement that the village would protect the rights of all citizens, said it sounded "ambiguous." He asked the village make it clear Arlington Heights is "an open community."

Woods said he felt the earlier statement was clear but said the village board might consider another statement in connection with Brotherwood Week.

TO QUESTIONS about a human relations commission, Woods said the board is not prepared "to delegate our reponsibility in this matter." A spokesman for the Illinois Commission on Human Relations present at the meeting said most local commissions do not have delegated authority.

Asked whether the board might adopt a local open occupancy ordinance, Woods said, "I don't know whether the board would be willing to consider it."

Board Views Parking Jam

Solution to the parking jam around the Arlington Heights Memorial Library, 112 N. Belmont Ave., is being sought by the library board.

Board members agreed to ask the village to consider a parking ban in front of the library building. Library director Mrs. Natalie Wallace brought the question before the board.

Noting the street is wide enough for only two lanes of traffic, she said drivers often are stopped by an oncoming vehicle and "somebody has to say 'uncle'." Mrs. Elsie Hubbard, board secretary, said the village previously refused to designate the stretch one-way.

The case of the crow that was just too refined to be out on the streets has been solved.

Jerri the crow, alias "Blackie," was taken under wing by his guardian Karen Linehan of Arlington Heights Saturday after almost two weeks of freedom and sampling the cookies of Mrs William Beckmann, 611 S. Mitchell Ave., and her neighbors.

Jerri first achieved notoriety about two weeks ago when Mrs. Beckmann noticed him playing in the snow with her three-year-old son, Mark.

He appeared daily around Mrs. Beckmann's home in the morning, and in the afternoon at Park School where he amused himself as no ordinary crow when he refused to eat Mrs. Beckmann's goodies unless offered by hand.

THIS IS WHAT got his picture in last Thursday's Herald. When his mistress noticed the picture, she came to coax him from the tree in front of the Beckmann home and fetch him back home.

Miss Linehan is glad to get her crow back. He has been her pet since she got him by trade from the Hawthorn Mellody Farms in Libertyville two years ago.

The pet crow lives in a large cage in her back yard. She explained that this winter the lock on the cage froze and she tied it with string. But Jerri got wise, picked the string loose and flew the coop.

It's not the first time Jerri's been out. Miss Linehan said she often lets him free in the daytime, "but he always comes back. Sometimes he just likes to sit in a tree and sun himself for a couple of hours."

"ACTUALLY, HE'S like a big baby. He laughs, whistles, and says 'Hello,' 'Mama' and "What're you doin' down there.' "

But for a crow, he has man-sized tastes. "He likes fried chicken and spaghetti," she said, "and he hates corn."

Mrs. Beckmann is also glad that Jerri's back in his own haunts. It was amusing to have a tame crow in the neighborhood until some of Jerri's less refined pals took to dive-bombing the kids while he fraternized with them. Maybe they were jealous.

Faith Church Dedicates New Building Sunday

Schedule Three Services

Faith Lutheran Church of Arlington Heights will dedicate its new house of worship on Sunday. The church is located at 431 S. Arlington Heights Road.

Three services will be held: At 8 a.m., the Rev. Wesley H. Wilkie, instructor at Concordia College, River Forest, Ill., will preach. The Rev. Dr. Oswald C. Hoffmann, speaker on the Lutheran Hour, will preach at the festival service of dedication at 10:45 a.m.

A dedicatory choral vesper service will be held at 3:30 p.m. At this service, the stained glass windows and other memorials will be dedicated. The Rev. Dr. Adalbert R. Kretzmann, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Saint Luke, Chicago, will preach.

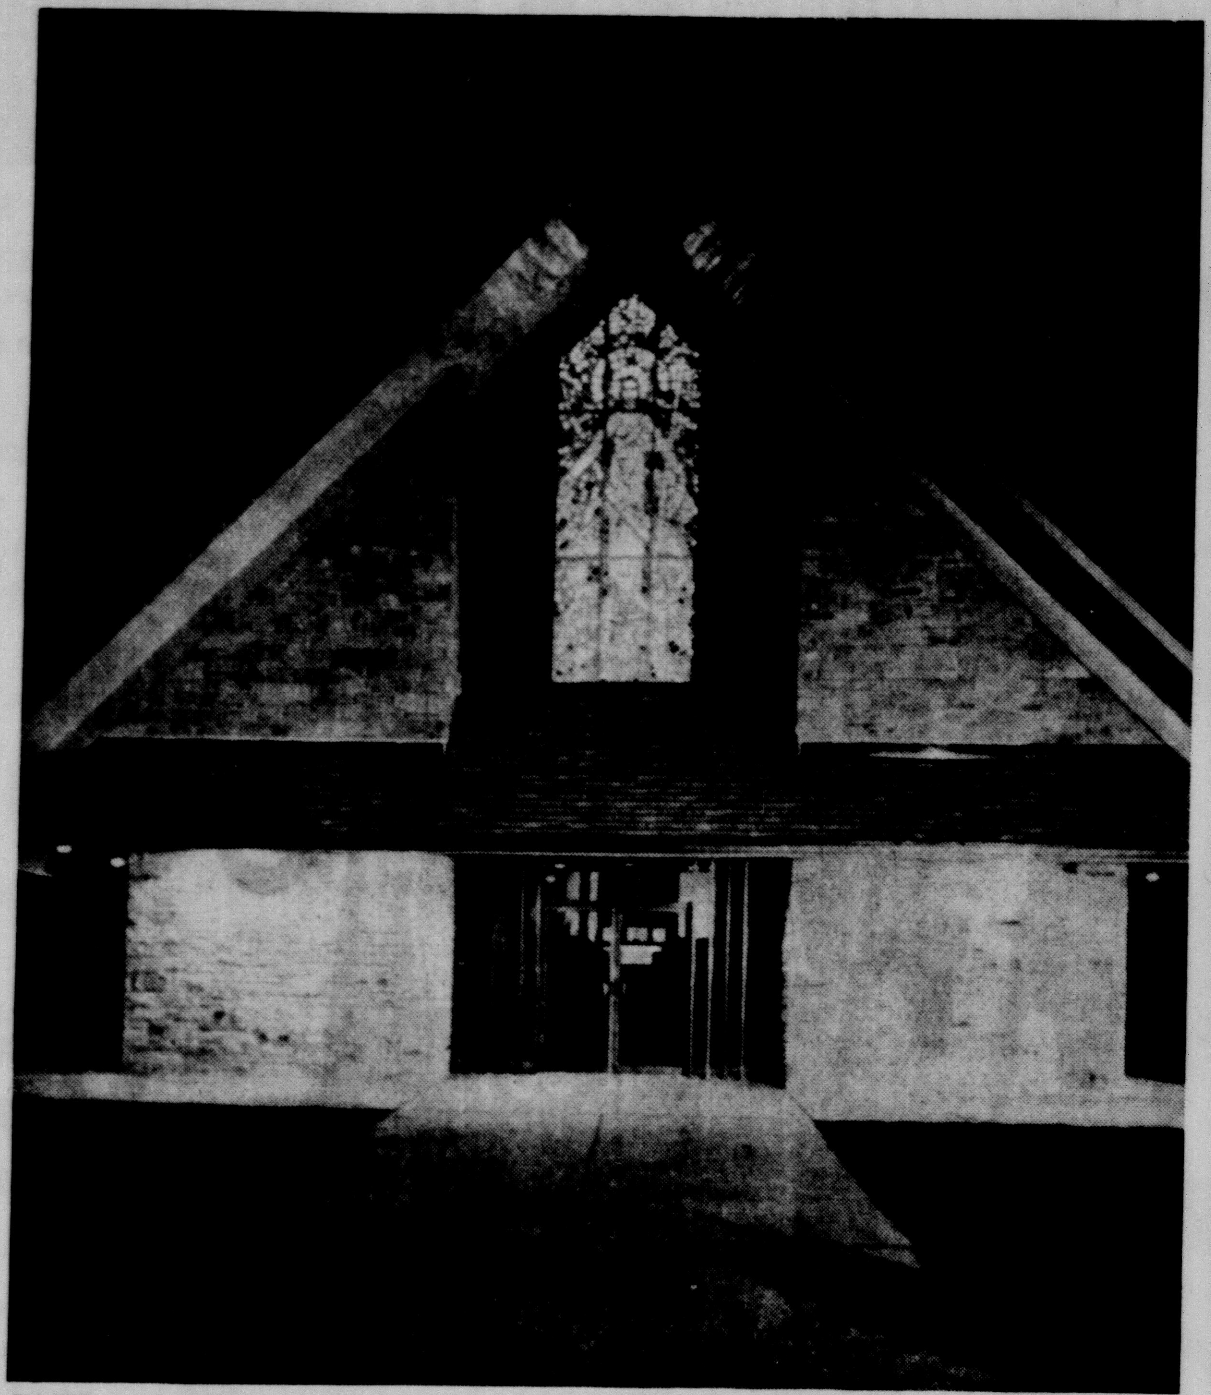
The Rev. Edgar H. Behrens and the Rev. C. David Stuckmeyer, pastors of Faith Lutheran Church, will serve as officiants at the dedicatory services.

PROF. THEODORE A. Lams, chairman of the department of church music at Northwestern University, Evanston, is the organist and minister of music. The youth choir will sing "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty" at the 8 a.m. matins.

The primary choir will sing "Beautiful Savior" and the Faith senior choir will sing "We Praise Thee, O God" at the 10:45 o'clock service of dedication. In the afternoon service, the children's choir will sing the "Magnificat" and the senior choir will sing "How Lovely is Thy Dwelling Place," by Brahms.

A buffet supper will be served by Faith Ladies Society following the afternoon service. Visitors will have an opportunity to inspect the new church and facilities.

The dedication of the present Faith Lutheran Church marks the third such occasion in the 19-year history of the congregation. The first church was built in 1949. The educational building was dedicated in June, 1960.



FAITH LUTHERAN CHURCH facade, as it appears today. Vast rebuilding program last year saw the walls and roof removed, capacity increased, new facilities and stained glass windows added. Dedication ceremonies for the ediface are planned Sunday.

The Rev. Edgar H. Behrens has served as pastor of the congregation since September 14, 1947. The Rev. C. David Stuckmeyer was installed as assistant pastor in April of 1965.

MEMBERS OF the building committee are: Paul Brna, chairman; Richard Wilke, Edwin Meyer, Alex Junkunc, Ronald Stahl, Raymond Roths, William Gruenes, William Arend, and the pastors.

An open house for the community will be held on Sunday, Feb. 6, beginning at 3 p.m. There will be guided tours of the building and refreshments served by the Faith Walther League.

Northwest Gals Rout Waukegan

The powerful Northwest suburban 'Y' girls swimming team rolls along.

Coach Lou Hibbs' gals overpowered Waukegan last weekend, 211-111, to remain unbeaten for the 1965-66 season.

The Northwest entry will journey to the West Suburban 'Y' in LaGrange this Saturday for a meet at 1 p.m.

Andy Sue Hibbs of Palatine sparked the win over Waukegan as she dominated the midgets division. She set a pool record in the 25 yard breaststroke with a 19.4 clocking and also won the 25 yard freestyle in 15.2 and 25 yard backstroke in 18.1.

Gail Schlak of Des Plaines won two events in the cadet class, topping the 25 freestyle and 25 butterfly.

In the junior division Cathy Rowe of Arlington Heights won the 50 yard freestyle in 29.4 and the 100 yard butterfly in 1:21.5. Hazel Bowen of Barrington also won two events.

Church Uses Contemporary Approach to Architecture

The new Faith Lutheran Church building is an enlargement of the original building constructed by the congregation in 1949. The chancel of the church has been rearranged using a contemporary approach to religious architecture. The architect is Walter Kroeber, A.I.A. & Associates of Arlington Heights. Claude Markstrom of Arlington Heights is the general contractor.

The new church expresses modern trends in architecture, yet has become an integral part of the former structure. The roof is supported by new arches while the side walls were rebuilt 4 feet farther out and extended so as to make the entire church 28 feet longer. The Wisconsin Lannon stone of the original building was reused.

NEW LAMINATED arches have replaced the old scissor trusses and created a structural arcade which has provided necessary additional seating and greatly improved the acoustics. The widening of the nave and enlargement of the balcony permit the seating of about 550 people.

The marble altar, set against the east wall, was dismantled and all of the materials reused. It has been freed spatially and brought forward, while the communion rail was re-worked so that it now surrounds the table. The new hanging cross has been prominently placed above the altar.

The cost of new construction and the memorials presented to the congregation amounted to $225,000, bringing the value of the congregation's property and facilities to $800,000.

THE REV. DR. Adalbert R. Kretzmann of Chicago, served as art consultant to the congregation. The iconography in the new stained and faceted glass windows represents the faith of God's people in both the Old and New Testament eras as it culminated in the Person of God's Son, Jesus Christ, the Savior.

The faceted glass window facing Arlington Heights Road shows people of all nations with the Risen Christ in the midst of them. It symbolizes the Biblical passage, "If Christ be not raised your faith is vain." I Corinthians 15:17.

The Conrad Pickel Studio, Inc. of New Berlin, Wis., created and installed the windows.

Faith Church Dedicates New Building Sunday

Schedule Three Services

Faith Lutheran Church of Arlington Heights will dedicate its new house of worship on Sunday. The church is located at 431 S. Arlington Heights Road.

Three services will be held: At 8 a.m., the Rev. Wesley H. Wilkie, instructor at Concordia College, River Forest, Ill., will preach. The Rev. Dr. Oswald C. Hoffmann, speaker on the Lutheran Hour, will preach at the festival service of dedication at 10:45 a.m.

A dedicatory choral vesper service will be held at 3:30 p.m. At this service, the stained glass windows and other memorials will be dedicated. The Rev. Dr. Adalbert R. Kretzmann, pastor of the Evangelical Lutheran Church of Saint Luke, Chicago, will preach.

The Rev. Edgar H. Behrens and the Rev. C. David Stuckmeyer, pastors of Faith Lutheran Church, will serve as officiants at the dedicatory services.

PROF. THEODORE A. Lams, chairman of the department of church music at Northwestern University, Evanston, is the organist and minister of music. The youth choir will sing "Praise to the Lord, the Almighty" at the 8 a.m. matins.

The primary choir will sing "Beautiful Savior" and the Faith senior choir will sing "We Praise Thee, O God" at the 10:45 o'clock service of dedication. In the afternoon service, the children's choir will sing the "Magnificat" and the senior choir will sing "How Lovely is Thy Dwelling Place," by Brahms.

A buffet supper will be served by Faith Ladies Society following the afternoon service. Visitors will have an opportunity to inspect the new church and facilities.

Paint, Repair, Build Picnic Tables

Winter Chores Keep Forest Employes Busy

BOB LEHMAN of Skokie chops down into the ice on the Des Plaines River to check the depth. If the water is not frozen thick enough signs are posted so that ice fishing is not allowed. (A15

by David J. Hanks
Staff Writer

It's clean up and repair time in the Cook and DuPage County Forest Preserves.

The winter months in the two preserves are not as relaxed as one might think. "A lot of work which can't be done in the summer because of lack of time must be done in the winter," one employe said.

This is in addition to work normally done in the winter season.

Jerry O'Conner, assistant supervisor of maintenance personnel at Cook County Forest Preserves, said the winter work comes "first." The snow and ice must be removed from all the roads, pathways, and walkways.

BESIDES THAT the tobogganing areas must be scraped, and areas near them must be cleared, O'Conner said.

After all this is completed the employees vary from repairing lawnmowers, and other power equipment, to rebuilding picnic tables and constructing new ones.

The areas, such as golf courses, which are not used in the winter, "must be gone over" and cleaned, said O'Conner.

O'Conner pointed out that this work is completed with less personnel. He said "employees work a seven day week during the summer." Because we don't give overtime, we give them a day off for every day of overtime they have worked," he said.

ONE OF THE biggest projects in the winter is the "Dutch elm program," he said. More than 10,000 diseased trees were removed from the preserves last year, he said.

Foresters find and mark the diseased trees in the summer but winter is the season they are removed. "It's a big project," O'Conner added because "we have to cut the trees down, cut up and burn them."

Other trees on the various parts of the preserves must be pruned in the winter. Trees along the horse, bridle and bicycle trails must be pruned, trimmed and "cleaned up," said O'Conner.

There are about 650 full-time employees in the winter and 900 in the summer.

THE TWO AREAS which serve the northwest suburbs employ about 35 workers, according to O'Conner. At the northwest division at Route 53 and Golf Road there are 15 while there are 20 at the Des Plaines division.

DuPage County Forest Preserve officials say their program in the winter is a growing one. As in Cook county, workers spend a great deal of time in the winter on maintenance and repair projects.

Motors are reconditioned, mowers are repaired, trucks are repainted, and of course, trash and garbage collection continues through the winter.

DuPage County doesn't have as many recreational areas for winter sports as does Cook but employes must still plow snow and ice parking areas, entranceways and near tobogganing areas.

THIS YEAR the preserve embarked upon a picnic table building program. William Brauer, assistant to the superintendent, said they are busy building new tables to add to their supply and are rebuilding ones that have been damaged.

They also make up all directional and other signs in the winter months. (A-15

REPAIRING PICNIC tables is a big job in the winter for the Cook and DuPage County Forest Preserve employees. Two workers repair one that has become inadequate. New tables also are built during the slack season. (A15

Unincorporated Park Of County Shrinks

Cook County President Seymour Simon has announced that the part of the county under his jurisdiction is continuing to shrink. As of Jan. 1, 1966, only 318 square miles of unincorporated area remain.

During 1965, 13 square miles were annexed to either Chicago or suburban municipalities. Chicago now has 227 square miles, while the suburbs total 411 square miles.

As recently as 1961, 383 of Cook County's 956 square miles were unincorporated. The total dropped to 371 in 1962 and 360 in 1963. The 347-mark was reached in 1964.

Simon stated that he welcomes the trend toward annexation because government closer to the people is actually the best government. He challenged the residents of the remaining unincorporated areas to bring the figure under 300 square miles in 1966. (B-10

Donna Rae Faro, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald Faro, 1221 E. Euclid, Arlington Heights and Susan Bornheoft, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Bornhoeft Jr., 647 Parson, Des Plaines are members of the 62-voice St. Olaf Choir, Northfield, Minn.

Miss Faro, a senior, and Miss Bornheoft, a junior, will accompany the choir on its annual tour which begins Feb. 1. Nineteen concerts are scheduled throughout the central and southeastern states.

Dramatics Fraternity

Robert Schuler, son of the Vernon Schulers, 60 N. Wolf Road, Wheeling, was initiated into membership of Illinois Delta Chapter of Theta Alpha Phi.

Schuler is an Illinois State University student and qualified for membership by having accumulated 60 points for work in university theatre productions.

Medicare Answers at Randhurst

Representatives from the Social Security Administration will be at the Town Hall in the Randhurst Shopping Center, Mount Prospect, tomorrow (Friday) from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. to discuss the provisions of the new health insurance program for people 65 or over.

Nearly everyone 65 or older can get medicare protection through Social Security — hospital insurance to help pay hospital bills and voluntary medical insurance to help pay doctors' bills, the Social Security Administration says.

"If you were 65 or over on or before Jan. 1, 1966, you must apply for the medical insurance by March 31 to be protected when medicare starts in July. If you don't sign up by March 31, you may have to wait two years to get this protection. The voluntary plan will cost you $3 a month and the government will pay another $3 for your protection," Social Security points out.

Campus Capers

A Cappella Choir

Gail Elgh, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Elgh, 20 Glenbrook Drive, Prospect Heights, and Tom McGrath, son of the Joseph McGraths, 1222 Woodford Place, Arlington Heights, are members of a 64-voice a cappella choir at Carthage College, Kenosha. Bob Renner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Renner, 1710 Surrey Ridge Drive, Arlington Heights, is also a member.

The choir begins Jan. 16 to tour 14 cities in two states and have 16 concerts scheduled.

Under the direction of William Roth, Miss Elgh sings soprano and McGrath and Renner are tenors. (10CC

Atom Research Site Still Being Studied

Whether or not a $300-million research facility will be located in Illinois and whether or not the site will be somewhere in the Chicago suburban area remains in the speculative stage.

Information about the plant, which would employ 3,000 technical and support personnel, is still under raps by the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC).

A possibility of canceling the project has developed with the tight finances existing for domestic programs as the Viet Nam war is expanded.

A SPOKESMAN in U. S. Rep. Donald Rumsfeld's office said the House atomic energy committee is duscussing the budgetary problems. Reducing the size of the project or expansion of existing plants also are being considered.

Several suburban sites have been found acceptable for the center by AEC inspectors. One is in South Barrington, another near Wauconda, one near Weston in DuPage County and another near the Argonne Laboratories.

State Rep. John A. Kennedy, one of Gov. Kerner's consultants on scientific development, commented last week that as of Jan. 19 no one in the governor's office knows what will happen or which, if any, of the sites will be chosen.

"There was a rumor in Springfield that there would be a semi-final list of sites issued," Kennedy said. "But now they're saying any announcement will be only for the site itself."

HE SAID no public information is being given out at all.

While representatives of Illinois have been promoting a northern Illinois site vigorously, sites in any one of 44 other states could be chosen.

The AEC was to ask Congress for $7.5 million to start work on the center in 1966 and $300 million in 1967. Completion was tentatively set for 1974.

Winter Chores Keep Forest Employes Busy

It's clean up and repair time in the Cook and DuPage County Forest Preserves.

The winter months in the two preserves are not as relaxed as one might think. "A lot of work which can't be done in the summer because of lack of time must be done in the winter," one employe said.

This is in addition to work normally done in the winter season.

Jerry O'Conner, assistant supervisor of maintenance personnel at Cook County Forest Preserves, said the winter work comes "first." The snow and ice must be removed from all the roads, pathways, and walkways.

BESIDES THAT the tobogganing areas must be scraped, and areas near them must be cleared, O'Conner said.

After all this is completed the employees vary from repairing lawnmowers, and other power equipment, to rebuilding picnic tables and constructing new ones.

The areas, such as golf courses, which are not used in the winter, "must be gone over" and cleaned, said O'Conner.

O'Conner pointed out that this work is completed with less personnel. He said "employees work a seven day week during the summer." Because we don't give overtime, we give them a day off for every day of overtime they have worked," he said.

ONE OF THE biggest projects in the winter is the "Dutch elm program," he said. More than 10,000 diseased trees were removed from the preserves last year, he said.

Foresters find and mark the diseased trees in the summer but winter is the season they are removed. "It's a big project," O'Conner added because "we have to cut the trees down, cut up and burn them."

Other trees on the various parts of the preserves must be pruned in the winter. Trees along the horse, bridle and bicycle trails must be pruned, trimmed and "cleaned up," said O'Conner.

There are about 650 full-time employees in the winter and 900 in the summer.

THE TWO AREAS which serve the northwest suburbs employ about 35 workers, according to O'Conner. At the northwest division at Route 53 and Golf Road there are 15 while there are 20 at the Des Plaines division.

DuPage County Forest Preserve officials say their program in the winter is a growing one. As in Cook county, workers spend a great deal of time in the winter on maintenance and repair projects.

Motors are reconditioned, mowers are repaired, trucks are repainted, and of course, trash and garbage collection continues through the winter.

DuPage County doesn't have as many recreational areas for winter sports as does Cook but employes must still plow snow and ice parking areas, entranceways and near tobogganing areas.

THIS YEAR the preserve embarked upon a picnic table building program. William Brauer, assistant to the superintendent, said they are busy building new tables to add to their supply and are rebuilding ones that have been damaged.

They also make up all directional and other signs in the winter months. (A-15

REPAIRING PICNIC tables is a big job in the winter for the Cook and DuPage County Forest Preserve employees. Two workers repair one that has become inadequate. New tables also are built during the slack season. (A15

Unincorporated Park Of County Shrinks

Cook County President Seymour Simon has announced that the part of the county under his jurisdiction is continuing to shrink. As of Jan. 1, 1966, only 318 square miles of unincorporated area remain.

During 1965, 13 square miles were annexed to either Chicago or suburban municipalities. Chicago now has 227 square miles, while the suburbs total 411 square miles.

As recently as 1961, 383 of Cook County's 956 square miles were unincorporated. The total dropped to 371 in 1962 and 360 in 1963. The 347-mark was reached in 1964.

Simon stated that he welcomes the trend toward annexation because government closer to the people is actually the best government. He challenged the residents of the remaining unincorporated areas to bring the figure under 300 square miles in 1966. (B-10

Representatives from the Social Security Administration will be at the Town Hall in the Randhurst Shopping Center, Mount Prospect, tomorrow (Friday) from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. to discuss the provisions of the new health insurance program for people 65 or over.

Nearly everyone 65 or older can get medicare protection through Social Security — hospital insurance to help pay hospital bills and voluntary medical insurance to help pay doctors' bills, the Social Security Administration says.

"If you were 65 or over on or before Jan. 1, 1966, you must apply for the medical insurance by March 31 to be protected when medicare starts in July. If you don't sign up by March 31, you may have to wait two years to get this protection. The voluntary plan will cost you $3 a month and the government will pay another $3 for your protection," Social Security points out.

Salt Creek Planning Urged to Avoid Future Flooding

by Barbara MacEachron
Staff Writer

"There are 500 homes, mostly in DuPage County, that are subject to flooding from Salt Creek, because we have ignored the basic facts. We have severe problems in Salt Creek that have been neglected."

These were the facts stated by Dr. Jack Shaeffer, geologist, as he spoke at the 14th annual meeting of the North Cook County Soil and Water Conservation District held last week in Schaumburg.

Dr. Shaeffer, in his capacity as resources planning officer for the Northeast Metropolitan Planning Commission, and area conservationists outlined flood and water control methods and reported on the status of the Salt Creek Watershed application.

Shaeffer called for intelligent planning to prevent flooding in areas that are not yet built up in the creek basin. He indicated that 10 per cent of the area is subject to flooding and this percentage could increase as the area is built up with residential, commercial and industrial buildings. "Failure to act means fewer alternatives each year," he said.

ILLUSTRATING his talk with maps and slides, he showed areas where intelligent use and chanelling of water resources have made them an asset instead of a liability.

One of the examples cited was the Flick-Reedy plant near Bensenville, where the dredging of lagoons before construction provided fill for the building on high ground, run off areas for water which became their industrial supply, and small lakes for recreation and beauty.

Shaeffer commented that one of the major problems to be encountered in a far-spread water project is that of overlapping authority of agencies and municipalities. This can often stall or prevent progress on a plan that covers a large area.

"Water management does not depend on Federal action; it must be done with good, active local leadership," he added.

ELMER E. OFFERMAN, acting area conservationist from the U. S. Soil and Conservation Service, outlined the Salt Creek Watershed project application and its relation to P.L. 566, passed some 10 years ago. He said any plan must include consideration of land treatment, flood prevention, and agricultural and non-agricultural water management.

He pointed out the added benefits that such a plan could bring, such as new water recreation sources and fish and wildlife areas. These would be a natural result of a well-planned flood control and water management plan.

The Salt Creek plan is a multipurpose project and goes back to early 1964, when plans were submitted to the state for approval, passed on to Washington, and are now back in area federal offices. The application is for a cooperative and comprehensive project that would provide maximum water usage as well as flood control measures for the entire Salt Creek basin.

THE PLAN has been cosponsored by the Cook County Forest Preserve District, the DuPage County Forest Preserve District, the North Cook County Soil and Water Conservation District and the Kane-DuPage Soil and Water Conservation District.

The Northeast Metropolitan Planning Commission has made a complete study of the Salt Creek basin, in cooperation with conservation departments. The next steps involve plans by landowners and municipalities for land treatment.

The unanswered question remains. How would such a vast project be financed? Possibilities mentioned include the forest preserve districts, sanitary districts, individual counties, any combination of these or the setting up of a separate tax district in the area affected.

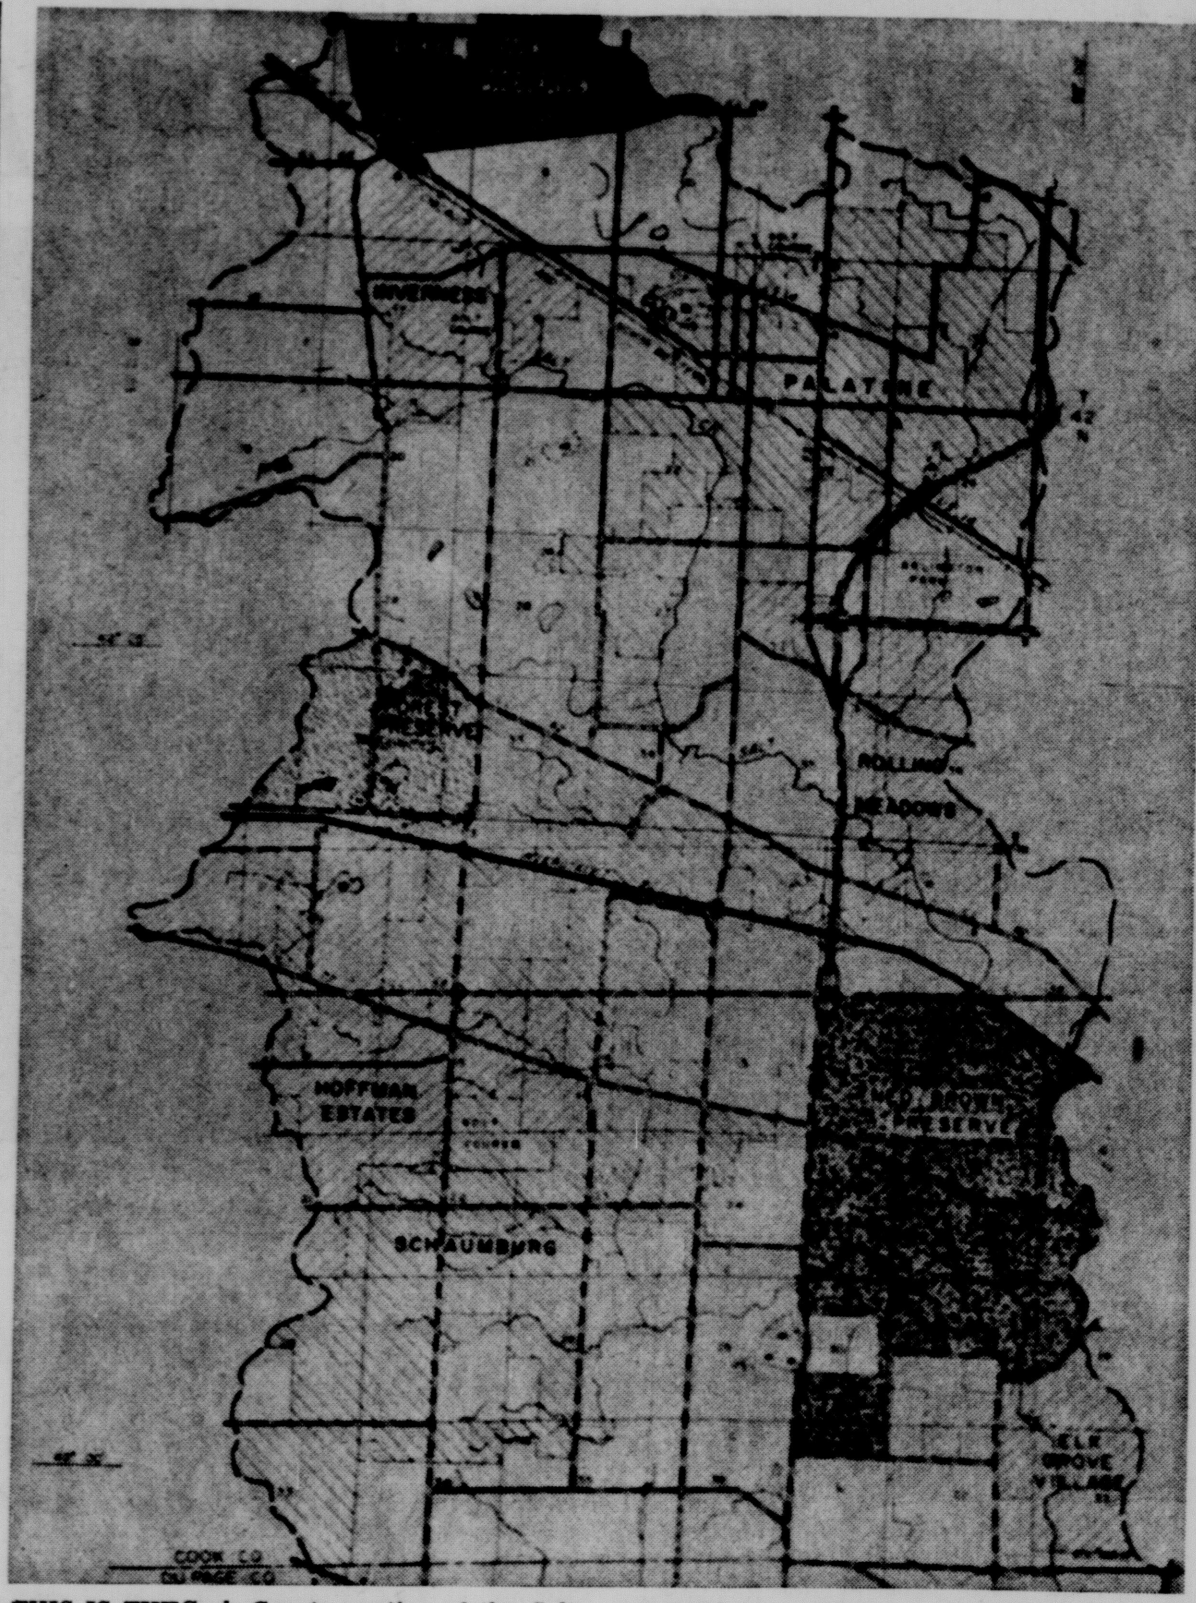
The Salt Creek area covers 72,000 acres, beginning near the Lake County line in the Deer Grove area, traveling down through central Cook County and into DuPage County, ending near Brookfield, where the creek empties into the Des Plaines River.

IN A WELCOMING address at the beginning of the meeting, Schaumburg Village Pres. Robert Atcher issued the challenge of the importance of water planning. "It is important for the whole of North Cook County. If we don't do it now, it will be too expensive later and may never be done," he stated.

Re-elected district directors of the NCCSWCD were Keith Chidley, Palatine; Frank Wollney, Barrington and Ellsworth Meineke, Schaumburg. They will serve along with directors John Biddle, Palatine and Ferris Gaskill, Barrington.

As part of the program, Carl Klehm of Carl Klehm nurseries presented a talk and slides on "Shrubs and Trees That Can Be Effective in Attracting Songbirds."

Clifton H. Wishau, U. S. soil conservationist from the Lake Zurich office, reported as accomplishments of the past year 200 cooperators in the North Cook district, 160 services provided, three ponds completed and program aid provided schools and scouts. (A-15



THIS IS THE Cook County portion of the Salt Creek drainage basin. Dr. John Schaeffer of the Northeast Illinois Planning Commission reported on problems concerning Salt Creek at a meeting last week in Schaumburg. (A15

The Law Serves You

A Public Service of the
ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

THURS., JAN. 27, 1966

Article No. 4

How many times have you heard someone say that a contract is not binding unless it is in writing, or unless a witness was present when it was made? Do you think this statement is true?

In Illinois there are very definite laws dealing with this subject. Contracts dealing with certain matters are not enforceable in court if they are not written and signed by the parties involved, while other contracts need not be written, and are enforceable in court although made only orally. If you tell this to your friends, many of them will be surprised, and you can expect some of them to ask how an oral contract can be proven in court.

The answer is that the contracting parties take the witness stand, and testify under oath that the contract was made and what its terms were. Of course, it sometimes happens that the parties testify to different versions, and then it is up to the jury to decide which of the parties is testifying accurately. In such a case, the testimony of a witness who is not connected with the case is very valuable.

Three Types of Contracts

Just what contracts must be expressed in writing in order to be legally enforceable in Illinois? The three most familiar types are for the purchase of land, any promise which will take over a year to perform, and for a purchase of personal property for an amount above $500.

Although these contracts cannot be enforced if they are not in writing, they are not void. The law has come to be that an oral contract, unenforceable when made, may become enforceable if the parties begin to perform under it. Of course, if both parties fully perform their part of the agreement, the contract is fulfilled and cannot be set aside.

It is always wise to put a contract in writing if it concerns a matter of importance, or if its terms are complicated even though the law does not require it to be written to be enforceable because the opportunities for fraud, perjury, and dispute over terms are considerably lessened.

"The Law Serves You" is written to inform and not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without consulting his attorney. Even a slight difference in the facts may change the result under the law. (A15

The Northeast Metropolitan Planning Commission has made a complete study of the Salt Creek basin, in cooperation with conservation departments. The next steps involve plans by landowners and municipalities for land treatment.

The unanswered question remains. How would such a vast project be financed? Possibilities mentioned include the forest preserve districts, sanitary districts, individual counties, any combination of these or the setting up of a separate tax district in the area affected.

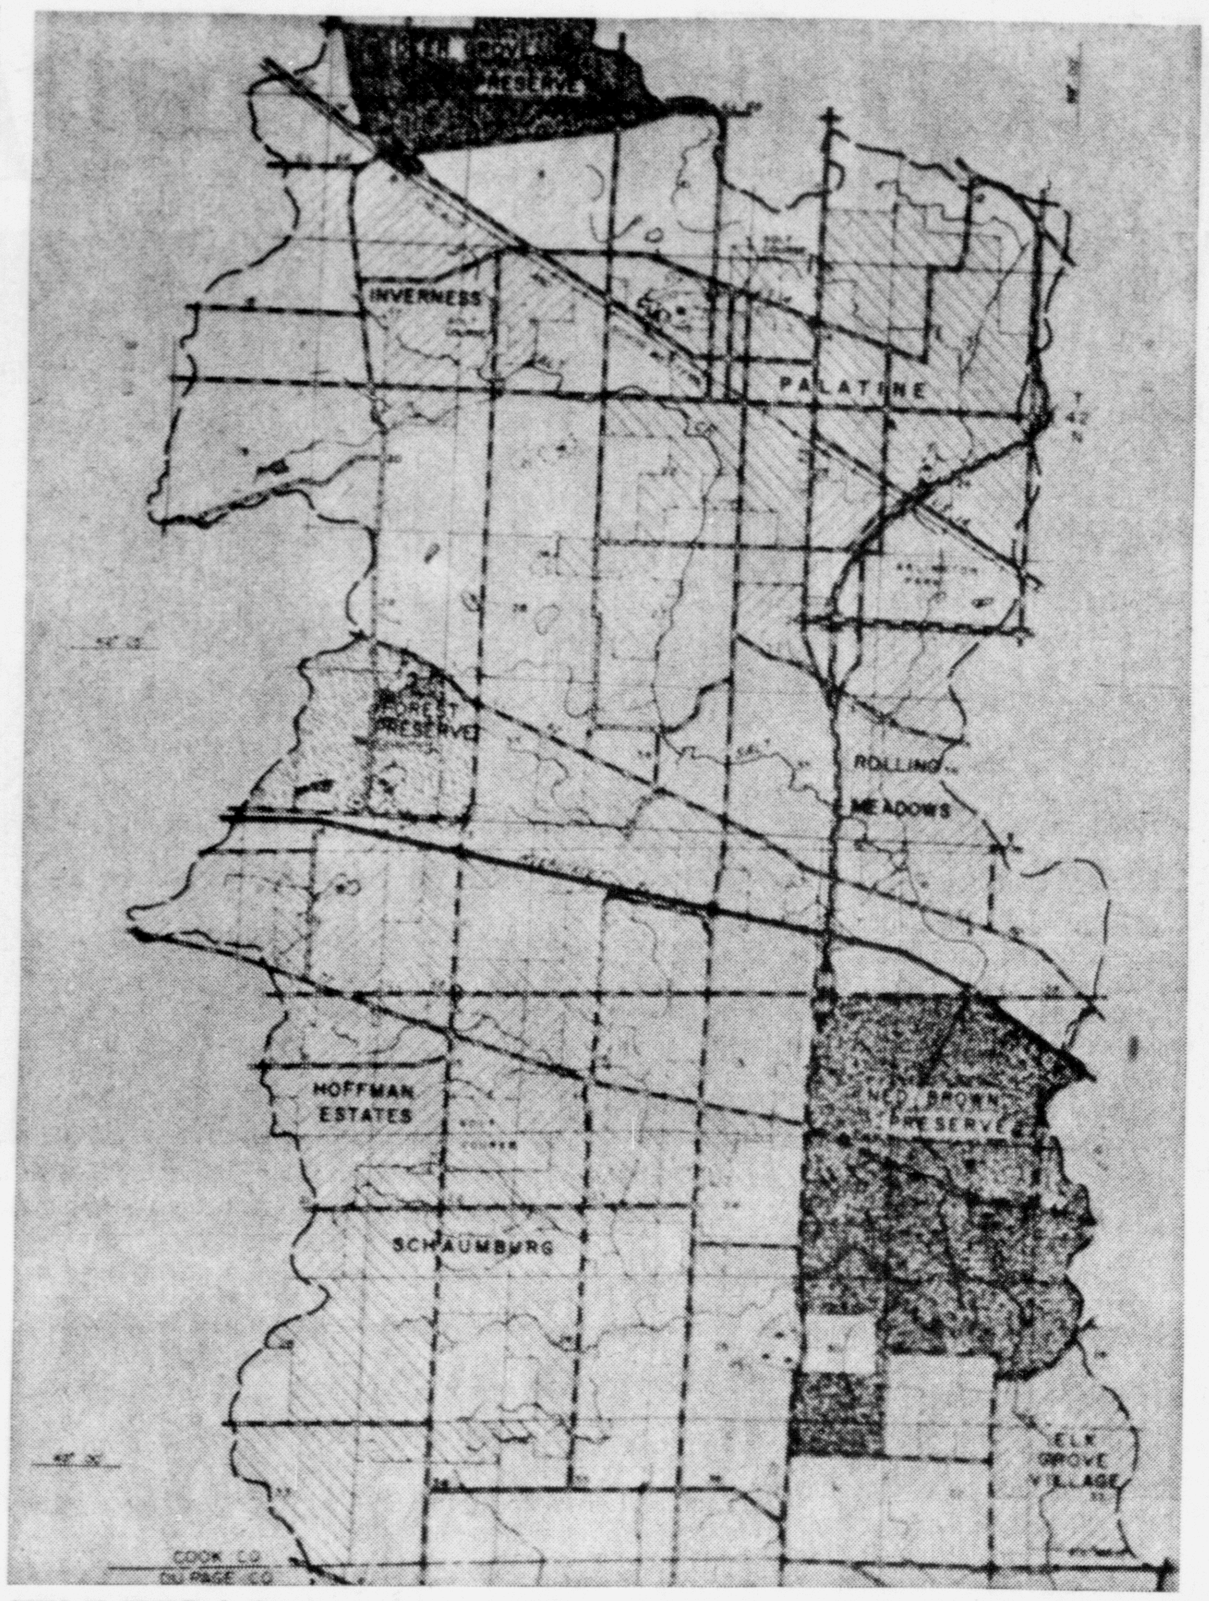
The Salt Creek area covers 72,000 acres, beginning near the Lake County line in the Deer Grove area, traveling down through central Cook County and into DuPage County, ending near Brookfield, where the creek empties into the Des Plaines River.

IN A WELCOMING address at the beginning of the meeting, Schaumburg Village Pres. Robert Atcher issued the challenge of the importance of water planning. "It is important for the whole of North Cook County. If we don't do it now, it will be too expensive later and may never be done," he stated.

Re-elected district directors of the NCCSWCD were Keith Chidley, Palatine; Frank Wollney, Barrington and Ellsworth Meineke, Schaumburg. They will serve along with directors John Biddle, Palatine and Ferris Gaskill, Barrington.

As part of the program, Carl Klehm of Carl Klehm nurseries presented a talk and slides on "Shrubs and Trees That Can Be Effective in Attracting Songbirds."

Clifton H. Wishau, U. S. soil conservationist from the Lake Zurich office, reported as accomplishments of the past year 200 cooperators in the North Cook district, 160 services provided, three ponds completed and program aid provided schools and scouts. (A-15



THIS IS THE Cook County portion of the Salt Creek drainage basin. Dr. John Schaeffer of the Northeast Illinois Planning Commission reported on problems concerning Salt Creek at a meeting last week in Schaumburg. (A15

The Law Serves You

A Public Service of the
ILLINOIS STATE BAR ASSOCIATION

THURS., JAN. 27, 1966

Article No. 4

How many times have you heard someone say that a contract is not binding unless it is in writing, or unless a witness was present when it was made? Do you think this statement is true?

In Illinois there are very definite laws dealing with this subject. Contracts dealing with certain matters are not enforceable in court if they are not written and signed by the parties involved, while other contracts need not be written, and are enforceable in court although made only orally. If you tell this to your friends, many of them will be surprised, and you can expect some of them to ask how an oral contract can be proven in court.

The answer is that the contracting parties take the witness stand, and testify under oath that the contract was made and what its terms were. Of course, it sometimes happens that the parties testify to different versions, and then it is up to the jury to decide which of the parties is testifying accurately. In such a case, the testimony of a witness who is not connected with the case is very valuable.

Three Types of Contracts

Just what contracts must be expressed in writing in order to be legally enforceable in Illinois? The three most familiar types are for the purchase of land, any promise which will take over a year to perform, and for a purchase of personal property for an amount above $500.

Although these contracts cannot be enforced if they are not in writing, they are not void. The law has come to be that an oral contract, unenforceable when made, may become enforceable if the parties begin to perform under it. Of course, if both parties fully perform their part of the agreement, the contract is fulfilled and cannot be set aside.

It is always wise to put a contract in writing if it concerns a matter of importance, or if its terms are complicated even though the law does not require it to be written to be enforceable because the opportunities for fraud, perjury, and dispute over terms are considerably lessened.

"The Law Serves You" is written to inform and not to advise. No person should ever apply or interpret any law without consulting his attorney. Even a slight difference in the facts may change the result under the law. (A15

Pupils Given First Look at 'Live' Theatre

by Joan Lorenson
Staff Writer

The image of the suburban child steeped in culture is false.

In suburban high schools in the area, few students have seen live theatre.

Arlington High School intends its optional field trips to begin filling the cultural gap for its students. A trip taken last Wednesday by 177 freshman English students was aimed at introducing children to live professional theatre.

In this typical field trip, the freshmen underwent no intensive preparation before seeing the performance. They would write no themes, participate in no discussion groups weighing the play's merits, or answer any tests about what they saw.

The play chosen was purposely light.

DOUGLAS MURPHY, an English and speech teacher at Arlington High School, frankly eschews an educational approach. "Ultimately they learn much more if they go for entertainment," Murphy believes.

The one exception to the rule of not tying work to the attendance of a play is when it involves Shakespeare.

Mary Ellen Grasso explained whey she purposely chose the musical, "Hello Dolly," for introducing the freshmen to theatre. The color, the music, and the story line would hold the interest of all the students. She hoped it would whet their interest, making them want to see more plays.

"Funny Girl" would not have interested the classes as much since most students are unfamiliar with Fanny Brice, subject of the play, she decided.

THE TRIP TO see a play is purely optional. Students pay for their tickets and $1 fee for bus transportation. One teacher said, "The district administration is conscious about what parents think about spending money. We never can tell kids they must go to something like this."

Teachers, as a result, do a selling job to interest their students in field trips. One day a month is set for the field trip day in District 214 high schools.

One teacher admitted certain trips had quick sign-up response because it was the "in" thing to be doing.

Students going to a play do not sit in blocks of seats and they may choose the price range of ticket they buy. Teachers give them a simple sketch of the theatre seating layout.

FEW OF THE freshmen going to "Hello Dolly" had seen an adult play before though most had lived in the suburbs all their lives. Children's theatre productions were unknown to the majority. A few had performed in or seen class produced plays or operettas.

The reasons the teenagers gave for going to the play were simple: their teacher made it sound like fun, friends were going, they'd heard of Carol Channing, star of the show, or they'd wanted to see a play A few mentioned their parents were going to see this play.

Blonde Kathy Waara of Arlington Heights, said "It's an opportunity for anyone since tickets are so hard to get." She was one of the few who had seen children's plays produced by Goodman Theatre.

MRS. GRASSO like most teachers had prepared her students for the play by giving them information on the story and background of the play and actress Carol Channing.

Murphy makes a practice of reading reviews about plays. Whether his students do or do not go to the plays in the area, he believes they should be informed of what is going on.

Almost without exception, the teenagers enjoyed this taste of theatre going. They liked the color, the music, and the star. "It was really neat," one freckle faced boy summed it up for a cluster of boys in the back of the bus.

CAROL CHANNING met all the students' expectations though one girl criticized "she kissed it up too much" in taking her curtain calls. Others observed weak points in the play, such as the slow first act adults also had complained about.

Though the play-going cannot be considered an integral part of English courses, it introduces students to the experience. If the freshmen kept their enthusiasm, they would be return sign-ups for future trips. And the more plays they saw, the more sophisticated they would become in judging them. (A15

THE THEATRE has a little more meaning to Bob Crockett, 711 E. Fairview; Sue Johnson, 302 N. Dwyer; and Nancy Grabow, 1201 N. Mitchell. They were among the freshmen who went on a field trip to see the play, "Hello Dolly." For many the field trips provide the first introduction and glimmers of understanding about live professional theatre.

TV HOME MOVIES

by ED LANDWEHR

A year ago we thought that the TV home movie camera would take the fancy of the public, and by this time LANDWEHR TV would be servicing them for many folks. But the price is still not practical, being around $4,000 average, although cheaper ones sell for just under a thousand.

If prices could be reduced with better production, I believe the public would use a TV camera. They're less costly to operate than the regular home movie film camera, and you would have the advantage of instant playback with sound as well. Your present TV set projects the pictures through its tubes and audio through the speaker system. You need no separate projector.

But meanwhile, keep the TV phone number CLearbrook 5-0700 handy for any other kind of electronic services as well as television, or stop in at 218 N. Dunton, Arlington Heights. You'll like our work.

Leaguers Attend Chicago Meeting

Area League of Women Voter members attended a meeting in Chicago Wednesday in which speakers discussed de facto segregation and Job Corps problems.

Mrs. W. Eugene Pharis, an LWV national board member, addressed the group on the role leaguers can play in encouraging equal opportunity in education and employment.

She put special emphasis on a study she had made of de facto segregation.

ADDRESSING the group on another aspect of the War on Poverty was Dr. Robert MacVicar, academic vice president of Southern Illinois University. It was SIU that was in charge of the much-criticized Camp Breckenridge, Ky., Job Corps center.

Dr. MacVicar's topic was "Southern Illinois University Serves the Disadvantaged."

Attending the meeting as representatives of the Arlington Heights LWV were Mrs. Dwight Walton of Arlington Heights, chairman of the local LWV's human resources study; Mrs. Robert Jacks, also of Arlington Heights; Mrs. Ethan Janove, Hoffman Estates, and Mrs. William Trevor, Rolling Meadows.

Experts to Teach Gardening Classes

Leading garden experts of the Midwest will be featured in an adult education course in gardening, especially designed for homeowners, starting Wednesday, Feb. 2. This course consists of weekly lectures covering every phase of gardening applied to trees, shrubs, lawns, annuals and perennials.

Problems of soil, fertilizers, insect and disease pests, and how to plan a garden will be fully discussed.

The course is offered at Prospect High School, 801 Kensington Road, Mount Prospect. Sessions continue each Wednesday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. and include in addition to the lecture a one hour period dealing with questions from the class.

AFTER EIGHT weekly classes at the high school there will be two Saturday morning sessions, outdoors, on dates agreed upon by the class, one for a practical demonstration of how to prune a tree and shrubs, and the other a complete tour of one of the largest and most diversified nurseries in the midwest.

Among the lecturers are Carl F. Dietz of Addison, research director of Vaughan Seed Co., Richard DeLano of Rolling Meadows, horticulturist of the University of Illinois Extension Service, Jacob Kramer of Evanston, horticulturist of Chicago Park District, Carl Klehm of Charles Klehm and Sons Nursery of Arlington Heights, Richard A. Schroeder, Nurseryman of Grayslake, John A. Voight, director, Whitnall Park, Milwaukee, and G. E. Bruington, sales manager of garden chemicals and foods of Swift and Co. (A-15

SQUARE DANCE CLUB NEWS

Dorothy Meyer CL 3-2298

January got you down? Wish you could shake the mid-winter blues? Weekend schedules of area square dance clubs promise prompt and happy relief — f'rinstance: a luau capsule, Plaids and Calicos' instant Hawaiian holiday; Bucks and Does' "fifth Saturday" dance a multi-ingredient remedy; Arlington Squares' elixir with tincture of travelog; A-C Square Wheels' "Fun-aree," guaranteed to cure 'most anything.

P AND C LUAU

King Kamehameha leia it on the line — if Saturday night's doings in James B. Conant High School don't put spring in your step, he'll flip his hibiscus. Although tickets are sold out for the main feature of luau — food —there will be after-dinner entertainment and dancing, with tickets available at the door of the Hoffman Estates school. Hawaiian-decorated halls and Hawaiian-born caller Bob Kim will open a new course of beginners' lessons, and he's taking registrations until mid-February. Classes will be held weekly. Call him, 529-6089, for full details or to register.

B AND D FIFTH

Elk Grovers plan a big "special" any time there's a fifth Saturday in the month, and January's fifth has so many extras it'll be impossible not to dump the doldrums if you'll join the crowd in Dempster Junior High School. There will be seven callers at the mike— the night is designated as "Kissin' Kuzzins" night—amateur callers will be given a chance to test their skills on the dancers. Outside of that, it'll be a routine evening of Bucks and Does type fun. The school is located on Dempster Street, just west of Route 83; the time is 8 o'clock; the rest is up to you. Have fun.

Bucks and Does are holding a workshop every Tuesday night in Depster School, with an intermediate class in one hall and a beginners' class in another. Give Danny Hagen a buzz (824-3870) if you'd like to join 'em.

TRAVELOG TONIC

Arlington Squares' method of lifting the late-January lull is to schedule a dance with a traveling theme. They're not telling where they'll take you Friday night (within the confines of Miner Junior High School) but you can bet you'll forget that you're in chilly Arlington Heights.

Lenny Roos, master lull-lifter, will square 'em up at 8:30 immediately following Jerry and Dot Daniels' 7:30 round dance workshop. Special guests will be Russ Lees' beginners' class from Northbrook. Travel over to Miner School, 1101 E. Miner, for a Friday nightful of fun.

Membership in the club for the second half of the season is still open. Leo Larson, CL 5-1074, is the man to call for information.

A-C FUN-a-REE

Deerfield's A-C Square Wheels have a cure-all coming up Saturday night that will add a dose of midnight-to-2 a.m. fun to the initial treatment that lasts from 8 to 11:30. "Fun-a-Ree" comes first, with the club's head medicine man, Joe Gipson, in consultation with "Doc" Adams and Jerry Whitebread. Next is "Buff-a-Ree"— a midnight buffet and more dancing. Fun results are guaranteed.

First half of the therapy will be in Wheeling High School, 900 S. Elmhurst Rd. (Route 83), where Gipson will share the mike with guest callers Adams and Whitebread. Rounds will be cued by Glen and Elaine Dolmar. To sugar-coat everything, there'll be some surprise bonus gifts given away.

Part two, beginning at midnight, will take place in Wheeling's Union Hotel, 124 S. Milwaukee Ave. Further information is available via Ralph Cedergren, 537-5110. (A-15

Leaguers Attend Chicago Meeting

Area League of Women Voter members attended a meeting in Chicago Wednesday in which speakers discussed de facto segregation and Job Corps problems.

Mrs. W. Eugene Pharis, an LWV national board member, addressed the group on the role leaguers can play in encouraging equal opportunity in education and employment.

She put special emphasis on a study she had made of de facto segregation.

ADDRESSING the group on another aspect of the War on Poverty was Dr. Robert MacVicar, academic vice president of Southern Illinois University. It was SIU that was in charge of the much-criticized Camp Breckenridge, Ky., Job Corps center.

Dr. MacVicar's topic was "Southern Illinois University Serves the Disadvantaged."

Attending the meeting as representatives of the Arlington Heights LWV were Mrs. Dwight Walton of Arlington Heights, chairman of the local LWV's human resources study; Mrs. Robert Jacks, also of Arlington Heights; Mrs. Ethan Janove, Hoffman Estates, and Mrs. William Trevor, Rolling Meadows.

Experts to Teach Gardening Classes

Leading garden experts of the Midwest will be featured in an adult education course in gardening, especially designed for homeowners, starting Wednesday, Feb. 2. This course consists of weekly lectures covering every phase of gardening applied to trees, shrubs, lawns, annuals and perennials.

Problems of soil, fertilizers, insect and disease pests, and how to plan a garden will be fully discussed.

The course is offered at Prospect High School, 801 Kensington Road, Mount Prospect. Sessions continue each Wednesday from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. and include in addition to the lecture a one hour period dealing with questions from the class.

AFTER EIGHT weekly classes at the high school there will be two Saturday morning sessions, outdoors, on dates agreed upon by the class, one for a practical demonstration of how to prune a tree and shrubs, and the other a complete tour of one of the largest and most diversified nurseries in the midwest.

Among the lecturers are Carl F. Dietz of Addison, research director of Vaughan Seed Co., Richard DeLano of Rolling Meadows, horticulturist of the University of Illinois Extension Service, Jacob Kramer of Evanston, horticulturist of Chicago Park District, Carl Klehm of Charles Klehm and Sons Nursery of Arlington Heights, Richard A. Schroeder, Nurseryman of Grayslake, John A. Voight, director, Whitnall Park, Milwaukee, and G. E. Bruington, sales manager of garden chemicals and foods of Swift and Co. (A-15

Dorothy Meyer CL 3-2298

January got you down? Wish you could shake the mid-winter blues? Weekend schedules of area square dance clubs promise prompt and happy relief — f'rinstance: a luau capsule, Plaids and Calicos' instant Hawaiian holiday; Bucks and Does' "fifth Saturday" dance a multi-ingredient remedy; Arlington Squares' elixir with tincture of travelog; A-C Square Wheels' "Fun-aree," guaranteed to cure 'most anything.

P AND C LUAU

King Kamehameha leia it on the line — if Saturday night's doings in James B. Conant High School don't put spring in your step, he'll flip his hibiscus. Although tickets are sold out for the main feature of luau — food —there will be after-dinner entertainment and dancing, with tickets available at the door of the Hoffman Estates school. Hawaiian-decorated halls and Hawaiian-born caller Bob Kim will open a new course of beginners' lessons, and he's taking registrations until mid-February. Classes will be held weekly. Call him, 529-6089, for full details or to register.

B AND D FIFTH

Elk Grovers plan a big "special" any time there's a fifth Saturday in the month, and January's fifth has so many extras it'll be impossible not to dump the doldrums if you'll join the crowd in Dempster Junior High School. There will be seven callers at the mike—the night is designated as "Kissin' Kuzzins" night—amateur callers will be given a chance to test their skills on the dancers. Outside of that, it'll be a routine evening of Bucks and Does type fun. The school is located on Dempster Street, just west of Route 83; the time is 8 o'clock; the rest is up to you. Have fun.

Bucks and Does are holding a workshop every Tuesday night in Depster School, with an intermediate class in one hall and a beginners' class in another. Give Danny Hagen a buzz (824-3870) if you'd like to join 'em.

TRAVELOG TONIC

Arlington Squares' method of lifting the late-January lull is to schedule a dance with a traveling theme. They're not telling where they'll take you Friday night (within the confines of Miner Junior High School) but you can bet you'll forget that you're in chilly Arlington Heights.

Lenny Roos, master lull-lifter, will square 'em up at 8:30 immediately following Jerry and Dot Daniels' 7:30 round dance workshop. Special guests will be Russ Lees' beginners' class from Northbrook. Travel over to Miner School, 1101 E. Miner, for a Friday nightful of fun.

Membership in the club for the second half of the season is still open. Leo Larson, CL 5-1074, is the man to call for information.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

Next Summer, It's Destination France!

That teenager humming "Gay Paree, Gay Paree" behind you in the supermarket may actually be in France six months from now.

Furthermore, he'll be getting high school credit while he's there.

At least 20 High School District 214 students will go to Europe this summer under a new "French Abroad" program approved by the district's administrative council, headed by Supt. H. L. Slichenmyer.

Accompanying the students will be a Wheeling high school foreign language teacher, Mrs. Miriam Wood, and her husband, Tim, who teaches science at Western Springs.

The chance for the trip abroad has really attracted a lot of student interest, Mrs. Wood says. Already she has received letters of recommendation from teachers of 12 northwest suburban students who'd like to make the trip.

ONE YEAR OF high school French is a requirement. Though a deeper background in the language would be a help, Mrs. Wood doesn't think it's a necessity. "They'll pick it up soon enough," she said.

Quimper, a town of 24,000 in southeast Brittany, will be the summer destination of the local students. There the teenagers will attend a lycee—like a high school—with an international student body. Their European civilization and language classes will be taught in French, by professors from the University of Rennes.

The tentative schedule set up by Mrs. Wood, by arrangement with the French Ministry of Education and the American Council for Study Abroad, calls for the local group to leave July 5 by jet for London, do some touring before settling down in Quimper for the summer, and then take a bus tour in August before flying home Aug. 16. They'll spend a week in Paris.

Credit for the course will be given by Maine East High School and accepted by the District 214 authorities. Cost of the trip will be approximately $900, Mrs. Wood says.

Other high school student groups will also be sent by Downers Grove, New Trier and Crown Point, Ind.

Next Summer, It's Destination France!

That teenager humming "Gay Paree, Gay Paree" behind you in the supermarket may actually be in France six months from now.

Furthermore, he'll be getting high school credit while he's there.

At least 20 High School District 214 students will go to Europe this summer under a new "French Abroad" program approved by the district's administrative council, headed by Supt. H. L. Slichenmyer.

Accompanying the students will be a Wheeling high school foreign language teacher, Mrs. Miriam Wood, and her husband, Tim, who teaches science at Western Springs.

The chance for the trip abroad has really attracted a lot of student interest, Mrs. Wood says. Already she has received letters of recommendation from teachers of 12 northwest suburban students who'd like to make the trip.

ONE YEAR OF high school French is a requirement. Though a deeper background in the language would be a help, Mrs. Wood doesn't think it's a necessity. "They'll pick it up soon enough," she said.

Quimper, a town of 24,000 in southeast Brittany, will be the summer destination of the local students. There the teenagers will attend a lycee—like a high school—with an international student body. Their European civilization and language classes will be taught in French, by professors from the University of Rennes.

The tentative schedule set up by Mrs. Wood, by arrangement with the French Ministry of Education and the American Council for Study Abroad, calls for the local group to leave July 5 by jet for London, do some touring before settling down in Quimper for the summer, and then take a bus tour in August before flying home Aug. 16. They'll spend a week in Paris.

Credit for the course will be given by Maine East High School and accepted by the District 214 authorities. Cost of the trip will be approximately $900, Mrs. Wood says.

Other high school student groups will also be sent by Downers Grove, New Trier and Crown Point, Ind.

WILLIAM CURTIS (right to left) and sons Douglas and Dave of Arlington Motors, Inc., 1020 W. Northwest Hwy., Arlington Heights, admire the new Avanti II now on display at their showroom. The Avanti II is produced in South Bend, Ind., by the Avanti Motor Corp., a subsidiary of Newman and Altman, Inc., long-time South Bend Studebaker dealers. The Avanti II is in limited production and almost entirely hand-built by former Studebaker master craftsmen. Though only a small part of the automobile market can afford the custom-built car, the Avanti II with its unique combination of prestige, performance and quality may develop its own special market.

To Cheer In Latin

Cheering will be in Latin at the Olympic games which 30 High School District 214 students plan to attend this summer.

The Olympics will be part of a national convention of the Junior Classical League. The convention will take place Aug. 7 to 11 at Western Kentucky State college, Bowling Green, Ky., and students making the trip from here will go by bus and live in dormitories on campus during their four-day stay.

APPROVAL FOR the trip has just been given by the District 214 administrative council.

At the convention, teenagers from the local Latin Clubs will hear lectures by outstanding university professors noted for their classics backgrounds. They will also have a chance to show off their learning through contests and in classics-oriented choruses and singing groups.

Accompanying the students will be Mrs. Marjorie Olson, Forest View High School foreign language teacher, and Fred Gorman, foreign language teacher at Arlington High.

Griffith Breaks Lance Again on Federal Aid

Once again, Monday night, William F. Griffith urged fellow District 214 board members to reject that temptress, federal aid.

Once again he lost.

Board members approved a request for National Defense Education Act Funds as partial reimbursement for the cost of equipping Elk Grove High School's mathematics, science, English and language labs.

Only Griffith voted no.

THE VOTE CAME after Griffith had strongly urged board members to table the NDEA proposal and instead instruct the administration to substitute a plan for local funding of the equipment.

After all, he said, it would only take a one cent tax levy to replace the NDEA reimbursement, estimated at around $50,000.

Then, he read into the record a statement which said, in part:

"The board has the opportunity to demonstrate that though education needs are ever changing and complex, it subscribes to the following:

"1) After an educational need has been established the sequence of fund procurement is: first, District 214 resources; second, State of Illinois resources; third, federal government resources.

"2) Recognizes to rely on federal government educational funds can lead to less reliance on citizens of District 214. Recognition that this can possibly jeopardize right of self-determination of citizens of District 214 and that in area such as Federal Aid to Education these citizens should have that right.

"3) Recognizes that spending of federal funds in school districts that can afford to handle needs themselves can deprive other school districts that are in need of financial assistance.

"FURTHERMORE, the board has the opportunity to indicate that it is concerned about the cost to the citizens of Illinois and District 214 of money from the federal government."

Griffith, a resident of Arlington Heights, has been a consistent opponent of District 214's receiving any federal money. He fought hard against the Neighborhood Youth Corps instituted last fall. Board member Richard A. Bachhuber of Mount Prospect joined him in voting "No" on that proposal.

The NDEA funds have been used to pay part of the cost of equipping all the district's high schools. The provisions of the act, will, however, soon run out, according to Supt. H. L. Slichenmyer. He told the board members Monday that the sixth high school may be the last to receive an NDEA allocation.

School's Out for Kids Tomorrow

School's out tomorrow (Friday) for Junior—but not his teacher.

Friday is the day of the Arlington Area Teachers Institute, and 1,800 public school teachers from High School District 214 and the elementary districts in the two townships will go to school themselves.

In the morning the teachers will be at Forest View High School to hear talks by two college professors.

Dr. Dean F. Berkley of Indiana Univesity, will speak to the teachers assembly at 9:30 a.m. on the topic, "Self Evaluation and Self Improvement."

At 11 p.m. Dr. Willard Goslin of George Peabody University will speak on "Education and the Twentieth Century."

W. DAVID Whiteside, coordinator of special services and research for District 214, helped make arrangements for the program. He said he has had the opportunity to hear both men talk, think they are outstanding and are "outspoken in terms of the controversies today in the field of education."

The school teachers will follow up the morning program by having further sessions in the afternoon in their home districts.

There has been some criticism in teacher circles recently of institute programs. Some of the terms used by critics in describing them are "uninteresting," "irrelevant" and "just plain dull."

Whiteside said the Arlington Area Institute planning committee took those criticisms into account. He says he hopes to keep the criticisms even more in mind next year, when there will have been time for considering different ways to make the training sessions relevant and helpful.

Joseph Beacom, District 25 principal, was chairman of this year's institute planning group. The chairman next year will be Whiteside.

Real Estate Assessment Completed

P. J. Cullerton, Cook County Assessor, recently announced the completion of the 1965 real estate assessment for Wheeling Township.

The 1965 assessment of $178,740,000 is $11,341,000 over the 1964 assessment of $167,340,000. The approximately seven per cent increase was due mainly to new construction added to the 1965 rolls.

Cullerton noted that the total real estate assessment of Wheeling Township in the past 10 years has increased approximately 240 per cent from the $52,608,000 figure in 1955.

"The importance of this increase is the benefit it provides to the rest of us in increasing the base over which the costs of schools and other governmental functions are spread," said Cullerton.

He continued, "All of us should be aware that our share of the cost of government is unfairly increased if any improvements remain unrecorded. Our staff works year around to pick up new construction, but the number of parcels in the county (over 1,200,000) make it physically impossible to do an exhaustive job every year. For this reason, we ask the assistance of all in reporting unrecorded improvements." (ACM

Mobile Units Take 123,215 Chest X-Rays

Dr. Edward A. Piszczek, field director for the Suburban Cook County Tuberculosis Sanitarium District reports that mobile units took 123,215 chest X-rays during the June-September survey in 81 suburban Cook County towns.

Cooperating in the effort was the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County, the Christmas Seal agency.

Of the total films taken, 2,368 individuals were asked to return for a large chest X-ray because of suspicious chest pathology.

DR. PISZCZEK pointed out that these statistics provide an indication that tuberculosis may be present in a person. The figures are not actual active cases of TB.

"The value of chest X-ray surveys," said Dr. Piszczek, "is well recognized. About 30 per cent of all the new active cases reported for the first time are found during the annual summer survey. It is gratifying also, that a good many of these cases are found in the early stages of the disease."

A total of 37,434 films were taken in 24 North suburban towns during the summer survey in 1965. Of this number, 649 were suspect TB film findings from preliminary screening at the SCCTSD.

Out of 2,536 films taken in Arlington Heights, 43 were suspect TB findings. Barrington had eight suspect out of 701, and Elk Grove had 14 out of 1,007.

HANOVER PARK had six out of 411, there were 24 suspects out of 985 in Hoffman Estates, and Mount Prospect showed 40 suspects out of 2,362.

Palatine had 26 suspect findings out of 1,816 films taken. Northfield had four out of 265, Rolling Meadows had 34 out of 1,701 and Schaumburg had 11 out of 670, Streamwood had 13 out of 708, and Wheeling had 33 out of 1,170. (B-10

Women Voters Launch Study of State Taxes

League of Women Voter members hope to be experts in all types of taxes by next month.

Members of the local 100-member LWV, which serves Wheeling and Elk Grove townships, next Wednesday will start a five-meeting series of sessions on the state's taxation picture.

Armed with a glossary sheet so terms like "retailers' occupational taxes" and "retrogressive" won't hold them back, the league women will look at the way the state levies its taxes now, what its needs are — in terms of money, and the various possible taxes that might be used.

MRS. ROBERT Grabitz, revenue study chairman, and her committee will help LWV members cover the material at two workshops, set for 8 p.m. next Wednesday, Feb. 2, in the home of Mrs. Irving Crystal, 511 S. Pine Ave., Arlington Heights; and at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 8, in the home of Mrs. Ernest Beal, 1503 Cedar Lane, Mount Prospect.

If the taxation material is well enough understood, the local LWV members will be asked to come to consensus on sources of state revenue at unit meetings later in the month.

The unit meetings will take place at 1 p.m. Monday, Feb. 21, in the home of Mrs. Arthur Olsen, 302 E. Hiawatha Trail, Mount Prospect; at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, Feb. 22, in the Congregational United Church of Christ, Kirchoff and Kennicott, Arlington Heights, and at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 23 in the home of Mrs. Ronald Larson, 817 Lynnwood Drive, Arlington Heights.

The league study will include an explanation of the proposed revenue amendment which voters will be asked to approve in November.

Assisting Mrs. Grabitz with the study will be Mrs. George Schroeder, Mrs. Crystal and Mrs. Hal Cress, all of Arlington Heights. (B10

Explain Laws To Area Men

Three area men were among the law enforcement officers who attended the Chicago Motor Club's North Metropolitan Area Council meeting recently.

They are James Ruggio, Rolling Meadows Police Department; Richard F. Losch, sergeant, Elk Grove Police Department; and Arnold F.Krause, lieutenant, Wheeling Police Department.

NEW RESTRICTIONS which Illinois motorists must contend with as a result of laws passed by the 1965 Illinois General Assembly were discussed at the meeting.

The highlights of this legislation were presented in a talk to members of the council by Hugh N. Johnson, assistant general counsel of the Chicago Motor Club, who spoke on "New Illinois Laws Affecting Motorists." (B10

Invitation Open During 'Y' Week

Jan. 23-30 has been declared National YMCA Week — which gives the public an invitation to visit and investigate YMCA opportunities.

Northwest Suburban YMCA, which serves the surrounding area, has its doors open for visitors each day from 9 a.m. to 10 p.m. and will climax the week on Saturday with Pancake Day sponsored by the 'Y' Women's Auxiliary.

The local 'Y' has just completed its fifth year of operation in the building on Northwest Highway just east of Mount Prospect Road. It has been in the community for 12 years, using offices in Des Plaines before moving into the present $1½ million facility.

IT HAS RECEIVED recognition for its outstanding service program during the past several years, and now has a membership second only to a large New York YMCA with a 583-room residence. Northwest Suburban has a total membership of over 16,500 and operates programs for both members and nonmembers.

Three staff members appeared Jan. 21 before the monthly meeting of executive secretaries and program directors of the 39 YMCA's of Metropolitan Chicago. Charles McClellan, executive; Cliff Lothery, program coordinator, and Helen Coryell, women's program director, presented a complete explanation of operation of the local 'Y' to verify its record membership. Rates Increased By Post Office Proposed increases in many orders, insurance, registry, certified mail and C.O.D. rates to be effective March 26 have been announced by the Post Office Department.

The cost of operating these five special services now exceeds revenues by $60 million annually. The proposed fee increases would narrow the cost-revenue gap by $36 million based on business handled in Fiscal Year 1965.

The increases include:

Money order fees — Domestic and international money order fees would be increased by five cents.

INSURANCE FEES — The minimum fee bracket would be increased from $10 to $15 and the minimum fee would be 20 cents instead of 10 cents. Most other fees would be increased 10 cents. The maximum fee, now 40 cents, would be increased to 60 cents for values above $150 to $200.

Registry fees — The present 60 cent and 75 cent fees would be combined into a single fee at 75 cents for values up to $100. Registry fees for articles valued in excess of $100 would remain unchanged.

C.O.D. fees — The present 40 cent and 50 cent fee brackets would be combined into one fee bracket at 60 cents for amounts up to $10. There will be no change in the fees covering items valued above $10.

CERTIFIED mail — The fee would be increased 10 cents from the present 20 cents per item to 30 cents.

Losses incurred in the operation of special services are paid from funds drawn from the Federal Treasury. The proposed fee increases would shift a substantial portion of the special service cost borne by the public to the users of these services. ’)a-15

Heart Fund Drive Set For Feb. 1

Almost 40,000 volunteers February 1 will launch the 1966 Heart Fund to raise $1.35 million in the Chicagoland area.

It will be a month-long campaign in Cook, Lake and DuPage counties as it was last year.

General Campaign Chairman Don Clawson asd Chicago Heart Association President Dr. Oglesby Paul today urged the volunteers to put every effort into this year's campaign to assure success.

HEART FUND contributions support the research, education and program activities of the Chicago Heart Association and its divisions in Cook, Lake and DuPage Counties.

In the past 14 years the Chicago Association, an affiliate of the American Heart Association, has channeled almost $5 million into research to combat heart and blood vessel diseases and another several million dollars into educational programs.

Heart and blood vessel diseases are the nation's leading killers, last year claiming the lives of almost 1,000,000 Americans. In the three counties serviced by the Chicago Heart Association 34,000 of last year's 60,000 deaths were blamed on these diseases. (A15

Dr. Edward A. Piszczek, field director for the Suburban Cook County Tuberculosis Sanitarium District reports that mobile units took 123,215 chest X-rays during the June-September survey in 81 suburban Cook County towns.

Cooperating in the effort was the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook County, the Christmas Seal agency.

Of the total films taken, 2,368 individuals were asked to return for a large chest X-ray because of suspicious chest pathology.

Taxpayers Can Deduct Many Auto Expenses

Chicago Motor Club reminds motorists to include certain automobile expenses when itemizing deductions on income tax returns. All motorists may deduct the following items:

—State gasoline taxes (five cents a gallon in Illinois; six cents a gallon in Indiana);

—Casualty losses, not reimbursed by insurance or other means, if not due to willful negligence (but deduction for damage to property used for personal purposes is limited to amount each such loss exceeds $100.00);

—Interest paid on automobile loans;

—Personal property tax; and

—State and city sales taxes on automobiles, parts, accessories and supplies (Illinois state and local tax — 4%; Indiana tax—2%).

IF YOU USE your car for business, you may also deduct the following — in whole or in part, depending upon the extent of business use:

—Motor club dues;

—State automobile license fees;

—Municipal vehicle license tax;

—Drivers' license fees;

—Automobile insurance premiums;

—Depreciation;

—Gasoline, oil, and lubricating expenses;

—COST OF repairs;

—Washing and polishing expense;

—Anti-freeze and other winterizing service;

—Garage rent;

—Parking charges; and

—Toll road fees.

If you use your car partly for pleasure and partly for business, items in the second group listed earlier are deductible only in proportion to the amount of use of the car for business purposes.

A PERSON WHO operates his own automobile for business purposes may, if he chooses, figure the cost of such operation by taking a standard mileage rate, under certain conditions, instead of maintaining detailed records and itemizing the actual provable costs.

The standard mileage rate is 10 cents per mile for the first 15,000 miles of business driving, and 7 cents per mile for additional business mileage. The standard rate may not be used by operators of for-hire vehicles, fleet operators, or taxpayers using more than one vehicle at a time, or with respect to vehicles on which a method of depreciation other than the "straight-line" method has been used, or on which additional first year depreciation has been taken. Parking fees and toll charges incurred in business driving may be added to the cost figure computed by using the standard mileage rate.

If a taxpayer who otherwise qualified uses more than one automobile, alternately, he would compute the business mileage on all cars and treat it as having been driven in one car for purposes of this standard deduction.

The Chicago Motor Club points out that costs incurred in driving from home to a regular place of employment and return are not deductible for income tax purposes. (A15

Taxpayers Can Deduct Many Auto Expenses

Chicago Motor Club reminds motorists to include certain automobile expenses when itemizing deductions on income tax returns. All motorists may deduct the following items:

—State gasoline taxes (five cents a gallon in Illinois; six cents a gallon in Indiana);

—Casualty losses, not reimbursed by insurance or other means, if not due to willful negligence (but deduction for damage to property used for personal purposes is limited to amount each such loss exceeds $100.00);

—Interest paid on automobile loans;

—Personal property tax; and

—State and city sales taxes on automobiles, parts, accessories and supplies (Illinois state and local tax — 4%; Indiana tax—2%).

IF YOU USE your car for business, you may also deduct the following — in whole or in part, depending upon the extent of business use:

—Motor club dues;

—State automobile license fees;

—Municipal vehicle license tax;

—Drivers' license fees;

—Automobile insurance premiums;

—Depreciation;

—Gasoline, oil, and lubricating expenses;

—COST OF repairs;

—Washing and polishing expense;

—Anti-freeze and other winterizing service;

—Garage rent;

—Parking charges; and

—Toll road fees.

If you use your car partly for pleasure and partly for business, items in the second group listed earlier are deductible only in proportion to the amount of use of the car for business purposes.

A PERSON WHO operates his own automobile for business purposes may, if he chooses, figure the cost of such operation by taking a standard mileage rate, under certain conditions, instead of maintaining detailed records and itemizing the actual provable costs.

The standard mileage rate is 10 cents per mile for the first 15,000 miles of business driving, and 7 cents per mile for additional business mileage. The standard rate may not be used by operators of for-hire vehicles, fleet operators, or taxpayers using more than one vehicle at a time, or with respect to vehicles on which a method of depreciation other than the "straight-line" method has been used, or on which additional first year depreciation has been taken. Parking fees and toll charges incurred in business driving may be added to the cost figure computed by using the standard mileage rate.

If a taxpayer who otherwise qualified uses more than one automobile, alternately, he would compute the business mileage on all cars and treat it as having been driven in one car for purposes of this standard deduction.

The Chicago Motor Club points out that costs incurred in driving from home to a regular place of employment and return are not deductible for income tax purposes. (A15

Area Dietitians To Hear Panel

Area dietitians will hear a panel discussion on "News and Views of Obesity" at the North Suburban Dietetic Association meeting on Wednesday at 8 p.m. in Holy Family Hospital.

Bird Banding

First bird banding was done by John James Audubon in Montgomery County, Pa., in 1803.

Worry of FALSE TEETH
Slipping or Irritating?

Don't be embarrassed by loose false teeth slipping, dropping or wobbling when you eat, talk or laugh. Just sprinkle a little FASTEETH on your plates. This pleasant powder gives a remarkable sense of added comfort and security by holding plates more firmly. No gummy, gooey, pasty taste or feeling. It's alkaline (non-acid). Get FASTEETH at any drug counter.

STEAM POWER

The Ideal Gift For That Certain Man or Boy . .

A PICTORIAL HISTORY OF CHICAGO AND NORTH WESTERN RAILWAY
STEAM POWER

This handsome volume will fill a void in the library of all true lovers and students of the romantic steam era of American railroads. The priceless photos and other historical material in this book will fascinate and delight the real steam buff and all others interested in the historic development of our country's railroads. Hardbound, beautifully jacketed, its 208 generous 8½" x 11" pages contain. . . .

- Broadside photos and classification diagrams Classes A to Z, and principal mechanical data of 145 engines of the various classes.
- Over 300 locomotive-train photos, most of them rare and heretofore unpublished.
- Intriguing history of The Pioneer, first locomotive of Chicago's first railroad.
- Giant photo foldout of C&NW's famous Class H locomotive, size 10" x 48".
- And . . . Historical data on other early Chicago railroads . . . Five pages detailed maps . . . Story of C&NW locomotive experimentation thru the years . . . Dozens of artist sketches of early locomotive detail . . . Plus, much, much more!

Limited first edition printed by Rand McNally & Company. Highest quality of photo reproduction. C&NW STEAM POWER available at larger bookstores at only $10 per copy. VIRGINIA TERRACE Terrace newcomers are Jack and Barbara Anderson who moved to 1228 N. Illinois from 120 S. Walnut on Jan. 15. Jack is employed by the village of Arlington Heights. Both Barbara and Jack enjoy bowling as one of their outside interests. They attend St. Peter Lutheran Church.

Hosting a neighborhood party Saturday night were Jack and Deborah Gleeson, 1239 N. Illinois. Attending were the Barton Barrows, Jack Andersons, Albert Herdas, Robert Skalickys, Bill Joneses, Dick Leforts, Barbara Gecan and Debbie's brother and sister-in-law, the Buzz Mackenroths of Northbrook. Buzz entertained the guests with his guitar playing. The Barrows, Andersons and the Herdas are all Terrace newcomers.

Guests of Michael and Sandra Kauffman, 1224 N. Chicago, on Jan. 19 were Mike's parents, the Lisle E. Kauffmans of Arlington, and his brother and sister-in-law, the Lisle J. Kauffmans of Elmhurst. They came to see the new baby, Heather Jeanne.

COMING FROM Worth last Sunday to help Darin Elder celebrate his fifth birthday were his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. P. F. Pool. Darin is the son of the Darrell Elders, 1334 N. Chicago.

Jan. 22 was the first birthday of Liane Israel, daughter of the Ray Israels, 1247 N. Chicago. She was honored at a dinner party Saturday night attended by her grandparents, the Don Vietinghoffs of Des Plaines, great-grandfather, Leo Holz, and her cousin, Dawn Holz, both of Glenview, grandmother, Mrs. Erna Israel of Chicago, godparents, the Robert Nelsons and son, Kevin, also of Chicago, and her great-great-aunt and uncle, the Edgar Maddoxes of Mount Prospect. Sister, Jean Marie, and brother, Kevin, were also present.

Turning 3 Jan. 18 was Jeff Swindell, son of the Don Swindells, 1409 N. Race, who celebrated at two family parties. On his birthday, his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Biehl of Skokie, came to help him celebrate. On the 19th the paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Swindell of Skokie, and aunt and cousin, Mrs. Peg Willney and Jim of Lake Zurich, were guests. His sister and brother, Kathy and Mark, also helped with the celebrations.

On Jan. 18, Maisie Sikorske, 1231 N. Race, and Dorothy Ballard, 1241 N. Race, were cohostesses at a bridal shower for Louise Wilmot, daughter of the John Wilmots, 1240 N. Race. Guests included Pauline Neornberg, June Hacker, Dawn Thompson, Agnes Steib, Collette Price, Delores Nelson, Louise's mother, Margay Wilmot, her sister, Gail Wilson, and niece, Susan McCabe. Louise will marry Alen Shawala Saturday at St. Thomas of Villanova Catholic Church.

WEEKEND GUESTS of the Wayne Mantheis, 1321 N. Wilke, were Janet's parents, the Cecil Vollstaedts of St. Clair, Mich.

Jeffrey Emmons, 1317 N. Race, is home from Northern Illinois University for the semester vacation. He will resume classes Jan. 31.

The Terrace welcomes Mrs. C. Stadelman and her son, Paul J., who moved to 1310 N. Illinois from 503 N. Belmont on Jan. 17. Paul is employed by General Electric in Chicago.

John Krewer, son of the Paul Krewers, 1256 N. Illinois, celebrated his fifth birthday at a family party Jan. 16. Helping him celebrate were his grandmother, Mrs. Erma Carlson of Skokie, his parents and sisters; Julie, Janine and Jo Anne.

Russell Kruse, son of the Dale Kruses, 1518 Clarenson, was 4 Jan. 19 and celebrated at a party on the 20th. Partygoers were Lori Ninneman, Glenn Edwards and Billy Bredenbeck.

On Jan. 16, the Kruses hosted a family party for Russell and his sister, Sue, who was 7 Jan. 7. Relatives present were the children's grandparents, the Franklin Ullreys of Des Plaines, aunts and uncles, the Richard Steiner family of Des Plaines anl the Richard Renches of Arlington Heights. His brother, Robert, was also present.

It had been snowing all morning and that may have been why 20 children were bouncing about a room in Pioneer Park like drops of mercury that had escaped a test tube.

They were chasing each other, shouting, wrestling, recklessly pulling toy trucks and locomotives from wall to wall and rolling on the floor.

Three mothers and Arlington Heights park district recreation supervisor Demmaree Sunkel knew they couldn't control the energy that had been unleashed when the children stepped outside that morning.

"SOME DAYS they would just as soon sit down in a corner with puzzles," explained Miss Sunkel. "But other days you just let them go their own way. When it snows they're usually like this."

Earlier in the morning the activities had been more sedate. The youngsters had finger-painted, listened to stories, spread themselves on rugs and mimicked songs, and eaten milk and graham crackers. Even then they had fidgeted more than normal and obviously were awaiting their free play period.

The children are enrolled in a play school program which the park district conducts at Pioneer, Recreation, and Hasbrook Parks for three-to five-year-olds. Mothers alternate in helping a park district supervisor conduct three two-hour sessions a week.

THE PROGRAM helps the children learn basic motor functions from such activities as coloring, painting, and finger games. It also provides many with initial social experiences.

Children whose acquaintances had been limited to their family and neighbors meet strangers from their own age group. Some react aggressively; others are reserved. They all make friends eventually.

"We used to try to force them to play with everyone," said Miss Sunkel, "but it just didn't work. They would rather choose their own friends."

Many things cause a friendship to be formed. Often toys are an influential factor — if a child brings a toy which interests someone else, he usually has a friend.

SOMETIMES A boy and girl pair off and announce the seriousness of their relationship but Miss Sunkel notices that this usually means they enjoy playing together with blocks and toys. Their interest in each other lessens when the common enterprise isn't there.

Even their aggressiveness has something of innocence about it. A boy carrying a toy gun approached a friend, smiled, pressed the trigger, said "you're dead," and his friend smiled back. (A

AFS Chapter Plans Evening of Bridge

Bridge players of Arlington Heights will meet Wednesday, Feb. 9 at 8 p.m. at the Arlington High School cafeteria for an evening of entertainment and card playing sponsored by Arlington Heights Chapter of American Field Service International Scholarships, Inc.

Chapter members anticipate that more than 300 guests will be on hand. The proceeds will be used to sponsor a foreign student for one year at Arlington High School.

American Field Service is an international organization, engaged in bringing students from foreign countries to United States high schools where they attend classes while living in American households.

It is the purpose of the American Field Service program to increase friendship and understanding among the peoples of the world by offering foreign students the opportunity to live, study and learn in an American atmosphere. Similarly, American high school students live with foreign families and attend foreign schools.

ARLINGTON Heights has participated in this program for a number of years, and this year Lilly Leal, a Brazilian student, is attending high school while living in the Donald Swanson household at 316 S. Yale Ave. It is hoped the proceeds from the card party and raffle will enable Arlington High School to sponsor an additional student and enlarge the opportunity for the school and community to participate in this contribution to international understanding.

Additional card party tickets are available and can be secured by calling the Paul Oppelts at CL 9-3782. (A

At Keesler AFB

PETERSON

JENSEN

Two airmen of Arlington Heights have been selected for training at Keesler AFB, Miss., as air force communications - electronics specialists.

They are Airman Ronald B. Petersen, son of Robert A. Petersen, 1220 W. Euclid, and Airman Charles M. Jensen, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Jensen Jr., 30 S. Ridge.

Both airmen recently completed basic training at Lackland AFB, Texas, having graduated from Arlington High School.

Petersen attended the International Data Processing Institute in Chicago and Jensen attended the University of Illinois.

At Pensacola

Candidate William S. Clerihan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Clerihan of 428 S. State Road, Arlington Heights, is attending naval pre-flight school at the Naval Air Station, Pensacola, Fla.

During the 14-week course he will study aerodynamics, mathematics, physics, naval orientation, navigation, engineering, leadership and other subjects essential to becoming a naval officer.

Upon completion of pre-flight he will begin flight training with the naval air basic training command at Pensacola.

At Amarillo AFB

Airman 3.C Wayne E. Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Thompson of 202 Bode Road, Hoffman Estates, has been graduated at Amarillo AFB, Tex., from the training course for U. S. Air Force materiel specialists.

Airman Thompson, a 1965 graduate of Palatine High School is being reassigned to one of the more than 250 installations world-wide where air force combat and support units are based.

At Kessler AFB

Pvt. David N. Orth, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman L. Orth, 605 W. Williams Drive, Palatine, completed an 18-week air traffic control operator course at Kessler AFB, Miss.

Orth was trained in aircraft recognition, conventional and radar approach control and air traffic rules after entering the army in Apirl, 1965.

Orth is a graduate of Highline High School in Burien, and attended Pacific Lutheran University in Tacoma.

List Semi-Finalists for State Scholarships

High School seniors in the Paddock Publications circulation area have been announced by the Illinois State Scholarship Commission as semi-finalists in the 1966-67 State Scholarship Program.

The 10,348 semi-finalists represent 784 high schools and were selected from the 32,895 students who sought State Scholarship consideration by taking the ACT examination of Nov. 13, 1965. The students qualified on the basis of high school academic record and performance on the competitive examination.

All semi-finalists are being notified directly and will receive application materials to be completed and returned to the Commission for final consideration. The winners, who must be residents of Illinois, will be announced in April, 1966, and will be granted monetary and honorary awards to attend approved colleges or universities within the State of Illinois.

MONETARY AWARDS to a maximum of $1,000 are avail-j able. Honorary awards are granted when financial need does not exist, and all awards are renewable.

In recognition of outstanding4 achievement, Certificates of Merit are given to all State Scholarship winners including those who forfeit further consideration by their choice of an unapproved or out-of-state institution.

Campus Capers

At Colorado State

Miss Elaine L. Brogden, 300 Hawk Lane, Rolling Meadows, a junior at Colorado State University, Fort Collins, was one of 26 nominees for this year's edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

The nomination is based on the student's scholarship, creativity, participation and leadership, as well as the caliber of work and promise of future achievement.

At Northern Illinois

Tom Cashin, Northern Illinois University senior from Rolling Meadows, is chairman of a fund committee at Northern Illinois University which is established to provide scholarships instead of the usual memorial bench or class plaque given by seniors and graduate students.

In a letter, Cashin described this unique effort by pointing out that "This fund, if used to provide scholarships on the basis of need and academic potential, can help to raise the academic standards of the university over the years."

The chairman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cashin, 2603 Cardinal Drive, and is a 1960 graduate of Arlington High School.

Diane Calvello, daughter of the Frank G. Calvellos, 1800 Lincoln, and Mary Horrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Horrell, 807 School, both of Mount Prospect, are members of the Class of '66 Fund Committee. (10CC

At Millikin University

Dan Sass, 6 N. Maple, Mount Prospect, is a member of the Millikin University Concert Choir which will present concerts in five states during a nine-day tour between semesters.

The 40-voice choir will perform at assembly programs, present public concerts, and sing in church services in Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and Illinois.

The choir will present 13 concerts and sing for two church services between Jan. 25, and Feb. 2. After presenting a home concert on Feb. 4, the choir will sing at its 4th annual alumni-sponsored concert at the Lake Shore Club in Chicago, on Saturday, Feb. 5. They will also sing at Sunday morning worship services in the First Presbyterian Church in Waukegan.

Dan is majoring in voice at the university and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sass.

At U. of Wisconsin

Barbara Pettersen, 2069 W. Banbury, Palatine; James Keefer, 15 N. Waverly, and Michael Minkoff, 601 N. Eastwood, both from Mount Prospect, were among the 250 students initiated into membership in the Wisconsin chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honor society.

These students were elected to the society on the basis of scholarship, leadership and general good citizenship. The ceremony was held Jan. 16 in the Wisconson Union Theater on the university campus in Madison.

At Miami

Bonnie Jo Youngren, 102 N. Fairview, Mount Prospect, graduated from Miami University. At the midyear commencement exercise, she received the degree of bachelor of arts with general honors.

This type of honor signifies completion of the honors program through which students of unusual ability and incentive may enroll in advanced courses in special study projects.

At North Park College

Wayne B. Lewin, 207 W. Euclid, Arlington Heights, has been named to the Dean's List at North Park College, Chicago, for the fall term. The list is composed of students who have earned a grade average of 3.1 or better for this term. He is a junior student at North Park.

At Hillsdale

Sharyn Washburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Washburn, 904 Maple, Mount Prospect, has pledged Chi Omega sorority at Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Mich. (10CC

At Northern Illinois

Donald R. Butts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Butts, 207 Marian, and Charles C. Cochran, 202 Walter Drive, both of Roselle, were initiated into Phi Alpha Theta, international honor society in history. The ceremonies took place at Northern Illinois University, DeKalb.

Butts is a junior and Cochran is a graduate student. They met the requirements for membership by maintaining a B average in two-thirds of their courses outside of history and above that average in at least 12 hours of history. (5CC

At Northwestern

Tina Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hunter, 940 N. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, recently was named representative from her housing unit on the Mock Congress agricultural committee at Northwestern University.

The congress is sponsored by the university to foster a greater interest on the part of its students in the structure and function of the federal government.

Miss Hunter is a freshman at Northwestern and a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority pledge class and in addition to this honor of representative, she has been accepted as a member of the WAA-MU annual variety show program committee. She is majoring in speech pathology. (10CC

At Iowa State

Names which appeared on the dean's list at Iowa State University at Ames are: Catherine L. Crockett, daughter of Mrs. Lewis D. Crockett, 638 N. Hickory, Arlington Heights; Barbara C. Gundelach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Gundelach, 976 Margaret St., Des Plaines; James C. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Nelson, 210 W. Ridge, Prospect Heights.

Miss Mack, a 1965 graduate of Lake Park High School, Medinah, is a mathematics major at Greenville College. (5CC

Schools Unsure on Sticking with 44-Letter Alphabet

by David J. Hanks
Staff Writer

"It's the easy way to read and you read fast."

That's how a youngster at Schaumburg's Twinbrook School explained the Initial Teaching Alphabet (ITA).

The ITA system, introduced at Schaumburg and at Trinity Lutheran Schools in Roselle in September, 1964, consists of 44 characters. Twenty-four of the symbols are part of the 26-letter traditional alphabet.

This is the second year ITA has been taught in both school systems.

Mrs. Esther Bland, who teaches the ITA to first and second graders at Schaumburg, says, "A child gains a certain amount of security that he doesn't gain in the traditional system."

One of the advantages for the youngsters is that they learn 44 symbols and only 88 sound changes, while in the traditional alphabet they learn 26 letters but 2,000 sound changes, Mrs. Bland said.

Each of 44 characters in the ITA represents one of the basic sounds of the English language.

Of the 26-letter traditional only "X and Q" are not used in the Initial Teaching Alphabet. Many of the characters look like two traditional letters put together. However, each of the 44 characters is known by its sound, rather than by the name as in the standard 26 letter alphabet.

Some of the members of Mrs. Bland's classes have somewhat lower reading readiness ability. But with the ITA, Mrs. Bland said, some second graders who would have been non-readers are now reading at second grade levels.

"THEY GAIN confidence in the ITA system," she said. They feel that they can accomplish, Mrs. Bland added. There are 22 pupils in Mrs. Bland's classes.

ITA also is being used by third grade teacher Jesse Valerio at Blackhawk School in Schaumburg in the remedial reading program.

Mrs. Dorothy Ludwig at Roselle's Trinity Lutheran School spoke of the advantages and disadvantages of ITA. Mrs. Ludwig has taught it since it was adopted in the fall of 1964.

All pupils attending the first grade at Trinity are taught ITA, she said.

MRS. LUDWIG said a greater number of pupils "do better" in reading. There were two classes of first graders taking ITA last year and Mrs. Ludwig said in both classes about one half were in the "top or high reading group."

Another advantage is that after they learn all the characters they can sound out any word they want to write, said Mrs. Ludwig. Usually first graders can't remember sounds in the traditional alphabet, she added.

Mrs. Ludwig expressed the belief that ITA made learning a little easier for the slower students, but was not a detriment to more intelligent ones.

Only one disadvantage was listed by Mrs. Ludwig. She said "not enough publishers are putting out enough material on ITA. We need more complete books," she added.

PRESENTLY the administration at Trinity Lutheran is making a study on whether ITA will continue next year. There is no reason to say "we wouldn't continue it," said Mrs. Ludwig. She added that the decision would be entirely up to the administration.

Mrs. Ludwig said it was really a little too early to make an objective statement on whether the system is good or all bad.

In Schaumburg Principal Merks said that in a report issued at the end of 1965 it had been recommended that "the program not be expanded."

He said that generally it was "a good tool" to teach by.

"I don't know what the plans are or if we will continue it or not," he said.

List Semi-Finalists for State Scholarships

High School seniors in the Paddock Publications circulation area have been announced by the Illinois State Scholarship Commission as semi-finalists in the 1966-67 State Scholarship Program.

The 10,348 semi-finalists represent 784 high schools and were selected from the 32,895 students who sought State Scholarship consideration by taking the ACT examination of Nov. 13, 1965. The students qualified on the basis of high school academic record and performance on the competitive examination.

All semi-finalists are being notified directly and will receive application materials to be completed and returned to the Commission for final consideration. The winners, who must be residents of Illinois, will be announced in April, 1966, and will be granted monetary and honorary awards to attend approved colleges or universities within the State of Illinois.

MONETARY AWARDS to a maximum of $1,000 are availjable. Honorary awards are granted when financial need does not exist, and all awards are renewable.

In recognition of outstanding4 achievement, Certificates of Merit are given to all State Scholarship winners including those who forfeit further consideration by their choice of an unapproved or out-of-state institution.

Campus Capers

At North Park

John R. Lacina, 108 S. Vail, Arlington Heights, and Robert V. Johnson, 407 S. Emerson, Mount Prospect, have been named to the dean's list at North Park College for the fall term.

These men have earned a grade average of 3.1 or better for this term.

At Coe

Marilyn Rusche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold A. Rusche, 401 N. Elm St., Itasca, was named to the Dean's list for excellence of academic achievement during the fall term.

The college operates under a three-three system. Miss Rusche, a sophomore, was required to achieve a minimum of two A's and a B, in order to be named. (5CC

At Ripon

Susan Carle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Carle, 18 S. Chestnut Street, Arlington Heights, completed course work for the A.B. degree at Ripon College at the end of the first semester. She will receive her diploma at commencement exercises in June.

A graduate of Arlington Heights High School, Miss Carle majored in Art at Ripon. (10CC

At North Central

Rolland E. Lang, son of the Rev. and Mrs. Melvin W. Lang, 206 N. Wood Dale Road, Wood Dale, has been named to the President's honor list for the fall semester at North Central College.

Lang had a 3.938 average based on the highest possible grade average of 4.000 and was one of 13 freshmen named. (5CC

At Greenville College

Miss Linda Mack, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Mack, 6N431 Lloyd Ave., Itasca, has been elected secretary of the freshman class at Greenville College for the current year.

Miss Mack, a 1965 graduate of Lake Park High School, Medinah, is a mathematics major at Greenville College. (5CC

At Colorado State

Miss Elaine L. Brogden, 300 Hawk Lane, Rolling Meadows, a junior at Colorado State University, Fort Collins, was one of 26 nominees for this year's edition of "Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges."

The nomination is based on the student's scholarship, creativity, participation and leadership, as well as the caliber of work and promise of future achievement.

At Northern Illinois

Tom Cashin, Northern Illinois University senior from Rolling Meadows, is chairman of a fund committee at Northern Illinois University which is established to provide scholarships instead of the usual memorial bench or class plaque given by seniors and graduate students.

In a letter, Cashin described this unique effort by pointing out that "This fund, if used to provide scholarships on the basis of need and academic potential, can help to raise the academic standards of the university over the years."

The chairman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Cashin, 2603 Cardinal Drive, and is a 1960 graduate of Arlington High School.

Diane Calvello, daughter of the Frank G. Calvellos, 1800 Lincoln, and Mary Horrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Horrell, 807 School, both of Mount Prospect, are members of the Class of '66 Fund Committee. (10CC

At Millikin University

Dan Sass, 6 N. Maple, Mount Prospect, is a member of the Millikin University Concert Choir which will present concerts in five states during a nine-day tour between semesters.

The 40-voice choir will perform at assembly programs, present public concerts, and sing in church services in Ohio, Pennsylvania, New Jersey, New York and Illinois.

The choir will present 13 concerts and sing for two church services between Jan. 25, and Feb. 2. After presenting a home concert on Feb. 4, the choir will sing at its 4th annual alumni-sponsored concert at the Lake Shore Club in Chicago, on Saturday, Feb. 5. They will also sing at Sunday morning worship services in the First Presbyterian Church in Waukegan.

Dan is majoring in voice at the university and is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Sass.

At U. of Wisconsin

Barbara Pettersen, 2069 W. Banbury, Palatine; James Keefer, 15 N. Waverly, and Michael Minkoff, 601 N. Eastwood, both from Mount Prospect, were among the 250 students initiated into membership in the Wisconsin chapter of Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honor society.

These students were elected to the society on the basis of scholarship, leadership and general good citizenship. The ceremony was held Jan. 16 in the Wisconson Union Theater on the university campus in Madison.

At Miami

Bonnie Jo Youngren, 102 N. Fairview, Mount Prospect, graduated from Miami University. At the midyear commencement exercise, she received the degree of bachelor of arts with general honors.

This type of honor signifies completion of the honors program through which students of unusual ability and incentive may enroll in advanced courses in special study projects.

At North Park College

Wayne B. Lewin, 207 W. Euclid, Arlington Heights, has been named to the Dean's List at North Park College, Chicago, for the fall term. The list is composed of students who have earned a grade average of 3.1 or better for this term. He is a junior student at North Park.

At Hillsdale

Sharyn Washburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Washburn, 904 Maple, Mount Prospect, has pledged Chi Omega sorority at Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Mich. (10CC

At Northern Illinois

Donald R. Butts, son of Mr. and Mrs. Basil Butts, 207 Marian, and Charles C. Cochran, 202 Walter Drive, both of Roselle, were initiated into Phi Alpha Theta, international honor society in history. The ceremonies took place at Northern Illinois University, DeKalb.

Butts is a junior and Cochran is a graduate student. They met the requirements for membership by maintaining a B average in two-thirds of their courses outside of history and above that average in at least 12 hours of history. (5CC

At Northwestern

Tina Hunter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hunter, 940 N. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, recently was named representative from her housing unit on the Mock Congress agricultural committee at Northwestern University.

The congress is sponsored by the university to foster a greater interest on the part of its students in the structure and function of the federal government.

Miss Hunter is a freshman at Northwestern and a member of the Alpha Chi Omega sorority pledge class and in addition to this honor of representative, she has been accepted as a member of the WAA-MU annual variety show program committee. She is majoring in speech pathology. (10CC

At Iowa State

Names which appeared on the dean's list at Iowa State University at Ames are: Catherine L. Crockett, daughter of Mrs. Lewis D. Crockett, 638 N. Hickory, Arlington Heights; Barbara C. Gundelach, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert L. Gundelach, 976 Margaret St., Des Plaines; James C. Nelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl R. Nelson, 210 W. Ridge, Prospect Heights. (15CC

At Illinois Wesleyan

Chris Kegel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Kegel of 488 Lauren, Buffalo Grove, is a member of the office staff of the 1965-66 Argus, the student newspaper at Illinois Wesleyan University.

The Argus is an eight-page tabloid published weekly which is written and edited entirely by Illinois Wesleyan students.

Schools Unsure on Sticking with 44-Letter Alphabet

by David J. Hanks
Staff Writer

"It's the easy way to read and you read fast."

That's how a youngster at Schaumburg's Twinbrook School explained the Initial Teaching Alphabet (ITA).

The ITA system, introduced at Schaumburg and at Trinity Lutheran Schools in Roselle in September, 1964, consists of 44 characters. Twenty-four of the symbols are part of the 26-letter traditional alphabet.

This is the second year ITA has been taught in both school systems.

Mrs. Esther Bland, who teaches the ITA to first and second graders at Schaumburg, says, "A child gains a certain amount of security that he doesn't gain in the traditional system."

One of the advantages for the youngsters is that they learn 44 symbols and only 88 sound changes, while in the traditional alphabet they learn 26 letters but 2,000 sound changes, Mrs. Bland said.

Each of 44 characters in the ITA represents one of the basic sounds of the English language.

Of the 26-letter traditional only "X and Q" are not used in the Initial Teaching Alphabet. Many of the characters look like two traditional letters put together. However, each of the 44 characters is known by its sound, rather than by the name as in the standard 26 letter alphabet.

Some of the members of Mrs. Bland's classes have somewhat lower reading readiness ability. But with the ITA, Mrs. Bland said, some second graders who would have been non-readers are now reading at second grade levels.

"THEY GAIN confidence in the ITA system," she said. They feel that they can accomplish, Mrs. Bland added. There are 22 pupils in Mrs. Bland's classes.

ITA also is being used by third grade teacher Jesse Valerio at Blackhawk School in Schaumburg in the remedial reading program.

Mrs. Dorothy Ludwig at Roselle's Trinity Lutheran School spoke of the advantages and disadvantages of ITA. Mrs. Ludwig has taught it since it was adopted in the fall of 1964.

All pupils attending the first grade at Trinity are taught ITA, she said.

MRS. LUDWIG said a greater number of pupils "do better" in reading. There were two classes of first graders taking ITA last year and Mrs. Ludwig said in both classes about one half were in the "top or high reading group."

Another advantage is that after they learn all the characters they can sound out any word they want to write, said Mrs. Ludwig. Usually first graders can't remember sounds in the traditional alphabet, she added.

Mrs. Ludwig expressed the belief that ITA made learning a little easier for the slower students, but was not a detriment to more intelligent ones.

Only one disadvantage was listed by Mrs. Ludwig. She said "not enough publishers are putting out enough material on ITA. We need more complete books," she added.

PRESENTLY the administration at Trinity Lutheran is making a study on whether ITA will continue next year. There is no reason to say "we wouldn't continue it," said Mrs. Ludwig. She added that the decision would be entirely up to the administration.

Mrs. Ludwig said it was really a little too early to make an objective statement on whether the system is good or all bad.

In Schaumburg Principal Merks said that in a report issued at the end of 1965 it had been recommended that "the program not be expanded."

He said that generally it was "a good tool" to teach by.

"I don't know what the plans are or if we will continue it or not," he said.

FACTS
ABOUT TRADE-INS at POLK'S . . .

Here's why you save even more with the Polk Trade-in plan. It's just like trading in your old car. The car dealer reconditions it and resells it. We do the same with your used appliance, TV, even some furniture. After we condition it at 3500 W. Grand Ave., we sell the reconditioned merchandise all over the world. That's why we can give you a Polk-size allowance and therefore you get a true value for your trade-in merchandise.

Notice of Public Hearing

TO CONSIDER REZONING OF THE FORMER PINGEL AND HILDEBRANDT FARMS NORTH OF ALGONQUIN ROAD AND EAST OF WILKE ROAD, ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILLINOIS TO A COMBINATION OF R-5 MULTIPLE FAMILY, B-4 LIMITED SERVICE, AND B-2 GENERAL BUSINESS ZONING DISTRICTS.

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that a hearing will be held by the Arlington Heights Plan Commission on Wednesday, February 16, 1966 at 8:00 P.M. in the Council Room of the Municipal Building, 33 South Arlington Heights Road, Arlington Heights, Illinois to consider rezoning of four parcels as follows:

Parcel A

That part of Section 8, Township 41, North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian described as follows: commencing at a point in the center of old Algonquin Road as traveled on the East line of said Section 8, 1480.20 feet North of the Southeast corner of said Section 8; thence North 47 Degrees 30 Minutes West, 420.00 feet along the center of said road as traveled; thence North 69 Degrees West, 490.00 feet along the center of said road as traveled; thence North 68 Degrees 10 Minutes West, 394.04 feet along the center of said road as traveled; thence North No Degrees 18 Minutes 30 Seconds West, 275.00 feet for the point of beginning; thence North 70 Degrees 35 Minutes 57 Seconds West, 861.74 feet: thence North 88 Degrees 58 Minutes 30 Seconds East, 811.32 feet; thence South No Degrees 18 Minutes 30 Seconds East, 300.89 feet to the point of beginning, containing 2.801 acres, more or less, in Cook County, Illinois.

This parcel is approximately 2.801 acres, and petitioner seeks a change in zoning classification from B-2 General Business District to R-5 Multiple Family Dwelling District.

Parcel B

That part of Section, 8, Township 41 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian described as follows: commencing at a point in the center of old Algonquin Road as traveled on the East line of said Section 8, 1480.20 feet North of the Southeast corner of said Section 8, thence North 47 Degrees 30 Minutes West, 420.00 feet along the center of said road as traveled; thence North 69 Degrees West, 490.00 feet along the center of said road as traveled; thence North 68 Degrees 10 Minutes West, 394.04 feet along the center of said road as traveled; thence North No Degrees 18 Minutes 30 Seconds West, 326.29 feet for the point of beginning; thence North No Degrees 18 Minutes 30 Seconds West, 885.00 feet; thence North 88 Degrees 58 Minutes 30 Seconds East, 715.58 feet; thence South 9 Degrees 35 Minutes 20 Seconds East, 1268.00 feet; thence North 64 Degrees 33 Minutes West, 167.66 feet; thence North 70 Degrees West, 820.00 feet to the point of beginning, containing 19.495 Acres, more or less, in Cook County, Illinois.

This parcel is approximately 19.495 acres, and petitioner seeks a change in zoning classification from R-3 Single Family District to R-5 Multiple Family District.

Parcel C

That part of Section 8, Township 41 North, Range 11 East of the Third Principal Meridian described as follows: Commencing at a point in the center of old Algonquin Road as traveled on the East line of said Section 8, 1480.20 feet North of the Southeast corner of said Section 8; thence North 47 Degrees 30 Minutes 00 Seconds West, 420.00 feet along the center of said road as traveled; thence North 69 Degrees West, 428.78 feet along the center of said road as traveled for the point of beginning; thence North 69 Degrees 00 Minutes, 00 Seconds west, 61.22 feet along the center of said road as traveled; thence North 68 Degrees 10 Seconds West, 394.04 feet along the center of said road as traveled; thence North 00 Degrees 18 Minutes 30 Seconds West, 248.00 feet; thence South 70 Degrees East, 450 feet; thence South 00 Degrees 18 Minutes 30 Seconds East, 262.58 feet to the point of beginning, containing 2.477 Acres, more or less, in Cook County, Illinois.

From Miss Marie E. Oettel, Souderton, Pa.: My parents and step-father were born in Germany and we always had a real German-style Christmas tree when I was a little girl.

My mother and step-father would gilt and silver walnuts weeks before Christmas and stick toothpicks in them to hang on the tree. They would also stick toothpicks in small apples and tangerines to hang on the tree. Besides these edibles, there were boy and girl and animal cookies with colored icing, as well as small candy fruits and canes. We also had a hall tree and my step-father put 5-inch candles in holders on the strong ends, which he would light himself. There were 40 or more candles.

There were also chains of small colored fancy Christmas balls, and chains of tinsel. Mixed in with all of these were tinseled Christmas balls and colored pictures, all from Germany. I shall never forget our beautiful, old-fashioned Christmas trees — and the weeks of preparation that made them so.

"I REMEMBER"
BY THE OLD TIMER

From Miss Marie E. Oettel, Souderton, Pa.: My parents and step-father were born in Germany and we always had a real German-style Christmas tree when I was a little girl.

My mother and step-father would gilt and silver walnuts weeks before Christmas and stick toothpicks in them to hang on the tree. They would also stick toothpicks in small apples and tangerines to hang on the tree. Besides these edibles, there were boy and girl and animal cookies with colored icing, as well as small candy fruits and canes. We also had a hall tree and my step-father put 5-inch candles in holders on the strong ends, which he would light himself. There were 40 or more candles.

There were also chains of small colored fancy Christmas balls, and chains of tinsel. Mixed in with all of these were tinseled Christmas balls and colored pictures, all from Germany. I shall never forget our beautiful, old-fashioned Christmas trees — and the weeks of preparation that made them so.

As if in commemoration of a year ago this week, Correspondent Meyer's telephone sighed deeply Monday afternoon and gave up the ghost. You do remember the ice storm of one year ago? . . . no phones, no heat, no light and almost no Sidelights. Although this reporter had telephone service last year, many contacts did not; this year it's the other way 'round but the result is the same — almost no Sidelights. Telephone repair service and the good Lord willing, we'll make up for it next week. In the meantime — be sociable!

Before the telephone went dead we rediscovered the happy fact that little kids' birthday parties can always be counted on to buoy up a floundering social column. Despite the weekend chill that put most sociability into cold storage, local birthdayites celebrated.

Kathy Andres, 9 Jan. 17, had a luncheon party Saturday afternoon with 11 fellow Bluebirds. Chattering more like magpies than bluebirds and giggling like normal 9-year-old girls, the young ladies enjoyed the gala luncheon in the Andres home, 1145 N. Belmont, before attending "Sinbad and the Genie" in St. Viator High School. A family celebration on the birth date made Jan. 17 special for Kathy, too.

A JUST-US-GIRLS party marked Laura Gatewood's fifth birthday Saturday afternoon, when she entertained nine neighborhood girl friends and managed to keep three brothers out of the picture — almost. Brothers three appeared, of course, at cake and ice cream time but otherwise respected Laura's "no boys allowed" edict. Joining the party later for "coffee and" with Mrs. Gatewood were mothers of some of the birthday girl's guests.

Laura is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leander Gatewood, 1303 N. Walnut.

Bobby Reinert, son of the Louis Reinerts, 908 W. George, had a birthday party Saturday, too, and his was all-male as befits the 7-year-old-boy temperament. Also typical was the boundless energy and endless capacity for cake of the young men. They played games, ate, were taken to the local matinee, ate and had fun. Luxuriating in this ideal schedule were Tom and Jim Boland, Robby Koss, Randy Nebel, Tom McHale and Craig Simons.

Adding their congratulations at a family party Sunday were Bobby's grandparents, the senior Louis Reinerts of Arlington Heights.

Cake, ice cream and "Those Magnificent Men in Their Flying Machines" delighted the nine birthday party guests of Jon Catherwood, 1520 N. State. Jon was 6 Sunday, a just-right day for eating cake and going to the movies.

BEVERLY UNGRY came home to 1114 W. Sigwalt on Friday for a between-semesters breather from the rigors of life as a colllege freshman. The respite from cram 'n' exams ended Tuesday when she returned to Iowa's University of Dubuque campus.

Mrs. Henry Marsh of Newport Beach, Calif., last week ended a two-month stay here with her daughter and son-in-law, the Charles Bakers, 19 N. Pine. It wasn't that the sprightly 85-year-old visitor worried about our weather forecast (she was delighted to be out in our Christmas Eve snowstorm) but rather that she just decided it was time to be on the move again.

Mr. and Mrs. Saunders Reinhard, 801 S. Walnut, hosted a family dinner party for 15 Sunday. Enjoying the hospitable break in their collective midwinter doldrums were Mrs. Reinhard's brother and his family, the R. T. Winbiglers of Western Springs, and her cousin and family, the Hugh Winbiglers of Monmouth.

MID-WINTER boredom has so far not been part of the January program for Mr. and Mrs. Jan Behrens, 817 N. Belmont, who came home early last week from a three-day stay at Lake Lawn. Resting up from getting Christmas ready for four small children — and vice versa — was nicely balanced with vigorously enjoying lodge facilities. Last Tuesday evening at the Shubert Theatre in Chicago was another bright spot in the week, as the Behrenses joined local friends, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Heller and the Paul Pingels, for a "Hello Dolly" performance.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Brown, 509 S. Chestnut, returned last Wednesday from a four-day convention in Indianapolis, where entertainment for wives of conventioneers was much appreciated by Mrs. Brown. The lack of snow was nice, too.

RICHARD LUKASIK, grandson of the Eugene Lukasiks at 526 Central Road, celebrated his first birthday with a family gathering at his home in Lake Zurich. Mr. and Mrs. Walter Schuster also grandparents of Richard were there to help in the celebration.

"With 11 grandchildren," laughed Mrs. Lukasik, "we're bound to have a birthday to celebrate real often."

There may be a lull in the activities of their parents but not for the Camp Fire Girls. Mrs. Howard Rudin, 500 Dryden, is leader of a group of these girls, the council of which had a father and daughter banquet at Faith Lutheran Church recently. Attending from the Dryden area were Lorie Wickstrom, Cheryl Kellogg, Nancy Rudin, Ann and Debbie Ward, Gail Thompson, Kathie Lentine and Jackie Funk.

"IT'S GREAT TO get the daughters out with their dads," declared Mrs. Richard Bergstrom of 507 Grove, also a Camp Fire Girl leader of a group which attended the recent banquet in force.

Daughters who attended with their dads from this group were Sue Blackmore, Linda Michalson, Lisa Johnson, Martha Bergstrom, Beth Burlingame, Cindy Combs, Marcie Reed, Georgia Brown, Martha Daeschner, Marilynn Charney, Vickie Loeffler and Mary Garcia, all from Dryden School.

"Doesn't seem possible, but we celebrated our 25th wedding anniversary last week," declared Mrs. Robert Bradle of 606 Dryden. A few friends drank a champagne toast to many more years of happiness to Mary and Bob.

There was a full house at the Edward McGraths of 206 E. Rockwell this last week. Francis McGrath has just finished her practice teaching at Field School in Elmhurst and will return shortly to Northern Illinois University to finish her senior year. Pat, a junior at Northern, is also home for the semester break. Robert, a freshman premed student at Marquette University, is also home. The whole family is helping to cheer Ed McGrath who is home from St. Joseph Hospital in Chicago recovering from delicate eye surgery.

ANOTHER COLLEGE student home for the between-semester break is Rick Faner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Faner of 615 Mayfair. He is attending DePauw University in Greencastle, Ind.

"It's sure nice to have our son home for a while," said Mrs. Faner. "It helps break up a dull January."

Jim Jedd, a senior in premed at Illinois University, went to New Orleans to celebrate his semester break. He stayed with a friend at Tulane University there and took in the sights of that southern city.

A week's leave gave Fred Fraizer Jr., 115 Brighton, a chance to spend some time at home. He finished his basic training at Ft. Knox and is now stationed at Ft. Polk, La.

"I shouldn't say it was just neighbors, as there were close friends here too," explained Mrs. Robert Schneberger, speaking of a party luncheon she had last week for Ruth McLeod who is moving to Atlanta, Ga. Mrs. Francine Terell of Arlington Heights also helped in giving the party.

TWENTY-FIVE friends met for a Sunday brunch at the home of Mrs. Charles Oestmann, 320 Burton, to say farewell to Mr. and Mrs. M. C. McLeod who are moving to Atlanta shortly. Mr. and Mrs. Roger Girard co-hosted the group.

Eight neighborhood women presented Mrs. Robert Young of 640 Lincoln with a parting gift at a bridge party held in the home of Jean Dickinson, 632 Lincoln Lane. The Robert Youngs are being transferred to Baltimore, Md.

Douglas Myer, son of Mrs. and Mrs. Victor Myer, 515 Belmont, celebrated his 11th birthday Jan. 19.

"This is the year for no special party," laughed Mrs. Myer. "But having a birthday gave Doug the chance to get together with a few friends here."

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lockwood, 312 Derbyshire, are the proud grandparents of a baby boy. Their daughter, the former Linda Lockwood, is the mother of Christopher Alan born in St. Luke's Hospital in Davenport. Mrs. Robert Lockwood has just returned from visiting the new grandson. (A

Birthday Parties Enliven Local Social Scene

Sidelights Of Arlington Heights

Arlington Heights, Scarsdale & Estates, Stonegate

As if in commemoration of a year ago this week, Correspondent Meyer's telephone sighed deeply Monday afternoon and gave up the ghost. You do remember the ice storm of one year ago? . . . no phones, no heat, no light and almost no Sidelights. Although this reporter had telephone service last year, many contacts did not; this year it's the other way 'round but the result is the same — almost no Sidelights. Bargain Poetry

Julia Ward Howe, author of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," received $4 for the poem which she sold to the Atlantic Monthly in 1862.

Marie Marshall

CLearbrook 5-2936

Notes from Arlington Acres

Jack Barlow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barlow, 424 S. Phelps, graduated from Upper Iowa University at Fayette last weekend. A Prospect High School alum, Jack is to be especially commended for having earned his bachelor's degree in three and a half years. His parents made the trip to Fayette to attend the exercises and a special brunch in honor of the graduating class.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Henning and their children, Laurel, Larry and Gregg, 408 S. Waterman, spent a reportedly delightful weekend at Lake Shangrila, Wis. They were guests of friends who own a summer home there and who had invited two dozen people for a weekend of sledding and ice skating.

Margaret Marshall, 432 S. Forrest, is receiving the congratulations on having made the dean's list for the fall quarter of her senior year at Northwestern.

SHARON CONWAY, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Conway, 513 S. Prindle, celebrated her Jan. 17 birthday by having Cathy Oravetz, Kris and Karen Soukup, Sandy Burke, Nancy Tait, Lynne Detwiler and Maureen Shawhan in for a chicken dinner topped off with a birthday cake. An evening of party games followed the festive meal.

Frankie Beem celebrated his Jan. 12 birthday Saturday afternoon by having some of his friends in for a pinata party, suggested by the family's recent trip to Mexico. The first break in the ocean liner shaped pinata was made by Dickie Christiansen and the rest of the demolition was accomplished by Paul Jahn, Stevie Butkus, Karen Kurp, Judy Andrich, the 8-year-old's brother, Patrick, and cousins, Elise, Julie and Mario Melchiore of Mount Prospect. Cake and ice cream were served and the guests took home gifts of Mexican yo-yos among other prizes.

Frankie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beem, 412 S. Waterman.

CAROL WAXLAX, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Waxlax, who was 4 Jan. 19, had her party the Saturday before, when she and her friends were taken to the movies and returned to the Waxlax home, 437 S. Prindle, for birthday cake and ice cream. In the group were Barby and Patty Thorstad, Laura Schneider, David Brown, Beth and Amy Wagner and Carol's brother, John.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kurp, 416 S. Waterman, were married eight years Jan. 18. They celebrated Saturday when they had dinner with friends at the Elks Club in Arlington Heights.

Any birthday is bound to be a happy occasion when it is celebrated by eight brothers and sisters. Such was the case Friday in the Archie Loch home, 2124 E. Park, when Raymond was 7 and was bombarded with the best wishes of Tommy, Timmy, Terry, Michael, David, Kelly, Molly and Kathleen.

SUE ORAVETZ, a freshman at Pillsbury Bible College at Owatonna, Minn., and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Oravetz, 533 S. Prindle, spent her Jan. 20 birthday away from home for the first time, and had to settle for telephoned greetings from the family. They had all been together over the holidays, when they spent a week in Greenville, S. C., visiting an older daughter, Karyl, and her husband, Carl Brandon.

Sunday the telephone again played a part in keeping the Oravetz family in touch with each other. The Brandons called to say that they were "iced in" by the storm which hit the East Coast.

Frankie Gryzik's Jan. 20 birthday was celebrated Saturday when neighborhood playmates were invited for lunch, followed by party games suitable for a 4-year-old birthday boy and his peers. Guests were Scott Moller, Dean Briscoe, Alan Cerva, Cindy Wright, Konni Knutsen and Frankie's sisters. Frankie is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gryzik, 417 S. Forrest.

The best wishes of their friends and neighbors go with the Roy Lane family, 1823 E. Park, who left Friday for a new home in Midland, Tex. Roy is with Union Oil. A promotion accompanied the transfer. (A

Long Grove
Country Club Estates

We understand that the idea of building homes along the fairways of a golf course originated in Palm Springs, California.

Regardless of where it started, we have seen from our own experience how a combination of a large site and the open greenery of acres of golf course provides a most distinctive and exclusive setting for the fine custom-built residence.

If you are seeking a close-in yet still rural setting and desire to build or buy a home in the general area of $75,000, we invite your inspection of our acre or larger home-sites in varying degree of proximity to the fairways and greens of the Long Grove Country Club.

Property office is located on Route 53, approximately two miles north of Rand Road (U.S. 12), or one mile west of the juncture of Routes 53 and 83.

Bargain Poetry

Julia Ward Howe, author of "The Battle Hymn of the Republic," received $4 for the poem which she sold to the Atlantic Monthly in 1862.

Marie Marshall CLearbrook 5-2936

Notes from Arlington Acres

Jack Barlow, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Barlow, 424 S. Phelps, graduated from Upper Iowa University at Fayette last weekend. A Prospect High School alum, Jack is to be especially commended for having earned his bachelor's degree in three and a half years. His parents made the trip to Fayette to attend the exercises and a special brunch in honor of the graduating class.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Henning and their children, Laurel, Larry and Gregg, 408 S. Waterman, spent a reportedly delightful weekend at Lake Shangrila, Wis. They were guests of friends who own a summer home there and who had invited two dozen people for a weekend of sledding and ice skating.

Margaret Marshall, 432 S. Forrest, is receiving the congratulations on having made the dean's list for the fall quarter of her senior year at Northwestern.

SHARON CONWAY, 10-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Francis Conway, 513 S. Prindle, celebrated her Jan. 17 birthday by having Cathy Oravetz, Kris and Karen Soukup, Sandy Burke, Nancy Tait, Lynne Detwiler and Maureen Shawhan in for a chicken dinner topped off with a birthday cake. An evening of party games followed the festive meal.

Frankie Beem celebrated his Jan. 12 birthday Saturday afternoon by having some of his friends in for a pinata party, suggested by the family's recent trip to Mexico. The first break in the ocean liner shaped pinata was made by Dickie Christiansen and the rest of the demolition was accomplished by Paul Jahn, Stevie Butkus, Karen Kurp, Judy Andrich, the 8-year-old's brother, Patrick, and cousins, Elise, Julie and Mario Melchiore of Mount Prospect. Cake and ice cream were served and the guests took home gifts of Mexican yo-yos among other prizes.

Frankie is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Beem, 412 S. Waterman.

CAROL WAXLAX, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lorne Waxlax, who was 4 Jan. 19, had her party the Saturday before, when she and her friends were taken to the movies and returned to the Waxlax home, 437 S. Prindle, for birthday cake and ice cream. In the group were Barby and Patty Thorstad, Laura Schneider, David Brown, Beth and Amy Wagner and Carol's brother, John.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Kurp, 416 S. Waterman, were married eight years Jan. 18. They celebrated Saturday when they had dinner with friends at the Elks Club in Arlington Heights.

Any birthday is bound to be a happy occasion when it is celebrated by eight brothers and sisters. Such was the case Friday in the Archie Loch home, 2124 E. Park, when Raymond was 7 and was bombarded with the best wishes of Tommy, Timmy, Terry, Michael, David, Kelly, Molly and Kathleen.

SUE ORAVETZ, a freshman at Pillsbury Bible College at Owatonna, Minn., and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Oravetz, 533 S. Prindle, spent her Jan. 20 birthday away from home for the first time, and had to settle for telephoned greetings from the family. They had all been together over the holidays, when they spent a week in Greenville, S. C., visiting an older daughter, Karyl, and her husband, Carl Brandon.

Sunday the telephone again played a part in keeping the Oravetz family in touch with each other. The Brandons called to say that they were "iced in" by the storm which hit the East Coast.

Frankie Gryzik's Jan. 20 birthday was celebrated Saturday when neighborhood playmates were invited for lunch, followed by party games suitable for a 4-year-old birthday boy and his peers. Guests were Scott Moller, Dean Briscoe, Alan Cerva, Cindy Wright, Konni Knutsen and Frankie's sisters. Frankie is the only son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gryzik, 417 S. Forrest.

The best wishes of their friends and neighbors go with the Roy Lane family, 1823 E. Park, who left Friday for a new home in Midland, Tex. Roy is with Union Oil. A promotion accompanied the transfer. (A

Bus Company Denies Service Complaint

A complaint that the Cook County School Bus Company has been using buses for charter trips when it should be transporting high school students was denied Wedensday by manager Grayce Sazma.

District 214 school board member Leah Cummins charged Monday that some Forest View High School buses never came that afternoon and that she had observed two of the company's buses picking up Dempster Junior High students shortly after 3 p.m.

Her accusations, made at the high school meeting, brought a promise to investigate the matter from business manager Francis Coleman.

MRS. SAZMA SAID Wednesday that every route was covered at Forest View Monday afternoon and that the company does not schedule charter trips during high school dismissal hours.

Leonard Garasha, director of transportation for elementary. district 59, confirmed that the company supplied two buses Monday between 3:15 and 3:30 p.m. to take Dempster Junior High School students to a roller skating party.

Coleman said he was awaiting a letter from Mrs. Sazma which will contain the dispatcher's record for the day. According to her, the report will show that buses were dispatched to cover all the Forest View routes that day.

"Until I see her records, I have no reason to question her statements now," said Coleman.

A RESIDENT OF Elk Grove Village, Mrs. Cummins said she had received numerous complaints from village residents about poor bus service. Some buses are late because they run double shifts, and others apparently never arrive, she claimed.

Mrs. Cummins also stated that the company is being paid to supply a full run of buses to District 214 and should give refunds when full service is not provided.

Coleman told board members Monday that the district had received refunds for September and October, when earlier complaints were made about the service, but had not received refunds for short runs in November and December.

Coleman said Wednesday that Mrs. Sazma blamed the payment delay on a shortage of clerical help and promised to put checks in the mail as soon as possible.

The contract calls for the company to supply 63 buses at $30 per day and seven standby buses at $10 per day.

Elgin Youths Face Drinking Charge

Police arrested three youths at the Cellar in Arlington Heights Friday and charged two with public intoxication and released the third to his parents.

The youths, all from Elgin, were arrested after a security officer noticed that they were acting strangely.

David L. Parrish, 18, of 205 S. Melrose, and Thomas G. Hoppe, 18, of 208 Woodard, were booked by police. Robert D. Hansen, 19, of 618 Washburn, was released to his parents after producing papers that showed him going into the Air Force in a week.

PARRISH SAID the liquor had been purchased in Elgin and consumed on the tollway on the way to the teenage nightclub at Northwest Highway and Highland Avenue in Arlington Heights, according to police.

Parrish claimed a stranger obtained the liquor for the youths after they approached him in a residential section of Elgin, police said. (A

Some Night Classes Still Have Openings

A first check on enrollments in Township High School District 214's adult school classes has turned up some surprises, according to Director of Adult Education W. L. Randle.

There are still openings in some of the sewing and tailoring classes — very unusual considering the popularity of these classes, Randle says.

Among other classes with openings are developmental reading, basic English, Great Books, landscape gardening, technical and professional report writing, theatrical workshop, modern math for parents, basic and intermediate electricity and machine shop.

ALSO STILL accepting registrations are the high school and college credit courses, advanced banjo, and "The Art of Rearing Children."

Classes in the high school adult education series will start next week in all four high schools in the district. Arrangements can be made to register by mail or at the office during the day.

Persons wishing information on any of the classes should contact Randle at CL 3-1700. His office is in the district administration building, 799 W. Kensington Road, Mount Prospect.

EG Sophs Lose To MS Matmen

Five grapplers gained points for Elk Grove last Saturday but EG still lost a 26-19 sophomore wrestling decision to Maine South.

Chuck Raffaele (145 pounds) registered the lone Grove pin in the meet. Decisions for the losers went to Jim Devito (103), Dave Wheeler (127), Mike Ernest (138) and Bart Zeitner (heavyweight).

As a result of that setback Elk Grove sophs saw their record drop below .500 for the first time this year. The charges of coach Bob Walther now own a season mark of 4-5.

Tax Base Up 19 Million

P. J. Cullerton, Cook County Assessor, announced today that the 1965 real estate assessment for Elk Grove Township was $141,372,980, an increase of nearly $19 million over 1964.

The 15.5 per cent increase was due mainly to new construction being added to the assessment roll for 1965. Elk Grove covering an area of approrimately 30 square miles is located between Central and Devon Avenue, Rohlwing and Mount Prospect Road.

Cullerton said the total real estate assessment of Elk Grove Township has increased in the past 10 years from the 1955 assessment of $18,989,308 to the 1965 assessment of $141,372,980, 645 per cent.

Paddock to Report Republican Parley

The Republican endorsing convention in Springfield will be reported for Paddock Publications this weekend by T. William Swinford, news editor of the Hoffman Herald, one of the firm's 16 suburban newspapers.

The convention is the first of its kind in Illinois Republican history and is designed to gain majority approval for candidates for U.S. Senator, state treasurer and state superintendent of public instruction.

THE CONVENTION was designed to help the party unify and shed its traditional interparty feuding at primary election time, which often results in deep splits within the party structure.

Swinford, 28, has been with Paddock Publications since 1963. Prior to that time he was a reporter for Copley Press in Springfield, which publishes two daily newspapers.

His coverage will include a general report of the convention plus in-depth coverage of the township delegations from the northwest area. (B10

Set Mental Health As Lecture Topic

The extent to which the biological sciences can be applied in mental health research and treatment, will be discussed Feb. 9, at Forest Hospital in Des Plaines.

Speaker for the Fifth Scientific Lecture in the hospital's current series on "Stress and Adaptation—The Age of Anxiety," will be Fred Elmadjian, Ph.D. chief Biological Sciences Section, Training and Manpower Resources Branch, National Institute of Mental Health, Bethesda, Maryland.

"It is clear that man...cannot be understood in his totality by the natural scientists," states Dr. Elmadjian in a preview abstract of his talk on "The Role of the Biologist in Mental Health Activities."

DR. ELMADJIAN points out that "biology and psychology will never be found to contradict the principles of physics and chemistry, but our present physics and chemistry will not give full explanation to biology, and certainly not for psychology."

"Man is too complicated an event to be understood by one or another method," he continues. "Understanding man will require every possible avenue of approach."

In exploring these avenues in the biological sciences, Dr. Elmadjian will also talk about molecular biology, new findings in genetics and embryology.

CADET RONALD L. CONRAD, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Conrad, 326 Maureen Drive, Wheeling, received the 1965 Space-Age Leadership Award from Col. Russell P. Bus Company Denies Service Complaint

A complaint that the Cook County School Bus Company has been using buses for charter trips when it should be transporting high school students was denied Wedensday by manager Grayce Sazma.

District 214 school board member Leah Cummins charged Monday that some Forest View High School buses never came that afternoon and that she had observed two of the company's buses picking up Dempster Junior High students shortly after 3 p.m.

Her accusations, made at the high school meeting, brought a promise to investigate the matter from business manager Francis Coleman.

MRS. SAZMA SAID Wednesday that every route was covered at Forest View Monday afternoon and that the company does not schedule charter trips during high school dismissal hours.

Leonard Garasha, director of transportation for elementary. district 59, confirmed that the company supplied two buses Monday between 3:15 and 3:30 p.m. to take Dempster Junior High School students to a roller skating party.

Coleman said he was awaiting a letter from Mrs. Sazma which will contain the dispatcher's record for the day. According to her, the report will show that buses were dispatched to cover all the Forest View routes that day.

"Until I see her records, I have no reason to question her statements now," said Coleman.

A RESIDENT OF Elk Grove Village, Mrs. Cummins said she had received numerous complaints from village residents about poor bus service. Some buses are late because they run double shifts, and others apparently never arrive, she claimed.

Mrs. Cummins also stated that the company is being paid to supply a full run of buses to District 214 and should give refunds when full service is not provided.

Coleman told board members Monday that the district had received refunds for September and October, when earlier complaints were made about the service, but had not received refunds for short runs in November and December.

Coleman said Wednesday that Mrs. Sazma blamed the payment delay on a shortage of clerical help and promised to put checks in the mail as soon as possible.

The contract calls for the company to supply 63 buses at $30 per day and seven standby buses at $10 per day.

Elgin Youths Face Drinking Charge

Police arrested three youths at the Cellar in Arlington Heights Friday and charged two with public intoxication and released the third to his parents.

The youths, all from Elgin, were arrested after a security officer noticed that they were acting strangely.

David L. Parrish, 18, of 205 S. Melrose, and Thomas G. Hoppe, 18, of 208 Woodard, were booked by police. Robert D. Hansen, 19, of 618 Washburn, was released to his parents after producing papers that showed him going into the Air Force in a week.

PARRISH SAID the liquor had been purchased in Elgin and consumed on the tollway on the way to the teenage nightclub at Northwest Highway and Highland Avenue in Arlington Heights, according to police.

Parrish claimed a stranger obtained the liquor for the youths after they approached him in a residential section of Elgin, police said. (A

Some Night Classes Still Have Openings

A first check on enrollments in Township High School District 214's adult school classes has turned up some surprises, according to Director of Adult Education W. L. Randle.

There are still openings in some of the sewing and tailoring classes — very unusual considering the popularity of these classes, Randle says.

Among other classes with openings are developmental reading, basic English, Great Books, landscape gardening, technical and professional report writing, theatrical workshop, modern math for parents, basic and intermediate electricity and machine shop.

ALSO STILL accepting registrations are the high school and college credit courses, advanced banjo, and "The Art of Rearing Children."

Classes in the high school adult education series will start next week in all four high schools in the district. Arrangements can be made to register by mail or at the office during the day.

Persons wishing information on any of the classes should contact Randle at CL 3-1700. His office is in the district administration building, 799 W. Kensington Road, Mount Prospect.

Paddock to Report Republican Parley

The Republican endorsing convention in Springfield will be reported for Paddock Publications this weekend by T. William Swinford, news editor of the Hoffman Herald, one of the firm's 16 suburban newspapers.

The convention is the first of its kind in Illinois Republican history and is designed to gain majority approval for candidates for U.S. Senator, state treasurer and state superintendent of public instruction.

THE CONVENTION was designed to help the party unify and shed its traditional inter-party feuding at primary election time, which often results in deep splits within the party structure.

Swinford, 28, has been with Paddock Publications since 1963. Prior to that time he was a reporter for Copley Press in Springfield, which publishes two daily newspapers.

His coverage will include a general report of the convention plus in-depth coverage of the township delegations from the northwest area. (B10

EG Sophs Lose To MS Matmen

Five grapplers gained points for Elk Grove last Saturday but EG still lost a 26-19 sophomore wrestling decision to Maine South.

Chuck Raffaele (145 pounds) registered the lone Grove pin in the meet. Decisions for the losers went to Jim Devito (103), Dave Wheeler (127), Mike Ernest (138) and Bart Zeitner (heavyweight).

As a result of that setback Elk Grove sophs saw their record drop below .500 for the first time this year. The charges of coach Bob Walther now own a season mark of 4-5.

Tax Base Up 19 Million

P. J. Cullerton, Cook County Assessor, announced today that the 1965 real estate assessment for Elk Grove Township was $141,372,980, an increase of nearly $19 million over 1964.

The 15.5 per cent increase was due mainly to new construction being added to the assessment roll for 1965. Elk Grove covering an area of approrimately 30 square miles is located between Central and Devon Avenue, Rohlwing and Mount Prospect Road.

Cullerton said the total real estate assessment of Elk Grove Township has increased in the past 10 years from the 1955 assessment of $18,989,308 to the 1965 assessment of $141,372,980, 645 per cent.

Set Mental Health As Lecture Topic

The extent to which the biological sciences can be applied in mental health research and treatment, will be discussed Feb. 9, at Forest Hospital in Des Plaines.

Speaker for the Fifth Scientific Lecture in the hospital's current series on "Stress and Adaptation—The Age of Anxiety," will be Fred Elmadjian, Ph.D. chief Biological Sciences Section, Training and Manpower Resources Branch, National Institute of Mental Health, Bethesda, Maryland.

"It is clear that man...cannot be understood in his totality by the natural scientists," states Dr. Elmadjian in a preview abstract of his talk on "The Role of the Biologist in Mental Health Activities."

DR. ELMADJIAN points out that "biology and psychology will never be found to contradict the principles of physics and chemistry, but our present physics and chemistry will not give full explanation to biology, and certainly not for psychology."

"Man is too complicated an event to be understood by one or another method," he continues. "Understanding man will require every possible avenue of approach."

In exploring these avenues in the biological sciences, Dr. Elmadjian will also talk about molecular biology, new findings in genetics and embryology.

Forest View News

It will be a loss to the Forest View area when Rev. Michael Delamarian Jr., Myrtle Avenue, and his wife and family, Marleen, a freshman at Forest View, Michael, a student at Dempster Junior High, and Ruth and Steve, students at Forest View Elementary, leave for Camarillo, Calif., where he has answered the call to be pastor at Camarillo Heights Baptist Church.

Rev. Delamarian has been pastor of the Mount Prospect Bible Church for the past seven and a half years.

Friends and neighbors wish the best of luck to them in their new home.

Forest View area residents should set aside Feb. 4, at 7:30 p.m., for the second family night movie to be shown at Forest View Elementary School. The movie will be Walt Disney's "Gray Friars Bobbie."

Birthday greetings this week go to Sarah Smalenberger, Bernard Olson, Cathy Wickline, Jim Giesler, Randy Granath, David Lee, Francis Krebs and Dean Schrager.

Anniversary wishes go to the Robert Benders, Leon Wilders and the Roy McLaurins.

COLONIAL HEIGHTS

The Robert Giesels, Myrtle Drive, spent a recent evening with the Richard Cartwrights in Wheaton.

The Giesels were dinner guests of the Von Bessers in Glenview on Sunday and on Wednesday Mrs. Guy Dixon and children of Glenview were luncheon guests in the Giesel home.

The Frank Rucci family, 1707 Myrtle Drive, enjoyed a week's visit from Mr. Rucci's niece, Mrs. Ada McGrail and her infant son from Connecticut.

A nephew, Carl De Carlo, also from Connecticut, surprised the Ruccis by stopping off for a few days' visit before returning to classes at Purdue University.

ON THURSDAY, Danny Wuchterl's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Carroll of Chicago, came for dinner and to help him blow out the candle on his first birthday cake.

The Wuchterls' Saturday dinner guests were Danny's godparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Karwoski and two children of West Chicago. Wednesday evening Ed and Judy entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. Colterjohn of Mount Prospect.

Jo Jo Carcerano, 1721 Kim, had a house full of boy friends as guests for his sixth birthday luncheon party on Saturday.

Sunday the David Andersons of Kim Avenue were in St. Charles at the Frank Wasmans', helping to celebrate the birthday of their daughter, Mary Sue.

ELK RIDGE VILLA

The Bill Mallians, Robert Drive, had Mrs. D. Green of Libertyville and Mr. and Mrs. Drechsler of Norridge as guests for Saturday dinner to celebrate Susan's 11th and Keith's ninth birthdays.

Ben and Sally Vinikour, 909 Meyer Road, were recent dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Goodman in Skokie. Wednesday afternoon the Vinikours took Debbie and Sharon to see "My Fair Lady" at the Old Orchard Theatre in Skokie.

On Sunday, the Vinikours were guests of their nephew and niece, Ben and Shirley Vinikour in Skokie.

Forest View News

It will be a loss to the Forest View area when Rev. Michael Delamarian Jr., Myrtle Avenue, and his wife and family, Marleen, a freshman at Forest View, Michael, a student at Dempster Junior High, and Ruth and Steve, students at Forest View Elementary, leave for Camarillo, Calif., where he has answered the call to be pastor at Camarillo Heights Baptist Church.

Rev. Delamarian has been pastor of the Mount Prospect Bible Church for the past seven and a half years.

Friends and neighbors wish the best of luck to them in their new home.

Forest View area residents should set aside Feb. 4, at 7:30 p.m., for the second family night movie to be shown at Forest View Elementary School. The movie will be Walt Disney's "Gray Friars Bobbie."

Birthday greetings this week go to Sarah Smalenberger, Bernard Olson, Cathy Wickline, Jim Giesler, Randy Granath, David Lee, Francis Krebs and Dean Schrager.

Anniversary wishes go to the Robert Benders, Leon Wilders and the Roy McLaurins.

COLONIAL HEIGHTS

The Robert Giesels, Myrtle Drive, spent a recent evening with the Richard Cartwrights in Wheaton.

The Giesels were dinner guests of the Von Bessers in Glenview on Sunday and on Wednesday Mrs. Guy Dixon and children of Glenview were luncheon guests in the Giesel home.

The Frank Rucci family, 1707 Myrtle Drive, enjoyed a week's visit from Mr. Rucci's niece, Mrs. Ada McGrail and her infant son from Connecticut.

A nephew, Carl De Carlo, also from Connecticut, surprised the Ruccis by stopping off for a few days' visit before returning to classes at Purdue University.

ON THURSDAY, Danny Wuchterl's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William Carroll of Chicago, came for dinner and to help him blow out the candle on his first birthday cake.

The Wuchterls' Saturday dinner guests were Danny's godparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. Karwoski and two children of West Chicago. Wednesday evening Ed and Judy entertained Mr. and Mrs. W. Colterjohn of Mount Prospect.

Jo Jo Carcerano, 1721 Kim, had a house full of boy friends as guests for his sixth birthday luncheon party on Saturday.

Sunday the David Andersons of Kim Avenue were in St. Charles at the Frank Wasmans', helping to celebrate the birthday of their daughter, Mary Sue.

ELK RIDGE VILLA

The Bill Mallians, Robert Drive, had Mrs. D. Green of Libertyville and Mr. and Mrs. Drechsler of Norridge as guests for Saturday dinner to celebrate Susan's 11th and Keith's ninth birthdays.

Ben and Sally Vinikour, 909 Meyer Road, were recent dinner guests of Dr. and Mrs. Sidney Goodman in Skokie. Wednesday afternoon the Vinikours took Debbie and Sharon to see "My Fair Lady" at the Old Orchard Theatre in Skokie.

On Sunday, the Vinikours were guests of their nephew and niece, Ben and Shirley Vinikour in Skokie. (AME

Nine Towns Form Council On Jobs for Handicapped

The Northwest Municipal Conference, comprising mayors, board presidents and other civic officials of nine local communities, launched its 1966 agenda Jan. 18 with the establishment of a council to assure equal employment opportunity for an estimated 15,000 handicapped persons in the northwest suburban area.

The council will serve all nine suburbs represented by the Municipal Conference—Palatine, Park Ridge, Elk Grove Village, Des Plaines, Mount Prospect, Arlington Heights, Barrington, Barrington Hills and Rolling Meadows.

Mayor Hubert Behrel of Des Plaines explained that the council will fill "a pressing need" to restore handicapped persons to self-reliant wage earners.

"ONE OUT OF every 10 persons suffers from some handicap," he told Conference members at the January 18 meeting held in the Des Plaines Municipal Building. "Many are overlooked or discriminated against when seeking employment. The result is personal tragedy, plus a setback to the social and economic progress of the community."

Mayor Behrel explained that the council will be an official, yet independent arm of the Governor's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped. "Our job is to marshal the efforts of community leaders, civic groups, employers, and members of the professional disciplines to discover, rehabilitate and return handicapped individuals to their rightful role as constructive members of society."

At the meeting Governor's Committee Chairman Dr. Frank J. Jirka, Jr., 1507 Keystone Ave., River Forest, presented a citation from the President's Committee on Employment of the Handicapped to Bruce L. Karr, 29, of 424 Highview, Elmhurst, Illinois. Karr, almost entirely wheelchair bound following an attack of polio during high school days, went on to earn a B.A. degree in marketing at the University of Illinois. Since 1960, he has been a buyer for United Air Lines in Elk Grove Village.

DR. JIRKA called Karr's achievement "an inspiration to handicapped everywhere that ability, not disability counts."

Married and the father of three children, Karr is president of the Chicagoland Wheelchair Sports and has led their basketball team to competition in the 1960 and 1964 Olympic Games held at Rome and Tokyo.

United Air Lines Senior Vice President Charles M. Mason accompanied Karr and his wife to the presentation ceremonies.

Dr. Jirka referred to the Northwest Municipal Council on Employment of the Handicapped as an "important breakthrough in the age-old problem" of assuring equal employment opportunity for qualified handicapped persons.

"FOR THE FIRST time anywhere effective agencies are being created which can reach into the local community and uproot the problem at its source."

Dr. Jirka added that formation of a Berwyn-Cicero Council last summer, coupled with the institution of the Northwest Municipal Council, indicates that Illinois is "well on its way toward establishing a statewide network of similar councils that will form one common bond of effort in behalf of the handicapped."

It was agreed that future officers of the Northwest Municipal Conference—to be named at the next meeting—will act as temporary officers for the handicap council until a permanent group can be elected.

ONCE IN operation, Mayor Behrel said, the council will survey the handicapped population in the area, classify them according to capability and interest, refer them to vocational rehabilitation for training when necessary, and arrange for person-to-person interviews between the handicapped client and local employers.

"While the council will work closely with the Illinois Division of Vocational Rehabilitaton and the State Employment Service, we expect to enlist the cooperation of all local agencies public and private," the mayor said.

SUMMER'S DESTINATION—Mrs. Miriam Wood, Wheeling language teacher who will be a guide for District 214 "French Abroad" program this summer, points out for two students the town in Brittany which will be her summer destination. Enjoying the preview are Mike Kurman, 1413 Orchard Drive, Prospect Heights, and Julie Noakes, 1107 Greenwood Drive, Mount Prospect.

Civic Panel to Predict 1980 Needs for Arlington Heights

A panel of three community leaders will be asked at the Jan. 31 Community Council meeting to project their thinking 10 years ahead to provide a guess about how Arlington will meet the challenge of a population growth to 80,000 by 1975.

John Woods, village president of Arlington Heights; Charles Hayes, executive editor of Paddock Publications; and Robert Cagann, Wheeling Township Auditor and director of property management for F-B-K Realtors, will give their ideas and suggestions on how to meet the challenge of 1975 at 8 p.m. at Miner Junior High School, Miner St. and Dryden Ave.

AMONG QUESTIONS they will consider will be:

—Can the downtown area be saved or will other areas and outlying shopping centers outsell, out-merchandise, and outmaneuver us?

—Must we aggressively encourage more industry and more multiple-family residences in order to lower our tax base?

—Where will we get the money to provide education from kindergarten through junior college?

—Can we avoid metropolitan government when we have already experienced serious water problems?

—Is the Trustee form of government adequate or must we change to a mayor-aldermanic form? Do the major political parties have a legitimate role in local elections?

—What's missing from Arlington Heights now?

COMMENTING TO Comco on the changes, Hayes stated, "What we will need most is planned improvement of the tax base, including light industrial and research development as well as downtown renewal. Basically, Arlington Heights needs continued good government; this kind of planning comes from good government."

Cagann told Comco that an aggressive attitude is needed in the area of multiple-family residences.

He said, "Arlington Heights is losing out to other communities. Instead of living here, people locate in other communities, taking their tax dollars with them. This means we lose real estate taxes and sales taxes in both the township and village. What we need are more luxury type apartments in the $250 to $300 per month price range. Right now we could handle up to 100 more units in selective areas."

Asked by Comco about changing to a mayoral-aldermanic form of local government John Woods indicated strong opposition.

He said, "There is a tremendous advantage in having each trustee elected by the village at large since this requires him to consider the interests of the entire village at all times rather than only worrying about pleasing his own sectional interests. It also keeps the board down to a workable size; if we had a council it could mean as many as 15 aldermen and this would mean less flexibility."

Richard Cowen, program chairman for Comco, said, "It is our hope that this panel will stimulate a free-flowing exchange of ideas, both among the panelists and with the audience as well." (A

Letter from Comas Tells Use of Funds, Vitamins

A letter from Comas thanks Arlington Heights residents for the help they have given their sister city in Peru.

It notes the medicines shipped to Comas at Christmas are being distributed and funds sent at the same time will be used for student programs during the upcoming summer vacation.

The post-Christmas letter is from Father Andres Godin, head of the Comas Inter American Friendship Program committee, to his counterpart in Arlington Heights, Mrs. John Hutchison.

He writes, "I just received your letter with the best wishes for a wonderful Christmas and with the enclosed check of 2,000 soles, from the board of the IAFP and the people of Arlington Heights. . .

"I WILL USE (the funds) for an educational program during this summer vacation for the students. You know that we are in full summer here during January and February and that it is the vacation time for schools.

"This afternoon, we made a meeting with the doctors working in the area of Comas to distribute the vitamins you sent us. There were five doctors. We kept a good lot for the clinic which is receiving most of the patients in Comas, but also we thought that it is your will to help more people, as possible.

"We explained to the doctors that these vitamins from Arlington Heights must be given free to the poor patients and are not to be sold. We want to trust them, and giving them confidence. . .is the best way to work all together.

"I was also very pleased to announce to the people of Comas your gift of medicines, and those who are in need will find this assistance from Arlington Heights through our clinic and the five doctors in different sectors of Comas." (A

Gillen Named New United Fund Chief

John F. Gillen, 331 S. Windsor Drive, has been named 1966n president of the Arlington Heights United Fund.

Gillen was the 1965 residential drive chairman for the United Fund.

Named vice president was Norval B. Stephens, 402 S. Belmont Ave., who replaced Roger Chapman. Guy M. Anderson was renamed secretary. Anderson was renamed secretary. Anderson lives at 1602 N. Kennicott Ave.

John Frieburg, Jr., 1303 E. Eastmen St., was elected treasurer, succeeding W. C. Wolf.

SEVEN PRSONS were named to three-year terms on the board of directors. They are:

Mrs. Martha Pate, 1308 W. Heather Lane, George C. (Bud) Beacham Jr., 1516 N. Kennicott, Ave., Frieburg, Dr. E. J. Jacobs, 904 S. Burton, Dr. Edward H. Gilbert, 403 S. Yale Ave., Stewart M. Grant, 701 S. Mitchell Ave., and Robert J. Rodig, 737 S. Beverly Lane.

The United Fund last year reached its goal for the first time in its history. Gillen told directors his first job will be to find a replacement for Paul Collins, who served as last year's general chairman. (A

SELF ANALYSIS QUIZ

Who Is More Likely To--- A Man Or A Woman?

by Jane Sherrod Singer

Men and women differ in their reactions in any one given situation. While there are no iron-clad rules, can you judge which sex would be more likely to react in the way described in the scenes described below?

1. A man and his wife take a trip abroad. One of them wants to visit a typical native restaurant, but the other wants home food. Which wants to visit? Man Woman
2. "Well," said the doctor, "you certainly are having a lot of accidents. Why aren't you as careful as your mate?" It is likely the doctor was speaking to the Man Woman
3. On a trip, a couple realize they are lost. One wants to stop and ask, the other wants to find the way without help. Who wants the information? Man Woman
4. In the foyer of a restaurant there is a large mirror. Six men and six women file by. Which sex is more likely to stop for a look into the mirror? Men Women
5. A couple have been going together for sometime but are suddenly separated by distance. The one who will usually be first to lose interest in the other party is the Man Woman
6. Who is the more demanding and critical in a marriage? Man Woman
7. A group is discussing a recent book. One member says that it seems unlikely, according to reviews, that it will become a best seller. Another person says, "I feel sure it will. I thought it was a marvelous piece of writing. Just give it time." Who made the statement? Man Woman
8. "My, what a lovely birthday party. It hardly seems possible though that I'm thirty-nine," said the guest of honor. "No, it doesn't", said another guest. "We were born the same year, and I'm forty one." The person who lied about age was likely a Man Woman

ANSWERS:

1. WOMEN, according, to surveys, are more adventurous about trying new foods and new restaurants.
2. WOMEN, according to Dr. Leonard Carmichael of the Smithsonian Institute, are more accident-prone than men.
3. WOMEN, says Dr. Jennings, do not have their pride to consider so they feel freer to ask for information than men who are supposed to know their way around.
4. WOMEN, on the basis of a number of studies, are more vain than men.
5. WOMEN, according to studies at the University of Redlands, lose interest in the object of their attention when he is absent for a prolonged period of time.
6. WOMEN reports the Michigan Survey Research Center, demand more from their husbands and complain more when they do not get their wishes granted.
7. WOMEN are more likely to judge the reactions of a group on how she feels personally on a subject. The study from the University of Michigan goes on to state that men rely more on object evidence than feeling or intuition.
8. WOMEN are vain about their age and often fib about it. This, however, is also true about men who "forget" how old they are. This deceit is shared equally between men and women.

Burglars Cause $3,000 Damage

Burglars, who apparently felt they had all the time in the world, caused an estimated $3,000 damage at Beer Motors, truck and construction equipment dealer on Algonquin Road in Elk Grove Township, and finally left with more than $100 in cash from the company's safe.

The burglary was discovered early Wednesday morning by John Walker, an employe. Cook County sheriff's police were called in to investigate the break-in. Beer Motors is located just east of United Air Lines building south of Mount Prospect.

Entry was gained through an overhead door window, a company spokesman said, and then a complete sweep was made of the garage and offices.

WINDOWS WERE broken in pickup trucks parked in the garage and in an outside lot, cans of oil, grease and other liquids were broken against walls, and the soft drink machine and cigarette machines broken open and looted.

The trail through the parts department showed more broken windows and other vandalism. Sledge hammers were used to break open the office safe containing about $130.

Insulation from inside the safe was also strewn about, and the phone smashed on the office floor.

Gordon H. Beer of Prospect Heights, owner of the company, said the burglary took place sometime after 11:30 Tuesday night when the last employe left the premises.

Caucus Issues Last Call to Candidates

"If you are interested in being a member of School District 23 Board of Education, we are interested in meeting with you."

Dennis Schackner, chairman of the Prospect Heights School District 23 Educational Caucus, issued a call this week for any prospective candidate, who would seek Caucus endorsement, to contact any member of his committee within the next seven days.

"We already have scheduled interviews with some who have completed our questionnaire," he said. "However, the door is wide open for any qualified Prospect Heights or Arlington Heights resident of the district to seek an interview with our committee."

RECOMMENDATIONS will be made by the Caucus for three three-year terms on the school board. Schackner may be contacted at CL 5-3030.

President of the Caucus is Michael Rosnick, 2061 Evergreen Terrace, Arlington Vista, 392-6153. (A

Astros Split Two Games

The Fox Valley Astros gained a split in the weekend series against the Rochester (Minn.) Mustangs by powering an 8 to 6 victory Sunday afternoon, after losing 5-1 Saturday in two United States Hockey League games at the Fox Valley Stadium, Dundee, Ill.

The split for the weekend gave the Astros their third win against 10 losses, while Rochester is now 8 and 7.

Fox Valley won't be back home until they meet the St. Paul Steers on Feb. 12 and 13 in the Fox Valley Stadium.

Rochester, Minn., is their next stop for a single next weekend, then they will meet the league leading Waterloo Blackhawks on Feb. 5-6 in Waterloo, Iowa.

Knights Stop FV Soph Wrestlers

Prospect sophomores took their sixth straight wrestling meet of the year last Friday. They topped Forest View 32-20.

Four pins were scored by the Knights against FV. They went to Bill Hueckstaedt (103 pounds), Jim Robinson (120), Terry Holhauser (127) and Jeff Schneider (180).

Decisions for Prospect went to Jim Ameroso (95), Bob Link (138), Ron Richardson (145) and Don Burkhardt (154). The Knights are now 6-1 for the season and 2-0 in Mid-Suburban League action.

Points for Forest View in the meet came on four pins. Brian Wolff (112), Ron Traub (133), Spencer Dreischarf (165), and Bob Savage (heavyweight) all downed their opponents. FV is now 6-3 overall and 0-2 in the M-SL.

At Drake

Miss Victoria Keyworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry R. Keyworth of 330 N. Walnut, Itasca, was recently pledged to Phi Gamma Nu, professional sorority, Upsilon Chapter at Drake University in Des Moines. (5CC

DONALD PETERSEN, 13, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne W. Petersen, 2505 E. Grove St., Arlington Heights, has attained the rank of Eagle Scout and will receive his medal Feb. 7 at the Troop 135 banquet at First Methodist Church. He has earned 22 merit badges and has medals for second and third place in council first aid contests. An eighth grader at Miner Junior High, he maintains a straight "A" average.

Class Slated in Wiring, Soldering

Absentee ballots are available now for Wheeling and Elk Grove Township voters who expect to be out of town on Saturday, Feb. 5, date of the District 214's next building bond referendum.

Voters that day will be asked to approve building of a sixth high school for the district. The total amount up for approval is $6.8 million, $6.5 million of it for a new 2,750-student high school on Willow Road in Prospect Heights, and the other $300,000 to purchase another high school site — for future use — in the River Trails area.

APPLICATIONS for absentee ballots may be requested by mail or picked up in person at the District 214 Administration Building, 799 Kensington Road, Mount Prospect, near Prospect High School.

The district will accept mailed requests for ballot applications until Monday, and they may be requested in person at the administration building through Wednesday, Feb. 2.

Returned ballots must be mailed or delivered to the high school district office no later than Friday, Feb. 4.

Church To Feature Youth at Services

Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church of Prospect Heights will observe Youth Sunday at both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. worship services this Sunday.

Members of the Luther League will participate in the worship services. Steve Lovering, president, and Terry Lovdjieff, vice president, will give temple talks during the service. Other officers will read the Epistle and Gospel lessons.

Four of the boys will usher, and two of the youth, Don Hanan and Joe Debinski, sing in the Senior Choir. The Luther Leaguers will hold a skating party later in the afternoon.

MR. AND MRS. Gene Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Straessle, counsellors of the Luther League, have been working with the youth in making preparations for Youth Sunday.

The purpose of Youth Sunday is to give recognition to the youth of the church who are active in the life of the congregation, serving as Sunday School teachers and helpers, ushering, acolyting, and helping in the nursery.

The Luther League seeks to deepen the Christian experience of the teenagers of the congregation.

Opening Set For Feb. 3

The Feb. 3 opening of the Chicago Health Club in Mount Prospect marks the ninth club in the Chicago area.

The choice of Mount Prospect was made because of the greater than normal number of inquiries and memberships coming from the area.

The decor of the Roman Spa club follows the theme of the Roman era, with an elongated ceiling, high Greco-Roman pillars and soft textured wood paneling. Antique sculptured busts and figures are reflected in antique trimmed mirrors.

THICK RED carpeting covers even the locker room and exercise room floor, and soft music is played continually.

The Chicago Health Clubs use a formula of weight reduction with emphasis on body reproportionment. The program is personally supervised by physical culture experts and specially designed equipment is used.

Available to members are whirlpools, sauna rooms, steam rooms, massages, and ultraviolet sun lamps. (B10

Nine Towns Form Council On Jobs for Handicapped

The Northwest Municipal Conference, comprising mayors, board presidents and other civic officials of nine local communities, launched its 1966 agenda Jan. 18 with the establishment of a council to assure equal employment opportunity for an estimated 15,000 handicapped persons in the northwest suburban area.

The council will serve all nine suburbs represented by the Municipal Conference—Palatine, Park Ridge, Elk Grove Village, Des Plaines, Mount Prospect, Arlington Heights, Barrington, Barrington Hills and Rolling Meadows.

"While the council will work closely with the Illinois Division of Vocational Rehabilitaton and the State Employment Service, we expect to enlist the cooperation of all local agencies public and private," the mayor said.

Civic Panel to Predict 1980 Needs for Arlington Heights

A panel of three community leaders will be asked at the Jan. 31 Community Council meeting to project their thinking 10 years ahead to provide a guess about how Arlington will meet the challenge of a population growth to 80,000 by 1975.

John Woods, village president of Arlington Heights; Charles Hayes, executive editor of Paddock Publications; and Robert Cagann, Wheeling Township Auditor and director of property management for F-B-K Realtors, will give their ideas and suggestions on how to meet the challenge of 1975 at 8 p.m. at Miner Junior High School, Miner St. and Dryden Ave.

AMONG QUESTIONS they will consider will be:

—Can the downtown area be saved or will other areas and outlying shopping centers outsell, out-merchandise, and outmaneuver us?

—Must we aggressively encourage more industry and more multiple-family residences in order to lower our tax base?

—Where will we get the money to provide education from kindergarten through junior college?

—Can we avoid metropolitan government when we have already experienced serious water problems?

—Is the Trustee form of government adequate or must we change to a mayor-aldermanic form? Do the major political parties have a legitimate role in local elections?

—What's missing from Arlington Heights now?

COMMENTING TO Comco on the changes, Hayes stated, "What we will need most is planned improvement of the tax base, including light industrial and research development as well as downtown renewal. Basically, Arlington Heights needs continued good government; this kind of planning comes from good government."

Cagann told Comco that an aggressive attitude is needed in the area of multiple-family residences.

He said, "Arlington Heights is losing out to other communities. Instead of living here, people locate in other communities, taking their tax dollars with them. This means we lose real estate taxes and sales taxes in both the township and village. What we need are more luxury type apartments in the $250 to $300 per month price range. Right now we could handle up to 100 more units in selective areas."

Asked by Comco about changing to a mayoral-aldermanic form of local government John Woods indicated strong opposition.

He said, "There is a tremendous advantage in having each trustee elected by the village at large since this requires him to consider the interests of the entire village at all times rather than only worrying about pleasing his own sectional interests. It also keeps the board down to a workable size; if we had a council it could mean as many as 15 aldermen and this would mean less flexibility."

Richard Cowen, program chairman for Comco, said, "It is our hope that this panel will stimulate a free-flowing exchange of ideas, both among the panelists and with the audience as well." (A

SELF ANALYSIS QUIZ

Who Is More Likely To--- A Man Or A Woman?

by Jane Sherrod Singer

Men and women differ in their reactions in any one given situation. While there are no iron-clad rules, can you judge which sex would be more likely to react in the way described in the scenes described below?

1. A man and his wife take a trip abroad. One of them wants to visit a typical native restaurant, but the other wants home food. Which wants to visit? Man Woman
2. "Well," said the doctor, "you certainly are having a lot of accidents. Why aren't you as careful as your mate?" It is likely the doctor was speaking to the Man Woman
3. On a trip, a couple realize they are lost. One wants to stop and ask, the other wants to find the way without help. Who wants the information? Man Woman
4. In the foyer of a restaurant there is a large mirror. Six men and six women file by. Which sex is more likely to stop for a look into the mirror? Men Women
5. A couple have been going together for sometime but are suddenly separated by distance. The one who will usually be first to lose interest in the other party is the Man Woman
6. Who is the more demanding and critical in a marriage? Man Woman
7. A group is discussing a recent book. One member says that it seems unlikely, according to reviews, that it will become a best seller. Another person says, "I feel sure it will. I thought it was a marvelous piece of writing. Just give it time." Who made the statement? Man Woman
8. "My, what a lovely birthday party. It hardly seems possible though that I'm thirty-nine," said the guest of honor. "No, it doesn't", said another guest. "We were born the same year, and I'm forty one." The person who lied about age was likely a Man Woman

ANSWERS:

1. WOMEN, according, to surveys, are more adventurous about trying new foods and new restaurants.
2. WOMEN, according to Dr. Leonard Carmichael of the Smithsonian Institute, are more accident-prone than men.
3. WOMEN, says Dr. Jennings, do not have their pride to consider so they feel freer to ask for information than men who are supposed to know their way around.
4. WOMEN, on the basis of a number of studies, are more vain than men.
5. WOMEN, according to studies at the University of Redlands, lose interest in the object of their attention when he is absent for a prolonged period of time.
6. WOMEN reports the Michigan Survey Research Center, demand more from their husbands and complain more when they do not get their wishes granted.
7. WOMEN are more likely to judge the reactions of a group on how she feels personally on a subject. The study from the University of Michigan goes on to state that men rely more on object evidence than feeling or intuition.
8. WOMEN are vain about their age and often fib about it. This, however, is also true about men who "forget" how old they are. This deceit is shared equally between men and women.

Burglars Cause $3,000 Damage

Burglars, who apparently felt they had all the time in the world, caused an estimated $3,000 damage at Beer Motors, truck and construction equipment dealer on Algonquin Road in Elk Grove Township, and finally left with more than $100 in cash from the company's safe.

The burglary was discovered early Wednesday morning by John Walker, an employe. Cook County sheriff's police were called in to investigate the break-in. Beer Motors is located just east of United Air Lines building south of Mount Prospect.

Entry was gained through an overhead door window, a company spokesman said, and then a complete sweep was made of the garage and offices.

WINDOWS WERE broken in pickup trucks parked in the garage and in an outside lot, cans of oil, grease and other liquids were broken against walls, and the soft drink machine and cigarette machines broken open and looted.

The trail through the parts department showed more broken windows and other vandalism. Sledge hammers were used to break open the office safe containing about $130.

Insulation from inside the safe was also strewn about, and the phone smashed on the office floor.

Gordon H. Beer of Prospect Heights, owner of the company, said the burglary took place sometime after 11:30 Tuesday night when the last employe left the premises.

Knights Stop FV Soph Wrestlers

Prospect sophomores took their sixth straight wrestling meet of the year last Friday. They topped Forest View 32-20.

Four pins were scored by the Knights against FV. They went to Bill Hueckstaedt (103 pounds), Jim Robinson (120), Terry Holhauser (127) and Jeff Schneider (180).

Decisions for Prospect went to Jim Ameroso (95), Bob Link (138), Ron Richardson (145) and Don Burkhardt (154). The Knights are now 6-1 for the season and 2-0 in Mid-Suburban League action.

Points for Forest View in the meet came on four pins. Brian Wolff (112), Ron Traub (133), Spencer Dreischarf (165), and Bob Savage (heavyweight) all downed their opponents. FV is now 6-3 overall and 0-2 in the M-SL.

Letter from Comas Tells Use of Funds, Vitamins

A letter from Comas thanks Arlington Heights residents for the help they have given their sister city in Peru.

It notes the medicines shipped to Comas at Christmas are being distributed and funds sent at the same time will be used for student programs during the upcoming summer vacation.

The post-Christmas letter is from Father Andres Godin, head of the Comas Inter American Friendship Program committee, to his counterpart in Arlington Heights, Mrs. John Hutchison.

He writes, "I just received your letter with the best wishes for a wonderful Christmas and with the enclosed check of 2,000 soles, from the board of the IAFP and the people of Arlington Heights. . .

"I WILL USE (the funds) for an educational program during this summer vacation for the students. You know that we are in full summer here during January and February and that it is the vacation time for schools.

"This afternoon, we made a meeting with the doctors working in the area of Comas to distribute the vitamins you sent us. There were five doctors. We kept a good lot for the clinic which is receiving most of the patients in Comas, but also we thought that it is your will to help more people, as possible.

"We explained to the doctors that these vitamins from Arlington Heights must be given free to the poor patients and are not to be sold. We want to trust them, and giving them confidence. . .is the best way to work all together.

"I was also very pleased to announce to the people of Comas your gift of medicines, and those who are in need will find this assistance from Arlington Heights through our clinic and the five doctors in different sectors of Comas." (A

Caucus Issues Last Call to Candidates

"If you are interested in being a member of School District 23 Board of Education, we are interested in meeting with you."

Dennis Schackner, chairman of the Prospect Heights School District 23 Educational Caucus, issued a call this week for any prospective candidate, who would seek Caucus endorsement, to contact any member of his committee within the next seven days.

"We already have scheduled interviews with some who have completed our questionnaire," he said. "However, the door is wide open for any qualified Prospect Heights or Arlington Heights resident of the district to seek an interview with our committee."

RECOMMENDATIONS will be made by the Caucus for three three-year terms on the school board. Schackner may be contacted at CL 5-3030.

President of the Caucus is Michael Rosnick, 2061 Evergreen Terrace, Arlington Vista, 392-6153. (A

Astros Split Two Games

The Fox Valley Astros gained a split in the weekend series against the Rochester (Minn.) Mustangs by powering an 8 to 6 victory Sunday afternoon, after losing 5-1 Saturday in two United States Hockey League games at the Fox Valley Stadium, Dundee, Ill.

The split for the weekend gave the Astros their third win against 10 losses, while Rochester is now 8 and 7.

Fox Valley won't be back home until they meet the St. Paul Steers on Feb. 12 and 13 in the Fox Valley Stadium.

Rochester, Minn., is their next stop for a single next weekend, then they will meet the league leading Waterloo Blackhawks on Feb. 5-6 in Waterloo, Iowa.

Knights' Matmen Lose JV Match

Prospect's junior varsity wrestlers had their record evened at 4-4 when they lost 26-22 to Barrington last Saturday.

Two pins were records by coach Tom Porter's JV Knights in their loss. They went to Rick Basch (95 pounds) and Don Burkhart (154). Decisions for Prospect were taken by Mike Herod (120), Marty Krause, (127) and Joe Koza (145).

Dennis Creighton (heavyweight) battled to a draw.

Gillen Named New United Fund Chief

John F. Gillen, 331 S. Windsor Drive, has been named 1966n president of the Arlington Heights United Fund.

Gillen was the 1965 residential drive chairman for the United Fund.

Named vice president was Norval B. Stephens, 402 S. Belmont Ave., who replaced Roger Chapman. Guy M. Anderson was renamed secretary. Anderson was renamed secretary. Anderson lives at 1602 N. Kennicott Ave.

John Frieburg, Jr., 1303 E. Eastmen St., was elected treasurer, succeeding W. C. Wolf.

SEVEN PRSONS were named to three-year terms on the board of directors. They are:

Mrs. Martha Pate, 1308 W. Heather Lane, George C. (Bud) Beacham Jr., 1516 N. Kennicott, Ave., Frieburg, Dr. E. J. Jacobs, 904 S. Burton, Dr. Edward H. Gilbert, 403 S. Yale Ave., Stewart M. Grant, 701 S. Mitchell Ave., and Robert J. Rodig, 737 S. Beverly Lane.

The United Fund last year reached its goal for the first time in its history. Gillen told directors his first job will be to find a replacement for Paul Collins, who served as last year's general chairman. (A

Class Slated in Wiring, Soldering

Absentee ballots are available now for Wheeling and Elk Grove Township voters who expect to be out of town on Saturday, Feb. 5, date of the District 214's next building bond referendum.

Voters that day will be asked to approve building of a sixth high school for the district. The total amount up for approval is $6.8 million, $6.5 million of it for a new 2,750-student high school on Willow Road in Prospect Heights, and the other $300,000 to purchase another high school site — for future use — in the River Trails area.

APPLICATIONS for absentee ballots may be requested by mail or picked up in person at the District 214 Administration Building, 799 Kensington Road, Mount Prospect, near Prospect High School.

The district will accept mailed requests for ballot applications until Monday, and they may be requested in person at the administration building through Wednesday, Feb. 2.

Returned ballots must be mailed or delivered to the high school district office no later than Friday, Feb. 4.

Church To Feature Youth at Services

Grace Evangelical Lutheran Church of Prospect Heights will observe Youth Sunday at both the 9:30 and 11 a.m. worship services this Sunday.

Members of the Luther League will participate in the worship services. Steve Lovering, president, and Terry Lovdjieff, vice president, will give temple talks during the service. Other officers will read the Epistle and Gospel lessons.

Four of the boys will usher, and two of the youth, Don Hanan and Joe Debinski, sing in the Senior Choir. The Luther Leaguers will hold a skating party later in the afternoon.

MR. AND MRS. Gene Nelson and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Straessle, counsellors of the Luther League, have been working with the youth in making preparations for Youth Sunday.

The purpose of Youth Sunday is to give recognition to the youth of the church who are active in the life of the congregation, serving as Sunday School teachers and helpers, ushering, acolyting, and helping in the nursery.

The Luther League seeks to deepen the Christian experience of the teenagers of the congregation.

Opening Set For Feb. 3

The Feb. 3 opening of the Chicago Health Club in Mount Prospect marks the ninth club in the Chicago area.

The choice of Mount Prospect was made because of the greater than normal number of inquiries and memberships coming from the area.

The decor of the Roman Spa club follows the theme of the Roman era, with an elongated ceiling, high Greco-Roman pillars and soft textured wood paneling. Antique sculptured busts and figures are reflected in antique trimmed mirrors.

THICK RED carpeting covers even the locker room and exercise room floor, and soft music is played continually.

The Chicago Health Clubs use a formula of weight reduction with emphasis on body reproportionment. The program is personally supervised by physical culture experts and specially designed equipment is used.

Available to members are whirlpools, sauna rooms, steam rooms, massages, and ultraviolet sun lamps. (B10

3 Treated For Injuries After Collision

Three northwest suburban residents were injured in a two-car accident at Wilke Road and Campbell Street in Arlington Heights Saturday.

The driver of one of the cars, Frederick W. Thomas, 19, of 348 S. Beverly Lane, Arlington Heights, was treated for head injuries at Holy Family Hospital in Des Plaines after police charged him with failure to yield.

RUSSEL GATHMAN, 19, of 229 N. Greenwood, Palatine, and Mary Lou Wessley, 18, of 1011 Newbury, Mount Propect, both passengers in Thomas' car, were treated for minor injuries at Holy Family Hospital.

The driver of the second car, Earl W. Snodgrass, 47, of 15 E. Fairview, Arlington Heights, escaped injury.

Men's Bridge high scorers for January were: Len Hauskey 4820; Pat Danna, 4530; with third place, 3940, shared by John Coward and Ed Henricks. Games are played the third Thursday of each month in the A. J. Tomaso home on E. Clarendon.

Newcomers to the Greens are Salvatore and Mary Pizzuto, 619 E. Olive. They and their daughters, Theresa, 3½, and Maria, 2½, moved here from Chicago's northwest side Jan. 13. Mr. Pizzuto is assistant project engineer with Underwriters Laboratories in Northbrook. Last Tuesday evening Mrs. Harry Gildemeister hosted a get-acquainted coffee in her E. Olive home, when 12 ladies came to meet their new neighbor.

On Saturday evening, a birthday dinner party for Mr. Gildemeister was attended by several relatives from Chicago and Morton Grove.

Another birthday celebrant Saturday was 5-year-old Margaret McCook of N. Douglas. Joining her for cake and ice cream were her sisters, Terry and Cathy, and Carol Bengal.

MRS. DON SCHREINER of North Beverly Lane was hostess to members of her dessert-bridge group Thursday evening. High scorer for the evening was Mrs. John Coward.

A/3 Bruce O'Neil arrived at the family home on E. Oakton on Wednesday of last week from Sheppard AFB, Wichita Falls, Tex., on a two-week leave. On Saturday the O'Neils motored to Carbondale to visit another son, Roger, at Southern Illinois University.

Semester break at Northern Illinois University at De Kalb brought Kathy and Vicki Finch to their E. Oakton home for a visit with the family.

LEAVING THE Greens Friday was the Jerry Lynn family who resided at 1108 N. Beverly Lane for the past three and a half years. San Jose, Calif. was their destination.

Competing in the schooling show at Tri-Color Farm in Palatine Saturday afternoon, Miss Arlene Roby of N. Beverly Lane won the championship trophy.

Mr. and Mrs. Pete Johnson of E. Olive entertained members of their couples club Saturday evening. Gathering for an evening of cards, conversation and the buffet supper were the Tony Alevizoses of Melrose Park, Vic Caligiuris and Ted Andersons of Chicago, Jim MacDonalds and Bill Iskovitses of Bensenville and the Russ Van Puttes of Des Plaines. PATRICK HENRY EXCITES THE SPIRIT OF INDEPENDENCE IN AMERICA

When 39-year old Patrick Henry rose to speak on March 23, 1775, he was to deliver—as it turned out—one of the greatest speeches in the history of mankind.

Men always have cried out for independence. But nobody ever expressed it better than Henry did that day.

America was on the brink of war with England. Some people thought the war for freedom should be fought; some didn't.

Henry said, "I know not what course others may take; but as for me, give me liberty or give me death!"

By uttering those 19 words, Patrick Henry became immortal. But more important than that, his speech helped inspire the American people to go on and create an independent nation—a nation that has become the greatest on earth.

Introduce Exchange Students

by ANNE CHALFANT

Several minutes cut from each afternoon class means an assembly at Palatine High. It was at one of these gatherings Jan. 18 that Palatine's foreign exchange students were presented.

Dave Noonan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Noonan, 616 S. Cedar, was Palatine's International Fellowship student. Spending last summer in Argentina, he learned many interesting customs about which he spoke and showed slides. He described one feast at which he was supposed to pop the cork on the champagne bottle. Unintentionally, it hit the girl beside him. Dave, not knowing the country's custom, learned too late that he was destined to marry the girl.

Althea Meyer, Palatine's American Field Service student from South Africa, also showed slides and spoke of her country. One slide she showed was of natives dancing; Althea commented that it was something like "Shindig."

LUIS ARBELAEZ, International Fellowship student from Colombia has had two years of English. At the assembly he spoke of his happiness to be at Palatine. A thundering round of applause demonstrated the students' appreciation for his efforts. (10Y

Young Newspaper Cops Student Press Honors

(In this issue, High School Highlights salutes the advisor and staff of Wheeling High School's student newspaper, The Spokesman. This is a continuation of our series of articles honoring the newspapers of our area high schools.)

By KATHIE BARNES

Wheeling High School's newspaper, The Spokesman, was founded less than two years ago by a very interested group of students and their knowledgeable adviser, Richard Nelson.

Since no one on the potential staff had any journalistic experience, meetings were fitted in everywhere possible so a paper could be published September 18, 1964. After an entire summer of hard work, the first issue, Volume I, No. 1 of The Spokesman, was published and a newspaper was born.

Members of the original staff were Kathie Barnes, editor-in-chief; Jeanne LaBandt, associate editor; Jim Towery, news editor; Sharon Kilkenny, feature editor; Kathy Steffenson, copy editor; and Don Castella, sports editor, in addition to many reporters, photographers and copyreaders.

REWARDS FOR A year of hard work included some unprecedented successes. At the Northern Illinois School Press Association convention in May, the Spokesman was awarded a second place in overall excellence as well as an honorable mention for a news story by Jeanne LaBandt; a second place for a feature by Jeanne LaBandt; a third place for an ad by Dave Newman; a second place for the traffic safety editorial by Mike Kopf.

But May was only the beginning. Also came a First Class honor rating from the National Scholastic Press Association and an International First Place Award from the Quill and Scroll Critical Service.

With the second year of staff work and more experience, the Spokesman staff hopes to rate even higher because of added unity and organization of staff positions

Due to a larger student body for 1965-66, a larger budget was available, enabling the staff to produce six-page issues more frequently, thereby adding to the news coverage.

The Spokesman supports a letters-to-the-editor policy for signed letters.

The purpose of the Spokesman is to serve the student body, faculty, parents and community in any way possible. (10Y

Arlington Speech Students Win Honors in Competition

George Bernard Shaw devoted a large portion of his life to the arts of fine English speech. He designed his own alphabet of speech sounds and based one of his most famous plays, "Pygmalion" (also, the movie "My Fair Lady") on phonetics.

Arlington High School Individual Speech students have followed Shaw's example of the importance of fine speaking by bringing their school honors in the Homewood-Flossmoor High School speech competition.

The orators snared sixth place honors from a field of 32 other schools from the Chicago suburban area.

A SPEAKING competition is divided into nine different events. Each area of speech is then divided into sections. Students from the same school never compete against each other in these sections.

The sections conduct three rounds of actual competition. Each person speaks during each round, but against different students and for different judges each time.

Judges are selected from the various contesting schools. The school sends one judge for every five speakers. Usually, a judge refrains from judging orators from his own school.

Awards and honors are determined solely on the number of National Forensic League points. The school with the highest total of these points wins the entire competition.

Other awards are given to individual students with the highest number of points in their field of competition.

Jan. 8 at Homewood-Flossmoor, four Arlington students received individual honors for exceptional performances.

SENIOR GAIL Martin talked her way to a first place speaker's trophy for her original monologue on the Salvation Army. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Martin, 641 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights.

Certificates of excellence were awarded to junior Patricia Smith and sophomores Bill Hazen and Nancy Harris.

Patricia earned her certificate in comedy play reading with her interpretation of a portion of Thurber's "Carnival."

Pat is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Smith, 305 E. Euclid, Arlington Heights.

Extemporaneous radio peaking is Bill Hazen's speciality and the reason for his certificate. He receives his news broadcast information and commercials one hour before the contest.

BILL IS THE son of Mr. and Mrs. William Hazen, 1316 N. Yale, Arlington Heights.

Eugene O'Neil's play "A Long Journey Into Night" gave Nancy Harris her award in serious play reading. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Harris, 717 S. Belmont Lane, Arlington Heights.

Patricia, Bill, and Nancy have qualified for New Trier High School's Tournament of Champs in March because they all won two consecutive awards in the same contest. (10Y

Those Exams--- Here's a Test

In preparation for the coming semester exams in area high schools, we have concocted a pre-exam quiz for teachers, parents, and students alike.

DIRECTIONS: Each of the questions below is followed by two choices—yes or no. Underline the correct choice.

1. Are exams really a necessity? yes no
2. Does 70 minutes worth of T's and F's, matching letters to numbers, filling in blanks, and making lists show that a student has learned anything the past semester—anything but how to memorize? yes no
3. Does a high grade on an exam represent anything but a couple of hours of cramming and the sheer ability to recall facts that are in themselves meaningless and trivial? yes no
4. Should a student's recall and recitation of simple facts count as 20 per cent of his semester grade? yes no
5. Do semester exams really rate all the emphasis and importance given them? yes no

ANSWERS: no, no, no, no, no.

SCORING: Twenty points off for each incorrect choice.

We re not suggesting that semester exams be abolished—we're too realistic for that.

All we ask is that exams be revised a little to include testing on the understanding of issues, concepts, basic theories, and their applications as well as testing on simple, concrete, unrelated facts.

And if that is impossible (because of limited time for taking and grading exams), all we ask is that the usual semester exam be given less emphasis than it is now.

We realize that there are some teachers now who do take semester examinations seriously and who do try to make them into a worthwhile learning experience. However, these teachers are in the minority.

Maybe the answer—or one answer—to the problem is to give the teachers a little more school time to grade these exams.

Young Christian Students Meet

An evening of Reflection took place at St. Patrick Academy in Des Plaines for the members of the Young Christian Students two weeks ago.

The speaker was Lt. Col. William Staudt, Catholic Chaplain of the U.S. Army with headquarters at Fort Sheridan, Illinois. Father Staudt's two nieces, Jan and Ellen Staudt of Park Ridge, attend the Academy.

"The Christian Challenge" and "Responsibility" were the titles of the two talks presented. Following these, the YCS probationers received their badge of membership.

Of the junior class there were Margaret Berner, Marian Dolan, Barbara Haiz, and Kathy Smith. (10Y

SPA Schedules 'Gidget' Comedy

Students of St. Patrick Academy in Des Plaines are among the "Footlighters" who will present "Gidget Goes Hawaiian" at the Rand Park Playhouse on Jan. 21-22, and 28-29, at 8 p.m.

Miss Maureen O'Brien, a freshman, holds the lead as Gidget. She is supported by sophomores Jackie Wolf, Linda Locke and Betsy Fitzpatrick, who affirm the comedy should be a great success. Another sophomore, Pan D'Andrea, is assistant director of the play.

The "Footlighters," a group of young teen-agers interested in theatre, is under the direction of Edward Sauer. The members of the cast make the scenery, provide the costumes and produce the programs themselves.

The public is invited to attend. Tickets will be sold at the door.

FEAR AND SHOCK are the two ruling emotions in "Which Is the Way to Boston." Displaying these emotions are Craig Compton as John Harvey; Jim Kellogg as Chris Harvey; Marcia Mendels as Mary Harvey, and Julie Hoakes as Martha Harvey.

Wheeling Rehearses Three One-Act Plays

A comedy, a tragedy, and a mystery are Wheeling High School's one-act plays this year. This cross-section of theatre themes will be presented only one night Friday, Feb. 4, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium.

The comedy "A Phoenix Too Frequent" by Christopher Fry is about a soldier and a widow who fall in love with each other while she is supposed to be in mourning. "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals" by J. Barrie tells about a young man who is killed in World War I. The mystery is "Which is the Way to Boston?" It is an old New England tale written into a suspense play.

"WHICH IS THE Way to Boston" is having some interesting rehearsals. The first few were done in darkness to increase the effect of suspense and terror. Special sound and lighting effects are being planned for the performance to add to the mood and impact of the play.

Craig Compton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Compton, 292 Renee Terrace, Wheeling, plays John Harvey; and Julie Noakes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Noakes, 1107 Greenwood Drive, Mount Prospect, plays his wife, Martha.

James Kellogg, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Kellogg, 701 Elm Street, Prospect Heights, is John's nephew; and his wife, Mary, is performed by Marcia Mendels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Mendels, 1301 Barberry Lane, Mount Prospect.

This play is in closed rehearsal in order to keep the plot and ending a secret and preserve suspense.

"Which is the Way to Boston" will be Wheeling's entry in the district one-act play contest at Notre Dame High School, Feb. 12. Eric S. Lidh is the director for "Which is the Way to Boston" and "A Phoenix Too Frequent."

"THE OLD LADY Shows Her Medals" is a Scottish play about an old woman who adopts a son, but he is killed during World War I.

This play's main characters are Craig Compton as Kenneth Dowey; Jill Herrmann, daughter of Mrs. M. V. Herrmann, 804 Cedar Lane, Mount Prospect, plays Mrs. Dowey and Carl Petrasso, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Petrasso, 909 Hemlock, Mount Prospect, plays a minister.

"Many critics say this is the best play coming from World War I," David F. Stiles, director, said.

"A Phoenix Too Frequent" is a comedy consisting of three main characters. Dyamene is played by Judy Javori, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Javori, 383 Park Avenue, Wheeling; Doto is performed by Kathie Morton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morton, 11 Wildwood Drive, Prospect Heights; and Tegeus is played by Carl Petrasso.

In the play Dynamene and her servant, Doto, plan to starve themselves to death in order to join Dynamene's late husband in Hades. Tegeus and Dynamene fall in love, when Tegeus accidentally stumbles into the tomb where the play is set.

A corpse Tegeus should be guarding is lost, and, according to military law, he is to replace the body. Other incidents add to the confusion and humor of the play. (10Y

2 Prospect Seniors In All-State Meet

By CAROLE CAMERON

Seniors James Brasic and Skip Carroll, members of Prospect High School's Symphonic Band, were chosen to participate in the All-State Music Activities Jan. 22, in Peoria.

Jim, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brasic, 210 N. Elmhurst, Mount Prospect, was selected to be one of the 125 participants in the All-State Band under the direction of Dr. Paul Van Bodegraven, director of bands at Columbia University, New York.

Skip, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carroll, 416 South Ioka, Mount Prospect, combined his efforts with those of 125 members of the All-State Orchestra directed by Dr. George Wilson, who is in charge of the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Michigan.

Jim and Skip were chosen on the basis of an audition performed in the All-District Music Activities. (10Y

19 Accepted by Quill and Scroll

Nineteen students were accepted last week to initiate status in Forest View High School's Stuart R. Paddock Chapter of Quill and Scroll.

Quill and Scroll is an international society for high school journalists. The students are members of the school's newspaper and yearbook staffs.

Those accepted from The Viewer staff (Forest View's school newspaper) were Kathy Mainzer, Chris Nolan, Linda Olson, Arlene Iversen, Kathie O'Connor, Judy Arnold, Carol Cimo, Kathy Gertsma, Phyllis Milldrum, and Bobbie Philipsborn.

Those accepted from The Talon staff (Forest View's yearbook) were Darlene Dugo, Linda Jessie, Dagmar Reimann, Judy Forton, Marcia Kraticy, Lynn Andreason, Larry Rautenkranz, John White, and Linda Pratt.

Initiation into Quill and Scroll will be by candlelight service on Tuesday, March 15 in the school theater. The Headline Club of Chicago will supply a speaker for the event.

QUALIFICATIONS for membership are set up according to the constitution of Quill and Scroll. These qualifications are: students must be of at least junior or senior classification; students should be in the upper one third of the class; students must have done superior work in some phase of journalism or school publications work; students must be recommended by the supervisor or by the committee governing publications; students must be approved by the Executive Secretary of the Society.

Present members of Quill and Scroll are Bob Glaser, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Glaser, 3500 Bobolink Lane, Rolling Meadows, president; Judy Richter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Richter, 56 W. Jeffery Lane, Des Plaines, vice president; Marsha Beaugrand, 910 Beau Drive, Des Plaines, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Donahue; Jim Moroni; and Darlene Nelson.

The Quill and Scroll chapter will sponsor a coat check on Feb. 4, as its money-making project.

Quill and Scroll sponsors at Forest View are Richard Carey and Robert Staley. (10Y

Argentine Student Tells Impressions

Since her arrival on Dec. 21, Graciela Nieto, Conant High School's International Fellowship foreign exchange student, has been forming many opinions about the United States and about Conant.

She finds that school here is different from her native Argentina. Here it is more modern, and students have their choice of subjects; in Argentina, there is no choice, and each student has 12 or 13 subjects.

She remarked that Conant has "friendly teachers" who are "very nice" and offer to help her. Graciela is taking U.S. History, English 3, Spanish 3, Algebra II and A Cappella Choir.

GRACIELA HAS had three years of English in high school and can speak and understand it extremely well. She feels that Conant students are "friendly."

Winter in the midwest is "very cold" to her, for, while there is snow in the mountains of Argentina, her city, Rosario, the second largest in the country, receives no snow.

Basketball is popular in Argentina, and Graciela enjoys it as well as sports that are new to her, like tobogganing and bowling. She recently went to Chicago, and visited the Museum of Science and Industry and the Art Institute.

AT A COKE dance on Jan. 8, Graciela was surprised with a birthday party complete with two cakes and a present from the student body — a charm bracelet. She enjoys dancing at Coke dances; the music and dances seem to be international.

She spent Christmas and New Years with the Robert Deans family, her hosts. She received a watch pendant for Christmas. She was dismayed at the lack of festivities on New Years Eve.

Graciela came from Argentina with a group of Argentine International Fellowship students like herself, one of which is staying with a family in Arlington Heights. Graciela will join the group on Jan. 23 for a tour of New York and Washington D.C., and later she will attend a party for foreign exchange students. (10Y

Student Actors to Give 'Blithe Spirit'

Forest View High School's drama department will present its winter play, "Blithe Spirit," on Feb. 24-26. The play will begin at 8 p.m. each night in the Little Theater.

Students chosen for the cast are Debbie Conley, 71 Jeffrey Lane in Des Plaines, as Edith; Ken O'Dell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth T. O'Dell, 206 W. Hiawatha Trail, Mount Prospect, as Dr. Bradman; Pat Press, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley W. Press, 601 Hatlen Ave., Mount Prospect, as Madame Arcati.

Terry Hysell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hysell, Jr., 800 S. William, Mount Prospect, as Ruth Condomine; Sue Amon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Amon, 707 Glendale, Mount Prospect as Elvira Condomine.

Jim Dale, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Dale, Route 1, Box 274 Butterfield Road, Roselle, as Charles Condomine; and Norma Eckert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Eckert, 1236 Dorden, Des Plaines, as Mrs. Bradman. (10Y

SPA Schedules 'Gidget' Comedy

Students of St. Patrick Academy in Des Plaines are among the "Footlighters" who will present "Gidget Goes Hawaiian" at the Rand Park Playhouse on Jan. 21-22, and 28-29, at 8 p.m.

Miss Maureen O'Brien, a freshman, holds the lead as Gidget. She is supported by sophomores Jackie Wolf, Linda Locke and Betsy Fitzpatrick, who affirm the comedy should be a great success. Another sophomore, Pan D'Andrea, is assistant director of the play.

The "Footlighters," a group of young teen-agers interested in theatre, is under the direction of Edward Sauer. The members of the cast make the scenery, provide the costumes and produce the programs themselves.

The public is invited to attend. Tickets will be sold at the door.

FEAR AND SHOCK are the two ruling emotions in "Which Is the Way to Boston." Displaying these emotions are Craig Compton as John Harvey; Jim Kellogg as Chris Harvey; Marcia Mendels as Mary Harvey, and Julie Hoakes as Martha Harvey.

Wheeling Rehearses Three One-Act Plays

A comedy, a tragedy, and a mystery are Wheeling High School's one-act plays this year. This cross-section of theatre themes will be presented only one night Friday, Feb. 4, at 8 p.m. in the auditorium.

The comedy "A Phoenix Too Frequent" by Christopher Fry is about a soldier and a widow who fall in love with each other while she is supposed to be in mourning. "The Old Lady Shows Her Medals" by J. Barrie tells about a young man who is killed in World War I. The mystery is "Which is the Way to Boston?" It is an old New England tale written into a suspense play.

"WHICH IS THE Way to Boston" is having some interesting rehearsals. The first few were done in darkness to increase the effect of suspense and terror. Special sound and lighting effects are being planned for the performance to add to the mood and impact of the play.

Craig Compton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Compton, 292 Renee Terrace, Wheeling, plays John Harvey; and Julie Noakes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Noakes, 1107 Greenwood Drive, Mount Prospect, plays his wife, Martha.

James Kellogg, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Kellogg, 701 Elm Street, Prospect Heights, is John's nephew; and his wife, Mary, is performed by Marcia Mendels, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Mendels, 1301 Barberry Lane, Mount Prospect.

This play is in closed rehearsal in order to keep the plot and ending a secret and preserve suspense.

"Which is the Way to Boston" will be Wheeling's entry in the district one-act play contest at Notre Dame High School, Feb. 12. Eric S. Lidh is the director for "Which is the Way to Boston" and "A Phoenix Too Frequent."

"THE OLD LADY Shows Her Medals" is a Scottish play about an old woman who adopts a son, but he is killed during World War I.

This play's main characters are Craig Compton as Kenneth Dowey; Jill Herrmann, daughter of Mrs. M. V. Herrmann, 804 Cedar Lane, Mount Prospect, plays Mrs. Dowey and Carl Petrasso, son of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Petrasso, 909 Hemlock, Mount Prospect, plays a minister.

"Many critics say this is the best play coming from World War I," David F. Stiles, director, said.

"A Phoenix Too Frequent" is a comedy consisting of three main characters. Dyamene is played by Judy Javori, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Javori, 383 Park Avenue, Wheeling; Doto is performed by Kathie Morton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morton, 11 Wildwood Drive, Prospect Heights; and Tegeus is played by Carl Petrasso.

In the play Dynamene and her servant, Doto, plan to starve themselves to death in order to join Dynamene's late husband in Hades. Tegeus and Dynamene fall in love, when Tegeus accidentally stumbles into the tomb where the play is set.

A corpse Tegeus should be guarding is lost, and, according to military law, he is to replace the body. Other incidents add to the confusion and humor of the play. (10Y

2 Prospect Seniors In All-State Meet

By CAROLE CAMERON

Seniors James Brasic and Skip Carroll, members of Prospect High School's Symphonic Band, were chosen to participate in the All-State Music Activities Jan. 22, in Peoria.

Jim, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Brasic, 210 N. Elmhurst, Mount Prospect, was selected to be one of the 125 participants in the All-State Band under the direction of Dr. Paul Van Bodegraven, director of bands at Columbia University, New York.

Skip, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Carroll, 416 South Ioka, Mount Prospect, combined his efforts with those of 125 members of the All-State Orchestra directed by Dr. George Wilson, who is in charge of the National Music Camp at Interlochen, Michigan.

Jim and Skip were chosen on the basis of an audition performed in the All-District Music Activities. (10Y

19 Accepted by Quill and Scroll

Nineteen students were accepted last week to initiate status in Forest View High School's Stuart R. Paddock Chapter of Quill and Scroll.

Quill and Scroll is an international society for high school journalists. The students are members of the school's newspaper and yearbook staffs.

Those accepted from The Viewer staff (Forest View's school newspaper) were Kathy Mainzer, Chris Nolan, Linda Olson, Arlene Iversen, Kathie O'Connor, Judy Arnold, Carol Cimo, Kathy Gertsma, Phyllis Milldrum, and Bobbie Philipsborn.

Those accepted from The Talon staff (Forest View's yearbook) were Darlene Dugo, Linda Jessie, Dagmar Reimann, Judy Forton, Marcia Kraticy, Lynn Andreason, Larry Rautenkranz, John White, and Linda Pratt.

Initiation into Quill and Scroll will be by candlelight service on Tuesday, March 15 in the school theater. The Headline Club of Chicago will supply a speaker for the event.

QUALIFICATIONS for membership are set up according to the constitution of Quill and Scroll. These qualifications are: students must be of at least junior or senior classification; students should be in the upper one third of the class; students must have done superior work in some phase of journalism or school publications work; students must be recommended by the supervisor or by the committee governing publications; students must be approved by the Executive Secretary of the Society.

Present members of Quill and Scroll are Bob Glaser, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Glaser, 3500 Bobolink Lane, Rolling Meadows, president; Judy Richter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Richter, 56 W. Jeffery Lane, Des Plaines, vice president; Marsha Beaugrand, 910 Beau Drive, Des Plaines, secretary-treasurer; Nancy Donahue; Jim Moroni; and Darlene Nelson.

The Quill and Scroll chapter will sponsor a coat check on Feb. 4, as its money-making project.

Quill and Scroll sponsors at Forest View are Richard Carey and Robert Staley. (10Y

Argentine Student Tells Impressions

Since her arrival on Dec. 21, Graciela Nieto, Conant High School's International Fellowship foreign exchange student, has been forming many opinions about the United States and about Conant.

She finds that school here is different from her native Argentina. Here it is more modern, and students have their choice of subjects; in Argentina, there is no choice, and each student has 12 or 13 subjects.

She remarked that Conant has "friendly teachers" who are "very nice" and offer to help her. Graciela is taking U.S. History, English 3, Spanish 3, Algebra II and A Cappella Choir.

GRACIELA HAS had three years of English in high school and can speak and understand it extremely well. She feels that Conant students are "friendly."

Winter in the midwest is "very cold" to her, for, while there is snow in the mountains of Argentina, her city, Rosario, the second largest in the country, receives no snow.

Basketball is popular in Argentina, and Graciela enjoys it as well as sports that are new to her, like tobogganing and bowling. She recently went to Chicago, and visited the Museum of Science and Industry and the Art Institute.

AT A COKE dance on Jan. 8, Graciela was surprised with a birthday party complete with two cakes and a present from the student body — a charm bracelet. She enjoys dancing at Coke dances; the music and dances seem to be international.

She spent Christmas and New Years with the Robert Deans family, her hosts. She received a watch pendant for Christmas. She was dismayed at the lack of festivities on New Years Eve.

Graciela came from Argentina with a group of Argentine International Fellowship students like herself, one of which is staying with a family in Arlington Heights. Graciela will join the group on Jan. 23 for a tour of New York and Washington D.C., and later she will attend a party for foreign exchange students. (10Y

Forest View High School's drama department will present its winter play, "Blithe Spirit," on Feb. 24-26. The play will begin at 8 p.m. each night in the Little Theater.

Students chosen for the cast are Debbie Conley, 71 Jeffrey Lane in Des Plaines, as Edith; Ken O'Dell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth T. O'Dell, 206 W. Hiawatha Trail, Mount Prospect, as Dr. Bradman; Pat Press, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dudley W. Press, 601 Hatlen Ave., Mount Prospect, as Madame Arcati.

Terry Hysell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hysell, Jr., 800 S. William, Mount Prospect, as Ruth Condomine; Sue Amon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Amon, 707 Glendale, Mount Prospect as Elvira Condomine.

Jim Dale, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Dale, Route 1, Box 274 Butterfield Road, Roselle, as Charles Condomine; and Norma Eckert, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Eckert, 1236 Dorden, Des Plaines, as Mrs. Bradman. (10Y

Arlington Students See State Hospital

By BECKY HOLLMEYER

Elgin, Ill., is the home of 4,000 people of all ages who are mentally disturbed. Elgin State Mental Hospital is their abode.

These people live in an area of several hundred acres on which 10 buildings, which resemble apartments, and one farm are located.

Last month 65 Arlington High School seniors, representing a cross section of their class, visited the hospital to learn about institutional living, mental illness, and the conditions in such an establishment.

Functional (obtained after birth) rather than organic (inherited, congenital) mental disorders are the reasons for the admittance of all the patients.

Emotional problems, alcoholism, and the advanced stages of syphilis are the three main causes of Elgin's patients' problems.

THE SOCIOLOGY students went on a tour of the hospital grounds. Richard J. Mueller, sociology teacher, reports that the general impression of the institution is one of depression, dreariness, and drabness. It is almost like a prison without the high walls.

Many of the patients were celebrating Christmas during the time of Arlington's visit. One section had decorated its recreation room with a picture of a Christmas tree pasted on the wall. The people were sitting around this caricature of a tree listening to the reading of Christmas songs.

Television is an important invention to the patients. Watching T.V. occupies the majority of many patients' lives. In fact, in the ward for the violent males this was the only form of provided entertainment.

However, many of these men were even unaware that they had received visitors; therefore, they responded to no stimulations and no entertainment was necessary.

A personal interview with a schizophrenic paranoid convinced many students of the seriousness of mental disturbances. When interviewed, the lady who had a split personality complicated with the fear that everyone wanted to kill her was almost able to convince the seniors that she was normal, very rational, and did not belong in a hospital.

THE OTHER extreme example of Elgin inmates are those who are senile and practically harmless. The men who fit these qualifications live on and run a farm on the hospital grounds.

Educational facilities at the hospital are rather limited. Most of the educable patients attend the Elgin public schools.

The average person resides at the hospital for two years and usually does not recover completely. This is due mainly to the lack of funds needed to run such an institution.

The state of Illinois is unable to provide the money because the taxpayers object to a raise in taxes.

Besides, the hospital cannot produce evidence of a worthy program, which is necessary before it can receive aid from the federal government.

THE PRESENT medical staff consists of 50 general practioners. Psychiatric help is nil. Psychiatrists are the only ones who can effectively cure the mental disorders. Some mental therapy exists presently, but only in the form of a patient talking about his problems to an unqualified listener.

According to Mueller, it is very important that students are aware of the state of affairs in a mental institution. Statistics show that one out of every seven people are admitted to a hospital of this nature sometime in their lifetime.

He added, "I hope that we will be able to take more trips of this nature in the future. Perhaps then, the students will be stimulated into becoming more involved in these affairs and will work for their improvement in the future." (15Y

Music Festival At Prospect Feb. 7

The High School District 214 Music Festival will be held at Prospect High School on Feb. 7, at 8 p.m.

The guest choral director will be Richard Hoffland. Hoffland is a graduate of Concordia College and holds a master's degree from the American Conservatory of Music in Chicago.

The 300-voice mixed choir will sing "Leather-Winged Bat," "He is Watching Over Israel," "Wondrous Coal," and "The Road Not Taken."

The 200-voice Girls' Glee Club will sing "The Water is Wide," "One Song," "Unto His Holy Name Sing Praise," and "Sing All Ye Lands."

DR. GEORGE WILSON, vice president of the National Music Camp, Interlochen, Mich., will be the guest band director. The band will play two movements of "Viva Mexico!" by Morrissey. In addition the band will play "Second Suite," by Robert Jager; "Elsa's Procession to the Cathedral," by Richard Wagner; and "Il Bersagliere," by E. Boccalar.

The final number on the program will be presented by both the band and the vocal groups. They will combine to present "Glory to God in the Highest," by Pergolesi. (10Y

Jazz Band To Compete At Festival

Wheeling High School's jazz band will compete for top honors in the Oak Lawn Stage Band Festival Feb. 5.

Last year the band received a superior rating and won second place in the sixth annual Chicagoland Stage Band Festival.

The contest on Feb. 5 will feature stage bands from Evanston, York, Aurora West, Hinsdale, Thornton of Harvey, Argo, East Leyden, and Notre Dame. The contest has the distinction of being the largest one-day festical in the United States.

THE WHEELING stage band will play a variety of selections including "Flight of the Foo Birds," composed and arranged by Neal Hefti; "When Sunny Gets Blue," arranged by John Higgins, former band member now attending the University of Michigan; and "Blues Down Home," composed and arrenged by Alf Bartles.

The band's director is Dean DePoy. (10Y

Summer Study in France Is Announced by District 214

Students in High School District 214 will have an opportunity to participate in a new summer school program in France this year. Their campus will be a lycee in the coastal city of Quimper, a family vacation center of 24,000 inhabitants in southeastern Brittany.

Organized in cooperation with the French Ministry of Education and the American Council for Study Abroad, the program is designed specifically to acquaint the American students with another people through language, history, travel and informal social contacts.

Quimper is the former capital of Cornouaille, and it is there that the traditional atmosphere of the province can perhaps best be felt. On market days and at church services the visitor will still find a number of the old Breton costumes; and the students will have ample opportunity to observe folk-dancing, traditional costumes and other folklore on Bastille Day and during the Grande Fete de Cornouaille, July 24.

The pride of Quimper is its Gothic cathedral, begun in the thirteenth century and surrounded by picturesque old quarters with winding cobblestone streets and quaint high-gabled houses. The Atlantic is a short ride down the Odet River.

THE CITY is convenient to Jersey and Guernsey Islands, the curious old monastery of Mont Saint-Michel, the ancient megaliths at Carnac, the walled island city of Saint-Malo, the chateau country of the Loire Valley, and the forest of Paimpont, setting of the Arthurian legends. Excursions to all these places have been arranged for the high school group.

Prior to departure, the students will attend a two-week orientation course, providing cultural background and intensive conversation practice to facilitate the participants smooth adjustment to living in a foreign country. The course will be taught by the two chaperones, Mrs. Miriam Wood, French instructor at Wheeling High School, and her husband, Tim, a science teacher in Western Springs.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wood have studied and traveled in France. While in Quimper the students will attend language and civilization classes taught in French by professors from the University of Rennes in Brittany.

Lodging for the high school group will be in dormitories of a newly-constructed lycee, where the students will be supervised by adult French counselors and the American chaperones. Classes will be held in the morning only, the afternoons being devoted to organized sports, social activities and excursions. The courses attract applicants from a number of countries, so the student body at Quimper is agreeably international.

THE GROUP from District 214 will fly first by chartered plane to London, where they will spend four days sightseeing with a side-trip to Cambridge. They will cross the Channel by ferry and proceed to Quimper to attend four weeks of classes.

The trip will be climaxed by a six-day visit to Paris before the group takes its plane back to O'Hare. The program lasts eight weeks, including the two-week orientation course- the cost will be $900.00.

There are still some spaces available for this summer; but the number will be somewhat limited, so interested students should apply very soon. Applications may be obtained from a French teacher in any one of the District 214 schools. (10Y

Workshop Focuses Leadership Needs

by JUDY ARNOLD

In order to teach the school's clubs and activities officers the basic facts about leadership and how to develop it, the Forest View High School Student Council last week held a Leadership Workshop in the school cafeteria.

The workshop was sponsored by the members of the workshop committee, a part of the Student Council. Chris Armstrong, 920 Tower Drive, Mount Prospect, was the committee chairman. Chris is also secretary of the Student Council.

The agenda started with registration and an explanation of the workshop by Chris. The first activity, a mosaic which the students were to interpret, was planned by Kathi Dorosh.

Kathi is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dorosh, 3 W. Orchard, Mount Prospect.

The purpose of this activity was to help the students learn to communicate and work together within a group.

PAT TENEROWITZ, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Tenerowitz, 1501 Palm Drive, Mount Prospect, talked on "Group Dynamics." This was followed by a skit which showed the different kinds of poor leaders that exist in groups.

Burton Showers, Student Council advisor, then evaluated the skit and an informal discussion was held.

Ed Lauing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lauing, 913 S. Busse Road, Mount Prospect, president of Student Council, then talked on "Leadership." Ed's speech was followed by group discussions concerning various problems that the students would be familiar with.

There were certain steps to follow and the conclusions of each discussion group were presented to the entire group.

Chris commented: "The students who participated learned what makes a good leader and through the activities were able to put this knowledge into practical use. We feel the workshop was a success and we hope we achieved our purpose." (Y

Drama Guild Plays Slated Feb. 3-5

By NANCY PONTONI

The Drama Guild of Prospect High School will present three one-act plays on Feb. 3 at 7:30 p.m. and Feb. 5 at 8 p.m., in the Little Theatre.

The trilogy will begin with "The Perch," a play written by senior Jim Grady, who uses symbolism throughout his production. It will be directed by Scott Lebin and student directed by Jim.

Some of the characters are Penelope, portrayed by junior Mary Hansen; Suzzette, played by junior Sofia Andoniadis; and the Narrator, portrayed by Jim.

"The Marriage Proposal," by Anton Chekkov, will follow "The Perch." It is the story of the efforts of a nervous and excitable young man as he starts to propose to an attractive young woman. His proposal is soon ended when a boundary dispute arises.

DIRECTING THIS play will be Kathryn Clayton, with a cast including Joe Rosanova, junior, as Stepna Tschubukov, the egotistical brash father of Natalie; Sofia Andoniadis, junior, as Natalie, the attractive young lady; and Bruce Boxleitner, sophomore, as Ivan Vassilivitch Lomov, the excited young suitor.

"Lord Halewyn," by DeGhelderodis, directed by Mrs. Patricia Lewkowicz, will complete the triple vignette.

Lord Halewyn is a degenerate young knight who cannot be resisted by the hearts of young maidens. He falls in love with the young girls, answers their songs of love and takes them away with him. He then assaults the young maidens and kills them.

The play is centered around a young maiden, who has her song answered by Lord Halewyn. He takes off with her, but she regains her senses at the last moment.

She strikes and kills the knight and returns to her father's castle with his head under her arm. She tells her tale and dies. (10Y

Braille Is Studied by SPA Club

The members of the Braille Club of Saint Patrick Academy in Des Plaines, under the direction of Sister Rosemary, R.S.M., are busy learning the Braille code. The club meets once a week and the two Braille writers at the Academy are in constant use, as the Club members become pen-pals of the visually handicapped children.

Mrs. M. V. Kearney, of the Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Chicago, visits the school once a week to work with the two visually handicapped children at St. Patrick's. She brailles the tests and administers them.

Anyone interested in this work would be welcome to join the Braille Club at St. Patrick's.

Another active club, of which Sister Rosemary is also moderator, is the Camera Club. Here, about 16 students learn the art of composition lay-out in taking pictures, learn to develop and print them.

Some of the Camera Shops in the area are eager to procure these young ladies for part-time work as assistants. (10 Y

Band Group Names DePoy

Dean DePoy, director of the Wheeling High School band, has been named the Illinois State Chairman of the National Band Association by John Paynter, president of the National Band Association and Al Wright, secretary-treasurer.

Paynter is the director of the Northwestern University Band, and Wright is the band director at Purdue University.

The N.B.A., with 1,100 members, is the largest in the world.

DEAN DePOY

DePoy as Illinois State Chairman will be responsible for about 120 members from Illinois and for co-ordinating the activities of the various groups in the state.

He attended a meeting of the new Music Committee, which is responsible for commissioning composers of new band members, in Peoria on Jan. 20, 21, and 22 to discuss projects for the coming year. (10Y

Modern Etiquette

Q. Is it ever proper to leave one's spoon in the coffee cup or in a bowl of any kind during a meal?

A. Not usually. There are, however, exceptions: When the soup is served in a soup plate, the spoon is left in it, handle extending over the right edge parallel to the table edge — and if you're served iced tea with no saucer under the glass, you leave your spoon in the glass, holding it aside with your first and second fingers as you think.

JUAN HERRERA, a native of Chile who is attending classes at Forest View, is interviewed for High School Highlights by Meredyth Bucholz and Carol Burmeister.

Fellowship Student Arrives from Chile

By MEREDYTH BUCKHOLZ and CAROL BURMEISTER

Meet Juan Herrera!

He is Forest View High School's International Fellowship Exchange Student from Santiago, Chile.

Juan landed at O'Hare Airport on Saturday, Jan. 15, and will return to Chile in early April.

He is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Henderson, 413 Na-Wa-Ta, in Mount Prospect.

JUAN HAS JUST finished his first year at the University of Chile in Santiago, and will continue for four more years. He is studying to become an English teacher and plans to teach in Chile.

Because the seasons in South America are exactly opposite of ours, Juan is here for his summer vacation. Imagine, Christmas in the summer.

Back in Santiago, Juan has an older brother named Luis who is 28 years old, and a sister, Maria, who is 24.

This year at Forest View, Juan is taking world history, speech, American literature, Spanish, and P.E.

AT THE UNIVERSITY of Chile, he is taking philosophy, Latin, literature, and three English courses. He also has a course called "practice" which is somewhat like student teaching.

When asked what he thought of Forest View, Juan said, "If I could take this school to Chile, they could put a whole university in it . . . . . well, maybe only one half."

When asked his impression of American girls, he said, "Everyone in Chile thinks American girls are ugly. They are not ugly, but they are very different from girls in Chile . . . . . very different."

Juan said that the food here is very different from that in Chile. "All the food we have in Chile is homemade, but in America," he said, "it is all in cans."

BESIDES THE FOOD being different, Juan is used to four meals a day.

"We have a small breakfast, a very large lunch, tea at about 6 o'clock (which is like a small breakfast), and a late dinner which is a little smaller than lunch," he said. "My parents think I will starve, but I don't feel hungry."

Among Juan's many interests are football, basketball, and swimming. He also plays the guitar. (10Y

Modern Etiquette

Q. How do you acknowledge an introduction?

A. There is only one correct phrase — "How do you do." Depending upon circumstances, one may add, "It is so nice to meet you," or words to that effect. Never resort to the use of, "A pleasure, I am sure," or "Pleased to meet you."

Jazz Band To Compete At Festival

Wheeling High School's jazz band will compete for top honors in the Oak Lawn Stage Band Festival Feb. 5.

Last year the band received a superior rating and won second place in the sixth annual Chicagoland Stage Band Festival.

The contest on Feb. 5 will feature stage bands from Evanston, York, Aurora West, Hinsdale, Thornton of Harvey, Argo, East Leyden, and Notre Dame. The contest has the distinction of being the largest one-day festical in the United States.

THE WHEELING stage band will play a variety of selections including "Flight of the Foo Birds," composed and arranged by Neal Hefti; "When Sunny Gets Blue," arranged by John Higgins, former band member now attending the University of Michigan; and "Blues Down Home," composed and arrenged by Alf Bartles.

Summer Study in France Is Announced by District 214

Students in High School District 214 will have an opportunity to participate in a new summer school program in France this year. Their campus will be a lycee in the coastal city of Quimper, a family vacation center of 24,000 inhabitants in southeastern Brittany.

Organized in cooperation with the French Ministry of Education and the American Council for Study Abroad, the program is designed specifically to acquaint the American students with another people through language, history, travel and informal social contacts.

Quimper is the former capital of Cornouaille, and it is there that the traditional atmosphere of the province can perhaps best be felt. On market days and at church services the visitor will still find a number of the old Breton costumes; and the students will have ample opportunity to observe folk-dancing, traditional costumes and other folklore on Bastille Day and during the Grande Fete de Cornouaille, July 24.

The pride of Quimper is its Gothic cathedral, begun in the thirteenth century and surrounded by picturesque old quarters with winding cobblestone streets and quaint high-gabled houses. The Atlantic is a short ride down the Odet River.

THE CITY is convenient to Jersey and Guernsey Islands, the curious old monastery of Mont Saint-Michel, the ancient megaliths at Carnac, the walled island city of Saint-Malo, the chateau country of the Loire Valley, and the forest of Paimpont, setting of the Arthurian legends. Excursions to all these places have been arranged for the high school group.

Prior to departure, the students will attend a two-week orientation course, providing cultural background and intensive conversation practice to facilitate the participants smooth adjustment to living in a foreign country. The course will be taught by the two chaperones, Mrs. Miriam Wood, French instructor at Wheeling High School, and her husband, Tim, a science teacher in Western Springs.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Wood have studied and traveled in France. While in Quimper the students will attend language and civilization classes taught in French by professors from the University of Rennes in Brittany.

Lodging for the high school group will be in dormitories of a newly-constructed lycee, where the students will be supervised by adult French counselors and the American chaperones. Classes will be held in the morning only, the afternoons being devoted to organized sports, social activities and excursions. The courses attract applicants from a number of countries, so the student body at Quimper is agreeably international.

THE GROUP from District 214 will fly first by chartered plane to London, where they will spend four days sightseeing with a side-trip to Cambridge. They will cross the Channel by ferry and proceed to Quimper to attend four weeks of classes.

The trip will be climaxed by a six-day visit to Paris before the group takes its plane back to O'Hare. The program lasts eight weeks, including the two-week orientation course- the cost will be $900.00.

There are still some spaces available for this summer; but the number will be somewhat limited, so interested students should apply very soon. Applications may be obtained from a French teacher in any one of the District 214 schools. (10Y

by JUDY ARNOLD

In order to teach the school's clubs and activities officers the basic facts about leadership and how to develop it, the Forest View High School Student Council last week held a Leadership Workshop in the school cafeteria.

The workshop was sponsored by the members of the workshop committee, a part of the Student Council. Chris Armstrong, 920 Tower Drive, Mount Prospect, was the committee chairman. Chris is also secretary of the Student Council.

The agenda started with registration and an explanation of the workshop by Chris. The first activity, a mosaic which the students were to interpret, was planned by Kathi Dorosh. Kathi is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Dorosh, 3 W. Orchard, Mount Prospect.

The purpose of this activity was to help the students learn to communicate and work together within a group.

PAT TENEROWITZ, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Tenerowitz, 1501 Palm Drive, Mount Prospect, talked on "Group Dynamics." This was followed by a skit which showed the different kinds of poor leaders that exist in groups.

Burton Showers, Student Council advisor, then evaluated the skit and an informal discussion was held.

Ed Lauing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Lauing, 913 S. Busse Road, Mount Prospect, president of Student Council, then talked on "Leadership." Ed's speech was followed by group discussions concerning various problems that the students would be familiar with.

There were certain steps to follow and the conclusions of each discussion group were presented to the entire group.

Chris commented: "The students who participated learned what makes a good leader and through the activities were able to put this knowledge into practical use. We feel the workshop was a success and we hope we achieved our purpose." (Y

By NANCY PONTONI

The Drama Guild of Prospect High School will present three one-act plays on Feb. 3 at 7:30 p.m. and Feb. 5 at 8 p.m., in the Little Theatre.

The trilogy will begin with "The Perch," a play written by senior Jim Grady, who uses symbolism throughout his production. It will be directed by Scott Lebin and student directed by Jim.

Some of the characters are Penelope, portrayed by junior Mary Hansen; Suzzette, played by junior Sofia Andoniadis; and the Narrator, portrayed by Jim.

"The Marriage Proposal," by Anton Chekkov, will follow "The Perch." It is the story of the efforts of a nervous and excitable young man as he starts to propose to an attractive young woman. His proposal is soon ended when a boundary dispute arises.

DIRECTING THIS play will be Kathryn Clayton, with a cast including Joe Rosanova, junior, as Stepna Tschubukov, the egotistical brash father of Natalie; Sofia Andoniadis, junior, as Natalie, the attractive young lady; and Bruce Boxleitner, sophomore, as Ivan Vassilivitch Lomov, the excited young suitor.

"Lord Halewyn," by De-Ghelderodis, directed by Mrs. Patricia Lewkowicz, will complete the triple vignette.

Lord Halewyn is a degenerate young knight who cannot be resisted by the hearts of young maidens. He falls in love with the young girls, answers their songs of love and takes them away with him. He then assaults the young maidens and kills them.

The play is centered around a young maiden, who has her song answered by Lord Halewyn. He takes off with her, but she regains her senses at the last moment.

She strikes and kills the knight and returns to her father's castle with his head under her arm. She tells her tale and dies. (10Y

Braille Is Studied by SPA Club

The members of the Braille Club of Saint Patrick Academy in Des Plaines, under the direction of Sister Rosemary, R.S.M., are busy learning the Braille code. The club meets once a week and the two Braille writers at the Academy are in constant use, as the Club members become pen-pals of the visually handicapped children.

Mrs. M. V. Kearney, of the Catholic Charities of the Archdiocese of Chicago, visits the school once a week to work with the two visually handicapped children at St. Patrick's. She brailles the tests and administers them.

Anyone interested in this work would be welcome to join the Braille Club at St. Patrick's.

Another active club, of which Sister Rosemary is also moderator, is the Camera Club. Here, about 16 students learn the art of composition lay-out in taking pictures, learn to develop and print them.

Some of the Camera Shops in the area are eager to procure these young ladies for part-time work as assistants. (10 Y

Band Group Names DePoy

Dean DePoy, director of the Wheeling High School band, has been named the Illinois State Chairman of the National Band Association by John Paynter, president of the National Band Association and Al Wright, secretary-treasurer.

Paynter is the director of the Northwestern University Band, and Wright is the band director at Purdue University.

The N.B.A., with 1,100 members, is the largest in the world.

DEAN DePOY

DePoy as Illinois State Chairman will be responsible for about 120 members from Illinois and for co-ordinating the activities of the various groups in the state.

He attended a meeting of the new Music Committee, which is responsible for commissioning composers of new band members, in Peoria on Jan. 20, 21, and 22 to discuss projects for the coming year. (10Y

Modern Etiquette

Q. Is it ever proper to leave one's spoon in the coffee cup or in a bowl of any kind during a meal?

A. Not usually. There are, however, exceptions: When the soup is served in a soup plate, the spoon is left in it, handle extending over the right edge parallel to the table edge — and if you're served iced tea with no saucer under the glass, you leave your spoon in the glass, holding it aside with your first and second fingers as you think.

MEREDYTH BUCKHOLZ listens as Jim Moroni explains the responsibility she'll have next year as editor of the Student News Bureau at Forest View High School. Meredyth will also replace Jim next year as chief High School Highlights correspondent for Paddock Publications. (10Y

JUAN HERRERA, a native of Chile who is attending classes at Forest View, is interviewed for High School Highlights by Meredyth Bucholz and Carol Burmeister.

Fellowship Student Arrives from Chile

By MEREDYTH BUCKHOLZ and CAROL BURMEISTER

Meet Juan Herrera!

He is Forest View High School's International Fellowship Exchange Student from Santiago, Chile.

Juan landed at O'Hare Airport on Saturday, Jan. 15, and will return to Chile in early April.

He is staying with Mr. and Mrs. Frank B. Henderson, 413 Na-Wa-Ta, in Mount Prospect.

JUAN HAS JUST finished his first year at the University of Chile in Santiago, and will continue for four more years. He is studying to become an English teacher and plans to teach in Chile.

Because the seasons in South America are exactly opposite of ours, Juan is here for his summer vacation. Imagine, Christmas in the summer.

Back in Santiago, Juan has an older brother named Luis who is 28 years old, and a sister, Maria, who is 24.

This year at Forest View, Juan is taking world history, speech, American literature, Spanish, and P.E.

AT THE UNIVERSITY of Chile, he is taking philosophy, Latin, literature, and three English courses. He also has a course called "practice" which is somewhat like student teaching.

When asked what he thought of Forest View, Juan said, "If I could take this school to Chile, they could put a whole university in it ..... well, maybe only one half."

When asked his impression of American girls, he said, "Everyone in Chile thinks American girls are ugly. They are not ugly, but they are very different from girls in Chile ..... very different."

Juan said that the food here is very different from that in Chile. "All the food we have in Chile is homemade, but in America," he said, "it is all in cans."

BESIDES THE FOOD being different, Juan is used to four meals a day.

"We have a small breakfast, a very large lunch, tea at about 6 o'clock (which is like a small breakfast), and a late dinner which is a little smaller than lunch," he said. "My parents think I will starve, but I don't feel hungry."

Among Juan's many interests are football, basketball, and swimming. He also plays the guitar. (10Y

Modern Etiquette

Q. How do you acknowledge an introduction?

A. There is only one correct phrase — "How do you do." Depending upon circumstances, one may add, "It is so nice to meet you," or words to that effect. Never resort to the use of, "A pleasure, I am sure," or "Pleased to meet you."

Senior Spotlight

Two Fenton Students Both Possess Leadership Qualities

(High School Highlights' Senior Spotlight this issue shines once again on two outstanding seniors from Fenton High School in Bensenville.)

by VICKY De LUDE

Yvette Chevance, daughter of Mrs. Martha Chevance, 18 E. Belmont, Bensenville, conveys different impressions to different people.

A person who has just met her sees a delicate picture of femininity and softness. Her classmates recognize her as an active leader of Fenton High School. Her friends know she is a happy, fun-loving teen.

Yvette has represented her class in Student Council for three years and last September participated in the Illinois State High School Association convention. She is copy editor of Highlights, Fenton's yearbook; reports for Signal, the school paper; and is singing for her second year in A Capella choir.

For the past month, she has been (and will be for the weeks to come) working diligently for the February 5 high school bond referendum. She is a member of the group that has been speaking to community organizations and explaining the need for the referendum.

She is also chairman of a handbill committee that is in charge of printing leaflets for students to distribute in Bensenville and Wood Dale.

CONCERNING THE referendum, Yvette said, "It is very sad that so few parents voted before, and we must encourage their support. It has taken so long to build up the school we have, and now it may all be lost."

Yvette explained her interest in school activities saying, "I'm a crusader; I'm idealistic." She's willing to go all out for something she believes in.

An honor roll student, Yvette is presently taking world literature, an honors course; English; senior social survey; and journalism. Her favorite subjects are literature and journalism, the field she plans to enter after high school.

Yvette hopes to attend Northwestern University and major in magazine journalism. "I'm excited about going. I think it will be hard, but it'll be worth it," she says.

In addition to school activities, Yvette works several nights a week at the Bensenville Community Public Library. In her spare time she enjoys reading, writing, visiting museums, and attending plays or movies. She also likes to bowl and go tobogganing.

YVETTE HAS taken three years of French and plans to continue with it in the future. She loves Italian spaghetti with French bread. Her favorite color is blue while she abhors purple. She also despises hypocrites.

Yvette holds an opinion of school spirit different from most individuals. "People talk school spirit down too much," she says. "More kids have school spirit than most people realize."

Concerning Fenton High School, she said, "I like it here. We're a grade A school."

"Getting up on a Friday morning, being weighed in 4 pounds underweight, eating a big breakfast followed by going to probability with my homework done and finally winning my match" is senior Paul Poplawsky's description of a perfect day.

PAUL IS THE son of Mr. and Mrs. John Poplawsky, 4N151 John Street, Bensenville.

Very athletic and scholarly are words which describe Paul. He has been an active member of the wrestling, baseball and football teams since his freshman year. He was an honorable mention as an all conference line backer of football, in which he was part of the squad which took first place in conference. He has also been a member of National Honor Society since his sophomore year, and has been on the honor roll since his freshman year. Beside these activities, one can often see Paul working for Drama Club. He has been working on the construction crews as well as the stage crew for many of Fenton's productions.

He has a role in the forthcoming winter production of "The Madwoman of Chaillot" by Jean Giradoux as the rag picker.

Paul, who ranks fifth in his class, does seem to find some time during his many activities for his homework. His classes include probability and statistics, German, social science survey, English IV, physics and physical education.

Paul was the only semifinalist from Fenton for the National Merit Scholarship.

BESIDE HIS avid interests in school and sports, he likes to go bowling, play chess, and read. He also said that he likes tobogganing, though he has never yet gone.

He remarked on his feelings toward school and the forthcoming referendum, "I enjoy going to Fenton, it's a great school—with a good faculty. It seems all the teachers are willing to help a person if one needs it, and they are quite friendly."

His comments concerning the referendum help to reveal his interest in the school and community. "The referendum is a great concern to the school and should also be of the community. If it fails, the students here will suffer not only in education but also for social activities."

Paul has many pet peeves concerning the students and their school spirit. "It gets me quite mad when people don't attend a wrestling match but do attend other sports. Another thing that gets me upset is when I hear kids complain about school. They don't care about their school or anything connected with it. They always seem to complain about the teachers and all the things they do."

He continued to say that school spirit is hard to define in a school like Fenton. "This is because the kids seem to have spirit for one activity and let the others go. Sure, there are kids who go but not that many.

"Last week at the Pep assembly was a good example of the kind of spirit Fentonites have. Not much! The cheerleaders are not to blame, because they try to get the students to yell, but at times, it just can't be accomplished."

AS ANY PERSON has, Paul does have his likes: "Going to school at Fenton, eating a New York steak medium rare and math."

Paul is not quite sure of his future plans, but at the present time he is interested in the University of Dartmouth, University of Illinois, and the College of Monmouth. He thinks he will major in math.

Paul says he doesn't get embarrassed easily. But he says some exciting things have happened to him. These are, "winning the Tri-county championship for football this year, and being inducted into National Honor Society."

HE SAYS HE is not sure as to what sports in which he will participate in college, but would like to go out for freshman football and plan from there.

As one can see, Paul is a person with a well-rounded personality. He is one student who is concerned not only with himself but with many other people in school and the community.

He likes to see students participate in many activities.

As one can see, he follows his own philosophy. (Y15

LET'S HANG ON TO WHAT WE'VE GOT !!
VOTE YES—FEB 5

Arlington 'Fantasticks' Slated Feb. 24, 25, 26

"The Fantasticks," a parable about love, with book and lyrics by Tom Jones and music by Harvey Schmidt, will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 24, and at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Feb. 25 and 26, in the Arlington High School Little Theatre.

The play is a musical in which Matt, played by senior Doug Olipra and Luisa, played by senior Joanne Mayer, fall in love. Their fathers, Bellomy and Hucklebee, played by senior Doug McDonald and sophomore John Hart, respectively, pretend to oppose their children's romance in order to encourage them to marry.

The plot thickens when the parents have to find a way to end the pretended feud. The fathers hire El Gallo, played by senior Tom Jacobs, to stage a raid in which he pretends to abduct Luisa. Matt defeats El Gallo to become a hero. The next day both Matt and Luisa see things in a different light.

OTHER SUPPORTING roles are played by sophomore Bob Kindler as Mortimer, a Shakespearean actor; Mark Faro as the mute who serves as a property manager; and freshman Curt Wilson who plays Henry, Mortimer's sidekick. Tom Jacobs also plays the narrator. Lyovonne Trad, director, replied that it has never been done before, but that "musical theatre is a part of the dramatic experience."

Joanne Mayer felt that her role is a challenge: "Luisa is an entirely different person than I am."

She and Doug McDonald agree that the play is new, original, and exciting, Doug thinks that it will be enjoyed by almost anyone.

Tom Jacobs commented that his role seems simple but is really complex.

"BESIDES," TOM added, "I have to sing and juggle, which I had to learn. I haven't learned to sing yet — but I have learned to juggle."

Since there is no scenery and few props in the production, everything is left to the audience's imagination. Senior Jim Perrin is props chairman.

Stage managers are senior Carol Brouwer and sophomore Steve Busch.

Juniors Patty Smith and Dan Elenz are assistants to Miss Trad.

STATED PAT, "The cast is really working closely with Miss Trad. The play should be a tremendous success."

The piano accompaniment will be provided by seniors Kathy Manatt and Linda Piepenbrink. (10Y

Squad Practices For 'It's Academic'

Three Arlington High School seniors will represent the school on "It's Academic," a high school competitive quiz program which will be on Channel 5 at 6 p.m. sometime in the near future.

Rita Sauve, Gary Fichter, Tommy Hemnes, Stan Martens, Ken Proch, Tom Biwer, and Dave Schimpf are the seven students from whom the three representatives will be chosen. The remaining four students will act as alternates.

Teachers suggested names of students who were strong in a particular subject, such as English, social studies, mathematics or science. Robert Boesel and Fred Gorman, sponsors, chose the 20 students whose names appeared most often. These 20 students participated in a trial session.

A SCORE WAS kept for each student and the results showed the seven above as winners. The scorekeeper noted that the' Arlington candidates seemed very poised.

These seven, divided into teams, practice twice a week. Questions of the type given at the trial session are presented.

Boesel commented, "Even if the student knows the answer, sometimes it is difficult to say it quickly. We need to have quick recall."

At the close of the contest, there is a "grab-bag" where questions may be answered by anyone who pushes his button. This buzzing mechanism has been devised for practice sessions only.

THE FIRST-PLACE team receives a $100 savings bond and a chance to return. The remaining two schools receive a $25 savings bond.

Last year Arlington won once and returned only to be beaten by New Trier High School of Wilmette.

The date of the taping has not been announced yet; when it is, students may obtain tickets at Arlington High School. (10Y

Gary Fichter Attends Science Lecture Series

Arlington High School senior Gary Fichter was one of 800 science students from the Chicago area who were selected to attend science lectures at the Museum of Natural History Dec. 23 and 24.

The lectures were on "The Determination of the Magnetic Dipole Moment of the Electron." They were given in four two-hour segments.

The speaker was Dr. Polykarp Kusch, a professor at Columbia University and a Nobel Prize winner in physics.

GARY COMMENTED, "It gave us a really good introduction, but it was kind of hard to understand." He felt that the lectures would have helped him more before he took chemistry, but he thinks they will help in college.

Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fichter of 123 S. Kaspar, Arlington Heights. (Y

Lake Park Junior Wins Bake Contest

Melanie Cartwright, 21W345 Thorndale, Itasca, bakes a delicious pie, according to four teacher-judges at Lake Park High School.

Melanie, a junior, won the contest at the high school and will compete in the Illinois Gas Co. Cherry Pie Bake-Off.

Runners-up were Samuel Evans, 6N029 Popworth, Keeneyville; Betty Hauser, 21W732 Maple, Medinah; Christine O'Connor, 22W274 Irving Park, Roselle; Mary Doolin, 517 Country Club Drive, Itasca; and Anne Gould, 15 S. Roselle Rd., Roselle.

LAST TUESDAY candidates at the high school prepared and baked a two-crust, 9-inch cherry pie in the presence of art teacher Robert Hodge, English teacher Robert Cramer, music teacher Paul Ortscheid, and mathematics teacher Daniel Hildebrandt, all of whom acted as judges.

Melanie will represent Lake Park at the regional bake-off. There she will be judged on a written home economics quiz; on her demonstration technique, organization, and practical home economics ability; on the appearance, quality, and display of the cherry pie; and on her poise and personality.

The winner of this regional contest will compete in the state contest. First prize for the state winner is a $1000 college scholarship; second prize, a $300 scholarship. (Y15

It's a Fun Night Following Tests

All Arlington High School students can finish off a day of semester exams with Fun Night today (Thursday) from 7 to 10:30 p.m. for 75 cents.

Fun Night will be similar to those of other years with fun for everyone.

The "go-go" set can participate in the dancing in the girls gym.

The boys gym will be open for the use of AHS athletes. The gymnastic apparatus will be available and volleyball and basketball can be played.

IN THE CAFETERIA refreshments will be on sale for the hungry ones. Fun Nighters can play such games as cards, chess, and monopoly in the cafeteria.

In the Little Theatre a movie will be shown. Senior Sue P. Johnson, who is in charge of Fun Night, states, "We hope to have a Dracula movie."

Student Council as in other years, is sponsoring Fun Night. Because it is usually a very profitable project, this is the second Fun Night this year.

THE PROCEEDS will supplement the Student Council treasury, which supports Student Council's activities.

"We are going to have a lot to do and we're going to try to please everybody," added Sue. "It will be a good chance for everyone to let off some steam, since it's right after semester exams and there's no school the next day." (Y

District's Spring Tour Deadline Near

Reservations for the 1966 District 214 Senior Spring Tour to Washington, D.C., and Williamsburg, Va., will be taken until Monday.

The total cost to seniors in District 214 for the five-day trip is $180, which includes all transportation, sight-seeing tours, meals, lodging and gratuities, but not souvenirs or spending money.

The entire amount may be paid at once or by a payment plan, consisting of three payments of $60 each. The first payment is due Jan. 24-31; the second, Feb. 21-25; and the third, March 7-15.

No refunds can be made after the second payment, except in the case of illness.

The trip will start at 7 a.m., April 4 from O'Hare Field, Chicago, aboard a jet bound for Baltimore, Md., where the students will begin their tour of Virginia.

THE FIRST STOPS will be Wakefield and Stratford, the birthplaces of George Washington and Robert E. Lee, and then on to the Yorktown Battlefield.

The next day will begin with a tour of Williamsburg, including the public gaol, Raleigh Tavern, Governor's Palace, and the George Wythe House. Then the tour goes to the Jamestown Fort and Fredericksburg.

Washington, D.C., is next on the agenda. Highlights are the Lincoln Memorial, Washington Monument, Bureau of Printing and Engraving, Smithsonian Institution, National Gallery of Art, Capitol Hill, Supreme Court building, Library of Congress, Wax Museum, National Archives, Alexandria, Mt. Vernon, Arlington National Cemetery, (the changing of the Guard and a visit to John F. Kennedy's grave), and a tour of the White House.

The trip will wind up with a tour of Annapolis, followed by a jet flight from Baltimore to O'Hare Field at 7:30 p.m. April 8.

CHAPERONES FOR the 100 students from Arlington, Forest View, Prospect and Wheeling will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mueller from Wheeling; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hillman from Forest View; Mrs. Marie Porter from Forest View; and Miss Judith Whitney from Arlington.

Mueller said that there is an allotment of 25 students from each school and that possibly a few juniors will be accepted. (10Y

Hawks Post Two Wins In Hockey

The powerhouse Hawks of the Pioneer Park Midget Hockey League stayed at the top of the standings with twin victories over the Redskins (3-1) and Braves (5-3).

Balanced scoring from the pony line of Santelli, Cavers, DeMeyer, backed by Proebstle and Bryk on defense and Reitmeyer in the nets has given the leaders four wins against one loss.

Other games featured the second place Braves defeating the Warriors 3-1 and the Redskins 4-3, on the scoring of Sayre, Harth and Quigley.

State tournament play is in full swing for the seventh and eighth grade midget groups.

The Arlington Midget All-Stars defeated Hasbrook 3-0 in a pre-tourney warm-up.

The All-Stars now meet Mount Prospect, Morton Grove and Northbrook in regional games.

Suburb Students Planning Month of Study in Russia

By ARLENE IVERSEN

Mrs. June Stevens, Russian language teacher at Forest View High School, will lead a group of Forest View students on a trip to the Soviet Union this summer. The trip is not sponsored by the school district (214) and each student must pay his own way.

Because of a number of technicalities, names of the students going cannot be released yet, Mrs. Stevens said.

The trip will begin on July 1 and last until August 1. The cost is set at $850 per person.

This price includes transportation by plane to Warsaw, Poland, and by train to Leningrad. Room and board in Leningrad for the 20-day stay is also included in the fare.

AT THE UNIVERSITY of Leningrad, the students will study Russian under a Russian professor. Classes will be held four hours a day, six days per week. After classes, the students will be given time in which they hope to meet and become acquainted with some of the Soviet people.

A film, "A Trip to the USSR," gave the future travelers a look at what lies ahead. This award-winning film was produced by the Air France airline company. Featured in this showing were visits to many of the Soviet cities.

From the New York-like climate of Moscow to the subtropical Yalta, the film showed the many aspects of Soviet life. Tourist spots, dances, schools, markets, and the people themselves were the main points of interest.

THE FILM served as encouragement to the interested students. As the lights came on, the room buzzed with excitement and planning.

Rome, London, Madrid, Copenhagen, and Berlin will also be visited by the students this summer. These side trips will be taken after the studies at the university and must be paid for separately.

During January, the planning and speculation continue. Interested students meet frequently to discuss such pending problems as wardrobe and spending money.

One bit of hesitation was had by all: While in Russia, they must speak no English, only Russian! (15Y

'Animals' Roar School Spirit

Lake Park High School has a new sound, the roar from "Animals Anonymous."

"Animals" is a group of boys formed to boost school spirit and team support with their loud, masculine cheers.

Varsity basketball Coach James Dudley and Dean of students Frederick Voda helped the boys form their group. The members immediately selected their uniforms—jerseys with white fronts and blue backs.

THE MALE cheering section, 150 strong, made their debut before the student body at a pep assembly Jan. 21. Faculty and students alike were delighted with the gruff sounds from this section.

The group is not led by any one person; their cheers are spontaneous and include any which the boys know, according to Voda.

The only problem the group has had so far is in finding enough jerseys to go around — and in finding ones that are large enough. The group is still growing, and jerseys of the large size are hard to keep on hand, says Voda. (5Y

Wrestling Win To Falcon Sophs

All but two of the 12 meet matches were won by Forest View sophs in a meet wrestling with Niles East last Friday which FV won 46-6.

Getting pins in the meet for the Falcons were Don Foster (103 pounds), Brian Wolff (120) Gary Mager (138), Spencer Dreischarf (165) and Bob Savage (heavyweight). They provided 25 meet points.

Steve Allen (145) and Marc Swanson (154) got decisions and six meet points for Forest View. The remaining points were gathered by Dave Deresotes (112), Stan Rohner (127) and Kevin Powers (180) who won on forfeits.

The FV sophs are now 7-3 for the season under coach Dave Theesfeld.

Northwest 'Y' Boys Win 6th Straight Game

The Northwest Y.M.C.A boys basketball team defeated Elmhurst Y.M.C.A. last Saturday, 63 to 25 for their sixth straight win.

Northwest was led by the all-around play of Gary Fairhead who scored 28 points. Ken Malcomson played a fine floor game and chipped in 15 points. Mark Browning cleaned the boards regularly and also scored 16 points.

Northwest will try to make it seven straight on Saturday at 3:30 p.m. when they host a tough team from Isham YMCA. Isham defeated Northwest 41-33 in the opening game of the season for both teams.

Knights Top FV 5's in Frosh Tilts

Freshman cagers from Prospect picked up two victories from Forest View last Saturday, topping FV 48-40 at the A level and 45-23 in B action.

In the A contest the Knights were up 23-11 at the half. The Falcons came back in the third quarter, closing the gap to 32-25, but couldn't get closer.

High scorers for Prospect were Joe Hines and Bob Freck with 11 and 10 points respectively. Keith Bauer had 13 points to take game honors for Forest View. Best rebounder for the winners was Bob Bachhuber with 11.

B competition saw the Knights move ahead quickly and the game wasn't close after those opening moments. Dave Johnson's 10 points for Prospect was the high game total though Steve Grant and Dann Willis each pulled down 10 rebounds for the Knights.

As a result of those games Prospect's frosh A record was upped to 4-5 while a 6-2 mark is owned by the Knights' B's. Standards of 7-6 and 4-5 in A and B campaigns belong to Forest View.

Lion Sophs Drop Pair In League

The second half proved to be disastrous for St. Viator's sophomore Lions in both ends of a basketball doubleheader last weekend.

Coach Ed Wasielewski's boys held a 20-19 lead at the intermission against rangy St. Patrick Friday evening but suffered a 55-37 setback.

The Lions trailed by only one point (17-16) at halftime Saturday at St. Joseph but skidded in the final two periods and fell 47-34.

Bill Reising enjoyed his finest night of the season against St. Pat's with eight baskets and one free throw for 17 points. Pat Zeller threw in nine points and Dave Carlson eight.

Ken Balinski came off the bench to score nine points at St. Joseph. Carlson also had nine for the Lions.

St. Viator will journey to St. Mel Friday and host St. Ignatius Saturday.

Krause and Kehe's Cagers Roll Along

Krause and Kehe extended its unbeaten streak to nine games in its quest for the Arlington Heights Park District basketball championship.

Glen Elms and Larry Weck led the league leaders to the ninth triumph by scoring 27 and 22 points in a 77-58 decision over Arlington Park Sinclair.

Chas. Klehm's Nursery edged out the 45th Artillery Brigade 68-60, while the Arlington Oilers bombed the 755th Radar Squadron 81-42.

Senior Spotlight

Two Fenton Students Both Possess Leadership Qualities

(High School Highlights' Senior Spotlight this issue shines once again on two outstanding seniors from Fenton High School in Bensenville.)

by VICKY De LUDE

Yvette Chevance, daughter of Mrs. Martha Chevance, 18 E. Belmont, Bensenville, conveys different impressions to different people.

A person who has just met her sees a delicate picture of femininity and softness. Her classmates recognize her as an active leader of Fenton High School. Her friends know she is a happy, fun-loving teen.

Yvette has represented her class in Student Council for three years and last September participated in the Illinois State High School Association convention. She is copy editor of Highlights, Fenton's yearbook; reports for Signal, the school paper; and is singing for her second year in A Capella choir.

For the past month, she has been (and will be for the weeks to come) working diligently for the February 5 high school bond referendum. She is a member of the group that has been speaking to community organizations and explaining the need for the referendum.

She is also chairman of a handbill committee that is in charge of printing leaflets for students to distribute in Bensenville and Wood Dale.

CONCERNING THE referendum, Yvette said, "It is very sad that so few parents voted before, and we must encourage their support. It has taken so long to build up the school we have, and now it may all be lost."

Yvette explained her interest in school activities saying, "I'm a crusader; I'm idealistic." She's willing to go all out for something she believes in.

An honor roll student, Yvette is presently taking world literature, an honors course; English; senior social survey; and journalism. Her favorite subjects are literature and journalism, the field she plans to enter after high school.

Yvette hopes to attend Northwestern University and major in magazine journalism. "I'm excited about going. I think it will be hard, but it'll be worth it," she says.

In addition to school activities, Yvette works several nights a week at the Bensenville Community Public Library. In her spare time she enjoys reading, writing, visiting museums, and attending plays or movies. She also likes to bowl and go tobogganing.

YVETTE HAS taken three years of French and plans to continue with it in the future. She loves Italian spaghetti with French bread. Her favorite color is blue while she abhors purple. She also despises hypocrites.

Yvette holds an opinion of school spirit different from most individuals. "People talk school spirit down too much," she says. "More kids have school spirit than most people realize."

Concerning Fenton High School, she said, "I like it here. We're a grade A school."

"Getting up on a Friday morning, being weighed in 4 pounds underweight, eating a big breakfast followed by going to probability with my homework done and finally winning my match" is senior Paul Poplawsky's description of a perfect day.

PAUL IS THE son of Mr. and Mrs. John Poplawsky, 4N151 John Street, Bensenville.

Very athletic and scholarly are words which describe Paul. He has been an active member of the wrestling, baseball and football teams since his freshman year. He was an honorable mention as an all conference line backer of football, in which he was part of the squad which took first place in conference. He has also been a member of National Honor Society since his sophomore year, and has been on the honor roll since his freshman year. Beside these activities, one can often see Paul working for Drama Club. He has been working on the construction crews as well as the stage crew for many of Fenton's productions.

He has a role in the forthcoming winter production of "The Madwoman of Chaillot" by Jean Giradoux as the rag picker.

Paul, who ranks fifth in his class, does seem to find some time during his many activities for his homework. His classes include probability and statistics, German, social science survey, English IV, physics and physical education.

Paul was the only semifinalist from Fenton for the National Merit Scholarship.

BESIDE HIS avid interests in school and sports, he likes to go bowling, play chess, and read. He also said that he likes tobogganing, though he has never yet gone.

He remarked on his feelings toward school and the forthcoming referendum, "I enjoy going to Fenton, it's a great school—with a good faculty. It seems all the teachers are willing to help a person if one needs it, and they are quite friendly."

His comments concerning the referendum help to reveal his interest in the school and community. "The referendum is a great concern to the school and should also be of the community. If it fails, the students here will suffer not only in education but also for social activities."

Paul has many pet peeves concerning the students and their school spirit. "It gets me quite mad when people don't attend a wrestling match but do attend other sports. Another thing that gets me upset is when I hear kids complain about school. They don't care about their school or anything connected with it. They always seem to complain about the teachers and all the things they do."

He continued to say that school spirit is hard to define in a school like Fenton. "This is because the kids seem to have spirit for one activity and let the others go. Sure, there are kids who go but not that many.

"Last week at the Pep assembly was a good example of the kind of spirit Fentonites have. Not much! The cheerleaders are not to blame, because they try to get the students to yell, but at times, it just can't be accomplished."

AS ANY PERSON has, Paul does have his likes: "Going to school at Fenton, eating a New York steak medium rare and math."

Paul is not quite sure of his future plans, but at the present time he is interested in the University of Dartmouth, University of Illinois, and the College of Monmouth. He thinks he will major in math.

Paul says he doesn't get embarrassed easily. But he says some exciting things have happened to him. These are, "winning the Tri-county championship for football this year, and being inducted into National Honor Society."

HE SAYS HE is not sure as to what sports in which he will participate in college, but would like to go out for freshman football and plan from there.

As one can see, Paul is a person with a well-rounded personality. He is one student who is concerned not only with himself but with many other people in school and the community.

He likes to see students participate in many activities.

As one can see, he follows his own philosophy. (Y15

WE'VE GOT !!
VOTE YES—FEB 5

Arlington 'Fantasticks' Slated Feb. 24, 25, 26

"The Fantasticks," a parable about love, with book and lyrics by Tom Jones and music by Harvey Schmidt, will be presented at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Feb. 24, and at 8 p.m. Friday and Saturday, Feb. 25 and 26, in the Arlington High School Little Theatre.

The play is a musical in which Matt, played by senior Doug Olipra and Luisa, played by senior Joanne Mayer, fall in love. Their fathers, Bellomy and Hucklebee, played by senior Doug McDonald and sophomore John Hart, respectively, pretend to oppose their children's romance in order to encourage them to marry.

The plot thickens when the parents have to find a way to end the pretended feud. The fathers hire El Gallo, played by senior Tom Jacobs, to stage a raid in which he pretends to abduct Luisa. Matt defeats El Gallo to become a hero. The next day both Matt and Luisa see things in a different light.

OTHER SUPPORTING roles are played by sophomore Bob Kindler as Mortimer, a Shakespearean actor; Mark Faro as the mute who serves as a property manager; and freshman Curt Wilson who plays Henry, Mortimer's sidekick. Tom Jacobs also plays the narrator. Lyovonne Trad, director, replied that it has never been done before, but that "musical theatre is a part of the dramatic experience."

Joanne Mayer felt that her role is a challenge: "Luisa is an entirely different person than I am."

She and Doug McDonald agree that the play is new, original, and exciting, Doug thinks that it will be enjoyed by almost anyone.

Tom Jacobs commented that his role seems simple but is really complex.

"BESIDES," TOM added, "I have to sing and juggle, which I had to learn. I haven't learned to sing yet — but I have learned to juggle."

Since there is no scenery and few props in the production, everything is left to the audience's imagination. Senior Jim Perrin is props chairman.

Stage managers are senior Carol Brouwer and sophomore Steve Busch.

Juniors Patty Smith and Dan Elenz are assistants to Miss Trad.

STATED PAT, "The cast is really working closely with Miss Trad. The play should be a tremendous success."

The piano accompaniment will be provided by seniors Kathy Manatt and Linda Piepenbrink. (10Y

Squad Practices For 'It's Academic'

Three Arlington High School seniors will represent the school on "It's Academic," a high school competitive quiz program which will be on Channel 5 at 6 p.m. sometime in the near future.

Rita Sauve, Gary Fichter, Tommy Hemnes, Stan Martens, Ken Proch, Tom Biwer, and Dave Schimpf are the seven students from whom the three representatives will be chosen. The remaining four students will act as alternates.

Teachers suggested names of students who were strong in a particular subject, such as English, social studies, mathematics or science. Robert Boesel and Fred Gorman, sponsors, chose the 20 students whose names appeared most often. These 20 students participated in a trial session.

A SCORE WAS kept for each student and the results showed the seven above as winners. The scorekeeper noted that the' Arlington candidates seemed very poised.

These seven, divided into teams, practice twice a week. Questions of the type given at the trial session are presented.

Boesel commented, "Even if the student knows the answer, sometimes it is difficult to say it quickly. We need to have quick recall."

At the close of the contest, there is a "grab-bag" where questions may be answered by anyone who pushes his button. This buzzing mechanism has been devised for practice sessions only.

THE FIRST-PLACE team receives a $100 savings bond and a chance to return. The remaining two schools receive a $25 savings bond.

Last year Arlington won once and returned only to be beaten by New Trier High School of Wilmette.

The date of the taping has not been announced yet; when it is, students may obtain tickets at Arlington High School. (10Y

Gary Fichter Attends Science Lecture Series

Arlington High School senior Gary Fichter was one of 800 science students from the Chicago area who were selected to attend science lectures at the Museum of Natural History Dec. 23 and 24.

The lectures were on "The Determination of the Magnetic Dipole Moment of the Electron." They were given in four two-hour segments.

The speaker was Dr. Polykarp Kusch, a professor at Columbia University and a Nobel Prize winner in physics.

GARY COMMENTED, "It gave us a really good introduction, but it was kind of hard to understand." He felt that the lectures would have helped him more before he took chemistry, but he thinks they will help in college.

Gary is the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Fichter of 123 S. Kaspar, Arlington Heights. (Y

Lake Park Junior Wins Bake Contest

Melanie Cartwright, 21W345 Thorndale, Itasca, bakes a delicious pie, according to four teacher-judges at Lake Park High School.

Melanie, a junior, won the contest at the high school and will compete in the Illinois Gas Co. Cherry Pie Bake-Off.

Runners-up were Samuel Evans, 6N029 Popworth, Keeneyville; Betty Hauser, 21W732 Maple, Medinah; Christine O'Connor, 22W274 Irving Park, Roselle; Mary Doolin, 517 Country Club Drive, Itasca; and Anne Gould, 15 S. Roselle Rd., Roselle.

LAST TUESDAY candidates at the high school prepared and baked a two-crust, 9-inch cherry pie in the presence of art teacher Robert Hodge, English teacher Robert Cramer, music teacher Paul Ortscheid, and mathematics teacher Daniel Hildebrandt, all of whom acted as judges.

Melanie will represent Lake Park at the regional bake-off. There she will be judged on a written home economics quiz; on her demonstration technique, organization, and practical home economics ability; on the appearance, quality, and display of the cherry pie; and on her poise and personality.

The winner of this regional contest will compete in the state contest. First prize for the state winner is a $1000 college scholarship; second prize, a $300 scholarship. (Y15

It's a Fun Night Following Tests

All Arlington High School students can finish off a day of semester exams with Fun Night today (Thursday) from 7 to 10:30 p.m. for 75 cents.

Fun Night will be similar to those of other years with fun for everyone.

The "go-go" set can participate in the dancing in the girls gym.

The boys gym will be open for the use of AHS athletes. The gymnastic apparatus will be available and volleyball and basketball can be played.

IN THE CAFETERIA refreshments will be on sale for the hungry ones. Fun Nighters can play such games as cards, chess, and monopoly in the cafeteria.

In the Little Theatre a movie will be shown. Senior Sue P. Johnson, who is in charge of Fun Night, states, "We hope to have a Dracula movie."

Student Council as in other years, is sponsoring Fun Night. Because it is usually a very profitable project, this is the second Fun Night this year.

THE PROCEEDS will supplement the Student Council treasury, which supports Student Council's activities.

"We are going to have a lot to do and we're going to try to please everybody," added Sue. "It will be a good chance for everyone to let off some steam, since it's right after semester exams and there's no school the next day." (Y

District's Spring Tour Deadline Near

Reservations for the 1966 District 214 Senior Spring Tour to Washington, D.C., and Williamsburg, Va., will be taken until Monday.

The total cost to seniors in District 214 for the five-day trip is $180, which includes all transportation, sight-seeing tours, meals, lodging and gratuities, but not souvenirs or spending money.

The entire amount may be paid at once or by a payment plan, consisting of three payments of $60 each. The first payment is due Jan. 24-31; the second, Feb. 21-25; and the third, March 7-15.

No refunds can be made after the second payment, except in the case of illness.

The trip will start at 7 a.m., April 4 from O'Hare Field, Chicago, aboard a jet bound for Baltimore, Md., where the students will begin their tour of Virginia.

THE FIRST STOPS will be Wakefield and Stratford, the birthplaces of George Washington and Robert E. Lee, and then on to the Yorktown Battlefield.

The next day will begin with a tour of Williamsburg, including the public gaol, Raleigh Tavern, Governor's Palace, and the George Wythe House. Then the tour goes to the Jamestown Fort and Fredericksburg.

Washington, D.C., is next on the agenda. Highlights are the Lincoln Memorial, Washington Monument, Bureau of Printing and Engraving, Smithsonian Institution, National Gallery of Art, Capitol Hill, Supreme Court building, Library of Congress, Wax Museum, National Archives, Alexandria, Mt. Vernon, Arlington National Cemetery, (the changing of the Guard and a visit to John F. Kennedy's grave), and a tour of the White House.

The trip will wind up with a tour of Annapolis, followed by a jet flight from Baltimore to O'Hare Field at 7:30 p.m. April 8.

CHAPERONES FOR the 100 students from Arlington, Forest View, Prospect and Wheeling will be Mr. and Mrs. Paul Mueller from Wheeling; Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Hillman from Forest View; Mrs. Marie Porter from Forest View; and Miss Judith Whitney from Arlington.

Mueller said that there is an allotment of 25 students from each school and that possibly a few juniors will be accepted. (10Y

Hawks Post Two Wins In Hockey

The powerhouse Hawks of the Pioneer Park Midget Hockey League stayed at the top of the standings with twin victories over the Redskins (3-1) and Braves (5-3).

Balanced scoring from the pony line of Santelli, Cavers, DeMeyer, backed by Proebstle and Bryk on defense and Reitmeyer in the nets has given the leaders four wins against one loss.

Other games featured the second place Braves defeating the Warriors 3-1 and the Redskins 4-3, on the scoring of Sayre, Harth and Quigley.

State tournament play is in full swing for the seventh and eighth grade midget groups.

The Arlington Midget All-Stars defeated Hasbrook 3-0 in a pre-tourney warm-up.

The All-Stars now meet Mount Prospect, Morton Grove and Northbrook in regional games.

Suburb Students Planning Month of Study in Russia

By ARLENE IVERSEN

Mrs. June Stevens, Russian language teacher at Forest View High School, will lead a group of Forest View students on a trip to the Soviet Union this summer. The trip is not sponsored by the school district (214) and each student must pay his own way.

Because of a number of technicalities, names of the students going cannot be released yet, Mrs. Stevens said.

The trip will begin on July 1 and last until August 1. The cost is set at $850 per person.

This price includes transportation by plane to Warsaw, Poland, and by train to Leningrad. Room and board in Leningrad for the 20-day stay is also included in the fare.

AT THE UNIVERSITY of Leningrad, the students will study Russian under a Russian professor. Classes will be held four hours a day, six days per week. After classes, the students will be given time in which they hope to meet and become acquainted with some of the Soviet people.

A film, "A Trip to the USSR," gave the future travelers a look at what lies ahead. This award-winning film was produced by the Air France airline company. Featured in this showing were visits to many of the Soviet cities.

From the New York-like climate of Moscow to the subtropical Yalta, the film showed the many aspects of Soviet life. Tourist spots, dances, schools, markets, and the people themselves were the main points of interest.

THE FILM served as encouragement to the interested students. As the lights came on, the room buzzed with excitement and planning.

Rome, London, Madrid, Copenhagen, and Berlin will also be visited by the students this summer. These side trips will be taken after the studies at the university and must be paid for separately.

During January, the planning and speculation continue. Interested students meet frequently to discuss such pending problems as wardrobe and spending money.

One bit of hesitation was had by all: While in Russia, they must speak no English, only Russian! (15Y

'Animals' Roar School Spirit

Lake Park High School has a new sound, the roar from "Animals Anonymous."

"Animals" is a group of boys formed to boost school spirit and team support with their loud, masculine cheers.

Director Simone Busy With Next Guild Play

VICTOR SIMONE, serving his first season as resident director for Guild Players, points out what he wants in a scene from "The Girls in 509," a comedy, to be given Feb. 18 and 19 at Lake Park High School, Medinah. Dot Sicher, left, who plays one of the leading parts, and Dot Pfeiffer, stage manager for the production, listen as he gives directions.

"Hard-driving," "no nonsense," "Talented" are the terms used by Guild Players to describe their resident director, Victor Simone of Hoffman Estates, who is now engrossed in rehearsals for the Guild production of "The Girls in 509."

Simone, who has directed occasionally for Guild Players in past seasons, is the group's first resident director.

Appreciating the work load involved in Simone's position, the theatre group members try to adhere to his planned rehearsal schedule.

MRS. SID SICHER, cast in one of the leading roles in the forthcoming comedy, commented on how she cooperates.

"I try to get to all rehearsals before the director arrives, learn my lines as soon as possible and listen to every word the director says as if he were making beautiful music when he speaks."

Guild audiences have seen Mrs. Sicher previously in "Harvey," "The Silver Whistle" and "Light Up the Sky." Frequently she has portrayed both delightful and sometimes frightening characters in Guild children's plays.

"THE ENTHUSIASM and flexibility of most amateur actors is very satisfying to me as a director," Simone declared. "Of course, there is a certain amount of ego gratification derived from amateur acting, but most of us work as hard as we do for one basic reason — we love the theatre."

"Dot Sicher is a good example," he continued. "I don't think money could buy the kind of enthusiasm she and the others in the cast of 'The Girls in 509' put into their roles."

Two performances of "The Girls in 509," billed as a comedy with a political funnybone, will be given Feb. 18 and 19 at Lake Park High School in Medinah. Tickets may be obtained by calling the Guild Players box office, 529-3897. (Bill

Art Center Plans Masquerade Ball

Officers of the Countryside Art Center recently announced plans for a masquerade ball to be held in Arlington Heights Saturday, Feb. 19. Featuring a Moulin Rouge theme, the ball will take place at the Elks Club, 2323 Wilke, from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m., with music provided by Gil Bowen and his orchestra.

Mr. and Mrs. John Bowen, 516 S. Beverly, Arlington Heights, have been named chairmen of the "Bal Masque au Moulin Rouge," according to Mrs. William Stull, art center president. The Bowens report that the ball will feature large murals designed by Countryside artists, costume awards, a surprise door prize and a midnight buffet.

Tickets are available at the Countryside Gallery, 10 W. Miner St., Arlington Heights. Persons need not be members of the art center to attend the event.

ACCORDING TO THE "Bal Masque" chairmen, costumes will be optional, although it is hoped that they will be numerous. Information about the February ball may be obtained by calling the Countryside Gallery, 253-3005, during regular gallery hours, 1 to 4 p.m., daily except Monday.

In addition to Mr. and Mrs. Bowen, other art center members who have been instrumental in planning the event include Mrs. Robert Cournoyer, Mrs. Charles Tibbits, Mrs. G. Von Varga, Mrs. Don Ericksen, Charles Farmer and officers of the art center. Further details of the "Bal Masque" will be announced in forthcoming news editions. (Bill

MOTORING IN THE English countryside are Doris Day and Rod Raylor in this scene from "Do Not Distrub," a romantic comedy starting Friday, Feb. 4, at the Arlington Theatre for an extended exclusive run in the northwest suburban area.

Art League Schedules Critique

Mount Prospect Art League will have a critique of members' paintings at its next meeting Feb. 1 at 8 p.m. in the Mount Prospect Country Club, Shabonee Trail.

Director Simone Busy With Next Guild Play

VICTOR SIMONE, serving his first season as resident director for Guild Players, points out what he wants in a scene from "The Girls in 509," a comedy, to be given Feb. 18 and 19 at Lake Park High School, Medinah. Dot Sicher, left, who plays one of the leading parts, and Dot Pfeiffer, stage manager for the production, listen as he gives directions.

"Hard-driving," "no nonsense," "Talented" are the terms used by Guild Players to describe their resident director, Victor Simone of Hoffman Estates, who is now engrossed in rehearsals for the Guild production of "The Girls in 509."

Simone, who has directed occasionally for Guild Players in past seasons, is the group's first resident director.

Appreciating the work load involved in Simone's position, the theatre group members try to adhere to his planned rehearsal schedule.

MRS. SID SICHER, cast in one of the leading roles in the forthcoming comedy, commented on how she cooperates.

"I try to get to all rehearsals before the director arrives, learn my lines as soon as possible and listen to every word the director says as if he were making beautiful music when he speaks."

Guild audiences have seen Mrs. Sicher previously in "Harvey," "The Silver Whistle" and "Light Up the Sky." Frequently she has portrayed both delightful and sometimes frightening characters in Guild children's plays.

"THE ENTHUSIASM and flexibility of most amateur actors is very satisfying to me as a director," Simone declared. "Of course, there is a certain amount of ego gratification derived from amateur acting, but most of us work as hard as we do for one basic reason — we love the theatre."

"Dot Sicher is a good example," he continued. "I don't think money could buy the kind of enthusiasm she and the others in the cast of 'The Girls in 509' put into their roles."

Two performances of "The Girls in 509," billed as a comedy with a political funnybone, will be given Feb. 18 and 19 at Lake Park High School in Medinah. Tickets may be obtained by calling the Guild Players box office, 529-3897. (Bill

Pick Luboff Choir For Concert Series

The Norman Luboff Choir was chosen for the Arlington Heights Community Concert Association's 1966-'67 concert season by the board of directors in a meeting immediately following the annual membership meeting Jan. 17.

"It is thrilling to get this fine group of approximately 30 singers to come to Arlington Heights for they are recognized as one of the nation's finest," commented the newly re-elected Community Concert Association president Boyd White.

The Norman Luboff Choir has made many recordings, and Norman Luboff has done arrangements for many other choirs and male choruses, said White.

OTHER OFFICERS besides White, who will be serving his second term as president are the following people: Mrs. Lawrence W. Zonsius, membership chairman and first vice president; Mrs. Charles Opela, membership co-chairman and second vice president; Mrs. Carl R. Vigstedt, recording secretary; Mrs. Dale F. Galloway, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Arthur H. Franzen, treasurer; Mrs. Edward R. Vogeney, publicity chairman, and Mrs. Richard B. Dunlop, screening chairman.

Also elected on the board of directors were Mrs. Gale Blocki Jr., E. Martin Buehler, Mrs. Harry Jenkins, Ruby P. Kasper, Howard McElhose, Clayton H. Sauers and Mrs. Michael Swanson.

The Arlington Heights Community Concert Association is an educational non-profit association which provides opportunity for its members to develop their cultural interest through programs by leading musicians such as Whittemore and Lowe, Rise Stevens, Indianapolis Symphony, Anna Rusell, Frank Guarrera and most recently the Paris Chamber Orchestra. The programs are for members only.

NEW MEMBERS will be received during the week of March 21 through the 26th. Persons interested may call Mrs Lawrence W. Zonsius, CL 3-6377, or Mrs. Charles Opela, CL 3-5255.

Casting Completed for Winston's 'Exit the Body'

A sinister tone sets the pace for Winston Little Theatre's forthcoming production, "Exit the Body," a farce mystery that takes place in conservative New England.

The story tells of a woman mystery writer who rents a New England house, supposed to be the rendezvous point for some stolen jewels. Mystery mounts when body after body appears in the closet, focal point of the set.

"Exit the Body" will be presented Feb. 25 and 26 at Palatine High School.

PLAYING THE leading role of Crane Hammond, woman mystery writer, will be Karen Costin of Palatine. Mrs. Costin, an active member of WLT, has worked in various capacities and has appeared in numerous plays, among them "Tender Trap" and "Critic's Choice."

Secretary to Crane is Kate Bixley, tailored and sarcastic, but true friend to her employer. To be seen as Kate is Bonnalee McAuley of Palatine, newcomer to WLT and to area little theatre work. Mrs. McAuley has had experience in dramatic work, both in college and in community theatre in Iowa.

Familiar to area theatre goers is Mrs. Betty Kandlbinder, also a Palatine resident, who will sppear in "Exit the Body" as Lillian, a top-flight designer and contemporary of Crane's. Mrs. Kandlbinder was last seen as the leading lady in WLT's "Third Best Sport" and has worked with the Toad Lane players in addition to being a fashion model.

RECENTLY SEEN in BOB's "Flower Drum Song" and "Kiss Me Kate," Harry Brown of Palatine will play his third dramatic part for WLT, as Randolph, a cheap crook trying hard to become a topflight crook.

Although he has never been in a WLT play, Angelo Polvere, Palatine, has participated in its talent bank group, and will appear in "Exist the Body" as Vernon Cookley, a middle-aged New Englander, leery of everyone and everything.

Often in the center of things is Jenny, a young country girl, loud, but the epitome of innocence. Seen as Jenny will be Marilyn Ostrowski of Arlington Heights, board member of St. James Players. Her past performances include roles in "Tom Jones," "Third Best Sport" and "Harvey," plus backstage work for BOB.

OTHER CHARACTERS on the scene of "Exit the Body" are Jerry Butz, Mount Prospect, as Phillip Smith, Ken Paulson of Palatine as Lyle, and Rudy Kandlbinder, Palatine, as Richard. Butz and Paulson are members of BOB, and Kandlbinder is active in WLT.

New to local little theatre work, but not to the world of show business, is the director of "Exit the Body," Ray Smithers of Arlington Heights, production manager with radio station WNWC.

Smithers' varied background includes free lance radio and television work, and instructor of music in piano, organ, harpsichord and zither. He also does the national commercials for Capitol records.

Assisting him with the directing will be Patti Clark, a Palatine resident, and Rudy Kandlbinder. Producer of "Exit the Body" is Palatine resident Jim Wickline, whose wife Barbara will handle tickets sales. Tickets may be obtained by calling FL 8-1278. (Bill

New Board Named By Capri Players

Dennis Striegel, 1042 S. Wolf Road, Wheeling, recently was named president of Capri Players, community theatre group which originated in the Prospect Heights-Wheeling area in 1965 and now has moved to the Mount Prospect area.

DENNIS STRIEGEL

Serving with Striegel on the board are Mrs. Lee Scheidt, 57 Laurel Trail, Wheeling, vice president; Wallace Olson, 277 Edgewood, Wheeling, treasurer-secretary; Penny Werhane, Des Plaines, secretary, and Thomas Petrosino, 309 Viola Lane, Prsospect Heights, artistic director.

During 1966 Capri Players will present four major productions, the first Eugene O'Neill's "Long Day's Journey into Night," which will be given March 25 and 26 at Elk Grove High School.

THE GROUP also will give eight lab plays in Central Grammar School, Mount Prospect, the third Tuesday of every month except March, June, August and November, which are major production months.

These one-act lab plays are intended to give members opportunity to develop their acting and directing abilities. Each play is followed by a critique. There also is a general meeting after the play. Admission is free. (Bill

Pick Luboff Choir For Concert Series

The Norman Luboff Choir was chosen for the Arlington Heights Community Concert Association's 1966-'67 concert season by the board of directors in a meeting immediately following the annual membership meeting Jan. 17.

"It is thrilling to get this fine group of approximately 30 singers to come to Arlington Heights for they are recognized as one of the nation's finest," commented the newly re-elected Community Concert Association president Boyd White.

The Norman Luboff Choir has made many recordings, and Norman Luboff has done arrangements for many other choirs and male choruses, said White.

OTHER OFFICERS besides White, who will be serving his second term as president are the following people: Mrs. Lawrence W. Zonsius, membership chairman and first vice president; Mrs. Charles Opela, membership co-chairman and second vice president; Mrs. Carl R. Vigstedt, recording secretary; Mrs. Dale F. Galloway, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Arthur H. Franzen, treasurer; Mrs. Edward R. Vogeney, publicity chairman, and Mrs. Richard B. Dunlop, screening chairman.

Also elected on the board of directors were Mrs. Gale Blocki Jr., E. Martin Buehler, Mrs. Harry Jenkins, Ruby P. Kasper, Howard McElhose, Clayton H. Sauers and Mrs. Michael Swanson.

The Arlington Heights Community Concert Association is an educational non-profit association which provides opportunity for its members to develop their cultural interest through programs by leading musicians such as Whittemore and Lowe, Rise Stevens, Indianapolis Symphony, Anna Russell, Frank Guarrera and most recently the Paris Chamber Orchestra. The programs are for members only.

NEW MEMBERS will be received during the week of March 21 through the 26th. Persons interested may call Mrs Lawrence W. Zonsius, CL 3-6377, or Mrs. Charles Opela, CL 3-5255.

Casting Completed for Winston's 'Exit the Body'

A sinister tone sets the pace for Winston Little Theatre's forthcoming production, "Exit the Body," a farce mystery that takes place in conservative New England.

The story tells of a woman mystery writer who rents a New England house, supposed to be the rendezvous point for some stolen jewels. Mystery mounts when body after body appears in the closet, focal point of the set.

"Exit the Body" will be presented Feb. 25 and 26 at Palatine High School.

PLAYING THE leading role of Crane Hammond, woman mystery writer, will be Karen Costin of Palatine. Mrs. Costin, an active member of WLT, has worked in various capacities and has appeared in numerous plays, among them "Tender Trap" and "Critic's Choice."

Secretary to Crane is Kate Bixley, tailored and sarcastic, but true friend to her employer. To be seen as Kate is Bonnalee McAuley of Palatine, newcomer to WLT and to area little theatre work. Mrs. McAuley has had experience in dramatic work, both in college and in community theatre in Iowa.

Familiar to area theatre goers is Mrs. Betty Kandlbinder, also a Palatine resident, who will sppear in "Exit the Body" as Lillian, a top-flight designer and contemporary of Crane's. Mrs. Kandlbinder was last seen as the leading lady in WLT's "Third Best Sport" and has worked with the Toad Lane players in addition to being a fashion model.

RECENTLY SEEN in BOB's "Flower Drum Song" and "Kiss Me Kate," Harry Brown of Palatine will play his third dramatic part for WLT, as Randolph, a cheap crook trying hard to become a topflight crook.

Although he has never been in a WLT play, Angelo Polvere, Palatine, has participated in its talent bank group, and will appear in "Exist the Body" as Vernon Cookley, a middle-aged New Englander, leery of everyone and everything.

Often in the center of things is Jenny, a young country girl, loud, but the epitome of innocence. Seen as Jenny will be Marilyn Ostrowski of Arlington Heights, board member of St. James Players. Her past performances include roles in "Tom Jones," "Third Best Sport" and "Harvey," plus backstage work for BOB.

OTHER CHARACTERS on the scene of "Exit the Body" are Jerry Butz, Mount Prospect, as Phillip Smith, Ken Paulson of Palatine as Lyle, and Rudy Kandlbinder, Palatine, as Richard. Butz and Paulson are members of BOB, and Kandlbinder is active in WLT.

New to local little theatre work, but not to the world of show business, is the director of "Exit the Body," Ray Smithers of Arlington Heights, production manager with radio station WNWC.

Smithers' varied background includes free lance radio and television work, and instructor of music in piano, organ, harpsichord and zither. He also does the national commercials for Capitol records.

'Arms and the Man'

Theatre Guild Effective in Playing Shaw for Laughs

by JOAN LORENSON
Staff Writer

The Des Plaines Theatre Guild opted for Shaw board and almost slapstick instead of tongue in cheek.

Director John Pesick kept George Bernard Shaw's "Arms and the Man" up-tempo in keeping with the decision to play for the broadest comedy.

In choosing this almost "Tom Jones-ian" style for the play written by Shaw in 1894, Pesick sacrificed much of the irony and nuance. Yet it is to the credit of the group that their spoof with this dated piece proved effective over-all.

THE PLAY, one of Shaw's first, jibes at love and war, bursting the balloon of romanticism that surrounds each. Said to have germinated from a Eugene Scribe plot, "Arms and the Man" originally attacked many of the conventions of Victorian theatre.

In using the situation of war between Serbs and Bulgars, Shaw had a built-in joke. The Bulgars were considered schmaltzy heroes with pretensions of grandeur.

Capt. Bluntschi, a Swiss professional soldier, hides in the bedroom of Raina and then successfully escapes, outwitting the Serbian Army.

HIS LATER RETURN to Raina's home to give back the coat he had borrowed provides Shaw with opportunity to satirize war and romanticism in the forms of Maj. Paul Pekoff and Maj. Sergius Saranoff.

The characterization of Maj. Saranoff by Michael Woulds was expert. His comic gestures brought appreciative laughs from the audience. Woulds carried off the leers, the patent heroics and "innocence" of a Saranoff.

James Cronin as Capt. Bluntschi was Shaw's concept of a soldier — more interested in chocolate than bullets. He shifted with ease in the attitudes that provided an effective anticlimax of which Shaw was fond.

A NEWCOMER to the Guild stage and Cronin's wife, Mary, gave a sensitive portrayal of Raina. She managed the schoolgirlish, breathy Raina without becoming ludricrous and cloying. Handling a Shavian female role is no easy task.

In contrast, Elizabeth Karlicek overplayed Louka's brassiness and ambitious ways.

Nicoia as acted by James Fisk appeared to be saying his lines for the first time. His appearance grated so that one could only be grateful for appearance of someone else on stage. Shaw might have meant Nicoia to be dull and servile but Fisk made him wooden.

WILHELM Levander's conception of Major Petkoff, a buffoon and hen-pecked husband, was done with adequacy as was Catharine, Petkoff's wife, played by Edith Wilson.

In the bit role of a Russian officer, Robert Flynn showed need of polishing.

One of the little flaws in the production was the differing interpretations of aristocratic accents.

The set backdrop of a mountain range and balcony overlooking it was well done. However, the trees in closer perspective looked neither realistic nor impressionistic — simply amateurish. The change of set to the library lacked imagination.

"ARMS AND THE MAN" cannot be labeled great, but it does provide light entertainment for the evening.

The Guild's last performances are tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday at the Guild Playhouse, 620 Lee St., Des Plaines. (Bill

Variety Group To Premiere

"Please, Open the Door," the first production of St. Theresa Variety Players of St. Theresa Church, 465 N. Benton, Palatine, opens tomorrow (Friday) night for a three-day run at St. Viator's Auditorium, 1213 E. Oakton, Arlington Heights.

Friday and Saturday performances start at 8:30 p.m. Curtain Sunday will be at 7 p.m.

The musical revue, an original show, was written in collaboration by James Stamm, Rudolf Liska, George Deonosotas and Donald Heyden, all of Palatine.

Stamm has directed the show and Mr. and Mrs. Heyden have coordinated its production.

Others involved in the production include Mrs. Robert Gubbe, business manager who also will be singing in the chorus; Mrs. William Donovan, costumes; Robert Crawford, stage crew; Mrs. Robert Whtie and Mrs. William Matteson, stage properties; Edward Schultz, set design and building; Mrs. Joseph Koenig, choreography design and direction.

Also in the production crew are Mrs. John Koehl, assistant to the director and general production assistant; John Dols, Don Kramer and Floyd Collins, lighting; Mrs. Don Adams, make-up and dance chorus; Thomas Herrman, stagebill, and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Spratlin, ticket sales.

"Please, Open the Door" features Bryce Driscoll, 10, as Mae Ling, a South Vietnamese orphan, adopted by Lt. McCall, played by Gerald Maguire. Assisting Lt. McCall in the adoption is Col. Anderson, portrayed by Lincoln Piotrowski.

The orphanage happens to be Catholic, and in this scene, the nuns of St. Theresa Church appear in a choral arrangement. The child is introduced to America through the music and customs of the four seasons.

An eleventh hour newcomer to the cast is Dawneen Nebel of Arlington Heights, who will join the show during her mid-semester vacation from Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa. Miss Nebel, who is majoring in music and voice, will sing "Summertime."

Tickets will be available at the door, or from Maurice Spratlin, 429 Monterey Road, Palatine, telephone, 358-5740.

SUSAN HART, portraying a life-like robot, gets a bug-eyed reaction from Dwayne Hickman, who plays a wealthy playboy in "Dr. Goldfoot and the Bikini Machine," starting tomorrow (Friday) at the Mount Prospect Cinema. The hilarious spy-thriller, "The 2nd Best Secret Agent," is co-featured.

At Illinois State

Jeffry Huebner, 1546 N. State Road, Arlington Heights, was recently selected as promotion and continuity director of the Illinois State University's student - operated radio WGLT at Normal Illinois.

Previously the station has been broadcasting only to dormitory students but is now converted to FM and will provide communication to off - campus students and be a closer link with the local community. It will have an effective radius of about 12 miles around Bloomington - Normal and programming will be cultural, educational and entertaining.

With Purdue Band

Kenneth C. Reed, 213 S. Ioka, Mount Prospect, is touring South America with the Purdue University band. The band will spend about a week in concerts and parades at the winter festival in San Cristobal, Venezuela.

This third tour was arranged as a result of the band's performance at a similar fair in Cali, Colombia, during Christmas vacation last winter and received first prize as the most outstanding musical organization at Cali's International Sugar Cane Festival.

Prof. Al G. Wright, director of Purdue bands, has organized the group to function flexibly as a 60-piece symphony band, a 54-piece marching band with six baton twirlers or as a 30-piece stage band with singing and dancing acts. (10CC

'Arms and the Man'

Theatre Guild Effective in Playing Shaw for Laughs

by JOAN LORENSON
Staff Writer

The Des Plaines Theatre Guild opted for Shaw board and almost slapstick instead of tongue in cheek.

Director John Pesick kept George Bernard Shaw's "Arms and the Man" up-tempo in keeping with the decision to play for the broadest comedy.

In choosing this almost "Tom Jones-ian" style for the play written by Shaw in 1894, Pesick sacrificed much of the irony and nuance. Yet it is to the credit of the group that their spoof with this dated piece proved effective over-all.

THE PLAY, one of Shaw's first, jibes at love and war, bursting the balloon of romanticism that surrounds each. Said to have germinated from a Eugene Scribe plot, "Arms and the Man" originally attacked many of the conventions of Victorian theatre.

In using the situation of war between Serbs and Bulgars, Shaw had a built-in joke. The Bulgars were considered schmaltzy heroes with pretensions of grandeur.

Capt. Bluntschi, a Swiss professional soldier, hides in the bedroom of Raina and then successfully escapes, outwitting the Serbian Army.

HIS LATER RETURN to Raina's home to give back the coat he had borrowed provides Shaw with opportunity to satirize war and romanticism in the forms of Maj. Paul Pekoff and Maj. Sergius Saranoff.

The characterization of Maj. Saranoff by Michael Woulds was expert. His comic gestures brought appreciative laughs from the audience. Woulds carried off the leers, the patent heroics and "innocence" of a Saranoff.

James Cronin as Capt. Bluntschi was Shaw's concept of a soldier — more interested in chocolate than bullets. He shifted with ease in the attitudes that provided an effective anticlimax of which Shaw was fond.

A NEWCOMER to the Guild stage and Cronin's wife, Mary, gave a sensitive portrayal of Raina. She managed the schoolgirlish, breathy Raina without becoming ludricrous and cloying. Handling a Shavian female role is no easy task.

In contrast, Elizabeth Karlicek overplayed Louka's brassiness and ambitious ways.

Nicoia as acted by James Fisk appeared to be saying his lines for the first time. His appearance grated so that one could only be grateful for appearance of someone else on stage. Shaw might have meant Nicoia to be dull and servile but Fisk made him wooden.

WILHELM Levander's conception of Major Petkoff, a buffoon and hen-pecked husband, was done with adequacy as was Catharine, Petkoff's wife, played by Edith Wilson.

In the bit role of a Russian officer, Robert Flynn showed need of polishing.

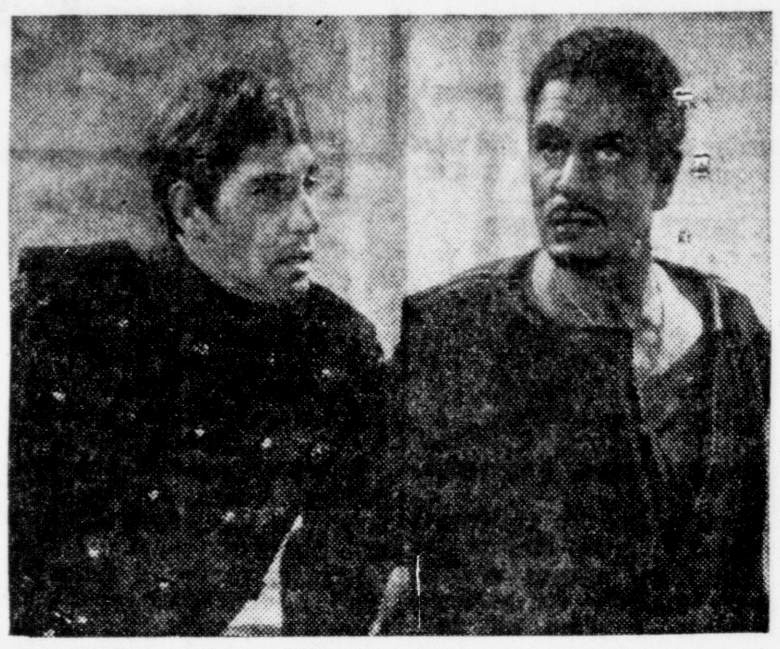
One of the little flaws in the production was the differing interpretations of aristocratic accents.

The set backdrop of a mountain range and balcony overlooking it was well done. However, the trees in closer perspective looked neither realistic nor impressionistic — simply amateurish. The change of set to the library lacked imagination.

"ARMS AND THE MAN" cannot be labeled great, but it does provide light entertainment for the evening.

The Guild's last performances are tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday at the Guild Playhouse, 620 Lee St., Des Plaines. (Bill

PADDOCK BILLBOARD



SUSPICION OF his bride's fidelity is planted in the mind of Othello, played by Laurence Olivier, by his aide, Iago, portrayed by Frank Finlay, in "Othello." The Shakespearean film will be presented Wednesday and Thursday, Feb. 2 and 3, at the Randhurst Cinema and Golf Mill Theatres. Two performances daily are scheduled at 2:15 p.m. and at 8:15.

French Innovators

The first credit union association was founded in Manchester, N. H., in 1908. The depositors were mostly French.

Variety Group To Premiere

"Please, Open the Door," the first production of St. Theresa Variety Players of St. Theresa Church, 465 N. Benton, Palatine, opens tomorrow (Friday) night for a three-day run at St. Viator's Auditorium, 1213 E. Oakton, Arlington Heights.

Friday and Saturday performances start at 8:30 p.m. Curtain Sunday will be at 7 p.m.

The musical revue, an original show, was written in collaboration by James Stamm, Rudolf Liska, George Deonosotas and Donald Heyden, all of Palatine.

Stamm has directed the show and Mr. and Mrs. Heyden have coordinated its production.

Others involved in the production include Mrs. Robert Gubbe, business manager who also will be singing in the chorus; Mrs. William Donovan, costumes; Robert Crawford, stage crew; Mrs. Robert Whtie and Mrs. William Matteson, stage properties; Edward Schultz, set design and building; Mrs. Joseph Koenig, choreography design and direction.

Also in the production crew are Mrs. John Koehl, assistant to the director and general production assistant; John Dols, Don Kramer and Floyd Collins, lighting; Mrs. Don Adams, make-up and dance chorus; Thomas Herrman, stagebill, and Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Spratlin, ticket sales.

"Please, Open the Door" features Bryce Driscoll, 10, as Mae Ling, a South Vietnamese orphan, adopted by Lt. McCall, played by Gerald Maguire. Assisting Lt. McCall in the adoption is Col. Anderson, portrayed by Lincoln Piotrowski.

The orphanage happens to be Catholic, and in this scene, the nuns of St. Theresa Church appear in a choral arrangement. The child is introduced to America through the music and customs of the four seasons.

An eleventh hour newcomer to the cast is Dawneen Nebel of Arlington Heights, who will join the show during her midsemester vacation from Simpson College, Indianola, Iowa. Miss Nebel, who is majoring in music and voice, will sing "Summertime."

Tickets will be available at the door, or from Maurice Spratlin, 429 Monterey Road, Palatine, telephone, 358-5740.

SUSAN HART, portraying a life-like robot, gets a bug-eyed reaction from Dwayne Hickman, who plays a wealthy playboy in "Dr. Goldfoot and the Bikini Machine," starting tomorrow (Friday) at the Mount Prospect Cinema. The hilarious spy-thriller, "The 2nd Best Secret Agent," is co-featured.

At Illinois State

Jeffry Huebner, 1546 N. State Road, Arlington Heights, was recently selected as promotion and continuity director of the Illinois State University's student - operated radio WGLT at Normal Illinois.

Previously the station has been broadcasting only to dormitory students but is now converted to FM and will provide communication to off - campus students and be a closer link with the local community. It will have an effective radius of about 12 miles around Bloomington - Normal and programming will be cultural, educational and entertaining.

With Purdue Band

Kenneth C. Reed, 213 S. Ioka, Mount Prospect, is touring South America with the Purdue University band. The band will spend about a week in concerts and parades at the winter festival in San Cristobal, Venezuela.

This third tour was arranged as a result of the band's performance at a similar fair in Cali, Colombia, during Christmas vacation last winter and received first prize as the most outstanding musical organization at Cali's International Sugar Cane Festival.

Prof. Al G. Wright, director of Purdue bands, has organized the group to function flexibly as a 60-piece symphony band, a 54-piece marching band with six baton twirlers or as a 30-piece stage band with singing and dancing acts. (10CC

A Half-Century of Respected Service

More New Families

The average person doesn't "shop around" for a funeral director. He selects the firm he is most favorably impressed with—either by personal observation or recommendation of friends. We are proud that year after year so many new families select us because their friends have been pleased with our services.

"I REMEMBER"

BY THE OLD TIMER

From Horace Abbey, Jackson, Michigan: I remember the first circus I ever saw. It was on the Fairgrounds, a half-mile or so from town. Father and I drove in from the farm, 12 miles away, and left our horse and buggy at the Farmers Feed Barn — 10 cents a day if you brought your own oats or corn and a bundle of hay.

The walk to the Fairgrounds was nothing to men accustomed to walking nine or ten hours behind horses doing field work. At the circus, I entered the biggest tent I ever saw, with a maze of tents and poles and narrow seats. I saw men and women swinging through the air and doing tricks beyond belief, and the trained ponies. How long I have carried the sight in my memory to see it again and again.

The thing I remember most vividly was the first girl I fell in love with. She came near and stood with her back to me, facing the center ring, waiting for the cue to begin her act. She was sweaty and dusty, and wore scanty clothes (much like the women today wear to do housework or go shopping in). But she was beautiful. I was smitten. I was overcome. I am 77 years old, but I still remember her as if it was yesterday.

"I REMEMBER"

BY THE OLD TIMER

From Horace Abbey, Jackson, Michigan: I remember the first circus I ever saw. It was on the Fairgrounds, a half-mile or so from town. Father and I drove in from the farm, 12 miles away, and left our horse and buggy at the Farmers Feed Barn — 10 cents a day if you brought your own oats or corn and a bundle of hay.

The walk to the Fairgrounds was nothing to men accustomed to walking nine or ten hours behind horses doing field work. At the circus, I entered the biggest tent I ever saw, with a maze of tents and poles and narrow seats. I saw men and women swinging through the air and doing tricks beyond belief, and the trained ponies. How long I have carried the sight in my memory to see it again and again.

The thing I remember most vividly was the first girl I fell in love with. She came near and stood with her back to me, facing the center ring, waiting for the cue to begin her act. She was sweaty and dusty, and wore scanty clothes (much like the women today wear to do housework or go shopping in). But she was beautiful. I was smitten. I was overcome. I am 77 years old, but I still remember her as if it was yesterday.

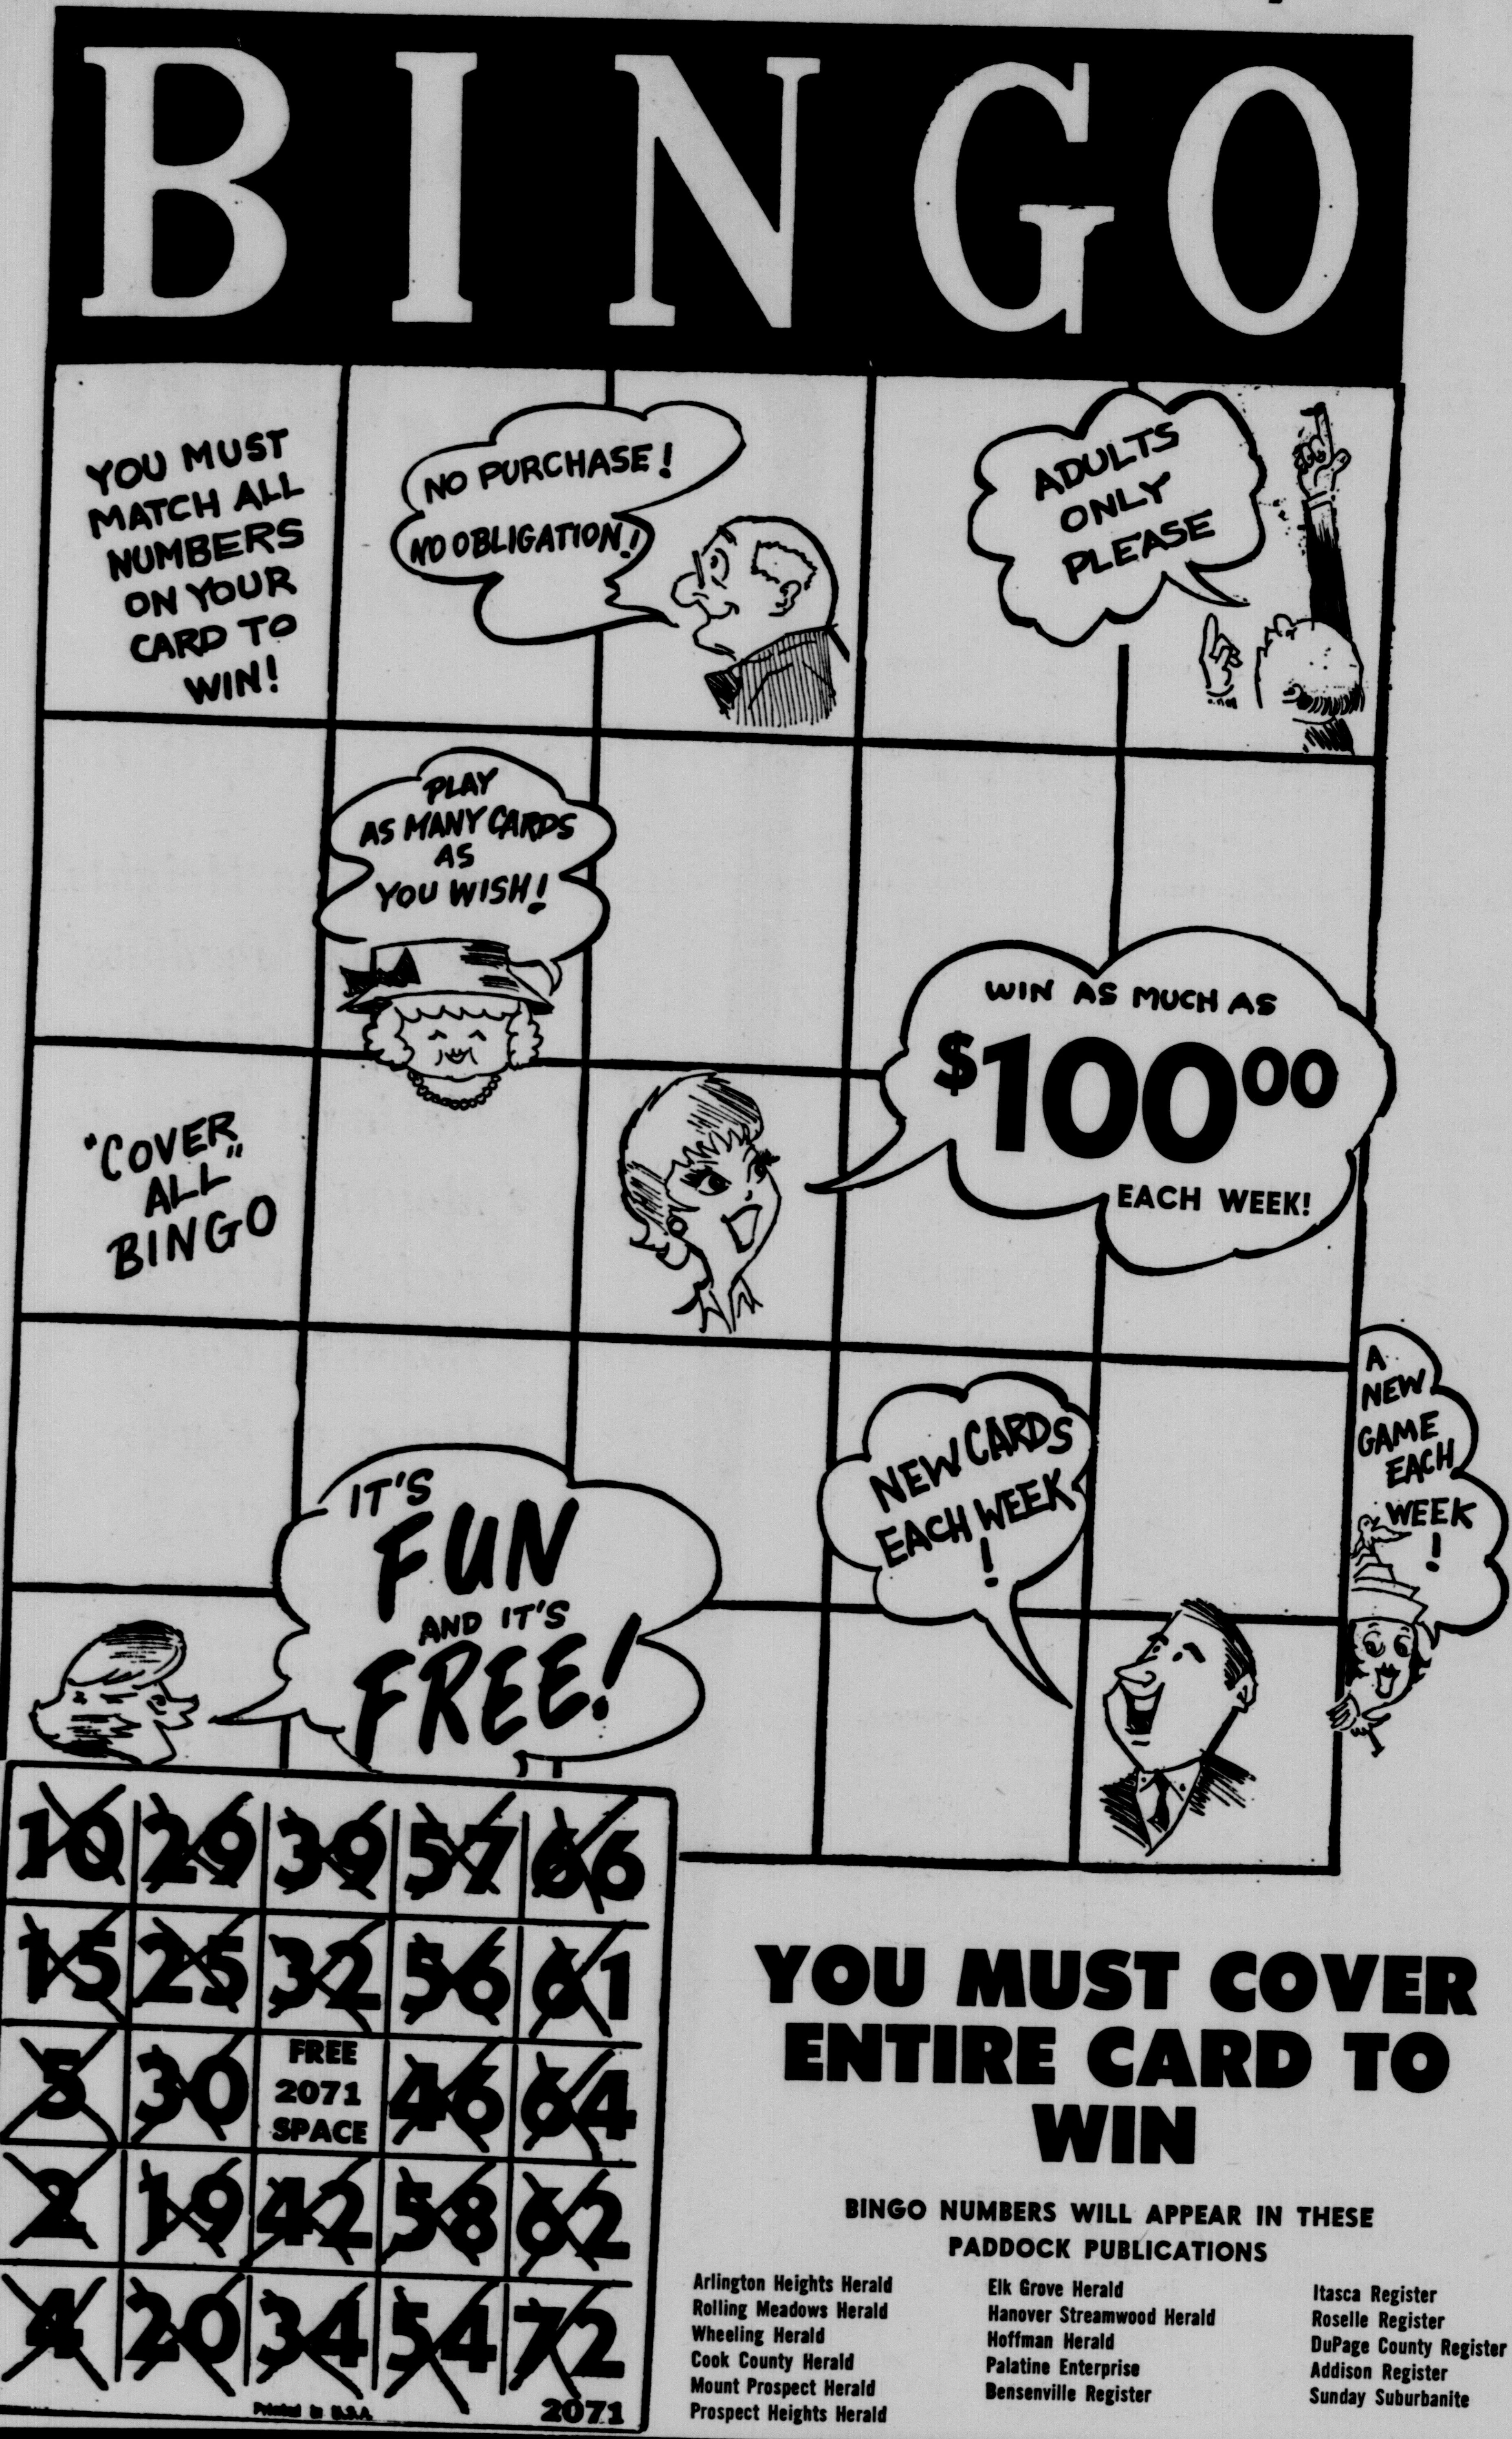
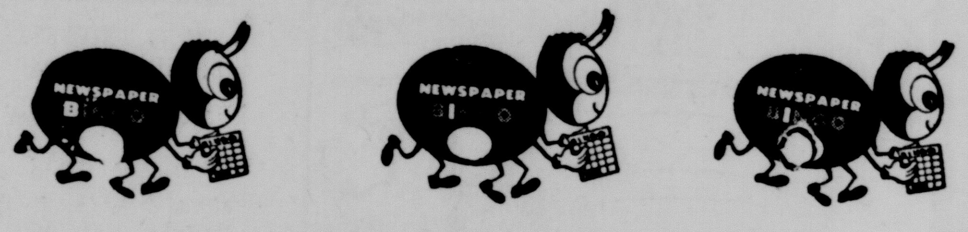
PLAY NEWSPAPER BINGO

2 Games Each Week . . . Win $100 . . . nothing to buy!

Play it in the Sunday Suburbanite January 30 . . . Thursday Editions February 3





THESE BUGS CAN WIN YOU

$100.00

HERE'S HOW IT WORKS:

PICK UP FREE BINGO CARDS

Each week pick up your Free Bingo Cards from any of the sponsors (adults only, please). Rules of the game allow the merchants to give you only one card on each store visit. You may, however, make as many visits as you wish. The more cards you play the better your chances of winning!

HOW TO PLAY

To play, merely check the ads in the Sunday Suburbanite on Sunday, or the Thursday editions of Paddock Publications. Different set of numbers each Sunday and each Thursday means two different games with the same card. Many ads contain one or more "Newspaper Bingo" numbers in the Bingo Bug (shown above). Other numbers, most of them in this symbol, will be scattered throughout the paper. On the want ad pages the numbers will be included in special type with the notation of "Newspaper Bingo Bug Sez." If you can match all 24 numbers on any one of your Bingo cards (see example of a winning card) with those appearing in either the Sunday Suburbanite, or the Thursday editions of Paddock Publications (but not both), you have a "Bingo" and you are a winner.

$100 WEEKLY!!

Winners will share a weekly cash prize of $100. If there is only one winner, he gets all $100. If there is more than one winner, all winners will share equally. If there are no winners any week, the $100 weekly prize money will be added to the following week's prize fund!

CHECK EACH ISSUE OF THE PAPER

Each Sunday Suburbanite game is complete within one issue of the Sunday Suburbanite; each Paddock Thursday game is complete within one issue of the Thursday editions of Paddock Publications. You cannot use numbers from both issues for the same game. A new set of numbers will appear in the Sunday Suburbanite each Sunday, plus another new set of numbers in the Paddock Thursday editions. A new color Bingo card will be available each week at the participating stores. To be a winner, you must use a Bingo Card of the correct color for that week's games. The color card for each week's games will be announced each week in the newspaper.

IF YOU ARE A WINNER . . .

If you have a winning Bingo Card, all 24 numbers of which appear in either the Sunday Suburbanite or your Thursday edition of Paddock Publications, write your name, address, phone number and from which store you procured the card on the back, and drop in the mail to Paddock office. Envelope must be postmarked by Friday of that week; or bring your card in to the office of Paddock Publications at 217 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights by 9 a.m. of the following Monday morning.

RULES OF THE GAME:

NO OBLIGATION OR PURCHASE NECESSARY

There is no obligation or purchase necessary. A copy of the paper is available for playing the game at office of Paddock Publications as well as public libraries and at sponsors' stores. You can play as many cards as you wish — they're free. Get additional cards, one at a time, from the friendly sponsors listed below. (Adults only, please.)

DIFFERENT COLORED CARDS EACH WEEK

The color of the cards changes each week. To be a winner, you must use a Bingo Card of the correct color for that week. Mutilated cards will not be honored. All 24 numbers must be covered to win.

CHANCE DETERMINES NUMBERS

Bingo numbers will be drawn at random from a Bingo Number cage at 217 W. Campbell, Arlington Heights.

Some duplication of Bingo Numbers may exist in certain sponsors' ads due to a newspaper production problem. This duplication in No Way affects the total number of Bingo numbers drawn. All numbers Drawn at Random from our Bingo Cage Appear Somewhere In Each Issue Of the Newspapers.

Employees of Paddock Publications and their families are not eligible to win any cash prizes.

THE ACCEPTED INFLUENCE IN THE NORTHWEST SUBURBAN AREA

Northwest Suburbs Lead Home Building

Paced by Arlington Heights, northwest suburbs retained their title in 1965 as fastest growing area in metropolitan Chicago.

Leading all Chicago suburbs in home building during the year was Arlington Heights, which issued 693 new home permits valued at more than $18 million.

Three other northwest suburbs were listed in the top 10 for 1965 in a year-end housing survey released this week by Bell Savings & Loan Association.

HOME BUILDING leaders, listed by rank were:

Arlington Heights, Northbrook, Oak Lawn, Deerfield, Des Plaines, Elk Grove Village, Naperville, South Holland, Hoffman Estates, and Hickory Hills.

In the northwest suburban territory served by Paddock Publications newspapers, a total of 3,533 home permits with a combined value of more than $68 million were issued in 1965. This covers northwest Cook County between Des Plaines and Barrington as well as north DuPage County.

Northwest suburbs led metropolitan Chicago in new home construction during December, reports Bell Savings. In first place for the month was Mount Prospect with 78 homes valued at $1,373,000 followed by Arlington Heights, 37 permits, $970,000; Hanover Park, 32 permits, $336,000; Streamwood, 26 permits, $336,010; and Rolling Meadows, 21 permits, $462,102.

"HOUSING construction for the Chicago metropolitan area during 1965 reached the highest volume in the past three years, and exceeded previous estimates after a very high level of housing permit activity was reported in December," said Harold P. Halleen, president of Bell Savings. "Total housing in 1965 reached 40,302 housing units, 8 per cent above 37,486 units reported in 1964 and 2 per cent above 39,514 in 1963," noted Halleen.

"Homes improved from the previous year's level for the first time since 1959," said Halleen. The entire metropolitan area issued permits for 20,897 homes, 11 per cent above 18,866 reported in 1964 and 6 per cent above 19,737 in 1963. The improvement in home construction was noticeable in all sections of the metropolitan area. Homes in the suburbs totaled 14,282, 14 per cent above 1964 (12,550). This was the highest suburban home level since 1961 (14,823). Chicago had 2,620 homes against 2,438 in 1964, an increase of 7 per cent. Homes rose 3 per cent in the unincorporated areas, from 3,878 in 1964 to 3,995.

"During 1965 permits were issued for 19,405 apartment units in the six county area, 4 per cent above 18,620 units reported in 1964," commented Halleen. Suburban apartment activity, which had fallen off 24 per cent in 1964, improved somewhat during 1965. Suburban towns reported 9,683 units compared to 9,120 in 1964, an increase of 6 per cent. Apartments declined 7 per cent in Chicago, from 7,588 to 7,071 units. This decline can be accounted for entirely by a contraction of public housing from 1,100 units in 1964 to only 204 in 1965. Apartments reported in the unincorporated areas were 2,651 units, 39 per cent above 1964 (1,912 units).

DECEMBER HOME permits soared to a total of 1,315. This is the best December volume for the area since 1959 (1,764), and more than twice the volume of December, 1964 (652). All areas in the metropolitan area had large increases in home permits from December, 1964. Chicago reported 135 homes against 61 a year ago, suburbs 938 homes against 464, and the 127.

Permits were issued for 1,674 apartments units in December, 1965, 33 per cent above 1,255 a year ago. Chicago had a total of 934 apartment units compared unincorporated areas 242 against to 538 last year, with one permit issued for a 40-story apartment building on South Michigan Avenue with 656 apartment units. Apartments increased 84 per cent in the suburbs, from 348 units to 639 units. In contrast, apartments declined 73 per cent in the unincorporated areas, from 366 a year ago to 101 units.

Record for Year

Arlington Realty Sets Sales Marks

Record sales of residential property was reported this week by Arlington Realty, Inc. of Arlington Heights and announced by Herb Carl for the firm.

Sales of 210 homes and a sales volume of $5½ million were both new record highs, up dramatically from 1964, which was the previous high. The dollar volume showed an increase of 60% over last year and the 210 sales was up from 125 in 1964, an increase of 69 per cent.

The average sale for 1965 was $26,200 compared with $26,100 for the previous year.

ONE OF THE oldest names in the area, Arlington Realty is owned and managed by 4 local Realtors; Herb Carl, Al Cinquini, Bill Kleiner and Elmer Zilen.

Carl and Cinquini opened a second office in June 1964 located at 550 W. Northwest Highway in Arlington Heights. The other office is at 535 S. Arlington Heights Road, also in Arlington Heights.

The two offices are members of M.A.P. Multiple Listing Service, local, state and national Real Estate Boards and exclusive representatives of the area for Homerica, the largest and oldest Nationwide Home Referral Service.

Over the past 5 years the company has doubled then redoubled its sales volume, and has grown from 4 to 14 licensed salesmen and brokers. (RE

Northwest Suburbs Lead Home Building

Paced by Arlington Heights, northwest suburbs retained their title in 1965 as fastest growing area in metropolitan Chicago.

Leading all Chicago suburbs in home building during the year was Arlington Heights, which issued 693 new home permits valued at more than $18 million.

Three other northwest suburbs were listed in the top 10 for 1965 in a year-end housing survey released this week by Bell Savings & Loan Association.

HOME BUILDING leaders, listed by rank were:

Arlington Heights, Northbrook, Oak Lawn, Deerfield, Des Plaines, Elk Grove Village, Naperville, South Holland, Hoffman Estates, and Hickory Hills.

In the northwest suburban territory served by Paddock Publications newspapers, a total of 3,533 home permits with a combined value of more than $68 million were issued in 1965. This covers northwest Cook County between Des Plaines and Barrington as well as north DuPage County.

Northwest suburbs led metropolitan Chicago in new home construction during December, reports Bell Savings. In first place for the month was Mount Prospect with 78 homes valued at $1,373,000 followed by Arlington Heights, 37 permits, $970,000; Hanover Park, 32 permits, $336,000; Streamwood, 26 permits, $336,010; and Rolling Meadows, 21 permits, $462,102.

"HOUSING construction for the Chicago metropolitan area during 1965 reached the highest volume in the past three years, and exceeded previous estimates after a very high level of housing permit activity was reported in December," said Harold P. Halleen, president of Bell Savings. "Total housing in 1965 reached 40,302 housing units, 8 per cent above 37,486 units reported in 1964 and 2 per cent above 39,514 in 1963," noted Halleen.

"Homes improved from the previous year's level for the first time since 1959," said Halleen. The entire metropolitan area issued permits for 20,897 homes, 11 per cent above 18,866 reported in 1964 and 6 per cent above 19,737 in 1963. The improvement in home construction was noticeable in all sections of the metropolitan area. Homes in the suburbs totaled 14,282, 14 per cent above 1964 (12,550). This was the highest suburban home level since 1961 (14,823). Chicago had 2,620 homes against 2,438 in 1964, an increase of 7 per cent. Homes rose 3 per cent in the unincorporated areas, from 3,878 in 1964 to 3,995.

"During 1965 permits were issued for 19,405 apartment units in the six county area, 4 per cent above 18,620 units reported in 1964," commented Halleen. Suburban apartment activity, which had fallen off 24 per cent in 1964, improved somewhat during 1965. Suburban towns reported 9,683 units compared to 9,120 in 1964, an increase of 6 per cent. Apartments declined 7 per cent in Chicago, from 7,588 to 7,071 units. This decline can be accounted for entirely by a contraction of public housing from 1,100 units in 1964 to only 204 in 1965. Apartments reported in the unincorporated areas were 2,651 units, 39 per cent above 1964 (1,912 units).

DECEMBER HOME permits soared to a total of 1,315. This is the best December volume for the area since 1959 (1,764), and more than twice the volume of December, 1964 (652). All areas in the metropolitan area had large increases in home permits from December, 1964. Chicago reported 135 homes against 61 a year ago, suburbs 938 homes against 464, and the 127.

Permits were issued for 1,674 apartments units in December, 1965, 33 per cent above 1,255 a year ago. Chicago had a total of 934 apartment units compared unincorporated areas 242 against to 538 last year, with one permit issued for a 40-story apartment building on South Michigan Avenue with 656 apartment units. Apartments increased 84 per cent in the suburbs, from 348 units to 639 units. In contrast, apartments declined 73 per cent in the unincorporated areas, from 366 a year ago to 101 units.

Home Buyers Looking For Special Features

This is the time of year when prospective home buyers start thinking of the special features they want in the homes they plan to buy this spring or summer. What are they looking for?

According to Robert Wagner of St. Charles, young newlymarrieds will tend to concentrate on "things that show" and which will impress their contemporaries.

Families looking for their second or third home, on the other hand, will give priority to the home's basic comfort features. They'll be guided by the things they liked or didn't like about their earlier houses.

High on the list of most-wanted features are bigger rooms, plenty of windows, more bathrooms, family rooms that include entertainment sinks, bigger kitchens with more cabinets, counter space and all the water-using conveniences such as dishwashers and food waste disposers, and dependable heating systems. Air conditioning also is forging strongly to the fore, Wagner said.

WAGNER IS THE energetic young vice president of the Illinois Assn. of Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Contractors, which held its 73rd annual convention in Peoria on January 23-25. Specifically drawing on his experience in heating, Wagner said:

"There are two reasons why home buyers place heating among the top four most-concentrated-on items. One is that it represents at least 10 per cent of the home's value and, therefore, its resale value. The other is that experience with poor heating in their first homes convinces them of the importance of quality heat in the second."

Wagner listed these features of a good heating system: (1) Quiet, (2) evenly maintained temperatures with no more than a couple of degrees difference between floor and ceiling, (3) no sensation of draft, (4) no hot or cold spots and (5) no interference with interior decorating.

Hydronic (hot water) baseboard heating offers these features, Wagner added. (RE

Sales Record Set By Baird & Warner

A new sales record has been set by Baird & Warner, according to John L. Hall, vice-president and general sales manager, who reports that the 1965 volume totaled $90,883,755, for a 6.78 per cent increase over the $85,116,756 tallied in 1964.

A significant growth in the number of transactions concluded by the 111-year-old real estate firm also was noted, with 2,165 sales and a 9.95 per cent improvement over the 1,969 recorded during 1964.

The most notable gain was made in the sale of residential dwellings, including co-op apartments, which totaled 1,889 during 1965 over the 1,665 the previous year for a 13.45 per cent increase. Also in the "plus" column were vacant parcels which reflected a growth of 8.42 per cent.

Decreases were reported in the movement of apartment buildings of all sizes, although Hall noted an improvement in the sale during the last quarter of buildings containing 12 and less units.

During the first nine months of 1965, this type of property was down 27.63 per cent; for the year, the decrease improved to 17.24 per cent. This resulted because sales of the smaller apartment buildings more than doubled during the last quarter, indicating increased activity and interest on the part of investors.

Economic growth in the Chicago community and consolidation of some big industrial operations into the Chicago area, with the attendant transfer of families, have helped to maintain a high level of activity in the sale of residential properties, Hall points out. Mortgage money remained available at attractive interest rates to permit the purchase of homes in the new location, he says. His analysis of the real estate market based on lively activity though the holiday season points to another record year in 1966.

High on the list of most-wanted features are bigger rooms, plenty of windows, more bathrooms, family rooms that include entertainment sinks, bigger kitchens with more cabinets, counter space and all the water-using conveniences such as dishwashers and food waste disposers, and dependable heating systems. Air conditioning also is forging strongly to the fore, Wagner said.

WAGNER IS THE energetic young vice president of the Illinois Assn. of Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Contractors, which held its 73rd annual convention in Peoria on January 23-25. Specifically drawing on his experience in heating, Wagner said:

"There are two reasons why home buyers place heating among the top four most-concentrated-on items. One is that it represents at least 10 per cent of the home's value and, therefore, its resale value. The other is that experience with poor heating in their first homes convinces them of the importance of quality heat in the second."

Wagner listed these features of a good heating system: (1) Quiet, (2) evenly maintained temperatures with no more than a couple of degrees difference between floor and ceiling, (3) no sensation of draft, (4) no hot or cold spots and (5) no interference with interior decorating.

Hydronic (hot water) baseboard heating offers these features, Wagner added. (RE

McLoraine Promoted By Allstate

John G. McLoraine, 916 N. Belmont, Arlington Heights, has been named midwest zone underwriting manager for Allstate Insurance Companies.

A native of Oak Park, Ill., McLoraine received a B.A. degree from DePaul University, then attended Chicago Kent College of Law.

He joined Allstate's underwriting department in 1950 and was later promoted to assistant underwriting department to his present position of zone underwriting manager.

IN HIS NEW position, McLoraine has the responsibility of the underwriting policies for an 18 state area. The Allstate Midwest Zone Offices are located at 7770 Frontage Road in Skokie.

Prior to assuming this new post, McLoraine was an active member of the Detroit Casualty Underwriters Association.

Mr. and Mrs. McLoraine have seven children. (10BB

Area Subdivision Listings Revised

Every type of dwelling, from the most luxurious of custom homes to a vacation retreat, is included in the newly revised listing of subdivisions just published by the Home Builders Association of Chicagoland, according to HBAC President George Arquilla Jr.

The pattern noted in an earlier HBAC listing of subdivisions remained constant, with a majority of builders building in the northern and northwestern suburbs.

However, an increase in building in the western and southern suburbs, first noted last Spring, continued with the opening of several new subdivisions in those areas.

ANOTHER TREND apparent at that time also was borne out in the compiling of the new listing. Higher priced homes continued to be concentrated in the north and west suburbs, while moderate and low priced housing are more to be found in the southern suburbs.

However, Arquilla noted that nearly every type of housing can be found in any section of the city.

Prices in the north range from a low of $11,500 to a high of $125,000. Prices in the west region run from $16,350 to $70,000. Price range in the south is from $7,500 for a vacation home to $74,000.

Copies of the listing, which are divided into north, south and west areas, can be obtained by calling or writing HBAC, Suite 2004, Builders Building, 228 N. LaSalle Street, Chicago, Illinois 60601, phone number ST 2-8657. (RE

Appraisal Course Enrollment Is Open

Enrollment is still open for the Real Estate Appraisal II Course, sponsored jointly by the Chicago Real Estate Board and the Illinois Chapter of the American Institute of Real Estate Appraisers, according to CREB Education Committee Chairman Jared B. Shlaes.

The course will begin Tuesday, Feb. 1 and conclude April 7. It will be held Tuesday and Thursday evenings from 6 - 9 p.m., at the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, Dearborn and Madison Streets. This accelerated schedule will permit students to complete the course in two months.

STRICTLY A case-study course, it is similar to those taught at leading universities and deals with essential appraising procedures regarding specific types of property. Serving as faculty are Paul E. Leason, M.A.I., Executive Vice President, Applegate, Leason & Company; F. Gregory Opelka, M.A.I., Vice President, Fairfield Savings and Loan Association; and M.A.I. Joseph G. Kuehnle who is Course Dean.

Successful completion of Appraisal Course II gives credit toward the M.A.I. designation. Examinations for this course are scheduled for April 14 & 16. For information on registration, contact Mrs. Puder, Course Secretary at CEntral 6-4688.

Dealers Praise Maytag Washers

Returning from a Maytag dealer preview of 1966 washers and dryers at Marina Towers, Chicago, Bill and Glen Curtis, owners of Ace Washer & Dryer Co., Arlington Heights and Morton Grove, are enthusiastic in their assurance that "Maytag alone, among laundry equipment manufacturers, can provide bona fide 'heavy-duty' washers and dryers of giant capacity and endurance that meet large family needs of the times."

Among Maytag's revolutionary improvements, according to Bill Curtis, partner, the new 1966 machines, by actual measurement have the largest washtubs ever built into automatics. Continuing, Curtis reveals that besides completely new styling, the '66's have all-new "Wash-Rinse" temperature controls; a new "Flex-O-Matic," unbreakable agitator for even greater assurance of thorough wash-action and new "Wash-N-Wear" cycles that produce fully professional jobs.

GLEN CURTIS cites that the new feature of fullfront panel removal for instant adjustments or repairs will be a boon to busy mothers. In his 18 years as a washer-dryer mechanic, Glen says that he has never before seen a simpler, sturdier, more dependably built appliance.

In his words, "these new Maytags are built to last 20 years!" All six 1966 machines are now, not only on display, but hooked-up and running at the Ace Stores in Arlington and Morton Grove. (15BB

THE SIX FURNISHED model homes in Elk Grove Village are situated on large sites with all utilities underground, served by broad winding streets with concrete curbs and sidewalks. The homes, in the $19,000 to $27,000 price range, display spaciousness and quality for which Centex, Inc., one of the largest national builders, is famous from coast to coast. This, together with a perfectly planned community, may be responsible for the fact that Elk Grove Village trebled its residential sales in 1965.

Centex Pace Quickens In Elk Grove Village

The building department of Elk Grove Village, in its annual report for 1965, depicts the stunning growth of the community, created by Centex Corp., one of the largest national builders.

A 100 per cent increase was noted in the total permits issued and a 30 per cent increase in fees collected. Whereas in 1964 Centex Industrial Park averaged three buildings a month, in 1965 this average rose to four. And, a most striking feature, residential construction more than trebled over last year.

Centex Industrial Park was launched in 1957. Today, nearly 250 firms are located there and on November 8, 1965, the 2000 acre industrial complex became the first community in Chicago's northwest suburbs to enjoy the same truck freight rates as those in the Chicago Commercial Trucking Zone.

THE 300 PER cent increase in residential construction is nothing short of phenomenal.

"We are mighty pleased with the tremendous public acceptance of our village," said Bob Winkle, Centex director of sales, "and have just broken ground for a new addition of 167 homes adjacent to our current development. The models we are displaying are available for spring or future delivery in the new addition and we strongly advise homeseekers to make their decision now. In such a case, they can pick the best sites, with no penalty for larger lots. Also, we guarantee delivery at today's prices, even if the cost increases by the time of delivery, likely because of the spiralling cost of labor, material and increasing mortgage rates."

The masterfully planned community of Elk Grove Village, with wide, winding streets with concrete curbs and sidewalks and all utilities underground, displays an attractive array of six furnished model homes in the $19,000 to $27,000 price range; ranches, splitlevels, colonials. They feature three and four bedrooms, one and one-half to two and one-half baths, attached garages, large living-dining rooms or separate formal dining rooms, finished family rooms. All have family-size kitchens with several major appliances and spacious breakfast areas. Modest down payments, excellent financing with easy monthly payments are available.

LITTLE WONDER that Elk Grove Village population skyrocketed to over 15,000 and sales trebled in 1965, thus making it the fastest growing area of Chicagoland. It is one of the best planned communities of the nation, with new schools, shopping center, police and fire protection, houses of worship, fine public transportation. Its public library and Alexian Bros. new hospital will open soon and adjoining Centex Industrial Park offers local job opportunities and helps carrying the tax burden.

Take tollfree Kennedy Expressway to Mannheim road (Rte 45), north on Mannheim to Higgins road (Rte 72), then continue west on Higgins road to Elk Grive Village. The model homes are open daily from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. (15BB

AT LAKE REDSTONE, located just northeast of La Valle, Wis., new skiing facilities—with new rope tow—are now ready for each season's snows. The Mt. Redstone slope is the latest of the special features offered sports-minded families, or individuals, interested in a site for their second, or vacation, home. (15BB

Ski Facility Opens At Lake Redstone

A new ski facility—covering approximately 15 acres, with north-facing main slope and synthetic rope tow—is now open at Lake Redstone, located just northeast of La Valle, Wis.

The open ski area is based on Mt. Redstone, near the northeast shore of the 4½-mile-long lake, and is adjacent to a newly-opened subdivision of lots, from a half-acre up, being offered by The Branigar Organization as sites for vacation or second homes.

Norbert ("Ike") Isaacson, vice president of The Branigar Organization, said, "We believe Mt. Redstone offers one of the best natural slopes in the state, and the facilities are now open to public use. But we especially want to invite those skiers and sports-minded people to try it, who can appreciate the convenience of a second, or vacation, home practically next door."

ISAACSON POINTED out the several other seasonal sports activities available at the spring-fed lake, mentioning ice skating, swimming, boating, fishing, etc. He revealed that a special Ski-and-Swim Club was also being formed for purchasers of Lake Redstone lots.

From atop Mt. Redstone, there is an over-all drop of 270 feet in a run of approximately 1,000 feet. The newly-erected rope tow is of synthetic, non-absorbent material, with a continuous length of 1,780 feet. The tow is electrically operated, with double safety devices.

From the top of the hill, skiers have a view of nearly 20 miles overlooking Lake Redstone and the surrounding countryside. In preparing the slope for this season's first snows, the developers — for the most part —found it necessary only to clear away brush and undergrowth. The hills natural contours were found to be ideally suited to skiing, with a long-established growth of heavy grass as a base for the snow—and no muddy spots such as ordinarily result from shaping a new ski slope.

A temporary warming house now serves Mt. Redstone skiers, and a new trailhouse is among the additional facilities planned for the future.

THE NEW subdivision adjoining the ski area offers a variety of attractive lots, including hillside, wooded, lake front and beach locations. They are not only convenient to the Mt. Redstone slope, but are also located attractively near facilities for a wide range of seasonal fun activities—swimming, boating, water-skiing, fishing, etc. Purchasers of lots in this section—and their guests—will enjoy full membership privileges of the new Ski-and-Swim Club.

Lake Redstone is located on Route 58 just northeast of La Valle, Wis., about 15 miles west of Wisconsin Dells. It is readily reached via Interstate I-90 and I-94 expressway, turning west on Route 23 and 33, through Reedsburg to La Valle. (15BB

Lathen Leaves Bell; 40 Years' Service

William C. Lathen, former manager of Illinois Bell Telephone's Arlington Heights office, is retiring after more than 40 years of service in the telephone industry.

Lathen is a commercial staff supervisor for the company in Springfield, where he has been assigned since 1955.

His son, William, resides at 406 E. Sunset Drive in Arlington Heights; his daughter, Joan, in Evanston.

HIS PRIMARY retirement plan, he said, "is to do some extensive traveling by trailer." The first such travel which he and his wife, Frances, will do is their jaunt to Mexico. "We pick up our trailer in Tucson," said Lathen, "and will drive in caravan with some 300 others in Mexico. The entire trip should take about two months."

Lathen added that the trip will only be a start, and that he plans to put his new travel-trailer to good use in the years to come.

The Lathens plan to maintain their home in Springfield.

HINTS TO HOMEOWNERS

by Richard H. DeLano, Associate Farm Advisor

ALERT HOMEOWNERS DIAL DAILY 392-3060

Mid-winter is here and right along with it is the convention season. One convention that was recently held in Chicago was of special interest to gardeners.

At the Illinois State Nurserymen's Association Convention in the LaSalle Hotel, several interesting products were on exhibit. Some products were new this year while others, although not new, are unfamiliar.

Completely new is an aluminum screen that is designed to prevent rabbits from gnawing and destroying new trees and shrubs. The screen itself is fairly attractive, comprising a series of diamond shaped holes in the expanded metal. For convenience it comes in flat precut sections that are wrapped as a collar around the tree.

Large users can obtain the material in rolls. Although other materials such as heavy tinfoil and newspapers can also be used as a rodent barrier, this is perhaps the first time that such a screen has been specially designed for such a purpose.

SEVERAL SPRAYS can also be used to protect plants from rabbit injury. However, if only a few trees are involved the mechanical barrier may be the more practical approach.

The person with the tiny garden that needs to spray only a few plants was not forgotten by manufacturers at the convention. A one quart pistol grip operated sprayer was displayed. The light weight plastic device gave the overall appearance of a fire extinguisher.

The sprayer was made more useful by the specially packaged weed killers and insecticides that accompanied it. The chemicals were packaged in small plastic envelopes about the size of a sugar packet. Since the premeasured material was in liquid form, only a minimum amount of mixing is required. The plastic sprayer is simply constructed and should be easy to clean after use.

PREPLANTED shrubs such as roses were also in prominent display this year. They come in six inch square or round cartons that contain an inner carton that is lifted out and planted directly in the soil. This inner carton then disintegrates and permits the free penetration of the roots into the soil.

They have the advantage of being easier to ship and store before planting. They are easier for the homeowner to plant since less soil has to be worked. New this year is the idea of planting several other shrubs in addition to roses by the preplanting method.

Teletype Promotes Zigament

Don J. Zigament of 601 N. Fairview, Mount Prospect, has been advanced to supervisor of advertising for Teletype Corp., Skokie, Illinois.

Advertising specialist since joining the firm in 1957, Zigament will be responsible for all business and trade publication national advertising, sales promotion literature, direct mail and product publicity.

He was graduated from Roosevelt University with a degree in marketing-advertising, and is a member of Alpha Delta Sigma, national professional advertising fraternity, and the Association of Industrial Advertisers. Active also in civil activities, he was cited for "outstanding individual performance" in the 1964 Chicago Metropolitan Crusade of Mercy.

DON J. ZIGAMENT

St. Aubin to Head Nurserymen Assn.

Victor E. de St. Aubin Jr., president of Eugene A. de St. Aubin & Bros., Inc., Addison, last week was elected president of the Illinois State Nurserymen's Association.

St. Aubin's election occurred at the 50th annual convention and trade show of the organization held at the La Salle Hotel in Chicago. St. Aubin, whose term will run two years, had previously been a member of the board of directors for five years.

THE ASSOCIATION is comprised of the leading nursery and landscaping firms in Illinois and includes in its membership growers and suppliers throughout the contry. As one of its aims, the ISNA seeks to maintain high standards of quality in nursery stock and works closely with the Illinois and U. S. Departments of Agriculture and major universities in the development of improved growing techniques and in the production of hardier, disease-resistant trees and shrubs.

St. Aubin earlier had been named as a committee head for the 91st annual convention of the American Association of Nurserymen to be held in Chicago in July.

The senior St. Aubin also served as president of the ISNA in 1951-52. (5BB

Railroad Promotes Ehrich

The Burlington Railroad recently appointed Henry W. Ehrich, 1426 Anderson Drive, Palatine, to district sales manager, Illinois-Iowa district, freight sales division.

Ehrich's career with the Burlington began in the freight department at Chicago in 1941. He returned to the Burlington after military service and in 1950 was named city freight agent. He transferred to Clinton, Iowa as commercial agent of the fuel traffic department at Chicago and was appointed fuel traffic manager in 1963.

He and his wife June have two children: Elaine, 3, and a baby, Ellen. (10BB

HINTS TO HOMEOWNERS

by Richard H. DeLano, Associate Farm Advisor

ALERT HOMEOWNERS DIAL DAILY 392-3060

Mid-winter is here and right along with it is the convention season. One convention that was recently held in Chicago was of special interest to gardeners.

At the Illinois State Nurserymen's Association Convention in the LaSalle Hotel, several interesting products were on exhibit. Some products were new this year while others, although not new, are unfamiliar.

Completely new is an aluminum screen that is designed to prevent rabbits from gnawing and destroying new trees and shrubs. The screen itself is fairly attractive, comprising a series of diamond shaped holes in the expanded metal. For convenience it comes in flat precut sections that are wrapped as a collar around the tree.

Large users can obtain the material in rolls. Although other materials such as heavy tinfoil and newspapers can also be used as a rodent barrier, this is perhaps the first time that such a screen has been specially designed for such a purpose.

SEVERAL SPRAYS can also be used to protect plants from rabbit injury. However, if only a few trees are involved the mechanical barrier may be the more practical approach.

The person with the tiny garden that needs to spray only a few plants was not forgotten by manufacturers at the convention. A one quart pistol grip operated sprayer was displayed. The light weight plastic device gave the overall appearance of a fire extinguisher.

The sprayer was made more useful by the specially packaged weed killers and insecticides that accompanied it. The chemicals were packaged in small plastic envelopes about the size of a sugar packet. Since the premeasured material was in liquid form, only a minimum amount of mixing is required. The plastic sprayer is simply constructed and should be easy to clean after use.

PREPLANTED shrubs such as roses were also in prominent display this year. They come in six inch square or round cartons that contain an inner carton that is lifted out and planted directly in the soil. This inner carton then disintegrates and permits the free penetration of the roots into the soil.

They have the advantage of being easier to ship and store before planting. They are easier for the homeowner to plant since less soil has to be worked. New this year is the idea of planting several other shrubs in addition to roses by the preplanting method.

Teletype Promotes Zigament

Don J. Zigament of 601 N. Fairview, Mount Prospect, has been advanced to supervisor of advertising for Teletype Corp., Skokie, Illinois.

Advertising specialist since joining the firm in 1957, Zigament will be responsible for all business and trade publication national advertising, sales promotion literature, direct mail and product publicity.

He was graduated from Roosevelt University with a degree in marketing-advertising, and is a member of Alpha Delta Sigma, national professional advertising fraternity, and the Association of Industrial Advertisers. Active also in civil activities, he was cited for "outstanding individual performance" in the 1964 Chicago Metropolitan Crusade of Mercy.

DON J. ZIGAMENT

St. Aubin to Head Nurserymen Assn.

Victor E. de St. Aubin Jr., president of Eugene A. de St. Aubin & Bros., Inc., Addison, last week was elected president of the Illinois State Nurserymen's Association.

St. Aubin's election occurred at the 50th annual convention and trade show of the organization held at the La Salle Hotel in Chicago. St. Aubin, whose term will run two years, had previously been a member of the board of directors for five years.

THE ASSOCIATION is comprised of the leading nursery and landscaping firms in Illinois and includes in its membership growers and suppliers throughout the contry. As one of its aims, the ISNA seeks to maintain high standards of quality in nursery stock and works closely with the Illinois and U. S. Departments of Agriculture and major universities in the development of improved growing techniques and in the production of hardier, disease-resistant trees and shrubs.

St. Aubin earlier had been named as a committee head for the 91st annual convention the American Association Nurserymen to be held in Chicago in July.

The senior St. Aubin als served as president of the ISN in 1951-52. (5B

Railroad Promotes Ehrich

The Burlington Railroad recently appointed Henry W. Ehrich, 1426 Anderson Drive, Palatine, to district sales manager, Illinois-Iowa district, freight sales division.

Ehrich's career with the Burlington began in the freight department at Chicago in 1941. He returned to the Burlington after military service and in 1950 was named city freight agent. He transferred to Clinton, Iowa as commercial agent of the fuel traffic department at Chicago and was appointed fuel traffic manager in 1963.

He and his wife June have two children: Elaine, 3, and a baby, Ellen. (10BB

Karnes Featured By Trade Magazine

Karnes Music Co. of Evanston and Des Plaines is the subject of a feature in the national trade magazine, PTM.

Marlon Karnes, a director of the National Association of Music Manufacturers and owner of the company, is pictured on the cover, and a four-page story including two pages of pictures tells the story of the firm's operation.

The company's use of data processing equipment has caused quite a stir in the industry, according to Karnes, whose first store was started 19 years ago in Evanston. The second store was opened in Des Plaines in 1963, and a 6,000-square-foot addition will be added there this spring.

THE ADDITION will house a recital hall, piano and organ display area, storage space, and possibly a new stereo display showroom.

The operation includes a school music service department, school band instrument program, complete repair shop, and 25 studios serving more than 1,000 students a week.

Sireno Appointed By Sentry Insurance

IN FAIRVIEW GARDENS, in the Mount Prospect area, "The Challenger"—a three-bedroom, 1½-bath tri-level—is attracting steady attention. The home features open layout with practical traffic pattern, large basement and two-car garage with extra storage space. Models are located on the west side of Wolf Road, two blocks north of Central.

'Lexington' Home Keys '66 Plans for Colonial Heights

In Colonial Heights, attractive all-residential Mount Prospect community with entrance on Busse Road, three blocks north of Route 58 (Golf Road) — the builders have announced that the past year has been their biggest since their opening five years ago.

President Neil Hunter said: "We feel that our record-breaking sales volume in 1965 reflects a still-growing approval of our community — not only as a place to live, but also as the place to find good homes at a good price."

In further discussion of future plans for Colonial Heights, Hunter credited much of the past year's success to an appealing split-level model, the "Lexington." He indicated this flexible and popular design, offering many options, would key the builder's 1966 group of custom homes.

PLEASING, BALANCED use of space, and a well-planned traffic pattern, are noted at once in the "Lexington." The basic 2½ bath, three-bedroom model is piced at $32,900 — and a four-bedroom model is also available. Both designs have a large basement, family-rec room and two-car garage.

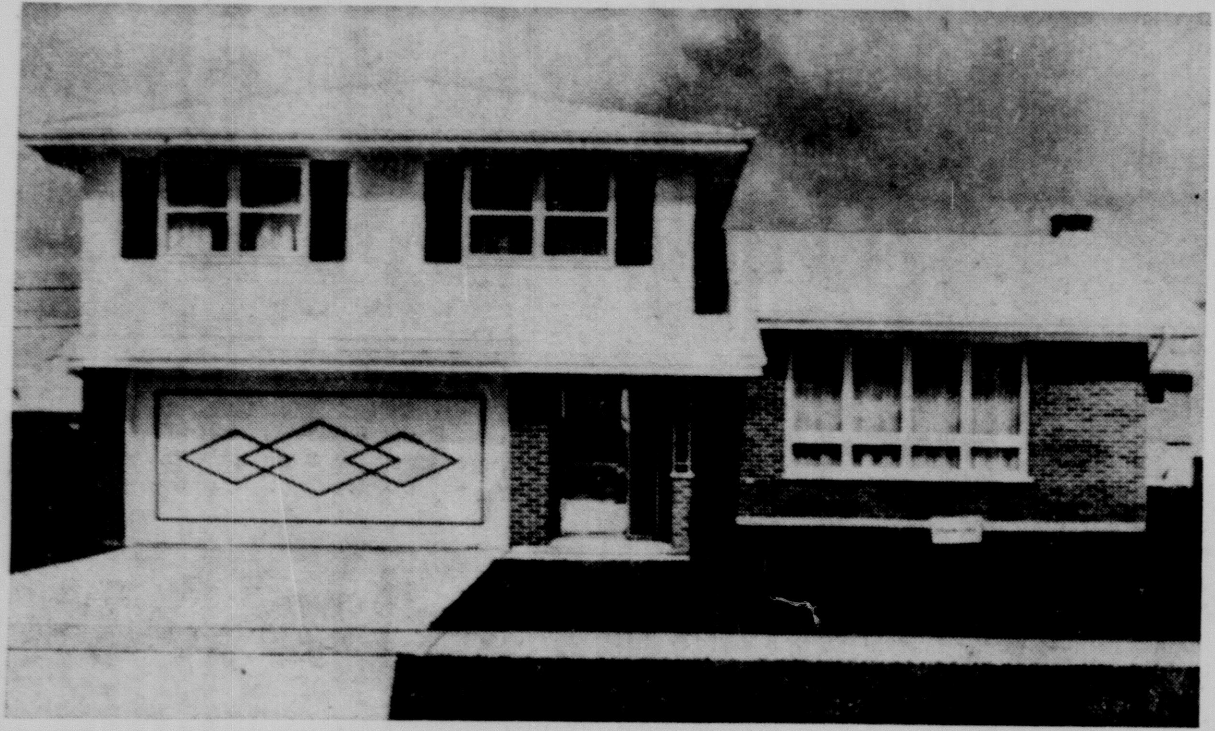
The special appeal of this key model is seen at once in the wide, colorfully tiled entryway. It leads straight back to the family-rec room. To one side, beyond fine wrought-iron railing, is the living room — over 20 feet long and 13 feet wide. It features a wide view window across the front of the room — and opens invitingly into the formal dining room.

The kitchen, with a full bay window at the breakfast-nook end of the room, is bright and appealing. Cabinets and appliances are in matching finish. And here, again, decorative wrought-iron railing is used in semi-open arrangement to separate the lower-level family room, which is overlooked by the kitchen. Connecting steps are at one end of the railing.

THE FAMILY ROOM features attractive paneling and sliding insulated glass doors opening to the rear patio. In one corner of the room is the home's rear entrance. A large closet is in another corner, while the powder room is at the far end.

The bedrooms and family bath — together with a large linen-utility closet — are centered around an extra-wide hallway on the upper level. The Master Bedroom, over 18 feet long and 14 feet wide, features private bath, walk-in closet, and dressing area with built-in vanity table. The closets, throughout, are double size, with sliding doors.

The "Lexington" and other models are open to visitors daily from 10 a.m. till dusk. Colonial Heights is located on Busse Road, three blocks north of Golf Road, in Mount Prospect. (15BB



IN MOUNT PROSPECT'S "Colonial Heights"—all-residential community on Busse Road, three blocks north of Route 58—this three-bedroom split-level, The Lexington, continues highly popular with home shoppers. Big closets, 2½ baths, novel interior planning are featured. The design is also offered in a four-bedroom layout.

Buyer Market Seen By Builder Bluett

In a review of the residential building year just completed, and looking forward to the next 12 months, builder Bob Bluett — now completing the Fairview Gardens community in the Mount Prospect area — anticipates a "buyers' market" for most of 1966, in the sale and construction of new homes.

Bluett said, "I don't believe there will be more homes available, or a wider choice of really desirable communities or locations. However, I do believe buyers will be more selective, and builders must compete for sales by offering more quality, a better home, for the money."

BLUETT NOTED that all models in Fairview Gardens — entrance to which is located on the west side of Wolf Road, two blocks north of Central — will emphasize the "plus" factors which make for lasting quality in a well-built home. These start with design and floor plan, and continue through finish materials and methods, custom features, extensive choice of options, appliances and fixtures, and various bonus features of construction detail.

Fairview Gardens designs range from ranches to tri-levels, from three-bedrooms to six-bedroom plans. Prices start at $28,900 for the three-bedroom "Challenger," a popular tri-level, and run up to $32,700, site included. Sites are of varied size, with corner and oversize lots available — average frontage being 75 feet.

Builder Bluett noted that his firm operates its own fully-equipped woodworking and carpenter shop. "With these facilities and our experienced craftsmen," said Bluett, "we can be sure of the quality in our doors, wall sections, interior wall partitions, casements and other close-fitting components."

Several areas of construction will continue to receive extra attention in Fairview Gardens.

ALL FOUNDATIONS of Bluett-built homes are brought to proper level by employing a special process. Shimming or wood blocking is not used. A special grade of pea gravel, rather than dirt, is used as a compacted base for the concrete floors. For wall sections, kiln-dried studs are carefully cut square on both ends. This permits each stud to rest firmly on the foundation plates.

For roof overhang, 1¼-inch stock is used for the pre-grooved, tight-fitting facias. There is no heavy caulking or unsightly gaps. For automatic ventilation of attic space, screened vents are installed four feet apart on the underside of the eaves.

Fairview Gardens homes are open to visitors daily, from 10 a.m. till dark. The all-residential community is in the Mount Prospect area, on the west side of Wolf Road, two blocks north of Central. (15 BB

Judson M. Brooks Jr. of 106 N. Forest, Arlington Heights, member of the class of '46 at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute, Troy, N. Y., is district chairman in a nationwide campaign to help raise $500,000 for Rensselaer this year.

Funds raised are to be used primarily for supplementing current operating expenses, for student loans and scholarships, and for faculty development.

Brooks is one of 250 Rensselaer alumni from throughout the nation who were appointed by the annual fund chairman, I.M. Fixman of Chicago.

Tool Design Clerk Retires

Dudley J. Alleman, 132 Cedar Circle, Streamwood, has retired after 10 years at Automatic Electric Co., Northlake.

Alleman, a clerk in the tool design department, joined the telephone and electronics equipment manufacturing company as a trucker in 1955.

He and his wife, Lucille, have been married 35 years. They have three sons, Gerald, Donald and David, a daughter, Linda, living at home, and two daughters, Patricia and Betty, living in Santa Ana, California.

Bruning Host to Engineers

Member of the Chicago chapter, Society of American Value Engineers, were guests of the Charles Bruning Company, Mount Prospect, for a dinner meeting Thursday, Jan. 20.

Bruning, a division of Addressograph Multigraph Corporation, is a major maker of electrostatic and diazo copying equipment and supplies.

Robert Crouse, manager of value engineering, Honeywell Corp., was the featured speaker at the meeting. His topic was "Making Value Engineering Stick Over the Long Pull."

FOLLOWING Crouse's talk, demonstrations on the use of Bruning copying equipment were made by Glen Bruning, manager of the Bruning Chicago sales office; Donald Sanders, sales supervisor in the Chicago office; and Charles E. Okell, office systems promotion manager at Mount Prospect.

The Society of American Value Engineers has about 160 members in the Chicago area. Their purpose is to assist manufacturers in achieving higher profits through improved product quality. (15BB than a bunch of dust catchers taking up valuable storage space around your home?

Take the attic, for instance. There's that old chair . . . still sturdy, but never used any more . . .

and the stove you replaced years ago . . .

and the trunk Dad took to college . . .

and Junior's old typewriter . . .

and in the basement . . .

wash tubs you haven't used since you got your automatic . . .

the bicycle no one has ridden in ages . . .

that old croquet set . . .

and the radio that hasn't been turned on since TV.

There's probably a lot more, too . . . all of it in good condition . . .

"But who wants it?" you say!

CLODAGH OF DUBLIN, one of the 14 internationally-known high fashion designers for the Brentshire Collection of Montgomery Ward's 1966 Spring and Summer catalog, gives "Young America in Action" her conception of the "Total Look" with this smart ensemble of golden beige and vanilla tattersall checks. The coat and skirt are of 100 per cent wool, as is the snappy little beanie hat. The jersey blouse is in orlon acrylic and wool with tattersall neck band.

Hairdressers Report on New Spring Styles

Spring hair styles are literally for the birds, according to two of the area's top hair stylists, Carol Breust of Arlington Heights and Ruth Montgomery of Mount Prospect. Both Miss Breust and Mrs. Montgomery have just returned from the national convention of hairdressers, held this year in Hawaii, where the newest of spring hair-do's, the Dickey-Birds, were introduced.

Area hairdressers will see a demonstration of Dickey-Bird fashions Wednesday, Feb. 2, when the Northwest Suburban Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association, Affiliate 47, meets at 8 p.m. in Uncle Andy's Cow Palace in Palatine. Both salon and contest styling will be on the agenda. (S

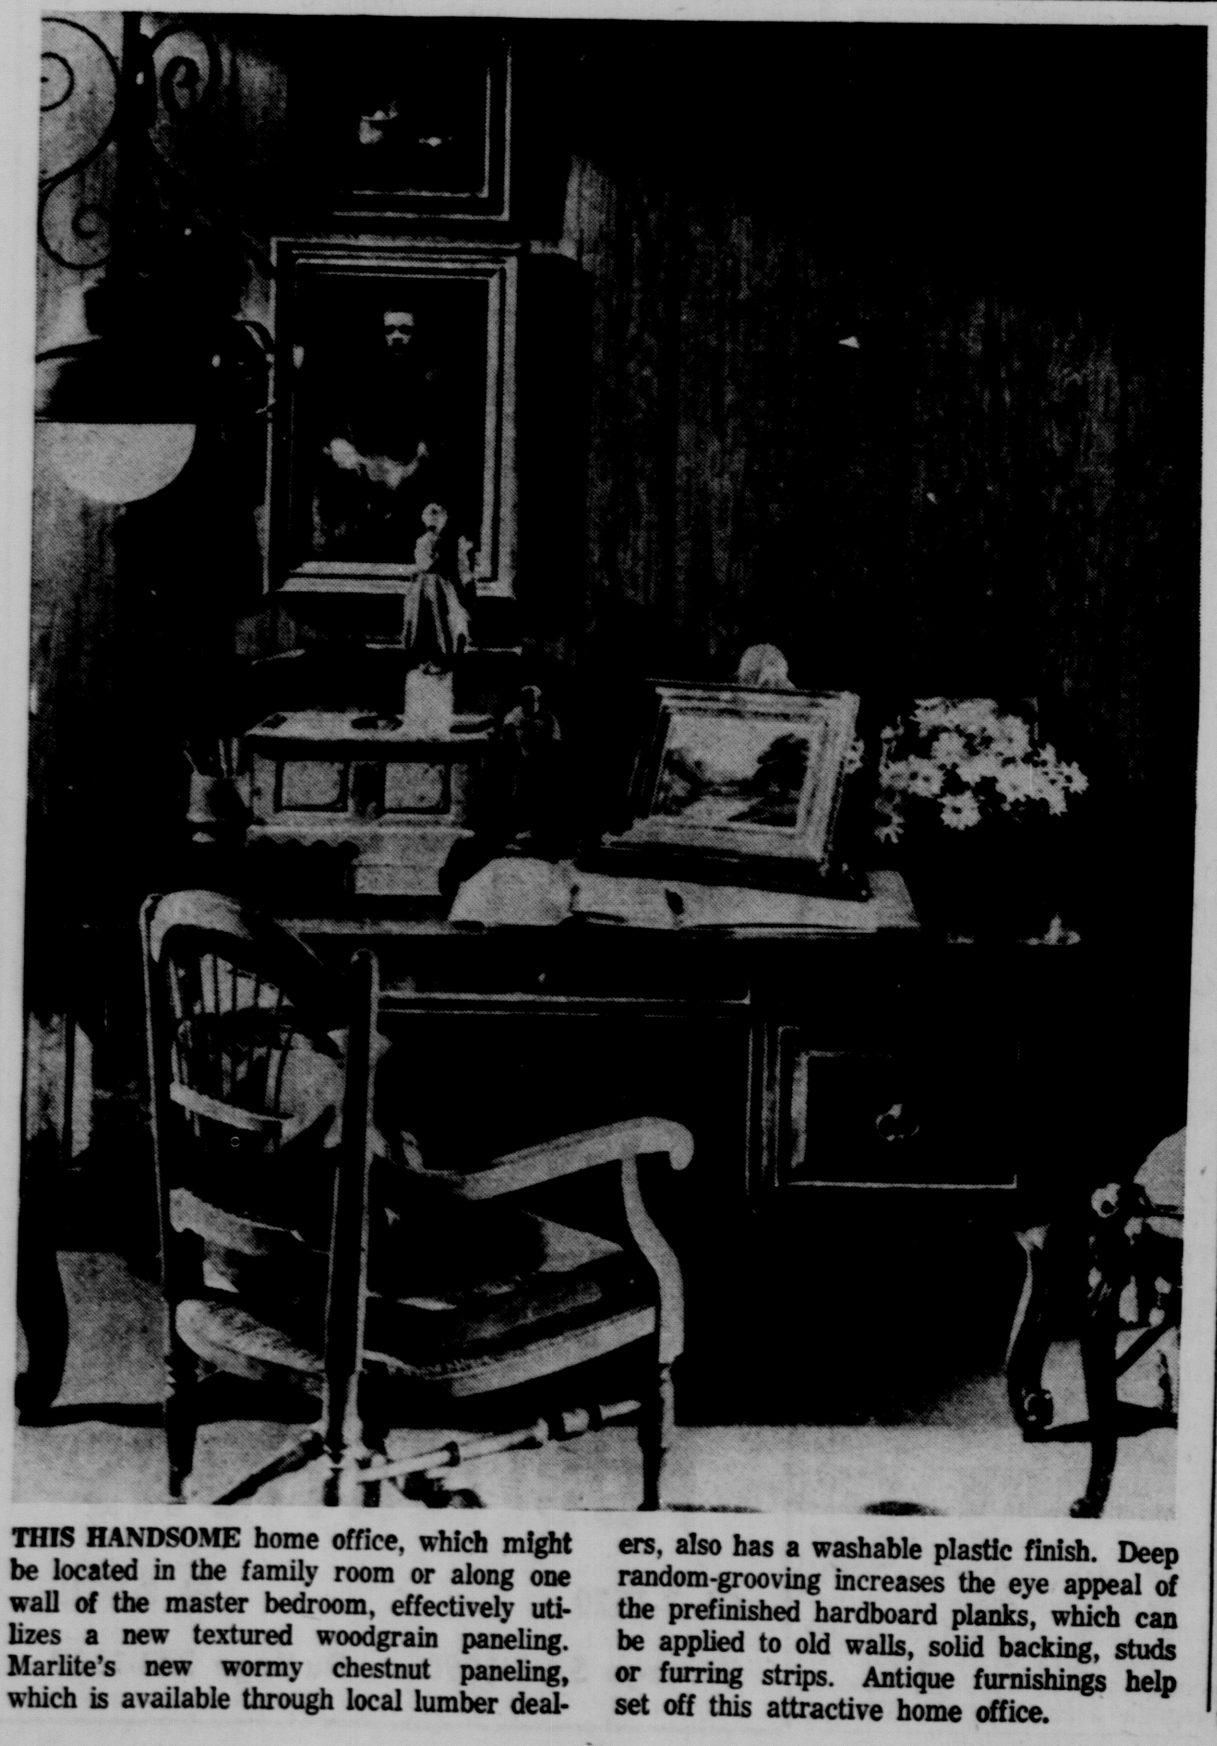
Church of Cross Women to Hear Of Inner City

The Women's Association of the Church of the Cross, United Presbyterian, Hoffman Estates, will meet on Wednesday at 8 p.m.

Guest speaker will be Mrs. Charles Opela of Arlington Heights, who will show slides and talk about mission work in the inner city.

Mrs. Opela is a volunteer worker at "The Door," a coffeehouse on North Broadway which was opened by the North Side Cooperative Ministry in 1963 to bring the church to lonesome and unchurched young adults living in the area. (S

THURS., JAN. 27, 1966



THIS HANDSOME home office, which might be located in the family room or along one wall of the master bedroom, effectively utilizes a new textured woodgrain paneling. Marlite's new wormy chestnut paneling, which is available through local lumber dealers, also has a washable plastic finish. Deep random-grooving increases the eye appeal of the prefinished hardboard planks, which can be applied to old walls, solid backing, studs or furring strips. Antique furnishings help set off this attractive home office.

Book Review Is Tuesday

Making a return visit to Plum Grove Book Review Club on Tuesday, Feb. 1, will be Mrs. C. William Applegate, known to the group as 'Glad.' She will review "This Half of the Apple Is Mine" by Joyce Kissock Lubald.

The meeting begins at 1 p.m. at Plum Grove Club.

Mrs. Applegate is a graduate of Northwestern University School of Speech and has performed on radio and TV as well as for women's clubs, church groups and PTA's.

A coffee hour will follow the review, with Mrs. Leslie Jacobs and Mrs. Read Chalfant as hostesses. (S

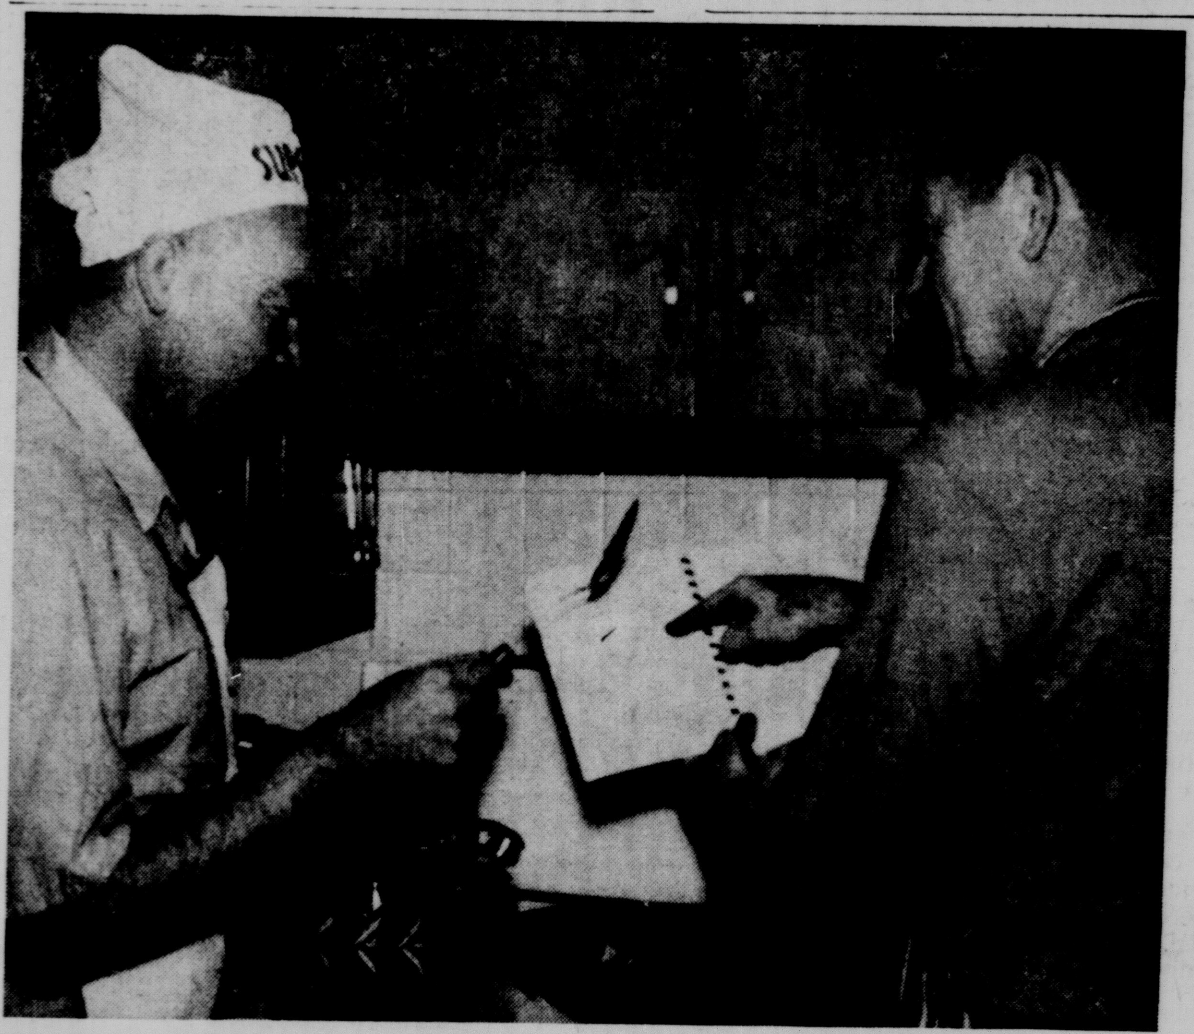
VFW Valentine Dance, Feb. 12

"Hearts and Beaus," a valentine buffet dinner dance sponsored by the Elk Grove Village Ladies Auxiliary to VFW Post 9284, will be held Saturday, Feb. 12, at Lander's Hyatt Chalet in Elk Grove.

The affair wil' begin at 7 p.m. with cocktails, followed by dinner at 8 and dancing from 9 to 1.

Chairman of the dance, the Auxiliary's first since forming 18 months ago, is Mrs. Jerry Fric. Mrs. Fric may be contacted for tickets at HE 7-1730. (S

RECENTLY INSTALLED by Job's Daughters, Bethel 107 of Palatine, were Linda Anagnos, senior princess; Sue Hoigard, honored queen, and Vicki Hardy, junior princess. The bethel and friends went on a hayride in Long Grove on Jan. 15, and members are currently participating in a statewide fund-raising campaign to defray expenses at Grand Session in April. Area girls with proper Masonic affiliation are welcome to join the Palatine bethel by calling Miss Hoigard, FL 8-2699, or Mrs. N. Rickmeyer, guardian, at FL 9-0950.



OFFERING "PROOF in the pudding" that men are receptive to new foods and like variety in meals, Doug Lytle and Don McGowan of Prospect Heights staged a recent potluck supper using recipes from the Prospect Heights Woman's Club cookbook, entitled "Our Best to You." In it are many tried and true old recipes along with some as modern as today, all contributed by club members, with art work done by a local girl, Judi Glaser. Sales of the cookbook have prompted a second printing, and all proceeds go to the club's philanthropies. The book may be purchased at Prospect Heights Library or from Mrs. P. Treacy, CL 9-0404.

Present Expenses, Future Desires Set Home Price

So you want to buy a new home in 1966. Good. It's one of the best investments that can be made. If you buy wisely, you can almost always count on getting back every nickel put into the purchase of a home, and maybe a profit to boot.

For most families, the question is: How much house can you afford to buy? Or, more personally: How much can you afford on a monthly basis?

There are all sorts of good formulas for figuring the amount that can be safely spent on a house — and no two of them agree exactly. One formula states that you can afford a total price tag equalling 1.6 per cent to 2.5 per cent of your annual gross income.

ANOTHER SAYS you can spend one fifth of your gross monthly income for housing. A third suggests 25 per cent of net monthly income may be spent for housing, but some agencies will allow a loan based on no more than 20 per cent of monthly take-home pay.

To bring it down to the very personal level of what you can afford, and what you want to pay, do this: List all your present monthly expenses, and be honest.

List what you spend for food, for household operating costs, recreation, insurance, car payments and operating cost, personal allowances, gifts, books and other reading matter, clothing and clothing upkeep, medical expenses, miscellaneous.

THEN MAKE a good estimate of what it would cost for utilities and fuel for the type of house you plan to buy. Don't forget garbage collection; it's a small item, but it's there. Include also an estimated house upkeep figure to include garden supplies, improvements, repairs.

Third, list what you'd need by way of furnishings for the new home, especially those which you'd plan to buy in the first five years. This is an important figure. After all, a house doesn't become a home unless you can decorate it in a satisfying manner. Decorating is stretched over a period of time, to be sure, but do allow a sensible monthly amount for this item.

Now, add together the three lists and subtract their total from your monthly take-home pay. The amount remaining is what you can spend on monthly house payments. The figure may be less than you'd think, but it will be an honest reflection of what you want to pay for a house.

CASH? YOU shouldn't think of buying a home unless you can afford 10 per cent down. This exists either in the form of an equity in your present home or in savings.

Cash outlays at the outset will also include moving costs and loan closing costs which are paid in advance when the sale is closed. Closing costs vary widely from community to community, but usually include a year's property taxes, title insurance, a fee charged by the lending agency, and possibly lawyer's fees. The best way to estimate closing costs is to visit a lending agency with which you'd like to do business and have them itemize costs for you.

Now that you have all the figures for owning a home down in black-and-white, you can make a sound decision. If things don't quite add up to a new home in '66, then make a New Year's resolution to sock away the dollars for 12 months and give yourself a Christmas present for 1967. (SSD

Banish Hard Water Woes with Softener

Hard water means different things in different parts of the house, says the Plumbing-Heating-Cooling Information Bureau.

In the bathroom, it's the ring on the bathtub, difficult to remove short of vigorous scouring with a heavy-duty cleanser (a practice that is harmful to fixtures). At the lavatory, it's the film of discoloration that remains when the water is drained. Here again, the dirt resists all but the most vigorous removal techniques.

In the kitchen, hard water in the saucepan is responsible for the wrinkled look and tough texture of cooked peas and beans—and for the dingy film that remains on glassware and silverware. Housewives are particularly aware of this latter problem when they are forced to hand-towel articles before placing them on the table.

HARD WATER salts deposit in the form of scale on the moving parts of washing machines and dishwashers. If the layer is allowed to build, it can cause a breakdown in the equipment and necessitate a repair job—to say nothing of the inconvenience of not having the use of the equipment for a while.

And hard water is costly in terms of wasted soap. The American Institute of Laundering reports soap waste to be about 1½ pounds for every 1,000 gallons of one-grain hard water.

It's a simple matter to soften water in the home. The Bureau suggests consulting a qualified plumbing contractor about installing a water softener. Such units can be rented or purchased. (SSD

Slate Book Sale, Dinners, Dance

Smart clubwomen have learned there's nothing like a fund-raising event to fight the winter doldrums, and many an organization in the northwest suburban area is now busily engaged in just such a project.

Among the women's organizations who will be sponsoring activities to raise money in the coming weeks are the women's auxiliary of Northwest Suburban YMCA, the Arlington Heights Woman's Club, the Chicago Maternity Center team for this area and the Women's Society of Christian Service of First Methodist Church in Palatine.

The winter fund-raising season will get into full swing this weekend as the Northwest Suburban "Y" auxiliary runs a day-long "Aunt Jemima Pancake Day" at the "Y" in Des Plaines, while at Randhurst Shopping Center in Mount Prospect, members of the Arlington Heights Woman's Club sell used books.

THE PANCAKE line will form in the "Y's" all-purpose room at 8:30 a.m. and continue through lunch, supper and snack times until 7:30 p.m. As an added attraction there will be continuous entertainment all day.

Mrs. Donald Mead of Arlington Heights is chairman for the pancake affair, and Mrs. Clifford Stock of Mount Prospect is ticket chairman. Tickets are available at the "Y" and from auxiliary members. At least a thousand guests are expected.

The book sale at Randhurst tomorrow (Friday) and Saturday is an annual event for the Arlington Heights Woman's Club. Money raised is used for scholarships for needy local students. Books can be bought from 9:30 a.m. till 9:30 p.m. Friday and from 9:30 till 5:30 Saturday. The chairman is Mrs. David C. Arnold.

THE WOMEN'S society of First Methodist Church in Palatine will be serving its 12th annual smorgasbord at the William Fremd High School Saturday, Feb. 12. Already hard at work making the necessary preparations to serve an anticipated 1,400 diners, the women will get help in their project from the Methodist Men's Club and the youth fellowships of the church.

There will be two servings of the traditional smorgasbord, one from 5 to 6:15 p.m. and the second from 6:30 to 8 o'clock. Tickets for the dinner must be obtained in advance from Mrs. Frank Bonheim, FL 8-2433.

Heading up the committee for the smorgasbord this year are Mrs. M. Brooke, Mrs. T. Westerberg and Mrs. H. Carlson. Assisting them are Mrs. C. Knodel, decorations; Mrs. M. Miller, posters, and Mrs. J. Roberts, personnel.

THE TRADITIONAL cocktail dance, followed by dinner, to benefit the Chicago Maternity Center will again highlight the late winter social season for guests anticipating the gala party Saturday, Feb. 12, at Itasca Country Club.

The northwest area committee which has for the past 12 years planned and sponsored this benefit party has taken its theme from the date, Abraham Lincoln's birthday. Decorations in black and copper will feature replicas of the stovepipe hat and the Lincoln-head penny.

All plans have been made especially to please the gentlemen guests, according to the committee. The favors, still a well-kept secret, will be given to the gentlemen rather than to their ladies. Following the cocktail dance hours a roast beef dinner will be served.

THIRTY NORTHWEST area women, under the chairmanship of Mrs. George N. Tuttle of Mount Prospect and Mrs. William Cook of Arlington Heights, have extended invitations to friends to attend this annual affair, and 250 couples are expected. George Fanelli's orchestra will provide music for dancing from 4:30 to 8 p.m.

Proceeds from this benefit affair go to the Chicago Maternity Center, the world's largest and most widely recognized outpatient maternity clinic.

Charter Tea At St. Edna's

Charter members of St. Edna Women's Club will be honored at a tea on Sunday afternoon at the rectory, 2525 N. Arlington Heights Road. Open house from 2 to 6 p.m. will enable all charter members to attend at their convenience, according to Mrs. Samuel D. Hutchinson, president.

At the churchwomen's Jan. 19 meeting, held in St. James parish hall, Ray Raines of the Beauty Bar, Arlington Heights, described the care of wigs to the 78 members present. Refreshments provided by Jewel Tea Co. were served by Mrs. M. Simon and her committee. (S

St. Matthew League Sets Annual Meet

Willard C. Rasmussen, director of the Division of Care of the Aged of Illinois Synod, Lutheran Church in America, will be guest speaker Monday, Jan. 31, at the annual meeting of St. Matthew Service League, to be held at 1 p.m. in the newly completed chapel of the home, 1601 N. Western Ave., Park Ridge.

Mr. Rasmussen's topic, "Why Be a Volunteer," has been chosen because the day has been designated by the service league as "Volunteer Recognition Day." All volunteers who have given over 20 hours of service in the home during the past year will be honored, and special recognition will be given to six women who have given over 100 hours.

AMONG THE NEW officers of the group are three women from the Paddock area. Mrs. Jack ytle of Arlington Heights is now recording secretary, Mrs. Edgar F. Neas, also of Arlington Heights, is publicity chairman, and Mrs. Robert de Jonge, Mount Prospect, is hospitality chairman.

All women who are interested in the home and its program for the aged and ill are invited to the meeting. (S

HUGE REPLICA of a Lincolnhead penny will be included in the Lincoln motif used to decorate Itasca Country Club on Lincoln's birthday, Feb. 12, when the Chicago Maternity Center stages its annual cocktail dance. $3,000 Raised by Palatine Infant Welfare Last Year

After raising more than $3,000 in 1965, Palatine Infant Welfare members reasoned that they had cause to celebrate, and this they did at a "thank-you to husbands party" reported pictorially last Saturday by a Chicago daily.

Although it's the women who are usually lauded for charity proceeds, Infant Welfare members are quick to telll you that if it weren't for their husbands caring for the children and taking over other duties around the home, they would not be nearly as successful as fund-raisers.

PROCEEDS RAISED in '65 were realized from the Center's benefit luncheon, "Welcome Dolly" and from tickets sold for a benefit performance of the Royal Marine Tattoo. "Tattoo," which netted more than $70,000, was underwritten by all Centers in the Chicago area, including Mount Prospect and Arlington Heights, and was the most successful benefit ever held by a benefit group comparable in size to the Infant Welfare. Proceeds were earmarked for the Infant Welfare's Child Rehabilitation Center which is now under construction.

This year's "thank-you" party was held during the holidays in the Rohlwing Road home of the out-going president, Mrs. John P. Jordan. Climax of the evening was the presentation of the gavel to the new president, Mrs. Robert P. Abate of Plum Grove Estates, and Mrs. Abate's presentation of the Infant Welfare Society's official gold charm to Mrs. Jordan.

Fashion Show Tickets on Sale

The Junior Woman's Club of Des Plaines has announced the date of its 18th annual benefit fashion show as Saturday, March 12. The show will be held at Henrici's O'Hare Inn with fashions from Bonwit-Teller of Oakbrook.

Tickets are now on sale from the club's president, Mrs. Richard Young of Prospect Heights, 824-5500. (S

Lutheran Women Plan Afternoon Meeting Feb. 1

Because chilly February nights often keep members at home on meeting nights, members of the Lutheran Church Women of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church, Arlington Heights, have planned an afternoon meeting for Tuesday, Feb. 1.

Speaker at the 1:15 p.m. meeting will be Rev. Donald Pritz, pastor of the church who will speak on "Religious Aspects of Social Problems." All women of the church and their guests are invited.

Hostesses will be members of Circle III. (S

Welcome Wagon Slates Speaker

A representative from the Clearbrook School for Retarded Children will speak to Wheeling-Buffalo Grove Welcome Wagon Club Thursday, Jan. 27. The meeting is being held at 8 p.m. in the Ranch Mart Community Room in Buffalo Grove.

A question and answer period will be included at the end of the program. (S

Juniors' Winter Meet Held Jan. 20

A dialogue and a fashion show were highlights of the Jan. 20 winter meeting of Seventh District Juniors. The dialogue was given by Miss Karyn Kozak, a senior at Forest View High School, and concerned her experiences at Allerton Park Art School. Miss Kozak was the recipient of the Seventh District Art Scholarship.

The fashion show was a preview of "February Flair," an annual fund-raiser of the Juniors. Modeling for the preview were Mrs. George Mullen, ways and means chairman, and members of her committee. The show will be held Feb. 26 in Elmhurst Country Club under the sponsorship of the eight junior clubs in the area. Proceeds will go to the Clearbrook School for Retarded Children and the Northwest Mental Health Clinic.

JUNIOR CLUBS in the area also support Project HOPE and a report was given on hospital gowns and stuffed toys made by the juniors and donated to the project.

Presiding at the meeting was the district junior director, Mrs. Daniel Wallner and hostess clubs were the Des Plaines and Wheeling Juniors. Honored guests included Mrs. Joseph Hansen, district art chairman; Mrs. Warren Petersen, district literature chairman, and members of the district executive board.

Bethel Practice Set for Sunday

Bethel 103, Job's Daughters, Arlington Heights, met January 18 to formulate plans for several future activities.

Miss Sue Heilig, of 730 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, honored queen, announced that a practice will be held Sunday, Jan. 30, at 1 p.m., at the Arlington Heights Masonic Temple.

Sunday, Feb. 6, the girls will sponsor a Paul Bunyan Brunch at the Arlington Heights Masonic Temple, from 10:30 a.m., to 1:30 p.m. Tickets will be available at the door or may be purchased in advance from any member.

The next regular meeting of Bethel 103 will be Wednesday, Feb. 9, at 7:30 p.m. Initiation of new members will take place, as well as inspection. At the close of the meeting, a pie social will be held. (S

Madame President

Doctor's Wife Invests Time in Hospital Guild

by MARY CAMILLE SCHLOTT
Staff Writer

When Itasca's Mrs. Richard Bowman tells you she's trying to cut back a bit, this means she hopes to average just three nights a week at meetings.

The doctor's wife, currently serving her third term as president of the North DuPage County chapter of the Elmhurst Memorial Hospital Guild, says she's been able to do this by shifting board meetings to daytime whenever possible.

In addition to guiding activities of the guild, which she helped found, Mrs. Bowman is a trustee of the Itasca Community Library, on the Board of Christian Education of Itasca's First Christian Church and a member of the Alcoholism Council of DuPage.

SHE JUST resigned from the county's Public Health Council, which she served as president two years, and she is a past president of the adult chapter of the Lake Park High School's American Field Service group, an organization that facilitates foreign exchange student programs. Three years ago the Bowmans themselves were hosts to an English student.

Anyone viewing the liieup of organizations that Mrs. Bowman's been active in will reach the conclusion that her hobby is investing time in civic interests. It's an assumption that she won't dispute.

NEVERTHELESS, Mrs. Bowman still finds time for bridge and gardening.

"And I love to read," she says, "though I never seem to find time to read enough. I don't read much daytimes — instead, I read at night. If I'm lucky enough to crawl in early, I'd rather read than watch TV."

The Bowmans have been Itasca residents for 25 years, ever since Dr. Bowman, a general practitioner, finished his medical training. With the medical background — and first-hand evidence of need — it was natural that Mrs. Bowman should help organize the hospital auxiliary. The volunteer group has eight chapters now, including the North DuPage one to which Mrs. Bowman belongs.

Last year the auxiliaries raised more than $60,000 for the hospital, and members gave countless hours work as well. Mrs. Bowman says she particularly enjoys the volunteer tasks, especially those spent working with the teenage Candy Striper group.

THE BOWMANS' trim Colonial home sits in the middle of twelve acres, five acres of them in lawn and garden. The driveway approach is pretty steep, presenting hazards on snowy winter days.

Their son, now 19, is a student at Parsons College, Fairfield, Iowa, and currently working in the Loop as part of the college's semester-off-campus program.

Localites at AAUW Presidents' Parley

Fellowships Program Day on Jan. 14 highlighted the branch presidents' meeting of Illinois State Division of the American Association of University Women. Held at the Sherman House, the sessions of Jan. 14-15 were attended by four members of Arlington Heights AAUW branch: Mrs. Paul Davis, Mrs. Dan Farris, Mrs. F. N. Palmatier and Mrs. Charles A. Aldag.

Dr. Ruth Roettinger, director of the AAUW fellowships program, was guest speaker for the Fellowships Program Day luncheon. Since its founding in 1888, the fellowships office has awarded grants for study and research to more than 1800 women from 61 countries. According to Mrs. Davis, Arlington Heights branch president, AAUW's is the second oldest fellowships program established to benefit superior women working for advanced degrees and is supported through voluntary participation by AAUW members.

ANOTHER fellowships program speaker was Dr. Ethel Barber, state fellowships chairman and past association fellowships committee chairman, who gave insights into the workings of Fellowships, explaining the state and national structure of the operation.

Friday evening, Jan. 14, featured the Emerging Issues Seminar, in which Mrs. Charles A. Aldag, Arlington Heights branch first vice president in charge of program development, participated as spokesman for the medium-sized branch. Purpose of the seminar was to help branch presidents and representatives see how branches of various sizes develop the emerging issues into practical study subjects which meet their respective needs.

Activities of the branch presidents' conference on Saturday were geared to providing general assistance by means of discussions and panels on the goals, functions and techniques of AAUW. Prominent among these was a discussion led by Dr. Agnes Tandberg on the background, purposes and objectives of the college faculty program.

From the many sessions available in the afternoon, Mrs. Davis chose to attend an open discussion on "Techniques of Administration," led by Dr. Alice Rector, Illinois state president, and Mrs. William Lomax, president of Downers Grove branch. (S

Buffalo Grove Club Hears Choral Groups

Fresh, young voices blending in close harmony characterized the program for the Jan. 19 guest night of Buffalo Grove Woman's Club. Providing the choral music were two groups from Wheeling High School, the Mastersingers and the Noteables, both under direction of Charles Jenks, choir director at the school.

The Mastersingers, a male quartet featuring Jim Bowker, Dan Kelsey, Ken Sherman and Dan Knowles, began the concert with an old-fashioned barbershop interpretation of "You Tell Me Your Dream and I'll Tell You Mine," followed by a lively version of "There Is Nothing Like a Dame," and concluding with "Standing on the Corner."

BY WAY of contrast, the Noteables—a girls' quintet including Lynn Middaugh, Sue Summers, Nancy McDonald, Donna Pancamo and Barbara Noll, accompanied by Barbara Frey—launched their part of the program with a group of songs from Carousel.

The two choral groups combined their talents for the finale and an encore to the musical evening. (S

Mt. Prospect Club To Hear Dramatist

Sadie Stern Merel will present her version of "Barefoot in the Park" for Mount Prospect Woman's Club during its Tuesday, Feb. 1, meeting at 1 p.m. at the Community Center.

Miss Merel, known as the woman of a hundred voices, will assume all roles and dialects of this comedy hit. A solo dramatic artist, she has appeared in Miami Beach, throughout the Midwest and on the New York professional stage.

DURING HER dramatic training she was a winner of three prizes: a gold medal in dramatic expression at the American Conservatory of Music, a fellowship at the Chicago Musical College and a scholarship at the American Academy of Music and Art.

Mrs. Vernon E. Moore is chairman of the hostess committee for the afternoon program. (S

Peace Corps, Topic Of Palatine Juniors

Miss Sarah Paterson of the Chicago area Peace Corps will be guest speaker for the Palatine Junior Woman's Club Feb. 1 meeting in Gray Sanborn School Cafeteria at 8 p.m.

Miss Paterson is a native of Wilmette and a graduate of New Trier High School and St. Mary's of Notre Dame. From July '61 to July '63 she served with the Peace Corps in Chile and is now chairman of its speaker's bureau for the Chicago area.

SHE WILL SHOW a film, "Mission of Discovery," which tells the Peace Corps story of volunteers overseas. Mrs. Richard Luck, international relations chairman of the Juniors, said a question and answer period will follow.

Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Robert Measley, assisted by Mrs. Charles McNerney, Mrs. Rudolph Miller, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. John O'Hara, Mrs. Jack Ellis and Mrs. George Downs.

Mrs. Walter Honigman and Mrs. Frank Kozlicki have been appointed to the board of the Palatine Juniors, Mrs. Honigman as vice president and membership chairman since president Mrs. Robert Stanat transferred to Texas and Mrs. William Heise, then vice president, assumed the presidency. Mrs. Kozlicki will be the allocation chairman. (S

Mrs. James Craig Leads Home Unit

New officers of Mount Prospect Unit of CCook County Homemakers' Extension Association were introduced at the Jan. 19 meeting. Mrs. James Craig is chairman; Mrs. Carl Anderson, program and project chairman; Mrs. Victor Peterson, membership; Mrs. Louis Toth, secretary; Mrs. F. J. Liebrich, treasurer.

"Language and Behavior Patterns That Help Us Understand People" was the topic presented by Mrs. Warren West. Members were also told that a craft session will precede the February meeting, along with an exhibit of past projects.

Mrs. Peterson, 255-1124, has membership information. (S

Be a Mother-in-Law Who Merits a Halo

By BETTY AINSLIE

If you happen to be a mother, your sons and daughters are bound to grow up and suddenly make of you a mother-in-law.

Now this may be bane or blessing depending upon how you look at it. There's always a rash of mother-in-law jokes and I've always felt a mite sorry for the poor women who were the subjects of all the stories. Especially now that I'm a mother-in-law myself.

My own mother-in-law was a wonder at strictly minding her own business. She never offered suggestions unless asked and I know she must have counted to 10 many times to avoid giving advice to her new headstrong daughter-in-law.

ON HER VISITS to our home she always gathered up the wild assortment of mending I had stacked up, and neatly patched blue jeans, sewed on buttons and darned socks with many tiny stitches. She never commented when she came across some of my bewildering previous mending, and she never tried to take over the kitchen but was always calmly there to lend a helping hand at dishes and household chores.

She rocked fussy babies to sleep and was there to help when I was ill with mononucleosis after Son no. 1 was born. She dealt with running the house and a brand new baby who suddenly developed chicken pox he'd picked up from his sister, while I was put to bed for several weeks. I know she spent many sleepless nights tending crying Son no. 1 — but she was always cheerful and never once complained.

SHE AND GRANDPA took two-year-old Son no. 1 home with them for three months while Pop and I were mysteriously stricken with hepatitis and needed complete bed rest.

It was her shoulder I cried on when Pop went overseas during World War II. She always managed to keep me busy going to clubs and meetings with her when we came for monthly visits during Pop's nearly three-year absence.

I discovered it could be fun to cook for harvesters and to enjoy all their good-natured kidding at my awkward serving of 20 or 30 hungry men.

I LEARNED HOW the farmer's wives all cooperated to bake and cook for this once-a-year event and helped each other out when the harvest crew went from farm to farm.

This mother-in-law of mine never just sat — she relaxed by sewing, making and mending clothes for her many grandchildren, and I can't remember her ever complaining about her rather hard lot in life.

So bah! to the mother-in-law jokes. Instead of being criticized, most of them should be handed extra sparkling halos.

FROM MY OWN mother-in-law I unconsciously learned a few fine points in this business of being a mother-in-law myself.

1. Don't offer advice under any circumstances. Hedge even when asked your opinion — nine times out of ten the young couple will do as they decide anyway.
2. Be available when needed and don't expect everlasting gratitude from the young folks if you are.
3. Forget that you ever thought son or daughter-in-law couldn't possibly be good enough for your own son or daughter.
4. Listen to their troubles but don't keep harping about your own.
5. Give an affectionate hug or kiss to that in-law once in a while.

NOW YOU DON'T necessarily have to sew to be the prize mom-in-law. A boost with piled up ironing would surely endear you to daughter-in-law, and don't be constantly underfoot when son-in-law arrives home from work.

Count to 10, even 20 — don't speak in anger — and you know something? You'll be an absolute favorite mother-in-law.

Secretaries Meet Feb. 2

The next monthly dinner meeting of Park-Plaines Chapter of the National Secretaries Association is set for Wednesday, Feb. 2 at Old Orchard Country Club. Since the NSA program of the year is "Secretaries Meet the Press," the club has invited Maurice "Ritz" Fischer, assistand manager of the Metropolitan Department of Field Enterprises which publish the Chicago Daily News and Sun-Times, to speak on "You and Your Newspaper."

Guests are welcome to this meeting, and all secretaries living or working in the local area are invited into membership. Park-Plaines chapter is composed of secretaries from Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, Palatine, Barrington, Des Plaines, Park Ridge and northwest Chicago.

Details are available from Ilda Balhatchet, CL 5-5593 or LE 7-1100. (S

Flower Show Tickets Out

Arlington Heights Garden Club will participate in the Chicago World Flower and Garden Show March 19-27 at McCormick Place, Chicago.

"America, the Beautiful" is the theme of this year's show, and members representing the Arlington club, Mrs. Lawrence Brown, Mrs. Joseph Koenen, Mrs. R. L. Stauder and Mrs. Edward May, all of Arlington Heights, have chosen to enter the table setting class.

Bonsai Trees, Topic of Elk Grove Club

The ancient art of bonsai growing will be demonstrated to the Garden Club of Elk Grove at the Monday, Jan. 31, meeting in Mrs. Vernon Magnuson's home at 28 Evergreen. Both men and women interested in the bonsai culture are welcome to the 8 p.m. program.

Gay R. Laubsch, who is in charge of bonsai promotion at D. Hill Nursery Co., Dundee, will give tips on the care and production of the trees.

ORIGINAL BONSAI trees were brought to the United States by Hill Nursery in 1902 as an experiment, and since then Hill has propagated the hardy dwarfs until it is the largest collector and grower of bonsai in the country.

Anyone interested in attending this program may contact Mrs. Gary Vesey, He 7-0531. (S

Madame President

Doctor's Wife Invests Time in Hospital Guild

by MARY CAMILLE SCHLOTT
Staff Writer

When Itasca's Mrs. Richard Bowman tells you she's trying to cut back a bit, this means she hopes to average just three nights a week at meetings.

The doctor's wife, currently serving her third term as president of the North DuPage County chapter of the Elmhurst Memorial Hospital Guild, says she's been able to do this by shifting board meetings to daytime whenever possible.

In addition to guiding activities of the guild, which she helped found, Mrs. Bowman is a trustee of the Itasca Community Library, on the Board of Christian Education of Itasca's First Christian Church and a member of the Alcoholism Council of DuPage.

SHE JUST resigned from the county's Public Health Council, which she served as president two years, and she is a past president of the adult chapter of the Lake Park High School's American Field Service group, an organization that facilitates foreign exchange student programs. Three years ago the Bowmans themselves were hosts to an English student.

Anyone viewing the liieup of organizations that Mrs. Bowman's been active in will reach the conclusion that her hobby is investing time in civic interests. It's an assumption that she won't dispute.

NEVERTHELESS, Mrs. Bowman still finds time for bridge and gardening.

"And I love to read," she says, "though I never seem to find time to read enough. I don't read much daytimes — instead, I read at night. If I'm lucky enough to crawl in early, I'd rather read than watch TV."

The Bowmans have been Itasca residents for 25 years, ever since Dr. Bowman, a general practitioner, finished his medical training. With the medical background — and first-hand evidence of need — it was natural that Mrs. Bowman should help organize the hospital auxiliary. The volunteer group has eight chapters now, including the North DuPage one to which Mrs. Bowman belongs.

Last year the auxiliaries raised more than $60,000 for the hospital, and members gave countless hours work as well. Mrs. Bowman says she particularly enjoys the volunteer tasks, especially those spent working with the teenage Candy Striper group.

THE BOWMANS' trim Colonial home sits in the middle of twelve acres, five acres of them in lawn and garden. The driveway approach is pretty steep, presenting hazards on snowy winter days.

Their son, now 19, is a student at Parsons College, Fairfield, Iowa, and currently working in the Loop as part of the college's semester-off-campus program.

Localites at AAUW Presidents' Parley

Fellowships Program Day on Jan. 14 highlighted the branch presidents' meeting of Illinois State Division of the American Association of University Women. Held at the Sherman House, the sessions of Jan. 14-15 were attended by four members of Arlington Heights AAUW branch: Mrs. Paul Davis, Mrs. Dan Farris, Mrs. F. N. Palmatier and Mrs. Charles A. Aldag.

Dr. Ruth Roettinger, director of the AAUW fellowships program, was guest speaker for the Fellowships Program Day luncheon. Since its founding in 1888, the fellowships office has awarded grants for study and research to more than 1800 women from 61 countries. According to Mrs. Davis, Arlington Heights branch president, AAUW's is the second oldest fellowships program established to benefit superior women working for advanced degrees and is supported through voluntary participation by AAUW members.

ANOTHER fellowships program speaker was Dr. Ethel Barber, state fellowships chairman and past association fellowships committee chairman, who gave insights into the workings of Fellowships, explaining the state and national structure of the operation.

Friday evening, Jan. 14, featured the Emerging Issues Seminar, in which Mrs. Charles A. Aldag, Arlington Heights branch first vice president in charge of program development, participated as spokesman for the medium-sized branch. Purpose of the seminar was to help branch presidents and representatives see how branches of various sizes develop the emerging issues into practical study subjects which meet their respective needs.

Activities of the branch presidents' conference on Saturday were geared to providing general assistance by means of discussions and panels on the goals, functions and techniques of AAUW. Prominent among these was a discussion led by Dr. Agnes Tandberg on the background, purposes and objectives of the college faculty program.

From the many sessions available in the afternoon, Mrs. Davis chose to attend an open discussion on "Techniques of Administration," led by Dr. Alice Rector, Illinois state president, and Mrs. William Lomax, president of Downers Grove branch. (S

Buffalo Grove Club Hears Choral Groups

Fresh, young voices blending in close harmony characterized the program for the Jan. 19 guest night of Buffalo Grove Woman's Club. Providing the choral music were two groups from Wheeling High School, the Mastersingers and the Noteables, both under direction of Charles Jenks, choir director at the school.

The Mastersingers, a male quartet featuring Jim Bowker, Dan Kelsey, Ken Sherman and Dan Knowles, began the concert with an old-fashioned barbershop interpretation of "You Tell Me Your Dream and I'll Tell You Mine," followed by a lively version of "There Is Nothing Like a Dame," and concluding with "Standing on the Corner."

BY WAY of contrast, the Noteables—a girls' quintet including Lynn Middaugh, Sue Summers, Nancy McDonald, Donna Pancamo and Barbara Noll, accompanied by Barbara Frey—launched their part of the program with a group of songs from Carousel.

The two choral groups combined their talents for the finale and an encore to the musical evening. (S

Mt. Prospect Club To Hear Dramatist

Sadie Stern Merel will present her version of "Barefoot in the Park" for Mount Prospect Woman's Club during its Tuesday, Feb. 1, meeting at 1 p.m. at the Community Center.

Miss Merel, known as the woman of a hundred voices, will assume all roles and dialects of this comedy hit. A solo dramatic artist, she has appeared in Miami Beach, throughout the Midwest and on the New York professional stage.

DURING HER dramatic training she was a winner of three prizes: a gold medal in dramatic expression at the American Conservatory of Music, a fellowship at the Chicago Musical College and a scholarship at the American Academy of Music and Art.

Mrs. Vernon E. Moore is chairman of the hostess committee for the afternoon program. (S

Peace Corps, Topic Of Palatine Juniors

Miss Sarah Paterson of the Chicago area Peace Corps will be guest speaker for the Palatine Junior Woman's Club Feb. 1 meeting in Gray Sanborn School Cafeteria at 8 p.m.

Miss Paterson is a native of Wilmette and a graduate of New Trier High School and St. Mary's of Notre Dame. From July '61 to July '63 she served with the Peace Corps in Chile and is now chairman of its speaker's bureau for the Chicago area.

SHE WILL SHOW a film, "Mission of Discovery," which tells the Peace Corps story of volunteers overseas. Mrs. Richard Luck, international relations chairman of the Juniors, said a question and answer period will follow.

Hostess for the evening will be Mrs. Robert Measley, assisted by Mrs. Charles McNerney, Mrs. Rudolph Miller, Mrs. John Miller, Mrs. John O'Hara, Mrs. Jack Ellis and Mrs. George Downs.

Mrs. Walter Honigman and Mrs. Frank Kozlicki have been appointed to the board of the Palatine Juniors, Mrs. Honigman as vice president and membership chairman since president Mrs. Robert Stanat transferred to Texas and Mrs. William Heise, then vice president, assumed the presidency. Mrs. Kozlicki will be the allocation chairman. (S

Mrs. James Craig Leads Home Unit

New officers of Mount Prospect Unit of CCook County Homemakers' Extension Association were introduced at the Jan. 19 meeting. Mrs. James Craig is chairman; Mrs. Carl Anderson, program and project chairman; Mrs. Victor Peterson, membership; Mrs. Louis Toth, secretary; Mrs. F. J. Liebrich, treasurer.

"Language and Behavior Patterns That Help Us Understand People" was the topic presented by Mrs. Warren West. Members were also told that a craft session will precede the February meeting, along with an exhibit of past projects.

Mrs. Peterson, 255-1124, has membership information. (S

Be a Mother-in-Law Who Merits a Halo

By BETTY AINSLIE

PADDOCK PUBLICATIONS THURS., JAN. 27, 1966

Suburban Living
Especially for Women

If you happen to be a mother, your sons and daughters are bound to grow up and suddenly make of you a mother-in-law.

Now this may be bane or blessing depending upon how you look at it. There's always a rash of mother-in-law jokes and I've always felt a mite sorry for the poor women who were the subjects of all the stories. Especially now that I'm a mother-in-law myself.

My own mother-in-law was a wonder at strictly minding her own business. She never offered suggestions unless asked and I know she must have counted to 10 many times to avoid giving advice to her new headstrong daughter-in-law.

ON HER VISITS to our home she always gathered up the wild assortment of mending I had stacked up, and neatly patched blue jeans, sewed on buttons and darned socks with many tiny stitches. She never commented when she came across some of my bewildering previous mending, and she never tried to take over the kitchen but was always calmly there to lend a helping hand at dishes and household chores.

She rocked fussy babies to sleep and was there to help when I was ill with mononucleosis after Son no. 1 was born. She dealt with running the house and a brand new baby who suddenly developed chicken pox he'd picked up from his sister, while I was put to bed for several weeks. I know she spent many sleepless nights tending crying Son no. 1 — but she was always cheerful and never once complained.

SHE AND GRANDPA took two-year-old Son no. 1 home with them for three months while Pop and I were mysteriously stricken with hepatitis and needed complete bed rest.

It was her shoulder I cried on when Pop went overseas during World War II. She always managed to keep me busy going to clubs and meetings with her when we came for monthly visits during Pop's nearly three-year absence.

I discovered it could be fun to cook for harvesters and to enjoy all their good-natured kidding at my awkward serving of 20 or 30 hungry men.

I LEARNED HOW the farmer's wives all cooperated to bake and cook for this once-a-year event and helped each other out when the harvest crew went from farm to farm.

This mother-in-law of mine never just sat — she relaxed by sewing, making and mending clothes for her many grandchildren, and I can't remember her ever complaining about her rather hard lot in life.

So bah! to the mother-in-law jokes. Instead of being criticized, most of them should be handed extra sparkling halos.

FROM MY OWN mother-in-law I unconsciously learned a few fine points in this business of being a mother-in-law myself.

1. Don't offer advice under any circumstances. Hedge even when asked your opinion — nine times out of ten the young couple will do as they decide anyway.

2. Be available when needed and don't expect everlasting gratitude from the young folks if you are.

3. Forget that you ever thought son or daughter-in-law couldn't possibly be good enough for your own son or daughter.

4. Listen to their troubles but don't keep harping about your own.

5. Give an affectionate hug or kiss to that in-law once in a while.

NOW YOU DON'T necessarily have to sew to be the prize mom-in-law. A boost with piled up ironing would surely endear you to daughter-in-law, and don't be constantly underfoot when son-in-law arrives home from work.

Count to 10, even 20 — don't speak in anger — and you know something? You'll be an absolute favorite mother-in-law.

7th District's Winter Meeting Held Jan. 19

A Leadership Development panel was featured at the morning session of the winter meeting of the Seventh District, IFWC, Jan. 19, at the Christ Lutheran Church, Chicago. Participating in the panel were Mrs. Clarence Hendrickson, first vice president, IFWC: Mrs. Joseph Bernhard, vice president Northern Region, Mrs. Gordon Beckley, Northern Region junior director, and Mrs. George Heller, past president of 10th District.

Mrs. Hendrickson a resident of Arlington Heights, has received the enlorsement from Seventh District as a candidate for state president of the Illinois Federation of Women's Clubs.

A new club was welcomed into the Federation at the morning session. The Woman's Club of Inverness, represented by Mrs. Edwin Bartley, vice president, was presented with a gavel by Mrs. Martin Rauscher, district president.

Spring hats brightened the winter luncheon as models from the Junior Women's Clubs displayed samples from their February Flair Hat Show plannel for Feb. 26 at Elmhurst Country Club. Mrs. Daniel Wallner of Arlington Heights, seneth District junior director moderated the preview style show.

LOUIS GARIPPO, chief of Criminal Division of State's Attorney's Office was the afternoon speaker and answered questions on the mechanics of prosecuting criminals.

Hostess clubs for the meeting were Belmont Woman's Club, Mrs. William Grommes, president, and Irving Park Woman's Club, Mrs. George Zamzow, president.

During the holiday season members of seventh District served as hostesses and registrars at the International Hospitality Center, 116 S. Michigan, Chicago. The Center opens its doors to foreign students who have been sent by the State Department, International Centers or their colleges.

Last year 451 visitors from 60 countries participated in the 10-day program which provides lunches and dinners, arranges tours of Chicago and places students as a guest in a private home on Christmas Day. Dec. 28 Mrs. Rauscher and 20 members of seventh District acted as registrars at the Center.

Seventh District supplied a dessert of fruit, figs, nuts and cookies for the annual buffet dinner Dec. 30. A program was provided by two Arlington High School students, Sam Cullison, son of the junior Sam Cullisons, 511 N. Hickory, and John Sedor, son of the John Sedors, 909 N. Walnut, stated Mrs. Z. R. Rogozinski, District International Relations Chairman. Both boys played guitar and sang folk songs.

In turn the foreign students joined by singing their own folk songs in their native languages. The program was obtained through the cooperation of Boyd White, Director of Vocal Department at Arlington High School.

Teacher Speaks To Study Group

Members of the Child Study Group of Barrington were stimulated to use their imaginations at last week's meeting, as Mrs. Sylvia Paulson, teacher in the Cary schools, spoke on "The Creative and Development Activities of the Pre-School Child."

The importance of letting the child use his imagination was stressed by Mrs. Paulson, who described a variety of games, activities and situations for children and the learning values of each.

Mrs. Fay Michaelis of Palatine was among the co-hostesses of the meeting. (S

Political Figure To Speak At GOP Women's Meeting

The Woman's Republican Club of the 13th Congressional District of Illinois will host a dessert-coffee at 1:30 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 10, at Glenview Community Church, 2100 Glenview Road, at the corner of Elmwood.

Dr. Philip M. Crane of Bradley University, Peoria, will be introduced as guest speaker by Mrs. Gerald Owen McDonald of Lincolnwood, program chairman and vice president. Dr. Crane, a historical scholar and writer, served as a public relations expert for the Republican party in 1962. Hot Chicken Salad Is Favorite Luncheon Dish

Lemon Dessert Can Top Off Any Meal

by Lois Seiler

For a luncheon or dinner, Mrs. Ernest J. Janata of Mount Prospect has a favorite menu that she has found her guests especially enjoy. It features a Hot Chicken Salad served with a jello mold and hot rolls, topped off by a delicious Frozen Lemon Dessert.

"Not only is the chicken dish appropriate for a luncheon, but it can easily be doubled or tripled to serve a large crowd for a buffet supper," said Mrs. Janata.

In addition to chicken, this savory casserole calls for hard boiled eggs, chopped celery, onion, almonds and crushed potato chips combined with cream of chicken soup and mayonnaise.

Baked for an hour, the hot chicken salad is rich and flavorful. A tart-flavored cranberry-orange mold and hot rolls are appropriate accompaniments.

ARLYNE JANATA'S Frozen Lemon Dessert will complement the flavor of this entre.

"The dessert is very simple to prepare, yet looks impressive," said this good cook.

Made in a spring-form pan which is lined with lady fingers, the filling consists of butter, powdered sugar and egg yolks creamed together and flavored with lemon rind and juice. Beaten egg whites are folded in.

Refrigerated overnight, it is served topped with whipped cream. Although rich, its tart flavor makes this an appealing dessert for almost any meal.

"IT CAN BE made days in advance and will freeze nicely," Mrs. Janata commented.

Her daughter Beverly, 10, who is a fifth grader at Lyons Park School, also enjoys this delectable dessert.

In addition to her culinary interests, Mrs. Janata is active in several organizations. She is a Brownie organizer and consultant for the Girl Scouts of south Mount Prospect, ways and means chairman for Sigma Phi Gamma sorority, a member of St. Mark's Women's Guild and the PTA.

IT IS OBVIOUS that her mother's Frozen Lemon Dessert is a great favorite of Beverly Janata of Mount Prospect. Mrs. Ernest J. Janata makes this dessert by lining an angel food pan with lady fingers and filling it with a rich and delicious lemon-flavored filling. It is topped with whipped cream, and makes an appealing dessert for a luncheon or dinner.

HOT CHICKEN SALAD

1 whole chicken, cooked and cut into pieces
3 hard-boiled eggs, sliced
1 can cream of chicken soup
1 cup chopped celery, steamed until tender
2 teaspoons minced onion
½ cup sliced almonds
1 teaspoon lemon juice
¾ cup mayonnaise
Salt and pepper to taste
1 cup crushed potato chips

Mix all ingredients together and turn into a 1½ quart casserole. Sprinkle additional crushed potato chips on top. Bake at 350 degrees for 45 to 60 minutes. Serves 5 to 6.

FROZEN LEMON DESSERT

1 cup butter
1½ cups powdered sugar
4 egg yolks
Juice and grated rind of 1 lemon
½ teaspoon vanilla
4 stiffly-beaten egg whites
2 dozen lady fingers, split in halves

Line the bottom and sides of an 8-inch spring-form pan or a small tube pan with lady fingers.

Cream butter and sugar together. Beat in egg yolks, lemon juice and rind and vanilla. Fold in stiffly-beaten egg whites.

Pour filling into lined pan. Any left-over lady fingers may be used to form a layer in the dessert. Refrigerate overnight. Before serving, top with whipped cream. Serves 8 to 10.

Breakfast 'Bait'

Offer delectable Biscuit Honeys at coffeetime, or use them as morning "bait" for a "rise 'n' shine" family. To prepare, roll out basic biscuit dough about ¼-inch thick. Cut into ½-inch strips and coil into "snails" on baking sheet. Brush each biscuit with honey and sprinkle with chopped nuts. Bake in a pre-heated 450 degree oven, 10 to 12 minutes, or until golden brown. (SH

Week's Best Food Buys

Fryer costs soar at all levels. Arrival costs advanced 4½ cents during the week, quoting higher for current store delivery. At retail there are some price concessions for cut-up birds in a few outlets; most boosting to 49 cents a pound for grade A cut-up.

Beef is the more common value. Costs mostly higher again; retails steady. Eggs steady.

MEXICAN IMPORTS improve quality outlook for tomatoes, green beans, other tender items. No cost relief expected. Relative values possible from February produce calendar:

Fruit: apples, avocados, bananas, grapefruit, pineapple and rhubarb.

Vegetables: artichokes, broccoli, carrots, celeriac, celery cabbage, collards, endive, kale, mustard greens, parsnips, shallots and turnips.

CHICAGO-AREA food values:

Meats: round and sirloin steak, beef rump roasts, sirloin tip roasts, ground beef, stew beef, veal shoulder roasts and chops.

Produce: grapefruit, oranges, bananas; carrots, cabbage, celery, radishes, onions, potatoes.

Saw Meringues

To cut meringues, dip a serrated knife in warm water and slice with sawing motion, suggest Meadow Gold home economists. (SH

Pear Relish Salad Tasty Stew Partner

Canned Bartlett pear halves topped with individual molds of tangy relish are perfect partners to rich, thick, old-fashioned beef stew. The gay red and green relish molds are peppy with vinegar and spices so make them small. In place of tiny individual molds, the gelatin may be set in a flat pan and cut in squares to place over the centers of the pear halves.

Sweet, flavorful syrup drained from the canned pears is used as part of the liquid in the gelatin mixture. While the gelatin sets, chill the drained pear halves so they will be refreshingly cool at serving time. Serve Pear Relish Salads, buffet style, and let each help himself

PEAR RELISH SALAD

1 (1 lb. 13 oz.) can Bartlett pear halves
2/3 cup vinegar
2/3 cup sugar
1-inch stick cinnamon
½ teaspoon whole cloves
½ teaspoon whole allspice
1 (3 oz.) package lemon-flavored gelatin
1 cup sliced stuffed green olives
½ cup chopped celery
½ cup chopped maraschino cherries

Drain pear halves, reserving 1-1/3 cups pear syrup. Combine pear syrup with vinegar, sugar, and spices. Bring to boil. Reduce heat and simmer 5 minutes. Strain out spices. Dissolve gelatin in hot mixture Chill until partially set. Add olives, celery and maraschino cherries. Pour into small individual molds. Chill until set. Place pear halves on crisp greens. Unmold a relish salad in center of each pear half. Makes 6 to 8 servings. (SH

Hot Chicken Salad Is Favorite Luncheon Dish

IT IS OBVIOUS that her mother's Frozen Lemon Dessert is a great favorite of Beverly Janata of Mount Prospect. Mrs. Ernest J. Janata makes this dessert by lining an angel food pan with lady fingers and filling it with a rich and delicious lemon-flavored filling. It is topped with whipped cream, and makes an appealing dessert for a luncheon or dinner.

Lemon Dessert Can Top Off Any Meal

by Lois Seiler

For a luncheon or dinner, Mrs. Ernest J. Janata of Mount Prospect has a favorite menu that she has found her guests especially enjoy. It features a Hot Chicken Salad served with a jello mold and hot rolls, topped off by a delicious Frozen Lemon Dessert.

"Not only is the chicken dish appropriate for a luncheon, but it can easily be doubled or tripled to serve a large crowd for a buffet supper," said Mrs. Janata.

In addition to chicken, this savory casserole calls for hard boiled eggs, chopped celery, onion, almonds and crushed potato chips combined with cream of chicken soup and mayonnaise.

Baked for an hour, the hot chicken salad is rich and flavorful. A tart-flavored cranberry-orange mold and hot rolls are appropriate accompaniments.

ARLYNE JANATA'S Frozen Lemon Dessert will complement the flavor of this entre.

"The dessert is very simple to prepare, yet looks impressive," said this good cook.

Made in a spring-form pan which is lined with lady fingers, the filling consists of butter, powdered sugar and egg yolks creamed together and flavored with lemon rind and juice. Beaten egg whites are folded in.

Refrigerated overnight, it is served topped with whipped cream. Although rich, its tart flavor makes this an appealing dessert for almost any meal.

"IT CAN BE made days in advance and will freeze nicely," Mrs. Janata commented.

Her daughter Beverly, 10, who is a fifth grader at Lyons Park School, also enjoys this delectable dessert.

In addition to her culinary interests, Mrs. Janata is active in several organizations. She is a Brownie organizer and consultant for the Girl Scouts of south Mount Prospect, ways and means chairman for Sigma Phi Gamma sorority, a member of St. Mark's Women's Guild and the PTA.

HOT CHICKEN SALAD

1 whole chicken, cooked and cut into pieces
3 hard-boiled eggs, sliced
1 can cream of chicken soup
1 cup chopped celery, steamed until tender
2 teaspoons minced onion
½ cup sliced almonds
1 teaspoon lemon juice
¾ cup mayonnaise
Salt and pepper to taste
1 cup crushed potato chips

Mix all ingredients together and turn into a 1½ quart casserole. Sprinkle additional crushed potato chips on top. Bake at 350 degrees for 45 to 60 minutes. Serves 5 to 6.

FROZEN LEMON DESSERT

1 cup butter
1½ cups powdered sugar
4 egg yolks
Juice and grated rind of 1 lemon
½ teaspoon vanilla
4 stiffly-beaten egg whites
2 dozen lady fingers, split in halves

Line the bottom and sides of an 8-inch spring-form pan or a small tube pan with lady fingers.

Cream butter and sugar together. Beat in egg yolks, lemon juice and rind and vanilla. Fold in stiffly-beaten egg whites.

Pour filling into lined pan. Any left-over lady fingers may be used to form a layer in the dessert. Refrigerate overnight. Before serving, top with whipped cream. Serves 8 to 10.

Breakfast 'Bait'

Offer delectable Biscuit Honeys at coffeetime, or use them as morning "bait" for a "rise 'n' shine" family. To prepare, roll out basic biscuit dough about ¼-inch thick. Cut into ½-inch strips and coil into "snails" on baking sheet. Brush each biscuit with honey and sprinkle with chopped nuts. Bake in a pre-heated 450 degree oven, 10 to 12 minutes, or until golden brown. (SH

Week's Best Food Buys

Fryer costs soar at all levels. Arrival costs advanced 4½ cents during the week, quoting higher for current store delivery. At retail there are some price concessions for cut-up birds in a few outlets; most boosting to 49 cents a pound for grade A cut-up.

Beef is the more common value. Costs mostly higher again; retails steady. Eggs steady.

MEXICAN IMPORTS improve quality outlook for tomatoes. green beans, other tender items. No cost relief expected. Relative values possible from February produce calendar:

Fruit: apples, avocados, bananas, grapefruit, pineapple and rhubarb.

Vegetables: artichokes, broccoli, carrots, celeriac, celery cabbage, collards, endive, kale, mustard greens, parsnips, shallots and turnips.

CHICAGO-AREA food values:

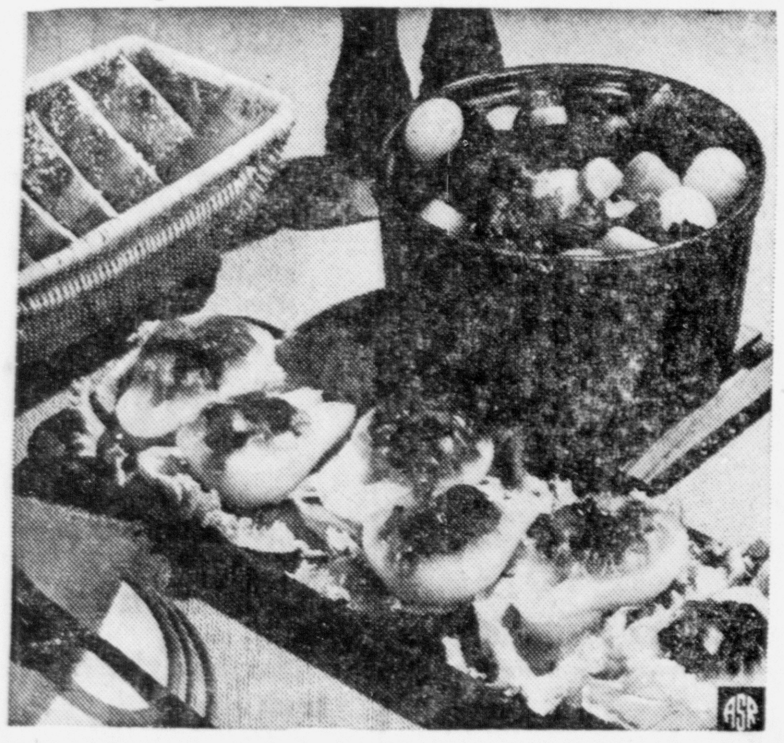
Meats: round and sirloin steak, beef rump roasts, sirloin tip roasts, ground beef, stew beef, veal shoulder roasts and chops.

Produce: grapefruit, oranges. bananas; carrots, cabbage, celery, radishes, onions, potatoes.

Saw Meringues

To cut meringues, dip a serrated knife in warm water and slice with sawing motion, suggest Meadow Gold home economists. (SH

Pear Relish Salad Tasty Stew Partner



Canned Bartlett pear halves topped with individual molds of tangy relish are perfect partners to rich, thick, old-fashioned beef stew. The gay red and green relish molds are peppy with vinegar and spices so make them small. In place of tiny individual molds, the gelatin may be set in a flat pan and cut in squares to place over the centers of the pear halves.

Sweet, flavorful syrup drained from the canned pears is used as part of the liquid in the gelatin mixture. While the gelatin sets, chill the drained pear halves so they will be refreshingly cool at serving time. Serve Pear Relish Salads, buffet style, and let each help himself

1 (1 lb. 13 oz.) can Bartlett pear halves
2/3 cup vinegar
2/3 cup sugar
1-inch stick cinnamon
½ teaspoon whole cloves
½ teaspoon whole allspice
1 (3 oz.) package lemon-flavored gelatin
1 cup sliced stuffed green olives
½ cup chopped celery
½ cup chopped maraschino cherries

Drain pear halves, reserving 1-1/3 cups pear syrup. Combine pear syrup with vinegar, sugar, and spices. Bring to boil. Reduce heat and simmer 5 minutes. Strain out spices. Dissolve gelatin in hot mixture Chill until partially set. Add olives, celery and maraschino cherries. Pour into small individual molds. Chill until set. Place pear halves on crisp greens. Unmold a relish salad in center of each pear half. Makes 6 to 8 servings. (SH

Jaclyn Kleinofen's Groom Gives Her a Family Heirloom

A family heirloom was Michael Shawn Hickey's wedding gift to his bride, Jaclyn Rae Kleinofen. The heirloom was a golden cross which the bride wore as her only jewelry on her wedding day.

Miss Kleinofen is the daughter of the Charles Kleinofens, 627 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, and Mr. Hickey is the son of the F. J. Hickeys of Rock Island. Both young people are studying at the University of Illinois from which the groom will be graduated in February.

Their wedding took place at 3 p.m. Dec. 18 in St. Colette Church, Rolling Meadows where red poinsettias decorated the altar. Rev. Raymond Morrison officiated at the double ring service and Mr. Kleinofen gave his daughter in marriage.

MISS KLEINOFEN'S gown was fashioned of re-embroidered lace and de-lustered satin with scalloped, scooped neckline, Dior sleeves and a detachable chapel train with Alencon lace motif. Her silk illusion veil was held in place with a pearl crown and she carried a cascade of white calla lillies with two strands of pearls.

Miss Ellen Sue Retterer of Arlington Heights served as the bride's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Cathy Dean of Arlington Heights and the bride's college roommates, Miss Eileen Dzielak of Las Vegas and Miss Nancy Ruebensam of Chicago. All wore identical sheath gowns of sweet apple green fashioned with scooped necklines and elbow sleeves with Venise lace trim. Their bouquets were of white mums with yellow tea roses.

Best man was Robert Hickman of Rock Island and ushers were Jerry Hough of Rock Island, Alberto Rafols of Roselle and Michael O'Connell of Rolling Meadows.

THE RECEPTION was held in the American Legion Hall in Arlington Heights where a buffet supper was served to 200 guests. Mrs. Kleinofen received in a pale rose raw silk 3-piece suit with burgundy accessories and a corsage of pink and burgundy cymbidiums. Mrs. Hickey's choice was a 2-piece ensemble in muted tones of gray laced with russet. Her corsage was of brown cymbidiums.

Mr. Hickey took his bride on a 5-day honeymoon at Lake Lawn Lodge, and after his graduation they will reside in Rock Island where he has accepted a position as an industrial engineer at the Rock Island Arsenal. The bride is a '64 graduate of Arlington High School. (S

Raymond Raines To Participate In Seminar

Raymond M. Raines, 26 N. Dryden Avenue, Arlington Heights, is serving as a committee member for an educational program for hairdressers sponsored by the Chicago and Illinois Hairdressers Association, to be held Wednesday, Feb. 2, at the Oak Park Arms Hotel, Oak Park. Mr. Raines is immediate past president of the Association.

The program will include demonstrations of permanent waving, hair coloring and will feature leading Chicago area hairstylists, some of whom have appeared in International hairstyling programs and have served on the Official Hair Fashion Committee of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

According to Mr. Raines, the Chicago and Illinois Hairdressers Association is offering this program as a promotion of National Beauty Salon Week, which will be observed February 14-20.

'Entertaining' Is Next Topic Of Newcomers

"The Art of Entertaining" will be the subject of discussion by Elk Grove Village Newcomer's Club at the Feb. 2 meeting at 8 p.m. in Salt Creek Country Club. The speaker will be Mrs. Marshall Howard of Park Ridge.

A homemaker and hostess, Mrs. Howard teaches an adult evening class in entertaining at Maine High School, and her topic includes menu planning, basic equipment and the practicalities of entertaining.

The newcomers are busy preparing for their April 23 dance, "Spring Fantasy," to be held at Salt Creek Country Club. The public is invited.

Elk Grove Village Newcomer's Club is a service and social organization, open to all adult females of Elk Grove and surrounding communities regardless of length of residency. Mrs. Richard Nelson, membership chairman, 439-4741, may be called for details. (S

X-Ray is Topic Of Dental Group

Principles of X-ray will be the topic of W. G. Wisner of General Electric Co. when he speaks Tuesday, Feb. 1, to Chicago Dental Assistant Association. The meeting will be held at the Maitre d' Restaurant in Elk Grove Village beginning with dinner at 7:30. The business portion of the meeting and program will follow at 8:30 p.m.

In charge of reservations is Miss Nancy Pershbacher, CL 3-3359. (S

Nurses Offer Scholarship

A yearly scholarship is again being offered to a qualified student by the Arlington Heights Nurses Club. This scholarship is known as the Martha Jackson Memorial Fund Scholarship and is open to residents of Arlington Heights who have been accepted by an accredited school of nursing.

Choice of the recipient will be determined by the club's scholarship committee which will consider financial need, interest in nursing as a life work, scholarship and general citizenship. Applications are due to the club by May 1, 1966.

Students interested in applying for the scholarship may contact their high school counselor or the scholarship chairman, Mrs. Wallace Olson, 392-4569. (S

FOLLOWING A HONEYMOON in Miami, Mr. and Mrs. William Weisbecker are residing in Norwood Park. Married recently in St. James Church, Arlington Heights, the bride is the former Linda Lehman, daughter of the Leon W. Lehmans of Arlington Heights. The groom, a member of the Park Ridge Police Force, is the son of the Albert Weisbeckers of Chicago.

College Sweethearts Wed in Holiday Rite

A romance which began on the campus of Austin College in Sherman, Texas, culminated in marriage on Dec. 23 in the Community Presbyterian Church of Mount Prospect. At 5:30 in the afternoon Frank Raymond Yeatman III of Lake Charles, La., took the former Janet Gayle Chenoweth of Prospect Heights as his bride.

Assisting the church pastor, Rev. Donald F. Keith, in the double ring ceremony was Rev. R. Earl Price, assistant minister of Highland Park Presbyterian Church of Dallas, Texas, where the Chenoweth family formerly worshiped.

THE BRIDE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Chenoweth Jr., 106 W. Kenilworth, Prospect Heights, was employed in the village manager's office in Mount Prospect until her marriage. The groom is doing graduate work at the University of Illinois, majoring in psychology, and the newlyweds are living in an apartment at 57 E. John St., Champaign, after a week at the Wagon Wheel in Rockton.

Coming from Lake Charles for the candlelight rites and reception in the church fellowship hall was the groom's mother, Mrs. F. Raymond Yeatman Jr., his brother Bruce who served as his best man and his sisters, Joan Yeatman of Eugene, Ore., and Mrs. H. L. Thompson of Norman, Okla. Mr. Thompson was an usher for the wedding, along with Richard Araway and Robert Helgoe, both of Bellingham, Wash., and both doing graduate work at the U. of I. The groom's father is the late Mr. Yeatman.

THE BRIDE ENTERED the sanctuary wearing a candlelight faille dress appliqued in alencon lace on the empire bodice and also forming a wide border at the hemline of the train. A large rose of the faille, edged in pearls, held her shoulder-length veil in place, and she carried a bouquet of starburst pompons and baby English ivy.

Her sister, Carol Chenoweth, was maid of honor, and a childhood friend of the bride's, Linna Denny of Dallas, was bridesmaid. Both were gowned alike in emerald green brocade, floor length and empire styled, and they carried bouquets of white mums.

THE BRIDE'S mother wore a gray-beige lace suit with matching silk organdy blouse for the evening ceremony. Her pink feathered hat was complemented by a pink camellia and carnation corsage. The groom's mother chose turquoise crepe in a sheath style, with a white hat and white orchid corsage.

Among the out-of-town guests was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. O. I. Chenoweth, who came from San Francisco for the festivities. (S

Miss Kleinofen is the daughter of the Charles Kleinofens, 627 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, and Mr. Hickey is the son of the F. J. Hickeys of Rock Island. Both young people are studying at the University of Illinois from which the groom will be graduated in February.

Their wedding took place at 3 p.m. Dec. 18 in St. Colette Church, Rolling Meadows where red poinsettias decorated the altar. Rev. Raymond Morrison officiated at the double ring service and Mr. Kleinofen gave his daughter in marriage.

MISS KLEINOFEN'S gown was fashioned of re-embroidered lace and de-lustered satin with scalloped, scooped neckline, Dior sleeves and a detachable chapel train with Alencon lace motif. Her silk illusion veil was held in place with a pearl crown and she carried a cascade of white calla lillies with two strands of pearls.

Miss Ellen Sue Retterer of Arlington Heights served as the bride's maid of honor and bridesmaids were Miss Cathy Dean of Arlington Heights and the bride's college roommates, Miss Eileen Dzielak of Las Vegas and Miss Nancy Ruebensam of Chicago. All wore identical sheath gowns of sweet apple green fashioned with scooped necklines and elbow sleeves with Venise lace trim. Their bouquets were of white mums with yellow tea roses.

Best man was Robert Hickman of Rock Island and ushers were Jerry Hough of Rock Island, Alberto Rafols of Roselle and Michael O'Connell of Rolling Meadows.

THE RECEPTION was held in the American Legion Hall in Arlington Heights where a buffet supper was served to 200 guests. Mrs. Kleinofen received in a pale rose raw silk 3-piece suit with burgundy accessories and a corsage of pink and burgundy cymbidiums. Mrs. Hickey's choice was a 2-piece ensemble in muted tones of gray laced with russet. Her corsage was of brown cymbidiums.

Mr. Hickey took his bride on a 5-day honeymoon at Lake Lawn Lodge, and after his graduation they will reside in Rock Island where he has accepted a position as an industrial engineer at the Rock Island Arsenal. The bride is a '64 graduate of Arlington High School. (S

FOLLOWING A HONEYMOON in Miami, Mr. and Mrs. William Weisbecker are residing in Norwood Park. Married recently in St. James Church, Arlington Heights, the bride is the former Linda Lehman, daughter of the Leon W. Lehmans of Arlington Heights. The groom, a member of the Park Ridge Police Force, is the son of the Albert Weisbeckers of Chicago.

Nurses Offer Scholarship

A yearly scholarship is again being offered to a qualified student by the Arlington Heights Nurses Club. This scholarship is known as the Martha Jackson Memorial Fund Scholarship and is open to residents of Arlington Heights who have been accepted by an accredited school of nursing.

Choice of the recipient will be determined by the club's scholarship committee which will consider financial need, interest in nursing as a life work, scholarship and general citizenship. Applications are due to the club by May 1, 1966.

Students interested in applying for the scholarship may contact their high school counselor or the scholarship chairman, Mrs. Wallace Olson, 392-4569. (S

College Sweethearts Wed in Holiday Rite

A romance which began on the campus of Austin College in Sherman, Texas, culminated in marriage on Dec. 23 in the Community Presbyterian Church of Mount Prospect. At 5:30 in the afternoon Frank Raymond Yeatman III of Lake Charles, La., took the former Janet Gayle Chenoweth of Prospect Heights as his bride.

Assisting the church pastor, Rev. Donald F. Keith, in the double ring ceremony was Rev. R. Earl Price, assistant minister of Highland Park Presbyterian Church of Dallas, Texas, where the Chenoweth family formerly worshiped.

THE BRIDE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Chenoweth Jr., 106 W. Kenilworth, Prospect Heights, was employed in the village manager's office in Mount Prospect until her marriage. The groom is doing graduate work at the University of Illinois, majoring in psychology, and the newlyweds are living in an apartment at 57 E. John St., Champaign, after a week at the Wagon Wheel in Rockton.

Coming from Lake Charles for the candlelight rites and reception in the church fellowship hall was the groom's mother, Mrs. F. Raymond Yeatman Jr., his brother Bruce who served as his best man and his sisters, Joan Yeatman of Eugene, Ore., and Mrs. H. L. Thompson of Norman, Okla. Mr. Thompson was an usher for the wedding, along with Richard Araway and Robert Helgoe, both of Bellingham, Wash., and both doing graduate work at the U. of I. The groom's father is the late Mr. Yeatman.

THE BRIDE ENTERED the sanctuary wearing a candlelight faille dress appliqued in alencon lace on the empire bodice and also forming a wide border at the hemline of the train. A large rose of the faille, edged in pearls, held her shoulder-length veil in place, and she carried a bouquet of starburst pompons and baby English ivy.

Her sister, Carol Chenoweth, was maid of honor, and a childhood friend of the bride's, Linna Denny of Dallas, was bridesmaid. Both were gowned alike in emerald green brocade, floor length and empire styled, and they carried bouquets of white mums.

THE BRIDE'S mother wore a gray-beige lace suit with matching silk organdy blouse for the evening ceremony. Her pink feathered hat was complemented by a pink camellia and carnation corsage. The groom's mother chose turquoise crepe in a sheath style, with a white hat and white orchid corsage.

Among the out-of-town guests was the bride's grandmother, Mrs. O. I. Chenoweth, who came from San Francisco for the festivities. (S

Raymond Raines To Participate In Seminar

Raymond M. Raines, 26 N. Dryden Avenue, Arlington Heights, is serving as a committee member for an educational program for hairdressers sponsored by the Chicago and Illinois Hairdressers Association, to be held Wednesday, Feb. 2, at the Oak Park Arms Hotel, Oak Park. Mr. Raines is immediate past president of the Association.

The program will include demonstrations of permanent waving, hair coloring and will feature leading Chicago area hairstylists, some of whom have appeared in International hairstyling programs and have served on the Official Hair Fashion Committee of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

According to Mr. Raines, the Chicago and Illinois Hairdressers Association is offering this program as a promotion of National Beauty Salon Week, which will be observed February 14-20.

'Entertaining' Is Next Topic Of Newcomers

"The Art of Entertaining" will be the subject of discussion by Elk Grove Village Newcomer's Club at the Feb. 2 meeting at 8 p.m. in Salt Creek Country Club. The speaker will be Mrs. Marshall Howard of Park Ridge.

A homemaker and hostess, Mrs. Howard teaches an adult evening class in entertaining at Maine High School, and her topic includes menu planning, basic equipment and the practicalities of entertaining.

The newcomers are busy preparing for their April 23 dance, "Spring Fantasy," to be held at Salt Creek Country Club. The public is invited.

Elk Grove Village Newcomer's Club is a service and social organization, open to all adult females of Elk Grove and surrounding communities regardless of length of residency. Mrs. Richard Nelson, membership chairman, 439-4741, may be called for details. (S

Sorority Activities

Box Luncheon, Benefit Bridge Set for Feb. 10

DELTA GAMMA

A box luncheon and benefit bridge is planned by Northwest Suburban Delta Gammas for Thursday, Feb. 10. Members and their friends are anticipating the event scheduled to begin at noon in Old Orchard Country Club.

According to Mrs. Robert Hayes and Mrs. Stanley Shaw, co-chairmen of the affair, tickets are available from any Delta Gamma or the local village ticket chairmen, Mrs. Russell Noland, CL 9-1521, Arlington Heights; Mrs. William Ratzer, 253-0907, Mount Prospect; and Mrs. Stanley Brandenburg, 358-4351, Palatine.

As in previous years, profits will go to the national Delta Gamma philanthrophy Aid to Sighted. Money from the benefit last year was given to the summer scholarship fund of resource teachers and provided mobility lessons for local blind students. The previous year, Delta Gammas bought a Thermoform braille duplicator for the high school district blind resource room.

DELTA ZETA

Delta Zetas will make puppets for Northwest Auxiliary of Cook Cuonty Hospital at their Tuesday, Feb. 1, meeting. Hostess for the 8 p.m. meeting will be Mrs. John Bonthran, 407 S. Carlyle, Arlington Heights, with Mrs. Richard Doyle as co-hostess.

Mrs. Chris Tidey, 814 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, president of the Auxiliary, will be guest speaker. Her topic will be "The Purpose and Function of the Auxiliary." Besides puppets, the Auxiliary supplies games, radios, mittens and other items to the needy.

Members are asked to bring washable scrap material and rick rack to be used in making the puppets. Miss Shirley Doyle, CL 3-8563, is in charge of reservations for the meeting.

BETA SIGMA PHI

Mu Pi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, Hoffman Estates, met this week in the home of Mrs. Sam Nowling to complete plans for their Cancer Ball. The ball is being held at the Blue Moon Ballroom in Elgin, on Friday, Jan. 28.

Representing the chapter in the Queen of the Ball contest will be Mrs. John Shibona, who presented the program, "Joys of Maintaining a Home."

The group also completed plans for "Crown Every Moment," a style show to be held Friday, Feb. 4, at the Golden Acres Country Club. Fashions for the 8 p.m. show will be from the Lual Shop of Hoffman and furs will be from Benharts Mink Ranch. Tickets may be purchased by calling 837-8869.

ANOTHER BETA Sigma Phi chapter, Xi Zeta Epsilon, has devoted January meetings to the discussion of education. At a meeting held Jan. 26 in the Arlington Heights home of Mrs. Bernard Bird, Mrs. V. F. Schlexer, also of Arlington Heights, led a discussion on adult education.

This meeting followed by one week a meeting held in the Mount Prospect home of Mrs. Arthur Weith, where Darwin Miller, an instructor of physical science at Wheeling High School, discussed high school problems in the community, scholarships and who should go to college and where.

Jan. 29, Xi Zeta Epsilon husbands will join their wives for a spaghetti dinner in the Arlington Heights home of the Richard Howes.

The next regular chapter meeting will be held Wednesday, Feb. 9, in the Mount Prospect home of Mrs. Darwin Miller. The program, "Easy and Informal," will be presented by Mrs. Robert Howe of Hoffman Estates.

A FOREIGN dish potluck dinner was presented Jan. 19 by members of Lambda Delta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi. Hostess was Mrs. Chuck Boehm, 701 E. Morris Drive, Palatine.

A brief business meeting, in which the standing rules, bylaws and the constitution were reviewed and discussed, followed the dinner.

Mrs. Dave Peterson, 904 W. St. James, Arlington Heights, will be hostess at 8 p.m. for the Friday, Feb. 4 meeting.

KAPPA DELTA

Looking ahead to spring, Northwest Suburban Alumnae Association of Kappa Delta will have as guest speaker, a Des Plaines realtor, Robert Dooley. Mr. Dooley is a member of the board of governors of the Northwest Suburban Bar Association and a director of the Des Plaines Trust and Savings Bank. He is the charter president of Northwest Suburban Multiple Listing Service and is currently a director and chairman of the educational committee of the Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors.

The talk and business meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sam Hutcheson, 610 E. Ivy Lane, Arlington Heights, at 8 p.m. Co-hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Richard LeRoy, Arlington Heights, and Mrs. Russell Oller, Des Plaines. Kappa Deltas are asked to call Mrs. Hutcheson at 392-3792 by Saturday, Jan. 29.

At the beginning of the new year, the Northwest Suburban Alumnae Association extends an invitation to all Kappa Deltas in the area to join the group. Those interested may contact Mrs. James Murphy, 392-0435.

ZETA TAU ALPHA

Decorating flower baskets, centerpieces for the sorority's spring luncheon, will be the program Tuesday, Feb. 1 for Zeta Tau Alpha. Hostess will be Mrs. William Richer, Des Plaines. Area Zeta Tau's wishing more information about the group may call Miss Dianne Sunstrum of Arlington Heights, at 392-7868.

SIGMA ALPHA IOTA

Miss Sandra Wilkins, 11 N. Kenilworth, Mount Prospect, will be hostess Tuesday, Feb. 1, for the 8 p.m. meeting of Park Ridge Alumnae Chapter of Sigma Alpha Iota. Miss Wilkins, a recent visitor in Hawaii, will present the program, "Hawaii and its Music."

All area alumnae and patroness members are invited, and may call Miss Wilkins at CL 5-0898 for further information.

ALPHA GAMMA DELTA

The cutting and processing of meat will be demonstrated by a representative of the Jewel Tea Company, Joseph Pieroni of Mundelein, at the Tuesday, Feb. 1, meeting of Northwest Suburban Alumnae Club of Alpha Gamma Delta.

Mr. Pieroni, market manager of the Lake Forest Jewel, hopes to enlighten his audience as to the processing necessary before meat appears on the counters. Chef cut meats will also be demonstrated by the speaker.

Hostess for the meeting will be Mrs. C. F. Beck, 405 N. Eastwood, Mount Prospect.

During the business meeting, details for the telephone bridge parties, to be held Feb. 12-19, will be discussed. Proceeds will go to the altruistic fund. Plans will also be formed for the husband-wife bowling night to be held early in March at the Thunderbird.

Co-hostesses will be Miss Carmen Muirheid and Mrs. James L. Smith of Mount Prospect and Mrs. Philip Ehlers of Palatine. (S FURNISHING THE FOYER of Clearbrook School for Retarded Children was the recent goal of fund-raising events of Atise Junior Woman's Club. Byrn Witt, head of the school, is shown with members of the club as they presented him with a check for $2,000 to help finance the foyer. Two benefits were planned last year by the Atise Juniors, the most recent being the Robert Goulet concert in November. Mr. Witt is shown with Mrs. Dale Pate, Mrs. John Woods and Mrs. Thomas Mallow, who was chairman of the Goulet concert. (Staff photo

'Hearts are Trump' Is Junior Project

"Hearts are Trump" is the theme of the card and game party sponsored by the Rolling Meadows Junior Woman's Club at 8 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 2, at the Pioneer Park Auditorium in Arlington Heights.

Ways and Means Chairman Mrs. Walter Sergot suggests this evening of relaxation as a cure for the winter doldrums. "We are awarding the winner at each table a lovely fragrance by Avon, and the local merchants have donated additional gifts," said Mrs. Sergot.

All profits from the card party will be given to the clubs' philanthropies, including Clearbrook School and the Northwest Mental Health Clinic.

All interested women are invited. Tickets are available from Mrs. Sergot, 255-3561, club members, and at the door. (S

Greek Designer Is Staging Show Here

"Rhodes to Fashion" will be the theme for the annual luncheon-fashion show sponsored by the St. John Philoptochos Society Saturday, Feb. 12, at O'Hare Inn.

This year's show will feature the creations of New York designer George Stavropoulos who believes "full skirts are for peasants." As is the case of many designers of foreign origin, Mr. Stavropoulos imparts something of this cultural heritage in the fashions he does for American Women. In his case it is a fluid sculpture of his native Greece interpreted in intricately draped evening dresses.

THE DESIGNER came to this country five years ago, leaving a thriving couture business in Athens to please his new American wife whom he met at the American embassy there. The couple now has a 13-month-old son.

Coming here especially for the Feb. 12 showing, the designer will include many ensembles in his favorite neutral colors of beige, black or white and evening tones of melon, citron and pink. (S

Nurses Set Card Party

A card party and auction have been planned by Elk Grove Village Nurses Club as a fund-raising activity for its annual scholarship grant. The party is set for Friday, Jan. 28, at Flick-Reedy Hall, Thorndale and Elmhurst Roads, Bensenville.

Card playing begins at 8 p.m., followed by an auction of dinated articles.

Tickets may be purchased from any club member or at the door that evening. (S

Service League Tours Rehabilitation Center

On a recent tour of the Children's Rehabilitation Center in Chicago, members of the newly-established Service League for Crippled Children observed physical and speech therapy in operation. They were also given comparative progress reports on the children.

The League, a charitable organization dedicated to the advancement of the Center's therapeutic programs, is composed of women from the North West suburbs and meets the second Wednesday of each month September through June.

FUNDS RAISED by the League are donated directly to the Center, a branch of the Illinois Association for the Crippled, Inc. Individual members pledge contributions which they acquire through a variety of personal projects, and all members work together on one major project each year to help build funds for the Center. This year's program includes a March 6 jazz concert and buffet supper at Long Grove Country Club. The jazz, dixieland style, will be provided by Art Hode and his group.

Proceeds from the concert, along with the individual pledges, will be used to purchase orthopedic equipment, to help meet the salaries of the Center's staff members and to further the clinic's services. (S

Holiday Wedding Unites Karen Neal, Eugene Pride

In a holiday setting that included a huge Christmas tree and white poinsettias, Miss Karen Marie Neal, daughter of the Lowell V. Neals of Quentins Road, Kildeer, became the bride of Marine Pfc. Eugene Neal Pride, son of the Earl Prides of Ingleside.

The double ring service was held Dec. 30 in the home of the bride's parents with Rev. John C. Talbot of the Palatine Presbyterian Church officiating.

The bride, on the arm of her father, came down the white staircase wearing a white satin gown. Roses gathered the floor-length skirt and the bodice featured a rounded neckline and long sleeves, pointed at the wrists. Her waist-length veil was held by a seed pearl tiara and she carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis and ivy tied with satin streamers.

THE BRIDE'S sister, Janet Ann Neal, was maid of honor. Her empire gown was of white velvet, fashioned with floor-length skirt and long sleeves. The neckline of her gown and her small juliet cap were trimmed with seed pearls and she carried a cascade of red poinsettias and white carnations.

Alan D. Burkes of McHenry was best man to the groom.

Mrs. Neal was attired in a deep blue velvet dress trimmed with crystals. Her corsage was of white carnations tied with blue ribbons. Mrs. Pride chose a light blue lace suit dress trimmed with pearls. Her corsage was also of white carnations tied with blue bows.

Forty-five guests greeted the couple in the Neals' family room.

The new Mrs. Pride is a graduate of Mundelein High School and is employed by Illinois Paint and Bronze in Lake Zurich. The couple honeymooned in the area for a week before the groom returned to his post in North Carolina. (S

Redeemer Guild Sets Talent Nite

"Home Talent Nite" will highlight the Thursday, Feb. 3, meeting of Our Redeemer Lutheran Church Women's Guild of Prospect Heights. Opening devotions at 8:30 p.m. will be led by Mrs. Arthur Streccius.

Following the business portion of the meeting, members of the congregation and their families will perform or show their talents. The show will include songs, hobbies and crafts.

Hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Stanley Bacon, Mrs. Emil Geffe and Mrs. Al Griesch. (S

ONE HUNDRED PALATINE women were invited last Thursday to the Inverness home of Mrs. Robert F. Elrick, who was hosting a coffee sponsored by the Citizens Council of Channel 11. Speakers promoted the educational channel and told of its needs for financial and committee support. The Council is made up of 100 society leaders from the Chicago area.

Box Luncheon, Benefit Bridge Set for Feb. 10

DELTA GAMMA

A box luncheon and benefit bridge is planned by Northwest Suburban Delta Gammas for Thursday, Feb. 10. Members and their friends are anticipating the event scheduled to begin at noon in Old Orchard Country Club.

According to Mrs. Robert Hayes and Mrs. Stanley Shaw, co-chairmen of the affair, tickets are available from any Delta Gamma or the local village ticket chairmen, Mrs. Russell Noland, CL 9-1521, Arlington Heights; Mrs. William Ratzer, 253-0907, Mount Prospect; and Mrs. Stanley Brandenburg, 358-4351, Palatine.

As in previous years, profits will go to the national Delta Gamma philanthrophy Aid to Sighted. Money from the benefit last year was given to the summer scholarship fund of resource teachers and provided mobility lessons for local blind students. The previous year, Delta Gammas bought a Thermoform braille duplicator for the high school district blind resource room.

DELTA ZETA

Delta Zetas will make puppets for Northwest Auxiliary of Cook Cuonty Hospital at their Tuesday, Feb. 1, meeting. Hostess for the 8 p.m. meeting will be Mrs. John Bonthran, 407 S. Carlyle, Arlington Heights, with Mrs. Richard Doyle as co-hostess.

Mrs. Chris Tidey, 814 S. Chestnut, Arlington Heights, president of the Auxiliary, will be guest speaker. Her topic will be "The Purpose and Function of the Auxiliary." Besides puppets, the Auxiliary supplies games, radios, mittens and other items to the needy.

Members are asked to bring washable scrap material and rick rack to be used in making the puppets. Miss Shirley Doyle, CL 3-8563, is in charge of reservations for the meeting.

BETA SIGMA PHI

Mu Pi chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, Hoffman Estates, met this week in the home of Mrs. Sam Nowling to complete plans for their Cancer Ball. The ball is being held at the Blue Moon Ballroom in Elgin, on Friday, Jan. 28.

Representing the chapter in the Queen of the Ball contest will be Mrs. John Shibona, who presented the program, "Joys of Maintaining a Home."

The group also completed plans for "Crown Every Moment," a style show to be held Friday, Feb. 4, at the Golden Acres Country Club. Fashions for the 8 p.m. show will be from the Lual Shop of Hoffman and furs will be from Benharts Mink Ranch. Tickets may be purchased by calling 837-8869.

ANOTHER BETA Sigma Phi chapter, Xi Zeta Epsilon, has devoted January meetings to the discussion of education. At a meeting held Jan. 26 in the Arlington Heights home of Mrs. Bernard Bird, Mrs. V. F. Schlexer, also of Arlington Heights, led a discussion on adult education.

This meeting followed by one week a meeting held in the Mount Prospect home of Mrs. Arthur Weith, where Darwin Miller, an instructor of physical science at Wheeling High School, discussed high school problems in the community, scholarships and who should go to college and where.

Jan. 29, Xi Zeta Epsilon husbands will join their wives for a spaghetti dinner in the Arlington Heights home of the Richard Howes.

The next regular chapter meeting will be held Wednesday, Feb. 9, in the Mount Prospect home of Mrs. Darwin Miller. The program, "Easy and Informal," will be presented by Mrs. Robert Howe of Hoffman Estates.

A FOREIGN dish potluck dinner was presented Jan. 19 by members of Lambda Delta chapter, Beta Sigma Phi. Hostess was Mrs. Chuck Boehm, 701 E. Morris Drive, Palatine.

A brief business meeting, in which the standing rules, bylaws and the constitution were reviewed and discussed, followed the dinner.

Mrs. Dave Peterson, 904 W. St. James, Arlington Heights, will be hostess at 8 p.m. for the Friday, Feb. 4 meeting.

KAPPA DELTA

Looking ahead to spring, Northwest Suburban Alumnae Association of Kappa Delta will have as guest speaker, a Des Plaines realtor, Robert Dooley. Mr. Dooley is a member of the board of governors of the Northwest Suburban Bar Association and a director of the Des Plaines Trust and Savings Bank. He is the charter president of Northwest Suburban Multiple Listing Service and is currently a director and chairman of the educational committee of the Northwest Suburban Board of Realtors.

The talk and business meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Sam Hutcheson, 610 E. Ivy Lane, Arlington Heights, at 8 p.m. Co-hostesses for the evening will be Mrs. Richard LeRoy, Arlington Heights, and Mrs. Russell Oller, Des Plaines. Kappa Deltas are asked to call Mrs. Hutcheson at 392-3792 by Saturday, Jan. 29.

At the beginning of the new year, the Northwest Suburban Alumnae Association extends an invitation to all Kappa Deltas in the area to join the group. Those interested may contact Mrs. James Murphy, 392-0435.

Suburbs Take Lead In Saving Streams

Several separate but related steps have been taken in recent weeks toward preserving and developing some of the limited natural resources of the northwest suburban area.

A region which is poor in natural resources must make the most of unpretentious assets that might be scorned elsewhere. Thus, in our area, streams such as Buffalo Creek, McDonald Creek and Salt Creek are important. The good news is that some municipalities are acting to incorporate these creeks as part of their park and recreation systems.

Wheeling Community Council has adopted as one of its projects for 1966 a plan to preserve Buffalo Creek as a nature area. The council hopes that hiking and bicycling paths will be built along the creek. Park and village officials have given encouragement to the idea and the council hopes to arouse public support.

Arlington Heights is moving toward a similar plan for McDonald Creek, which runs through the north side of the village.

A special committee of the Arlington Heights Plan Commission has recommended adoption of a flood damage prevention law forbidding home-building within the flood plain of McDonald Creek. The aim is to develop open land thus preserved into a parkway system, with adequate public access.

Last Wednesday night in Schaumburg the annual meeting of the North Cook County Soil and Water Conservation Commission heard a speaker urge similar planning for Salt Creek, which runs through northwest suburban communities from Palatine to Addison.

The speaker was Jack Schaefer, water expert for the Northeast Illinois Planning Commission. He noted that at least 500 homes are liable to flooding from Salt Creek and called for prompt planning to prevent future construction in the flood plain and to develop the Salt Creek watershed with retention basins, artificial lakes, and recreation areas. Forest preserves and soil and water conservation districts are sponsoring such a plan for the Salt Creek basin.

All these plans are in harmony with the goals of the master plan for recreation in Illinois, which was presented last December at a two-day conference at Illinois Beach State Park. The report given there called for "a system of hiking, cycling and bridle trails" along rivers, streams and abandoned railroad rights-of-way in the metropolitan region.

These developments represent a breakaway from frequent past practices which allowed building in flood plains with resulting heavy property damage and the sacrifice of fine potential recreation resources.

"Water management does not depend on Federal action; it must be done with good, active local leadership," Schaefer told last Wednesday's meeting in Schaumburg.

We see signs that such local leadership is active. It deserves citizen support, for unless action is taken now, the chance to use our streams for the dual purpose of flood control and recreation may be lost forever.

The Issue of Federal Aid

Both critics and supporters of Federal aid to education sometimes tend to oversimplify their opposition or support.

With school board elections coming in April, we can expect to hear the issue discussed frequently. Let us hope the discussion is pitched on a realistic plane which recognizes the complexity of the subject.

Some forms of Federal school aid are clearly justified. An example is aid to school districts in "federally impacted" areas. Such an area might be one containing a military installation, with many children of military personnel attending schools. We have never heard any disagreement with this form of subsidy.

But as new programs of Federal aid have emerged, new questions have arisen:

Did postwar problems in science and diplomacy justify Federal aid to schools in the fields of science and languages, or could local school boards have been relied on to close any gaps?

Are big city school boards able to cope with the educational problems of deprived minorities with their own resources?

If antiquated state laws and unresponsive legislatures deny schools adequate financing, can the home owners make up the difference through increased property taxes?

Can areas of rapid population growth maintain quality education in the face of soaring enrollments?

These are just some of the questions related to Federal aid.

Recently, the National School Boards Association sponsored regional conferences on the question "Challenges Facing Lay Control of Public Education."

Its journal lists the following consensus statements prepared by participants:

—Education is a "local function"—policy decisions should be made close to home and both professional educators and school boards should be involved in planning new legislation.

—Education is a "state responsibility"—state education agencies must be strengthened and state school board associations should engage in legislative activity.

—Education is a "federal concern"—needed is more general aid and less categorical aid to education; Federal aid programs should be channeled through the state educational agency.

These statements suggest that the answer to the Federal aid dilemma is in realizing that all three levels have a stake in our public schools and the important thing is the relationship of these three levels.

If local, state and federal officials agree on educational goals and each level is willing to shoulder its responsibility for meeting them, we think natural relationships can be worked out which will end the divisive aspect of Federal aid.

P.R. Impact On History

by BOB CUMMINS
Staff Writer

A West Coast public relations firm has been hired to quarterback the campaign for a Constitutional amendment to undo the Supreme Court's one-man, one-vote decision.

The same firm was successful previously in a campaign to defeat a compulsory health insurance program offered by the Truman administration.

Some persons are disturbed at the thought the voters may be unaware of massive and systematic campaigns to influence them on matters of national concern.

I like to look at the other side of the coin, however, and see how much better things might have been if professional public relations firms had been more active throughout our nation's history.

CUMMINS

The adoption of the Constitution was a prolonged and painful process. Madison and Hamilton and the others spent years writing the Federalist Papers, guiding the wearying sessions of the Continental Congress, battling for adoption of the Constitution in the different colonies.

WITH THE RIGHT public relations firm, the Constitution could have been sold more effectively. A series of jingles could have been written and set to music, one on freedom of speech, others on freedon of worship, against bills of attainder, against ex post facto laws, etc. These could have been taught to the great performers of the day — the colonial counterparts of Teresa Brewer and the Righteous Brothers — who could have plugged them in the taverns.

What a burden that would have lifted from the backs of our Founding Fathers!

Using subliminal techniques of influencing public opinion could have had beneficial effects at crucial historical moments. Take the case of General Custer. If only he could have had a good public relations man on his staff, to sneak into the Sioux camp when they were doing their war dance, he and his men might not have been massacred.

THE P.R. MAN could have used subliminal equipment to broadcast silently to the warlike Sioux the message, "You never had it so good." I can almost hear the message now, mingling with the beat of the tom toms . . .

You never had it so good,
you never had it so good,
the beat of the tom toms,
the beat of the tom toms,
you never had it so good . . .

You never had it so good,
you never had it so good,
the beat of the tom toms,
the beat of the tom toms,
you never had it so good . . .

Before the war dance was finished, braves would have gone up to Sitting Bull and told him, "Chief, let's call off this Little Big Horn rumble. After all . . . we never had it so good!"

ONE OF THE tragedies of our history was John Brown's raid on the arsenal at Harper's Ferry. This ardent abolitionist paid with his life for his drastic scheme of seizing the Federal arsenal to obtain arms for slaves in their freedom fight.

Good public relations work could have prevented this. If John Brown and his men could have had the opportunity of saving green stamps and trading them in at some convenient redemption center for weapons, they wouldn't have been tempted to raid Harper's Ferry and John Brown wouldn't have hanged.

So let's give our public relations men a chance. Perhaps it is through them that we will realize the American Dream.

Speak Up!

Power for Women?

By HOWARD HARMENING
Staff Writer

Residents of the northwest suburbs are split in their opinions on designation of Mrs. Indira Gandhi as India's new prime minister.

Although some feel she may have some disadvantages because of her sex, two respondents think that, as daughter of the late Jawahrial Nehru, the problems will be minimized.

Harmening

Most, however, felt that she wouldn't gain any special advantages as a woman in either domestic or international dealings.

SOME RESIDENTS, too, feel the change in India will be made without incident.

Mrs. Louis Bellamy, 110 Kankakee Lane, Roselle, for example, said:

"I don't think she'll have any advantage in being a woman, but I don't think there will be any disadvantages either.

"Most people look at a job like that without concern whether it's held by a man or a woman. It doesn't make any difference. It's the brain that's important."

MRS. SAM FLINT, 550 Banbury, Arlington Heights, also foresees little difficulty.

"I think her countrymen will stand back of her since they elected her," she said. "When she's dealing with other world leaders, she'll be representing her country and I believe she'll be accepted in that role."

Mrs. Thomas E. Graves, 738 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, however, took a different approach in predicting some difficulties:

"Just being a woman, I'm sure she would have some problems. Her election is something new and different; people aren't used to having a woman for a leader."

Mrs. Donald B. Martin, 412 Cedarcrest, Streamwood, also thought Mrs. Gandhi's sex presents some problems, but added she believed Nehru's image will ease the transition.

"SOME YEARS ago," she said, "I don't think the people would have accepted her. She would have had some difficulties in dealing with them. Being the daughter of Nehru, though, should help her, along with her familiarity and experience in politics."

Mrs. Martin added she thought Mrs. Gandhi wouldn't "have any special advantages in being a woman, but possibly being so close to her father will give her some."

Lawrence E. Pitzer, 332 Newport Road, Hoffman Estates, said he didn't believe the Indian people are ready for a woman leader.

"To my knowledge," he explained, "this is the first time a woman has played a leadership role like this in India, and I don't know whether the country will accept her. If it had happened in the U.S., I'm sure there wouldn't be any problem."

"I DON'T THINK she'll have any difficulties dealing with other world leaders, though," Pitzer continued. "She'll have as many aides as they will, so she shouldn't be at any disadvantage."

As for any advantages, Pitzer said he didn't think there were any: "If a person can handle a job, it doesn't make any difference if it's handled by a woman or a man. I personally think she can handle the job."

Mrs. Wayne H. Sanders, 134 Tanglewood, Elk Grove Village, foresees some problems for Mrs. Gandhi, but believes she'll have some advantages both because of her sex and her relationship to Nehru.

"I imagine it probably will create problems," she explained. "None under her probably will accept all of her orders as willingly as they would from a man. In this country, women have been taking more responsible positions, but frankly I don't know how they are in India."

"PEOPLE WHO looked up to her father, though," she continued, "will probably look up to her also. Sometimes, too, a woman has a little more insight than a man. Either of these could be an advantage."

Unlike the other respondents, Mrs. Sanders believes Mrs. Gandhi will experience some problems in dealing with the leaders of other countries.

"If she proves herself after the first few meetings, though," she added, "she'll probably be accepted then. Here again, I think her father, who preceded her, probably smoothed the way."

The Viet Nam Dilemma

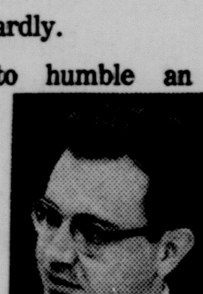
By DAN BAUMANN
Staff Writer

Our bombing "pause" it seems has failed.

The Reds have failed to to come crawling, begging for an end to the war in Viet Nam. They have failed to wire President Johnson their humble thanks for stopping the bombing of North Viet Nam.

Surprise? Hardly.

The way to humble an enemy is to weaken him, if past experience is any indication, not to offer him little kindnesses.



BAUMANN

Maybe Johnson had to offer Hanoi a chance to say "Uncle" to satisfy U.S. and world opinion that we don't like war. I doubt it.

WE HAD TO be dragged, kicking, into this nasty "little" war. If the rest of the world has failed to understand our reluctance to get involved, the communists haven't.

It is they we have to convince of our determination to see it through, not the rest of the world.

I franky had doulbts about our involvement in Viet Nam. Still have. If the country wants to go communist—and reliable people say a free election would go to the Reds—that's their business.

But we did get involved, and we are involved. And we say we have solid proof Hanoi has involved its troops in large numbers.

WE ARE AT war, and the only way to end it is by a settlement that will guarantee, at least, that the politics of South Viet Nam are not determined by Hanoi.

Our government decided almost a year ago that the way to discourage Hanoi from remaining in the war was by bombing her. Maybe that isn't a strong enough deterrent. But it hasn't been fully tried.

Something else we apparently haven't tried fully is to convince the prople of South Viet Nam that a democratic regime is in their best interests. We have available to us a million levers to get the South Viet Nam dictatorship to broaden its base of support, to begin building a democratic spirit, to reform the country's ills.

WE'VE FAILED to use that leverage effectively. About all we have done is to neutralize the major dissenting factions, outside the Viet Cong.

It's a bad war, full of tough problems with no easy answers.

The failures of our policies aren't as black as they sound, however. Probably no one's fought a war quite like it. It's full of tough problems with no easy answers.

Like they say, we apparently aren't loosing it at the same rate we were a year ago. Let's keep it that way by waiting for solid word from Hanoi before we ease the pressure.

Q. At what age does the baptism of a baby properly take place?

A. This is flexible. In some faiths this is expected to take place before the infant is a month old. In others, age does not enter the matter and the ceremony may take place at any time.

Q. When a toastmaster calls for an impromptu speech from a guest, how long should that guest talk?

A. For not more than about three minutes or so.

Suburbs Take Lead In Saving Streams

Several separate but related steps have been taken in recent weeks toward preserving and developing some of the limited natural resources of the northwest suburban area.

A region which is poor in natural resources must make the most of unpretentious assets that might be scorned elsewhere. Thus, in our area, streams such as Buffalo Creek, McDonald Creek and Salt Creek are important. The good news is that some municipalities are acting to incorporate these creeks as part of their park and recreation systems.

Wheeling Community Council has adopted as one of its projects for 1966 a plan to preserve Buffalo Creek as a nature area. The council hopes that hiking and bicycling paths will be built along the creek. Park and village officials have given encouragement to the idea and the council hopes to arouse public support.

Arlington Heights is moving toward a similar plan for McDonald Creek, which runs through the north side of the village.

A special committee of the Arlington Heights Plan Commission has recommended adoption of a flood damage prevention law forbidding homebuilding within the flood plain of McDonald Creek. The aim is to develop open land thus preserved into a parkway system, with adequate public access.

Last Wednesday night in Schaumburg the annual meeting of the North Cook County Soil and Water Conservation Commission heard a speaker urge similar planning for Salt Creek, which runs through northwest suburban communities from Palatine to Addison.

The speaker was Jack Schaefer, water expert for the Northeast Illinois Planning Commission. He noted that at least 500 homes are liable to flooding from Salt Creek and called for prompt planning to prevent future construction in the flood plain and to develop the Salt Creek watershed with retention basins, artificial lakes, and recreation areas. Forest preserves and soil and water conservation districts are sponsoring such a plan for the Salt Creek basin.

All these plans are in harmony with the goals of the master plan for recreation in Illinois, which was presented last December at a two-day conference at Illinois Beach State Park. The report given there called for "a system of hiking, cycling and bridle trails" along rivers, streams and abandoned railroad rights-of-way in the metropolitan region.

These developments represent a breakaway from frequent past practices which allowed building in flood plains with resulting heavy property damage and the sacrifice of fine potential recreation resources.

"Water management does not depend on Federal action; it must be done with good, active local leadership," Schaefer told last Wednesday's meeting in Schaumburg.

We see signs that such local leadership is active. It deserves citizen support, for unless action is taken now, the chance to use our streams for the dual purpose of flood control and recreation may be lost forever.

The Issue of Federal Aid

Both critics and supporters of Federal aid to education sometimes tend to oversimplify their opposition or support.

With school board elections coming in April, we can expect to hear the issue discussed frequently. Let us hope the discussion is pitched on a realistic plane which recognizes the complexity of the subject.

Some forms of Federal school aid are clearly justified. An example is aid to school districts in "federally impacted" areas. Such an area might be one containing a military installation, with many children of military personnel attending schools. We have never heard any disagreement with this form of subsidy.

But as new programs of Federal aid have emerged, new questions have arisen:

Did postwar problems in science and diplomacy justify Federal aid to schools in the fields of science and languages, or could local school boards have been relied on to close any gaps?

Are big city school boards able to cope with the educational problems of deprived minorities with their own resources?

If antiquated state laws and unresponsive legislatures deny schools adequate financing, can the home owners make up the difference through increased property taxes?

Can areas of rapid population growth maintain quality education in the face of soaring enrollments?

These are just some of the questions related to Federal aid.

Recently, the National School Boards Association sponsored regional conferences on the question "Challenges Facing Lay Control of Public Education."

Its journal lists the following consensus statements prepared by participants:

—Education is a "local function"—policy decisions should be made close to home and both professional educators and school boards should be involved in planning new legislation.

—Education is a "state responsibility"—state education agencies must be strengthened and state school board associations should engage in legislative activity.

—Education is a "federal concern"—needed is more general aid and less categorical aid to education; Federal aid programs should be channeled through the state educational agency.

These statements suggest that the answer to the Federal aid dilemma is in realizing that all three levels have a stake in our public schools and the important thing is the relationship of these three levels.

If local, state and federal officials agree on educational goals and each level is willing to shoulder its responsibility for meeting them, we think natural relationships can be worked out which will end the divisive aspect of Federal aid.

P.R. Impact On History

by BOB CUMMINS
Staff Writer

A West Coast public relations firm has been hired to quarterback the campaign for a Constitutional amendment to undo the Supreme Court's one-man, one-vote decision.

The same firm was successful previously in a campaign to defeat a compulsory health insurance program offered by the Truman administration.

Some persons are disturbed at the thought the voters may be unaware of massive and systematic campaigns to influence them on matters of national concern.

CUMMINS

I like to look at the other side of the coin, however, and see how much better things might have been if professional public relations firms had been more active throughout our nation's history.

The adoption of the Constitution was a prolonged and painful process. Madison and Hamilton and the others spent years writing the Federalist Papers, guiding the wearying sessions of the Continental Congress, battling for adoption of the Constitution in the different colonies.

WITH THE RIGHT public relations firm, the Constitution could have been sold more effectively. A series of jingles could have been written and set to music, one on freedom of speech, others on freedon of worship, against bills of attainder, against ex post facto laws, etc. These could have been taught to the great performers of the day — the colonial counterparts of Teresa Brewer and the Righteous Brothers — who could have plugged them in the taverns.

What a burden that would have lifted from the backs of our Founding Fathers!

Using subliminal techniques of influencing public opinion could have had beneficial effects at crucial historical moments. Take the case of General Custer. If only he could have had a good public relations man on his staff, to sneak into the Sioux camp when they were doing their war dance, he and his men might not have been massacred.

THE P.R. MAN could have used subliminal equipment to broadcast silently to the warlike Sioux the message, "You never had it so good." I can almost hear the message now, mingling with the beat of the tom toms . . .

You never had it so good,
you never had it so good,
the beat of the tom toms,
the beat of the tom toms,
you never had it so good . . .

You never had it so good,
you never had it so good,
the beat of the tom toms,
the beat of the tom toms,
you never had it so good . . .

Before the war dance was finished, braves would have gone up to Sitting Bull and told him, "Chief, let's call off this Little Big Horn rumble. After all . . . we never had it so good!"

ONE OF THE tragedies of our history was John Brown's raid on the arsenal at Harper's Ferry. This ardent abolitionist paid with his life for his drastic scheme of seizing the Federal arsenal to obtain arms for slaves in their freedom fight.

Good public relations work could have prevented this. If John Brown and his men could have had the opportunity of saving green stamps and trading them in at some convenient redemption center for weapons, they wouldn't have been tempted to raid Harper's Ferry and John Brown wouldn't have hanged.

So let's give our public relations men a chance. Perhaps it is through them that we will realize the American Dream.

Power for Women?

By HOWARD HARMENING
Staff Writer

Residents of the northwest suburbs are split in their opinions on designation of Mrs. Indira Gandhi as India's new prime minister.

Harmening

Although some feel she may have some disadvantages because of her sex, two respondents think that, as daughter of the late Jawahrial Nehru, the problems will be minimized.

Most, however, felt that she wouldn't gain any special advantages as a woman in either domestic or international dealings.

SOME RESIDENTS, too, feel the change in India will be made without incident.

Mrs. Louis Bellamy, 110 Kankakee Lane, Roselle, for example, said:

"I don't think she'll have any advantage in being a woman, but I don't think there will be any disadvantages either.

"Most people look at a job like that without concern whether it's held by a man or a woman. It doesn't make any difference. It's the brain that's important."

MRS. SAM FLINT, 550 Banbury, Arlington Heights, also foresees little difficulty.

"I think her countrymen will stand back of her since they elected her," she said. "When she's dealing with other world leaders, she'll be representing her country and I believe she'll be accepted in that role."

Mrs. Thomas E. Graves, 738 S. Dunton, Arlington Heights, however, took a different approach in predicting some difficulties:

"Just being a woman, I'm sure she would have some problems. Her election is something new and different; people aren't used to having a woman for a leader."

Mrs. Donald B. Martin, 412 Cedarcrest, Streamwood, also thought Mrs. Gandhi's sex presents some problems, but added she believed Nehru's image will ease the transition.

"SOME YEARS ago," she said, "I don't think the people would have accepted her. She would have had some difficulties in dealing with them. Being the daughter of Nehru, though, should help her, along with her familiarity and experience in politics."

Mrs. Martin added she thought Mrs. Gandhi wouldn't "have any special advantages in being a woman, but possibly being so close to her father will give her some."

Lawrence E. Pitzer, 332 Newport Road, Hoffman Estates, said he didn't believe the Indian people are ready for a woman leader.

Tells Background of Decisions On Proposed 6th High School

The forthcoming referendum for High School District 214 will be cause for considerable discussion. There will be the usual opposition for all the usual reasons. Posed against these reasons stands the clear and present requirement, about which there can really be little debate, that unless this school is built there is no alternative but to reduce the quality and efficiency of the educational program.

While there may be legitimate questions about the necessity of certain features of the proposed building, confidence should be established by the fact that a group of over 80 citizens of the district devoted innumerable hours in many meetings to analyze the statistical evidences of growth and needs.

This group had no axe to grind; they were not handpicked to put a blessing on every request of the school board, teaching staff, or administration; they were volunteers responding to a public plea to give of their time and make the recommendations they became convinced were necessary. Hard decisions and judgments were made every step of the way and preliminary plans were cut back and revised many times.

The result of their deliberations were overwhelmingly in favor of two new departures in the construction of this school. First, that this would be a comprehensive high school like all other schools in the district, but that it should make special provision for the expansion and enrichment of the curriculum in vocational education. This decision recognized the increasing urgency to strengthen this aspect of the educational offering in the district.

Second, that the academic and administrative sections only of the building should be air-conditioned. Rather than costly frill, the committee's studies indicated that this facility could be provided at no increase in cost over traditional construction because of compensating savings in other areas of construction and maintenance. Further, the growing trend toward year-round use of school facilities with summer school becoming the pattern for ever-increasing numbers, clearly indicates that we must begin now to provide climate control in specific areas of all new construction.

There will be a sufficient outpouring of statistics and surveys to illustrate the need for this school. However, many people become confused by these and are unable to read into such figures the really meaningful heart of the decision to be made.

Since 1955 when the decision was made by an advisory group to enlarge Arlington as well as build Prospect, each new school has been approved only after study and recommendation by such advisory committees.

During these years of our continuing growth we have constantly enhanced the reputation of our high school district as one which offers a truly quality program atuned to the wide range of aspirations, needs, and abilities of the families in this district. We can and should take intense pride in having a secondary system which ranks among the finest not only in

Over these years we have made a tremendous investment in all of the attributes, both physical and human, which constitute our school district. Each taxpayer in each of the several communities which comprise this largest district in the state outside of Chicago—each of us has contributed to providing this excellence in education not only for the high school in our own locale, but also for the other schools outside our immediate community. Because we have done this for all schools, we have been able to consistently improve the quality of educating in the school to which we send our own children.

The people of this district have over these past years made, and consistently reasserted a deep commitment to excellence in their high schools. The Feb. 5 referendum offers each of us the opportunity, indeed, the privilege of again asserting that we are both willing and able to keep this commitment. I think we dare not retract this huge investment and historical dedication already made to excellence in education. A "yes vote" on Feb. 5 will assure that the commitment will be met and kept for our own children as well as those to come in future years.

Negro Speaker Articulate on Poverty Issue

Education as an antidote to poverty was the theme of an address by Mr. David Jones at the January meeting of the Arlington branch of the A. A. U. W. last Thursday evening. Mr. Jones was the most knowledgeable and articulate speaker I have ever had the pleasure to hear. His advanced degrees, awards, and contributions to society are more than impressive, but, the real education he brought to a sophisticated audience came from the fact that he was a Negro.

One of 10 children from a poor Chicago slum family, he attributed his success to the day when, as a teen-ager, he came off the streets and into the Friendship House. Now, he is president of the board of that organization.

BECAUSE MOST of the audience was comprised of busy wives and mothers, many of the statistics he quoted may have been forgotten as the evening ended, but the slice of the truths of life that were his from experience were not forgotten. Mr. Jones was an antidote to the ignorance and complacency of the suburban housewives in attendance at the meeting. It is time that we admit that there is much to learn from the other races.

If more women were fortunate enough to hear representatives like Mr. Jones the day might arrive when instead of seeing Negroes merely as another subcultured race, we would realize out guilt in their plight, and see them as individuals worthy of respect.

The Arlington Heights branch of the A. A. U. W. heard a Negro man speak last week who surprised them by making them feel ignorant.

Predicts Jolt When Tax Bills Come in Spring

Although we are living in a land of plenty, a lot of our grand people are complaining, and the people who think they have a reason to complain today are going to find a lot more reason to complain as time goes on.

When our tax bills come along in the spring, the people are going to get a little jolt, and as the people are asking for more, more and still more from our state, the state will have to add more taxes to our bill, and we may expect a state income tax, which in turn, will mean another jolt. And if the price of food keeps going up, there will be another jolt.

People should not blame the government, but should blame themselves if things get out of line. The least they can do is go to the polls and vote.

Q. When one is eating in a restaurant where small butter pats are served in little paper containers, is it all right to let the knife rest on the pat when not in use?

A. Never. The knife, when not in use, should rest along the upper part of the plate.

Q. Is it proper, when at the dinner table, to take another helping of a certain dish when you still have some of that particular food left on your plate?

A. There's nothing wrong with this, especially when you know that you will avoid unnecessary passing later — and when there is plenty of that food left.

University Aide Praises District 214

High School District 214 is considered one of the most outstanding in the state of Illinois and is rapidly gaining national stature for its innovative and creative efforts leading to educational excellence.

Having been on the undergraduate admissions committees at both Northwestern University and Illinois State University, I can attest to the quality of the secondary school graduates from the schools in the district.

The secondary school programs are known not only as having the best elements of traditional subject matter but their programs have kept pace with the best in contemporary program change so that a boy or girl graduating from a District 214 school is assured of every advantage when he submits his credentials to scrutiny by colleges and universities across the country.

Not only is the academic programs are known not only as student personnel services are among the finest in the United States. For some years many have consistently ranked the Arlington counseling program along with schools such as Evanston, New Trier, and Glenview in Illinois, Mt. Lebanon in Pittsburgh and Washington and Lee in Arlington, Virginia.

On Feb. 5, 1966, the citizens of the area have been asked to consider a sixth high school. It appears to me that this new school is essential if District 214 is to maintain an outstanding educational program. It is my understanding that an 86-member lay citizens' committee, which included residents from all areas of the district, has endorsed the coming referendum. I feel sure that the enlightened citizenry of the district will recognize the urgency of this new proposal and respond overwhelmingly in favor of continued educational excellence.

Our belated thanks to the very efficient Mount Prospect firemen who took such excellent care of our daughter, Mary Beth, on Jan. 12 when she fell and broke her ankle.

They worked quickly and proficiently; no fumbling around or red tape, etc., just "angels" when help was needed badly. More perfect gentlemen I've yet to meet. Their help and reassurance that all would be well was a great comfort.

Got bless them always, and may He spare them from harm.

Generally speaking we have no complaints about the Paddock paper. You do an excellent job in most respects. Your one deficiency would appear to be in the sport which we are most interested in, namely — track.

Your coverage of the Turkey Trot was very poor. You sponsor no track events of any sort. Yet it is a sport where there are more individual competitors than in most other fields.

Aside from the foregoing comments we are more than happy with the job your staff is doing Thank you for the opportunity of expressing our views on the subject.

Tells Background of Decisions On Proposed 6th High School

The forthcoming referendum for High School District 214 will be cause for considerable discussion. There will be the usual opposition for all the usual reasons. Posed against these reasons stands the clear and present requirement, about which there can really be little debate, that unless this school is built there is no alternative but to reduce the quality and efficiency of the educational program.

While there may be legitimate questions about the necessity of certain features of the proposed building, confidence should be established by the fact that a group of over 80 citizens of the district devoted innumerable hours in many meetings to analyze the statistical evidences of growth and needs.

This group had no axe to grind; they were not handpicked to put a blessing on every request of the school board, teaching staff, or administration; they were volunteers responding to a public plea to give of their time and make the recommendations they became convinced were necessary. Hard decisions and judgments were made every step of the way and preliminary plans were cut back and revised many times.

The result of their deliberations were overwhelmingly in favor of two new departures in the construction of this school. First, that this would be a comprehensive high school like all other schools in the district, but that it should make special provision for the expansion and enrichment of the curriculum in vocational education. This decision recognized the increasing urgency to strengthen this aspect of the educational offering in the district.

Second, that the academic and administrative sections only of the building should be air-conditioned. Rather than costly frill, the committee's studies indicated that this facility could be provided at no increase in cost over traditional construction because of compensating savings in other areas of construction and maintenance. Further, the growing trend toward year-round use of school facilities with summer school becoming the pattern for ever-increasing numbers, clearly indicates that we must begin now to provide climate control in specific areas of all new construction.

There will be a sufficient outpouring of statistics and surveys to illustrate the need for this school. However, many people become confused by these and are unable to read into such figures the really meaningful heart of the decision to be made.

Since 1955 when the decision was made by an advisory group to enlarge Arlington as well as build Prospect, each new school has been approved only after study and recommendation by such advisory committees.

During these years of our continuing growth we have constantly enhanced the reputation of our high school district as one which offers a truly quality program atuned to the wide range of aspirations, needs, and abilities of the families in this district. We can and should take intense pride in having a secondary system which ranks among the finest not only in

Over these years we have made a tremendous investment in all of the attributes, both physical and human, which constitute our school district. Each taxpayer in each of the several communities which comprise this largest district in the state outside of Chicago—each of us has contributed to providing this excellence in education not only for the high school in our own locale, but also for the other schools outside our immediate community. Because we have done this for all schools, we have been able to consistently improve the quality of educating in the school to which we send our own children.

The people of this district have over these past years made, and consistently reasserted a deep commitment to excellence in their high schools. The Feb. 5 referendum offers each of us the opportunity, indeed, the privilege of again asserting that we are both willing and able to keep this commitment. I think we dare not retract this huge investment and historical dedication already made to excellence in education. A "yes vote" on Feb. 5 will assure that the commitment will be met and kept for our own children as well as those to come in future years.

Negro Speaker Articulate on Poverty Issue

Education as an antidote to poverty was the theme of an address by Mr. David Jones at the January meeting of the Arlington branch of the A. A. U. W. last Thursday evening. Mr. Jones was the most knowledgeable and articulate speaker I have ever had the pleasure to hear. His advanced degrees, awards, and contributions to society are more than impressive, but, the real education he brought to a sophisticated audience came from the fact that he was a Negro.

One of 10 children from a poor Chicago slum family, he attributed his success to the day when, as a teen-ager, he came off the streets and into the Friendship House. Now, he is president of the board of that organization.

BECAUSE MOST of the audience was comprised of busy wives and mothers, many of the statistics he quoted may have been forgotten as the evening ended, but the slice of the truths of life that were his from experience were not forgotten. Mr. Jones was an antidote to the ignorance and complacency of the suburban housewives in attendance at the meeting. It is time that we admit that there is much to learn from the other races.

If more women were fortunate enough to hear representatives like Mr. Jones the day might arrive when instead of seeing Negroes merely as another subcultured race, we would realize out guilt in their plight, and see them as individuals worthy of respect.

The Arlington Heights branch of the A. A. U. W. heard a Negro man speak last week who surprised them by making them feel ignorant.

Predicts Jolt When Tax Bills Come in Spring

Although we are living in a land of plenty, a lot of our grand people are complaining, and the people who think they have a reason to complain today are going to find a lot more reason to complain as time goes on.

When our tax bills come along in the spring, the people are going to get a little jolt, and as the people are asking for more, more and still more from our state, the state will have to add more taxes to our bill, and we may expect a state income tax, which in turn, will mean another jolt. And if the price of food keeps going up, there will be another jolt.

People should not blame the government, but should blame themselves if things get out of line. The least they can do is go to the polls and vote.

Q. When one is eating in a restaurant where small butter pats are served in little paper containers, is it all right to let the knife rest on the pat when not in use?

A. Never. The knife, when not in use, should rest along the upper part of the plate.

Q. Is it proper, when at the dinner table, to take another helping of a certain dish when you still have some of that particular food left on your plate?

A. There's nothing wrong with this, especially when you know that you will avoid unnecessary passing later — and when there is plenty of that food left.

Junior Miss Finalist Sends Letter of Thanks

Thank you and all of your wonderful people at Paddock Publications from the bottom of my heart for affording me the opportunity to compete in the Illinois Junior Miss Pageant.

This will, indeed, be an experience I will never forget — the excitement of participating in the pageant, the honor of placing as a finalist, and the joy of meeting and making so many wonderful, new friends. Thank you.

Thank you also for the lovely cologne and the note of best wishes. Your thoughtfulness gave me a vote of confidence.

University Aide Praises District 214

High School District 214 is considered one of the most outstanding in the state of Illinois and is rapidly gaining national stature for its innovative and creative efforts leading to educational excellence.

Having been on the undergraduate admissions committees at both Northwestern University and Illinois State University, I can attest to the quality of the secondary school graduates from the schools in the district.

The secondary school programs are known not only as having the best elements of traditional subject matter but their programs have kept pace with the best in contemporary program change so that a boy or girl graduating from a District 214 school is assured of every advantage when he submits his credentials to scrutiny by colleges and universities across the country.

Not only is the academic programs are known not only as student personnel services are among the finest in the United States. For some years many have consistently ranked the Arlington counseling program along with schools such as Evanston, New Trier, and Glenview in Illinois, Mt. Lebanon in Pittsburgh and Washington and Lee in Arlington, Virginia.

On Feb. 5, 1966, the citizens of the area have been asked to consider a sixth high school. It appears to me that this new school is essential if District 214 is to maintain an outstanding educational program. It is my understanding that an 86-member lay citizens' committee, which included residents from all areas of the district, has endorsed the coming referendum. I feel sure that the enlightened citizenry of the district will recognize the urgency of this new proposal and respond overwhelmingly in favor of continued educational excellence.

Pays Tribute To Firemen For Quick Aid

Our belated thanks to the very efficient Mount Prospect firemen who took such excellent care of our daughter, Mary Beth, on Jan. 12 when she fell and broke her ankle.

They worked quickly and proficiently; no fumbling around or red tape, etc., just "angels" when help was needed badly. More perfect gentlemen I've yet to meet. Their help and reassurance that all would be well was a great comfort.

Got bless them always, and may He spare them from harm.

Reader Wants More News on Track Sports

Generally speaking we have no complaints about the Paddock paper. You do an excellent job in most respects. Your one deficiency would appear to be in the sport which we are most interested in, namely — track.

Your coverage of the Turkey Trot was very poor. You sponsor no track events of any sort. Yet it is a sport where there are more individual competitors than in most other fields.

Aside from the foregoing comments we are more than happy with the job your staff is doing Thank you for the opportunity of expressing our views on the subject.

William F. Euker
Arlington Heights

EDITOR'S NOTE: Reader evidently missed seeing the pic and story on the sports page the week before the Turkey Trot in Mount Prospect and the story in sports section and pic in front section immediately following the event. It is true we sponsor no track events, but our Prep Track Honor Roll and selection of an All-State track team put the spotlight on high school track. (FP

A MESSAGE TO CLASSIFIED USERS

Before you call an ad-visor to place your

PADDOCK PUBLICATIONS AD

consider this:

You are about to invest money for an ad and you are entitled to get results. To accomplish this it is necessary for you to TELL ALL about the details of your offer. Be sure you don't make any of the following errors that prevent results:

1. DON'T OMIT THE ADDRESS

Many out-of-town readers will write you, but will not spend money for a long distance call.

2. DON'T OMIT THE PHONE NUMBER

Many readers will call you but do not find it convenient to come to your home.

3. DON'T USE BLIND BOX NUMBERS

Avoid them if at all possible. They are difficult to answer and many people are suspicious of them.

4. DON'T CONCEAL THE PRICE DESIRED

Surveys show that a high percentage of readers will not answer an ad unless the price is given.

5. DON'T LEAVE HOME ON THE DAYS YOU ADVERTISE

Many good prospects will not call the second time if your phone is unanswered.

6. DON'T OMIT IMPORTANT WORDS TO SAVE MONEY

Readers can't guess on important details. Remember, a well written informative ad will get results faster and amount to much less in the long run.

7. DON'T OVERLOOK OUR LOWER RATE FOR CONSECUTIVE INSERTIONS

You'll get the biggest parade of readers at the lowest price. Your Needs Satisfied thru Paddock Publications Classified.

A MESSAGE TO CLASSIFIED USERS

Before you call an ad-visor to place your

consider this:

You are about to invest money for an ad and you are entitled to get results. To accomplish this it is necessary for you to TELL ALL about the details of your offer. Be sure you don't make any of the following errors that prevent results:

1. DON'T OMIT THE ADDRESS

Many out-of-town readers will write you, but will not spend money for a long distance call.

2. DON'T OMIT THE PHONE NUMBER

Many readers will call you but do not find it convenient to come to your home.

3. DON'T USE BLIND BOX NUMBERS

Avoid them if at all possible. They are difficult to answer and many people are suspicious of them.

4. DON'T CONCEAL THE PRICE DESIRED

Surveys show that a high percentage of readers will not answer an ad unless the price is given.

5. DON'T LEAVE HOME ON THE DAYS YOU ADVERTISE

Many good prospects will not call the second time if your phone is unanswered.

6. DON'T OMIT IMPORTANT WORDS TO SAVE MONEY

Readers can't guess on important details. Remember, a well written informative ad will get results faster and amount to much less in the long run.

7. DON'T OVERLOOK OUR LOWER RATE FOR CONSECUTIVE INSERTIONS

You'll get the biggest parade of readers at the lowest price. Your Needs Satisfied thru Paddock Publications Classified.

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by

BOB FRISK

Sports Editor

Remember That 1948-49 Club? . . .

LLOYD MEYER
He Remembers . . .

There's nothing like a red-hot basketball team to stir some pleasant memories for a sportswriter.

Arlington High School's rampaging Cardinals added two more victims to their growing list last weekend, logging their seventh straight victory and hiking their season standard to a snappy 12-3.

It's no secret that basketball has not been one of the most successful sports at Arlington since 1950 (one stretch of seven straight sub-.500 records), and that's why this current surge has everyone excited.

Regardless of what transpires the rest of the season this 1965-66 outfit has already equalled the best start in school history — 12 victories by as early as January 22.

You have to go back to 1949 to find the last time an Arlington varsity team had bagged 12 victories by the third weekend in January. That 1948-49 club was also 12-3 at an identical stage of the season.

As a follower of area high school sports since the mid-1940s, we have some fond memories of that 1948-49 powerhouse coached by Gene Bell.

Bell had played for Oklahoma A & M when they won the NCAA title and was coached by Hank Iba. Clarence Iba, Hank's brother, coached Arlington before Bell.

Rarely has a high school team in this area been as interesting to watch. This club made defense interesting, checking 27 opponents with an average of 33.7 points per game. They didn't score much but scored enough to chalk up 19 victories in 27 games, losing only one game at home.

This was a small team made even smaller by disciplinary action which put the 6-4 center on the sidelines with five weeks remaining. The "mighty midgets" averaged a shade over 5-8 without the 6-4 boy.

But a superb defense and hustle paid big dividends for Bell's Cardinals who almost achieved one of the most stunning upsets in school annals in the Woodstock Regional.

The Cards carried a 19-7 standard into a regional bout with Elgin High School's touted Maroons, the No. 1 team in Illinois. Despite an impressive record Arlington was a 15-20 point underdog at tip-off time.

Elgin featured a front-line of 6-8 Bob Peterson, 6-3 Bob Survant, and 6-2 Morris Svenson. They were big and strong, rugged rebounders. They featured two lightning-fast guards in Ron Weisner (who later captained Wisconsin) and Carver "Buster" Leach.

And then there were the "mighty midgets" from Arlington. Cardinal coach Bell started a unit of 5-8 Orv Schaeffer and 5-8 Tom Stockdale at forwards, 5-10 Bill Robinson at center, and 5-8 Lloyd Meyer and 5-7 Gordo Busse at guards. Jim Brown (5-8) was the top reserve.

The fans who packed the Woodstock High gymnasium sat back and awaited a rout.

Elgin lived up to its press clippings in the first period, racing out to a 16-8 advantage. But the Cards weren't dead yet.

"Busse (Gordo) got hot in the second quarter," Lloyd Meyer remembers, "and we got back within one point. They still held the lead going into the last period, but we were starting to move."

Peterson, Elgin's 6-8, 230-pound center who went on to play for the University of Illinois, fouled out with four minutes remaining in the game and the Maroons on top, 44-38.

"Peterson hadn't been having one of his best games," Meyer continued, "and Robinson (Arlington's 5-10 center) had held him below his average. But Dick Estergaard, who went on to play at Bradley, came off the bench for Elgin and did a great job in the final minutes."

With one minute remaining Busse, who dialed 17 points in the game, pumped one through from the side to cut the Elgin lead to one point, 48-47. Now, the Maroons were scared and the Cardinal fans were on their feet screaming.

The seconds ticked by. Elgin tried to stall but Busse, who could do no wrong, popped through to steal the basketball.

The clock was moving as Busse whipped a pass to Meyer. Lloyd moved toward the basket and fired a shot from the left of the free throw line.

"I remember saying 'that's in' after I shot," Meyer recalls, "but the ball curled around the basket and came out. They got the rebound and time ran out."

The "mighty midgets" had come within one point of the mighty Elgin Maroons in one of the most memorable games in Arlington High School history.

We can still see Meyer's shot as it headed toward the basket.

There are some games you never forget.

Granite City High School, co-holder of the state wrestling championship with Reavis, sports the biggest prep wrestler to ever compete in Illinois ranks. Louis Hartman stands 6-6 and weighs 377 pounds. He has a 57-inch chest and 50-inch waist. But the big guy can be beaten. He's lost four of 17 bouts.

Ten Years Ago This Week . . .

Arlington suffered its fifth straight loss in West Suburban basketball as Downers Grove posted a 71-63 victory . . . John Sujack had 18 points and Bill Randag 11 for the losers. . . Hinsdale and LaGrange were tied for the conference lead with 9-1 records . . . Arlington and York were tied for the basement at 2-8.

Frosh Gym Win For Cardinals

Arlington's frosh gymnasts registered six firsts and rolled to a 78-54 victory over Wheeling Monday afternoon.

Mike Ericson paced the triumph with firsts on the high bar and parallel bars and a third in tumbling.

Jim Brousseau gained a first on the side horse, second on the parallel bars, and fifth on the parallel bars for Arlington.

Drum (trampoline), Bob Gleichman (rings), and Pete Metz (tumbling) also won for Arlington.

The top Wildcats spots were seconds by Mike Kivland on the tramp, Stu Oakley on the rings, Jeff Shornden on the parallel bars, and Jim Kniskern in tumbling.

Pirates, Falcons To Clash In Key Conference Confrontation

by KEN KNOX

The Mid-Suburban League basketball scramble is something akin to tap-dancing on a tightrope. There's not much room to maneuver.

That's a truth eminently illuminated for the playing and coaching staffs at Palatine and Forest View High Schools. Both can be allowed to entertain certain visions of MSL supremacy, and both realize that a sidestep by either can precipitate a fall to disaster.

The Pirates and the Falcons, mindful of that perilous truth, will meet in direct conflict tomorrow (Friday) night on Palatine's gymnasium floor. Neither team can enter that contest with any thought of losing.

Already, three teams have toppled from the tightrope, and they — Conant (1-2), Maine West (0-3) and Wheeling (0-3) — are tumbling floorward with only scant hope that they can bound back to positions of prominence.

BUT THREE teams remain in good position, edging cautiously toward the terminal point that means domination. One of those three teams — Prospect — is largely responsible for the tenuous nature of the journey. The Knights, now 12-3 with nine consecutive victories, have been rated such a commanding choice for the title in some quarters that the other challengers dare not falter.

Forest View especially will not easily tolerate a defeat to-

Seeks Eighth Straight

Arlington to Visit Bulldog Gym Friday

by BOB FRISK

A revenge-seeking Riverside-Brookfield five, still smarting from a 21-point loss to Arlington in a December visit, gets another crack at the red-hot Cardinals Friday evening.

Coach Ted Wissen will bring his Arlington aggregation into the Bulldog gymnasium for a battle which promises to be more interesting than that first meeting in December.

The Bulldogs were embarrassed in their visit to Arlington. They fell behind by nine points in the first period, saw their floor errors mount, and retired to the dressing room with a 77-56 thumping.

BUT THE HOME floor will be working in Riverside's favor Friday as Arlington seeks to extend its winning streak to eight straight and hike its impressive season record to 13-3.

Wissen, who has seen his Arlington entries win 27 of their last 35 games over two seasons, is worried about the bout with Riverside. He knows the Bulldogs are better than they looked in December.

"We'll have to be ready for a sharp game," Wissen admitted. "They'll be at home and will want to get revenge after that earlier loss. We've got exams this week and you can never tell how our boys will react."

Wissen is also hopeful his charges won't be looking ahead to a home engagement with unbeaten York the following Friday.

ARLINGTON WILL be without the services of junior forward Dave Lockwood for the remainder of the campaign be-

Mixed Loops, Gals Compete

Paddock Events Slated For Saturday, Sunday

A newcomer makes its debut and a veteran makes its 14th appearance this weekend.

The newcomer is the Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap tournament for the mixed leagues. This is the first year for the mixed leagues tourney.

The veteran is the Paddock handicap tournament for the women. The gals have been shooting for Paddock bowling honors on an annual basis since 1953.

Striking Lanes will host the two spectaculars with 675 bowlers displaying their talents over two days at the Mount Prospect layout.

Twenty-seven teams will meet in two squads this Saturday in the tournament for the mixed leagues with 108 teams, a record field, going off in four squads Sunday in the women's event.

AT STAKE for the mixed leagues will be a team trophy, five individual trophies for the winning team, and $450 in estimated prizes.

The gals will be shooting for the team trophy and individual awards and $900 in estimated prizes.

Unofficial results of the tournaments will be posted immediately following the final squads on Saturday and Sunday. These results will be published in detail in the paper, but no prize money will be paid for about three weeks, pending verification of averages and checking of scores.

THE TWO PADDOCK tournaments climax competition since the first week in September when members of every mixed and women's league in the area had the opportunity to enter the meets.

First place teams as of Jan. 1 in the mixed and women's leagues were eligible for the Paddock features.

Records will be established in all departments at the first tourney for mixed leagues, but the gals have had 13 previous tournaments.

TO GIVE BOWLERS an idea on what it may take to win the women's title, the best winning effort in history was a 2767 by Tire Terminal in 1960. The lowest score ever to take top honors was the 2508 by Riviera in 1955.

In the past five years the winning scores have ranged from 2604 to 2719.

If names mean anything, watch out for Roselle Ford in the women's meet. A Roselle Ford-sponsored team won the Paddock men's tournament last weekend at Hoffman Lanes in Hoffman Estates.

ROSELLE FORD of the Mnday Afternoon Ladies league at Bowlwood is set to go off at 12:30 p.m. Sunday in the gals' event.

The stage is set for two more bowling headliners. Striking Lanes in Mount Prospect, located on Route 83 just south of Golf Road, is ready for the assault of the suburban keglers.

The big weekend begins at 3:00 p.m. Saturday . . .

KICKIN' IT AROUND

by BOB FRISK
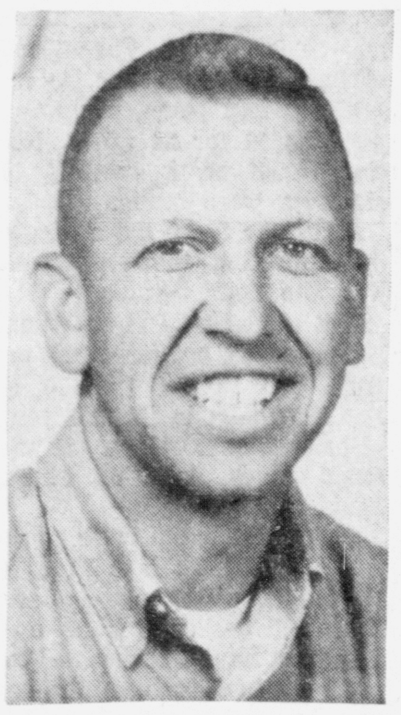
Sports Editor

Remember That 1948-49 Club? . . .



LLOYD MEYER
He Remembers . . .

There's nothing like a red-hot basketball team to stir some pleasant memories for a sportswriter.

Arlington High School's rampaging Cardinals added two more victims to their growing list last weekend, logging their seventh straight victory and hiking their season standard to a snappy 12-3.

It's no secret that basketball has not been one of the most successful sports at Arlington since 1950 (one stretch of seven straight sub-.500 records), and that's why this current surge has everyone excited.

Regardless of what transpires the rest of the season this 1965-66 outfit has already equalled the best start in school history — 12 victories by as early as January 22.

You have to go back to 1949 to find the last time an Arlington varsity team had bagged 12 victories by the third weekend in January. That 1948-49 club was also 12-3 at an identical stage of the season.

As a follower of area high school sports since the mid-1940s, we have some fond memories of that 1948-49 powerhouse coached by Gene Bell.

Bell had played for Oklahoma A & M when they won the NCAA title and was coached by Hank Iba. Clarence Iba, Hank's brother, coached Arlington before Bell.

Rarely has a high school team in this area been as interesting to watch. This club made.. defense interesting, checking 27 opponents with an average of 33.7 points per game. They didn't score much but scored enough to chalk up 19 victories in 27 games, losing only one game at home.

This was a small team made even smaller by disciplinary action which put the 6-4 center on the sidelines with five weeks remaining. The "mighty midgets" averaged a shade over 5-8 without the 6-4 boy.

But a superb defense and hustle paid big dividends for Bell's Cardinals who almost achieved one of the most stunning upsets in school annals in the Woodstock Regional.

The Cards carried a 19-7 standard into a regional bout with Elgin High School's touted Maroons, the No. 1 team in Illinois. Despite an impressive record Arlington was a 15-20 point underdog at tip-off time.

Elgin featured a front-line of 6-8 Bob Peterson, 6-3 Bob Survant, and 6-2 Morris Svenson. They were big and strong, rugged rebounders. They featured two lightning-fast guards in Ron Weisner (who later captained Wisconsin) and Carver "Buster" Leach.

And then there were the "mighty midgets" from Arlington. Cardinal coach Bell started a unit of 5-8 Orv Schaeffer and 5-8 Tom Stockdale at forwards, 5-10 Bill Robinson at center, and 5-8 Lloyd Meyer and 5-7 Gordo Busse at guards. Jim Brown (5-8) was the top reserve.

The fans who packed the Woodstock High gymnasium sat back and awaited a rout.

Elgin lived up to its press clippings in the first period, racing out to a 16-8 advantage. But the Cards weren't dead yet.

"Busse (Gordo) got hot in the second quarter," Lloyd Meyer remembers, "and we got back within one point. They still held the lead going into the last period, but we were starting to move."

Peterson, Elgin's 6-8, 230-pound center who went on to play for the University of Illinois, fouled out with four minutes remaining in the game and the Maroons on top, 44-38.

"Peterson hadn't been having one of his best games," Meyer continued, "and Robinson (Arlington's 5-10 center) had held him below his average. But Dick Estergaard, who went on to play at Bradley, came off the bench for Elgin and did a great job in the final minutes."

With one minute remaining Busse, who dialed 17 points in the game, pumped one through from the side to cut the Elgin lead to one point, 48-47. Now, the Maroons were scared and the Cardinal fans were on their feet screaming.

The seconds ticked by. Elgin tried to stall but Busse, who could do no wrong, popped through to steal the basketball.

The clock was moving as Busse whipped a pass to Meyer. Lloyd moved toward the basket and fired a shot from the left of the free throw line.

"I remember saying 'that's in' after I shot," Meyer recalls, "but the ball curled around the basket and came out. They got the rebound and time ran out."

The "mighty midgets" had come within one point of the mighty Elgin Maroons in one of the most memorable games in Arlington High School history.

We can still see Meyer's shot as it headed toward the basket.

There are some games you never forget.

Granite City High School, co-holder of the state wrestling championship with Reavis, sports the biggest prep wrestler to ever compete in Illinois ranks. Louis Hartman stands 6-6 and weighs 377 pounds. He has a 57-inch chest and 50-inch waist. But the big guy can be beaten. He's lost four of 17 bouts.

Ten Years Ago This Week . . .

Arlington suffered its fifth straight loss in West Suburban basketball as Downers Grove posted a 71-63 victory . . . John Sujack had 18 points and Bill Randag 11 for the losers. . . Hinsdale and LaGrange were tied for the conference lead with 9-1 records . . . Arlington and York were tied for the basement at 2-8.

Frosh Gym Win For Cardinals

Arlington's frosh gymnasts registered six firsts and rolled to a 78-54 victory over Wheeling Monday afternoon.

Mike Ericson paced the triumph with firsts on the high bar and parallel bars and a third in tumbling.

Jim Brousseau gained a first on the side horse, second on the parallel bars, and fifth on the parallel bars for Arlington.

Drum (trampoline), Bob Gleichman (rings), and Pete Metz (tumbling) also won for Arlington.

The top Wildcats spots were seconds by Mike Kivland on the tramp, Stu Oakley on the rings, Jeff Shornden on the parallel bars, and Jim Kniskern in tumbling.

Pirates, Falcons To Clash In Key Conference Confrontation

by KEN KNOX

The Mid-Suburban League basketball scramble is something akin to tap-dancing on a tightrope. There's not much room to maneuver.

That's a truth eminently illuminated for the playing and coaching staffs at Palatine and Forest View High Schools. Both can be allowed to entertain certain visions of MSL supremacy, and both realize that a sidestep by either can precipitate a fall to disaster.

The Pirates and the Falcons, mindful of that perilous truth, will meet in direct conflict tomorrow (Friday) night on Palatine's gymnasium floor. Neither team can enter that contest with any thought of losing.

Already, three teams have toppled from the tightrope, and they — Conant (1-2), Maine West (0-3) and Wheeling (0-3) — are tumbling floorward with only scant hope that they can bound back to positions of prominence.

BUT THREE teams remain in good position, edging cautiously toward the terminal point that means domination. One of those three teams — Prospect — is largely responsible for the tenuous nature of the journey. The Knights, now 12-3 with nine consecutive victories, have been rated such a commanding choice for the title in some quarters that the other challengers dare not falter.

Forest View especially will not easily tolerate a defeat to-

HANDS UP, stretching for rebound are two Falcons and lone Knights cage performers in last Friday's Mid-Suburban League contest. Forest View efforts are handled by Pat Dunnigan (31) and Howie Brasch (53) while Tom Lundstedt (13) takes care of Prospect interests. Brasch was best for his team in the game with 16 points, though Dunnigan added nine, but Lundstedt topped them both with record tying showing at the line and 18 point total.

Seeks Eighth Straight

Arlington to Visit Bulldog Gym Friday

by BOB FRISK

A revenge-seeking Riverside-Brookfield five, still smarting from a 21-point loss to Arlington in a December visit, gets another crack at the red-hot Cardinals Friday evening.

Coach Ted Wissen will bring his Arlington aggregation into the Bulldog gymnasium for a battle which promises to be more interesting than that first meeting in December.

The Bulldogs were embarrassed in their visit to Arlington. They fell behind by nine points in the first period, saw their floor errors mount, and retired to the dressing room with a 77-56 thumping.

BUT THE HOME floor will be working in Riverside's favor Friday as Arlington seeks to extend its winning streak to eight straight and hike its impressive season record to 13-3.

Wissen, who has seen his Arlington entries win 27 of their last 35 games over two seasons, is worried about the bout with Riverside. He knows the Bulldogs are better than they looked in December.

"We'll have to be ready for a sharp game," Wissen admitted. "They'll be at home and will want to get revenge after that earlier loss. We've got exams this week and you can never tell how our boys will react."

Wissen is also hopeful his charges won't be looking ahead to a home engagement with unbeaten York the following Friday.

ARLINGTON WILL be without the services of junior forward Dave Lockwood for the remainder of the campaign be-

Mixed Loops, Gals Compete

Paddock Events Slated For Saturday, Sunday

A newcomer makes its debut and a veteran makes its 14th appearance this weekend.

The newcomer is the Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap tournament for the mixed leagues. This is the first year for the mixed leagues tourney.

The veteran is the Paddock handicap tournament for the women. The gals have been shooting for Paddock bowling honors on an annual basis since 1953.

Striking Lanes will host the two spectaculars with 675 bowlers displaying their talents over two days at the Mount Prospect layout.

Twenty-seven teams will meet in two squads this Saturday in the tournament for the mixed leagues with 108 teams, a record field, going off in four squads Sunday in the women's event.

AT STAKE for the mixed leagues will be a team trophy, five individual trophies for the winning team, and $450 in estimated prizes.

The gals will be shooting for the team trophy and individual awards and $900 in estimated prizes.

Unofficial results of the tournaments will be posted immediately following the final squads on Saturday and Sunday. These results will be published in detail in the paper, but no prize money will be paid for about three weeks, pending verification of averages and checking of scores.

THE TWO PADDOCK tournaments climax competition since the first week in September when members of every mixed and women's league in the area had the opportunity to enter the meets.

First place teams as of Jan. 1 in the mixed and women's leagues were eligible for the Paddock features.

Records will be established in all departments at the first tourney for mixed leagues, but the gals have had 13 previous tournaments.

TO GIVE BOWLERS an idea on what it may take to win the women's title, the best winning effort in history was a 2767 by Tire Terminal in 1960. The lowest score ever to take top honors was the 2508 by Riviera in 1955.

In the past five years the winning scores have ranged from 2604 to 2719.

If names mean anything, watch out for Roselle Ford in the women's meet. A Roselle Ford-sponsored team won the Paddock men's tournament last weekend at Hoffman Lanes in Hoffman Estates.

ROSELLE FORD of the Mnday Afternoon Ladies league at Bowlwood is set to go off at 12:30 p.m. Sunday in the gals' event.

The stage is set for two more bowling headliners. Striking Lanes in Mount Prospect, located on Route 83 just south of Golf Road, is ready for the assault of the suburban keglers.

The big weekend begins at 3:00 p.m. Saturday . . .

Seeking 10th Straight . . .

Knight Quintet Travels To Battle Maine West

by MICHAEL HESS

Like a river's current, any sports rivalry has swift or slow streams, ebbing or flowing as team fortunes rise and fall.

For Prospect cagers the tide of affairs with Maine West may soon be altered for the third time. The two arch enemies meet this weekend.

MW hosts the Knights tomorrow (Friday) night. The Warriors use Maine East's court as their hoop home. They have since first battling Prospect nearly six years ago.

On December 29, 1959, initial action between Knights and Maine forces took place. Prospect came back from a 22-13 deficit at half time to take the contest 38-36 for coach Dick Kinneman and one tide began.

OVER THE following three years Knights crews captured seven straight decisions. Finally, on December 6, 1962, the Warriors came out on top. A 46-38 margin gave headman Gaston Freeman's quintet that first triumph. After Prospect won 46-45 in the next game a second tide was started.

Maine West slipped by the Knights 46-39 in the '63 regional final and has gone on to victory in four encounters the two have had since then. At present the series stands 8-6 in favor of Prospect and that third tide should flow tomorrow.

In outings this season the Knights, with Kinneman still at the helm, own a 12-3 record. Those totals include nine consecutive wins and a 3-0 mark in Mid-Suburban League play. Prospect is tied with Palatine for first among conference entries.

Almost an exact opposite, MW has garnered a lowly 1-12 standard. The Warriors have dropped six in a row and are knotted in the M-SL cellar with Wheeling, both at 0-3. Directing Maine through its worst campaign in school history is mentor Freeman.

WITH THAT AS the background, the Knights should certainly break West's current grasp of control on their rivalry. Surely the third tide, going Prospect's way, will start tomorrow.

A magnificent seven has been responsible for the standout start by the Knights. As interchangeable starters and subs, Tom Lundstedt, J. D. Thorne, Dave Kingman, Tom Beard, Tony Kulasa, Dan Agard and Craig Wolf have pulled Prospect forward. Of those the showing thus far by Lundstedt has been most brilliant.

In 15 games this year Lundstedt has scored 332 points, an average of 22.1. He has hit 115 of 202 goal attempts (56.9 per cent) and 85 of 116 (73.3 per cent) from the line. In addition, the 6-3 junior has pulled down 11 rebounds in each game and has been steadily improving his defensive and floor play.

Lundstedt has also set or tied three Prospect records. He has made the most points in a single game, 39, the most field goals in a single game, 14, and is tied for the most foul shots made in a single game, 14. He seems certain to break the season foul throw mark of 110, he's only eight away, and will come very close to the season point record of 504, he's 172 away with at least eight games left. Both standards now belong to George Pomey.

BEHIND LUNDSTEDT there has been balance enough to take up any slack whenever the big man suffers a below par evening.

Thorne is the next best producer for the Knights. The senior guard has 141 points, mainly on shots from around 20 feet and a 33 of 42 (78.6 per cent) showing on charity tosses. Junior Kingman has 115 points including 27 in his last two games.

The remainder of Prospect's aggregation are all seniors. Totals for them show that Agard has 102 points, Beard 95, Kulasa 77 of which 21 came last week when the Knights beat Forest View 66-57, and Wolf 52.

"I was glad to see Kulasa score the way he did against Forest View," said Kinneman. "It showed we have someone else who is capable of getting points and giving us more balance." Continued Kinneman on the FV encounter: "Our weakness in the game was defensive rebounding, especially in the first half when they got 17 rebounds and we took just 15."

In the second half of that game the Knights established a 16-9 edged on the boards and won the rebounding battle 31-26. Never, in 15 games this season, has Prospect been out-rebounded for an entire contest by any opponent.

AT MAINE WEST current conditions indicate a youth movement. With his team having all manner of troubles, coach Freeman may start one senior, Ken Mueller, three juniors, Dick Manny, Al Fritz and Dale Haase, and a soph, Harry Tistle, against the Knights.

Mueller has been the Warriors' leader this year. He has scored 201 points, an average of 15.5 each time out. In his last two contests however the 5-8 guard has totaled only eight and six points. Teaming with Mueller in the backcourt will be 5-10 Manny, a newcomer to starting ranks who pumped in 21 in MW's 54-45 loss to Conant last week.

At center will be Fritz. In 13 efforts he has 74 points, two of those against Conant. Haase will be playing his initial varsity game tomorrow night. The 6-1 forward has been on the JV unit and it's hoped that he can give Maine more scoring underneath.

Tistle, who has tallied 14 markers in his three varsity games to date, is a questionmark at the other forward. Vying with him for the opening job are seniors Paul Moehling and Pete Kulik. Moehling has 99 points this year while 96 have been tossed in by Kulik. All three are 5-11.

Foul Shots Key Pirate Soph Win

A spectacular performance at the free throw line brought victory to Palatine's sophomore basketball team last Saturday, as the Pirates were out-shot from the floor but still took a 65-51 decision over Wheeling.

Al Elk's sophs, in winning their third straight game and second straight in the Mid-Suburban League, converted 34 of 42 foul shots, an awesome 80.9 percentage. Brian Scholl with eight for eight and Gary Holloway with eight for nine were especially effective.

The teams played evenly through the first quarter, after which Palatine pulled away and was never seriously challenged again. Balanced scoring keyed the Pirate win, with Don Spence getting 19 points, John Lang 15, and Scholl and Holloway 12 each. For Wheeling's sophs, now 4-5 over-all, Phil Smith also had 19 and John Cammarato had 17.

FV JV's in 8th Mat Win

Number eight was easy for Forest View's junior varsity wrestlers. . .

The Falcons JV matmen registered their eighth triumph last Saturday. Moving their season mark to 8-0 they swamped Niles East 43-11.

In eight of the bouts won by FV there was no competition. Niles had to give up forfeits in eight different weight classes. Winning forfeits for Forest View were Don Cappelen (95 pounds), Bob Urban (120), Clay Hadick (133), Mike Casey (138), Al Knoblauch (154), Bruce Lampert (165), Hank Tasche (180) and Al Gildemeister (heavyweight).

Only points in actual competition for the Falcons were garnered by Stan Rohner. He gained a 4-3 decision win at 145.

Village Green Plans Season

The weather outside is frightful. . .

But golf leagues are already making plans for the coming season.

Zero temperatures notwithstanding, the Village Green Golf Club will meet this Saturday, Jan. 29, at 11:30 a.m. at the Mount Prospect Country Club to elect a new slate of officers for 1966.

New plans will be reviewed for the coming season, and all members are urged to attend. The club will also welcome any new members.

CARDS' BERT SCHMITT — BACK IN ACTION

Lions Ripped By Cardinals

Arlington High School missed a gymnastics shutout by one point Saturday at LaGrange.

Coach Tom Walhouse's powerful Cardinal varsity overwhelmed the Lions, 95-37, yielding a third place on the trampoline to miss a perfect score.

The victory was the seventh straight in dual action for Arlington with Walthouse sending his Cards against Niles East (there Friday) and Glenbard West (there Saturday).

Walthouse will have the services of senior Bert Schmitt for the weekend set. Schmitt, a versatile performer, has been sidelined with a shoulder muscle injury.

JIM JOHANNESEN continued his fine efforts for the Cardinal varsity, taking three more firsts for 21 team points. Johannesen showed a 159 routine on the parallel bars, 149 on the horizontal bar, and 141 in tumbling.

Arlington swept the first place awards. Johannesen had three but the others went to Tom Riesing on the trampoline (136), Henry Taylor on the side horse (159), and Roy Rettburg on the rings (148).

Arlington's frosh-soph squad also remained unbeaten in seven meets with an 83-49 victory over LaGrange.

Jack Finch was a double winner with victories on the parallel bars (38) and rings (40). Wayne Crockett topped the side horse with a 54 card, and Guy Jessogne had a 35 on the trampoline.

St. Viator Tackles St. Mel Five Friday

by BOB FRISK

There are certain road trips that Larry Nomellini would like to pass up.

One of those journeys, number one on the list, comes Friday evening when St. Viator visits St. Mel of Chicago.

Nomellini isn't alone in his fear of taking a team into the St. Mel gym. Six other Chicagoland Prep League coaches feel the same way.

There's a natural aid to playing at home in familiar surroundings, but St. Mel outfits enjoy an even greater advantage in what reporters have labeled an "antiquated, oversized closet."

Nomellini took a solid club to St. Mel last winter and absorbed a 66-56 whipping. St. Viator pounded St. Mel in Arlington Heights, 75-60.

THE TRIP to St. Mel Friday will conclude first round activity for the Lions. St. Viator will return home Saturday to entertain St. Ignatius.

The Lions suffered two losses last weekend to drop two games below .500 for the season, and what really hurt was that both games could have gone the other way.

St. Viator was tied with highly regarded St. Patrick with 30 seconds remaining and fell, 55-48. St. Joseph nipped the Lions the following night in a ragged affair, 48-47.

NOMELLINI'S CREW now stands 3-3 in Chicagoland Prep League competition and is tied with St. Mel for fourth place. DeLaSalle (6-0) and St. Pat's (5-1) are running 1-2 with the Chargers knocking off the Shamrocks last Saturday, 61-48.

Disciplinary action has shelved Lion regular Johnny Loughman, a 5-9 guard, and has forced some shuffling of the varsity personnel. Nomellini has been kicking around the idea of working Dan Collins, a 5-10 junior, into a backcourt slot.

Collins has been turning in steady performances as a forward but is at a decided disadvantage because of his height.

JOHN GREGORY, a 5-7 junior, started against St. Joseph at guard last Saturday. Emille Bataille, a 6-1 senior, is another possibility for that slot opposite junior Frank Hogan, the club's top scorer.

St. Viator won't be getting its first look at the 1965-66 St. Mel team this Friday. The Lions dropped a 65-59 decision to the Knights in holiday tourney play at St. Joseph in what Nomellini termed "our worst game of the year."

Bob Slingerland is in his first year as head man at St. Mel, and the brother of the St. George coach has guided his club to a 9-5 overall mark.

THE KNIGHTS are a young team. Two sophs and three juniors see extensive action with only one senior in a starting role.

Johnny Ryan, a 5-9 senior guard, is St. Mel top scorer in Chicagoland play with 102 points in six outings, a 17.0 average.

Bob Fields (5-9), Ron Smith (6-4), and John Reiter (6-5) are also averaging in double figures for St. Mel. Smith is a sophomore who is labeled "an outstanding prospect."

Tony Bowden (6-2) is the other soph on the first six. He joins Smith and Reiter under the basket.

In a shocker St. Mel lost at home for the first time this season last Saturday. St. George was outscored from the field by 11 baskets but showed a 32-7 advantage at the free throw line in an 80-77 victory.

ST. IGNATIUS, St. Viator's opponent Saturday evening, authored its first win of the season last week with a 74-62 win over Holy Cross, but the Wolves are dangerous despite their record.

Jim Enright's club took St. Patrick to the wire before falling by two points, 53-51.

Frank Stankiewicz, a rugged forward, is the Wolves' top scorer for the season and in league play. Stankiewicz is averaging 18.7 points in Chicagoland games despite a two-point night against DeLaSalle.

St. Viator whipped St. Ignatius in an earlier meeting in the Wolves' gym, 88-79.

Pirates-Falcons Tilt

morrow, or for the duration of the MSL journey. The Falcons have lost once already in the league, 66-57 to Prospect last Friday. It followed MSL wins over Maine West (51-48) and Wheeling (66-42) and settled the FV mark at 9-6 for the year.

"We can't," admitted head coach Ken Arneson, "afford to lose another game if we're going to win the conference championship."

HIS TIGHT-LIPPED determination is reflected by Bud Mueller, Palatine's headman, though the Pirates are in a slightly better posture on the tightrope. They are 3-0 in the league now, having also beaten Maine West (74-55) and Wheeling (65-60), plus Dist. 211 rival Conant.

But the Pirates have their sternest tests forthcoming. After hosting Forest View tomorrow, they must play at Prospect a week later in the conclusion of the MSL's first round. Forest View will end the first circuit with Conant, so much can still happen. Hence, the accent on the Pirate-Falcon encounter.

Arneson's tentative alignment for that confrontation is one of the rangiest in the league, with not a boy under six feet. The offensive attack is led by 6-2 senior forward Pat Dunnigan, current holder of the Forest View career scoring record with 726 points in three seasons. He's averaging 16.4 this season, is rated good on defense and is a fine rebounder.

PALATINE'S key to success continues to be balance, a spreading of the efforts of a team that has no singularly outstanding player. It's taken the Pirates to four straight victories, six in their last seven games, and has put them above .500 at 8-7 for the season.

"Balance, I feel, is our main strength," said Mueller. "We've been getting consistent scoring, and the boys have all been doing their jobs. We're just going to have to do a better job now."

The Palatine balance is most clearly illustrated in the cases of forward Paul Kozlicki and forward-center Dave Willy. Each of them, in 15 games, has scored 177 points, an 11.8 per game rate.

That's tops for the club, though forward Jerry McCormick, a veteran who went through a siege of bench-warming, has returned to form with zest. He hit 23 to pace the beating of Wheeling last Friday, and has brought up his season average to over nine points.

The three of them — McCormick, Kozlicki and Willy — now rank second, third and fifth in conference scoring.

THEY'RE AIDED by a pair of strong defensive guards, 6-0 senior Randy McWilliams and 5-8 junior Mike Ferguson. Both are adept ball-hawks and playmakers, and McWilliams has increased his value this year by averaging about nine points a game.

The Palatine threat, however, remains principally a thing of team cohesiveness, with tempo and mood as important to their success as the manipulations of individual players. Mueller thinks they'll be in good shape for the battle upcoming.

"There's no question," he said, "that the boys know this is a big one for them."

Since Arneson and the Falcons seem equally convinced, the tussle on the tightrope looks to be an enthralling one.

Closely-Matched in MSL Tilt

Cougars And 'Cats Prepare For Clash

by KEN KNOX

If Friday night's Conant-Wheeling basketball encounter were to be decided by a free throw, the game might never end.

Whatever the misfortunes accumulated by the opposing forces this season—and there have been more than a few by each contingent—they have done one thing very well as of late: shooting free throws. They have, in fact, been shooting them better than most teams in the region.

That success is one of the characteristics by which the opposing teams measure out to a near-equal basis in paper formulas. They also measure out closely in team accomplishments: Wheeling has won three of 14 games and Conant has won four. In the Mid-Suburban League, Conant is in fourth place with a 1-2 mark and Wheeling is last at 0-3. Wheeling has scored an average of 55.3 points a game, and Conant has produced 54.0. The Cougars have surrendered 62.6 a contest, and Wheeling has yielded 66.9.

THE TWO teams—with substantially the same personnel—played twice last season and split. They played once this season—in the consolation finals of the Fenton Holiday Tournament—and Wheeling won 58-54, but after they played to a 52-52 dead heat in regulation time.

So the conclusion is this: when they tangle tomorrow night on Conant's floor, the altercation should be an excellent one.

If either would have an edge on recent performances, it would be Conant. Wheeling has lost four straight, though keeping it close against Deerfield and Palatine. Conant has won two of its last four, beating Grayslake (also beaten by Wheeling) and Maine West, and losing a close dispute with Dist. 211 rival Palatine.

CONANT HAS also been slightly superior in recent foul shooting, but not so much that it will make a huge difference. The Cougars — after 10 games in which they hit for charity at a .503 rate—have boosted that by hitting 57 of 73, a .781 rate, in the last four games. In the MSL, Conant has connected on 41 of 52, or .788.

Wheeling has been the more consistent overall, with 214 for 328—or .652—for all games. In the league, the Wildcats have 39 of 53, or .736.

The changes are evidenced by recalling their game earlier this season, when Conant lost by four. Wheeling made 16 of 22 (.727) in that game, while Conant was 12 for 21 (.571). Now that would be a standoff, if statistics were static.

BUT THEY are not static, so their meeting tomorrow rates with the unpredictable.

The Cougars and headman Rol Berg are not forgetting one truth that rankles them a little: Wheeling, in its two years of basketball existence, has won four games, two of them against Conant.

One difference in those games was the absence both times of Conant's 6-7 center Larry Powell. Wheeling has no one near that size, and though Powell has been troubled this season by sickness and a slow start, his height is a definite threat to the Wildcats. Powell, averaging 10 points a game, is coming off a Maine West contest in which he scored 15 points and pulled down 12 rebounds, so he may be starting to move.

Berg also hopes to get 6-1 forward Dave Sander into the lineup, though he may start with 6-0 Dick Helmer, moved from a guard job for the Maine game. Sander, troubled with a bad ankle and knee, saw only limited action in the Wheeling game at Fenton, but he's getting into shape now. He hasn't been scoring much, but he's aggressive under the boards, and claimed 10 rebounds against Maine.

ALSO RESURGING against Maine was 6-1 forward Bill Lunebach, a boy of fine jumping ability who combined 17 points with 11 rebounds for one of his best performances. He's averaging 10 points a game.

The team's big scorer is 5-10 John Glasshof, who'll probably go at guard against Wheeling. He's been hitting for 13 points a game, and is tied for fifth in MSL scoring with 42 points. He's rated an excellent outside shooting threat.

The other guard slot is open between two aggressive 5-8 performers, Jim Garcia and 10-point-a-game-man Walt Riley.

Wheeling's Mike Owens, hampered considerably by height disadvantages, is planning a starting lineup that averages a little under six feet. It'll rotate around 6-0 center Scott Bischoff, who has been the team's offensive leader in the recent going. Averaging 11.1 points a game, Bischoff has had 40 in his last three to rank seventh in the MSL. He's a good rebounder, and deadly on close-in shots.

THE TEAM'S overall scoring leader is 6-1 forward Tom Neuckranz, who had an average of about 17 for much of the season but tailed off considerably in the three conference games. But Conant cannot discount him.

Pairing with Neuckranz at the other forward will probably be Al Gibbon, a stocky six-footer recently inducted to the starting lineup. He had 10 points his last time out against Palatine.

The guards will be 5-10 Rex Peterson and 5-11 Mark Newman. Peterson is averaging about nine points a game, moves the ball well, and—when he's on—can hit with accuracy from outside. He hit for 16 points against Conant at Fenton. Newman is a good ball-handler who has never hit his form of last season, averaging 8.3 for the season, with only four points in his last two games.

Owens does a lot of substituting in his lineups, and two who will probably see action are Skip Grandt—a good scorer and rebounder in a reserve role—and Jerry Kerr, valued for his ball-handling.

The ladder away from the cellar will be at stake when these two alignments meet. A win by Conant could put the Cougars in good position in the middle of the MSL pack, and a victory by Wheeling would get the Wildcats off the floor. Both teams are no doubt mindful that Maine West, down in their MSL neighborhood, is playing powerful Prospect the same night, so it's a good time to move up.

cause of a back injury.

"We won't know the extent of the problem for some time," Wissen said, "but Dave will be lost for the season."

Lockwood was the fourth leading scorer with the varsity last winter as a soph and had 61 points this year before he was forced to the sidelines.

WISSEN PLANS no changes in his starting alignment Coaches don't tamper with a winning combination, and these Cardinals haven't lost since the first game of the Kankakee holiday tournament.

Arlington has equalled the best start in school hardwood history, reaching their 12th victory on the same day of the month as the 1948-49 outfit. That 1948-49 team went on to win 19 games.

What really pleased Wissen in the wins over Glenbard West and Barrington was the shortage of turnovers, those frustrating losses of the basketball without getting a shot. Arlington only had three turnovers Friday and seven Saturday.

JUNIOR STEVE Allen, who alternates between guard and forward with equal success, was the scoring leader in both wins last weekend and his 22-point effort against Glenbard West pushed him into serious contention for the conference scoring lead.

Allen has 155 points in West Suburban play, eight behind the leader, 6-5 Bud Bocker of Downers Grove.

RIVERSIDE - Brookfield stands 4-4 in league action, two games behind the second place Cardinals, and Ron Nikcevich's outfit is trying to break back into the winning column after two straight losses.

Downers Grove whipped the Bulldogs, 70-58, and LaGrange fashioned a 73-70 win last Friday. R-B had whipped the Lions in an earlier meeting, 70-62.

Only six points separate the top four Bulldog scorers in WSC action. Dave Holub (6-2) is the leader with 110 (13.8 average), but Holub has only scored 13 points in his last two games.

Ken Wall (6-2) and Mark Schmitz (6-3) show identical 13.1 per game averages and Joel Klecka (6-3) is a shade behind at 13.0. Only Sven Nylen (6-1) is not scoring in double figures, and he's settled at a 9.0 standard.

The stage is set. Riverside wants revenge, and Arlington wants that eighth straight.

Cardinal JVs Rout Glenbard For Fifth Win

Arlington's jayvee Cardinals flashed another impressive performance Saturday morning as they shelled Glenbard West, 58-37.

Coach Al Allen's charges, now 5-3 for the season, broke open a tight game with a big second period and gradually pulled away.

George Bergstrom tallied 21 points and pulled down 17 rebounds to spark the Arlington five. Jim Bressler added 13 markers.

"This was easily one of our best games of the season," Allen said.

Arlington will host Riverside-Brookfield Saturday morning.

Knight Quintet Travels To Battle Maine West

by MICHAEL HESS

Like a river's current, any sports rivalry has swift or slow streams, ebbing or flowing as team fortunes rise and fall.

For Prospect cagers the tide of affairs with Maine West may soon be altered for the third time. The two arch enemies meet this weekend.

MW hosts the Knights tomorrow (Friday) night. The Warriors use Maine East's court as their hoop home. They have since first battling Prospect nearly six years ago.

On December 29, 1959, initial action between Knights and Maine forces took place. Prospect came back from a 22-13 deficit at half time to take the contest 38-36 for coach Dick Kinneman and one tide began.

OVER THE following three years Knights crews captured seven straight decisions. Finally, on December 6, 1962, the Warriors came out on top. A 46-38 margin gave headman Gaston Freeman's quintet that first triumph. After Prospect won 46-45 in the next game a second tide was started.

Maine West slipped by the Knights 46-39 in the '63 regional final and has gone on to victory in four encounters the two have had since then. At present the series stands 8-6 in favor of Prospect and that third tide should flow tomorrow.

In outings this season the Knights, with Kinneman still at the helm, own a 12-3 record. Those totals include nine consecutive wins and a 3-0 mark in Mid-Suburban League play. Prospect is tied with Palatine for first among conference entries.

Almost an exact opposite, MW has garnered a lowly 1-12 standard. The Warriors have dropped six in a row and are knotted in the M-SL cellar with Wheeling, both at 0-3. Directing Maine through its worst campaign in school history is mentor Freeman.

WITH THAT AS the background, the Knights should certainly break West's current grasp of control on their rivalry. Surely the third tide, going Prospect's way, will start tomorrow.

A magnificent seven has been responsible for the standout start by the Knights. As interchangeable starters and subs, Tom Lundstedt, J. D. Thorne, Dave Kingman, Tom Beard, Tony Kulasa, Dan Agard and Craig Wolf have pulled Prospect forward. Of those the showing thus far by Lundstedt has been most brilliant.

In 15 games this year Lundstedt has scored 332 points, an average of 22.1. He has hit 115 of 202 goal attempts (56.9 per cent) and 85 of 116 (73.3 per cent) from the line. In addition, the 6-3 junior has pulled down 11 rebounds in each game and has been steadily improving his defensive and floor play.

Lundstedt has also set or tied three Prospect records. He has made the most points in a single game, 39, the most field goals in a single game, 14, and is tied for the most foul shots made in a single game, 14. He seems certain to break the season foul throw mark of 110, he's only eight away, and will come very close to the season point record of 504, he's 172 away with at least eight games left. Both standards now belong to George Pomey.

BEHIND LUNDSTEDT there has been balance enough to take up any slack whenever the big man suffers a below par evening.

Thorne is the next best producer for the Knights. The senior guard has 141 points, mainly on shots from around 20 feet and a 33 of 42 (78.6 per cent) showing on charity tosses. Junior Kingman has 115 points including 27 in his last two games.

The remainder of Prospect's aggregation are all seniors. Totals for them show that Agard has 102 points, Beard 95, Kulasa 77 of which 21 came last week when the Knights beat Forest View 66-57, and Wolf 52.

"I was glad to see Kulasa score the way he did against Forest View," said Kinneman. "It showed we have someone else who is capable of getting points and giving us more balance." Continued Kinneman on the FV encounter: "Our weakness in the game was defensive rebounding, especially in the first half when they got 17 rebounds and we took just 15."

In the second half of that game the Knights established a 16-9 edged on the boards and won the rebounding battle 31-26. Never, in 15 games this season, has Prospect been out-rebounded for an entire contest by any opponent.

AT MAINE WEST current conditions indicate a youth movement. With his team having all manner of troubles, coach Freeman may start one senior, Ken Mueller, three juniors, Dick Manny, Al Fritz and Dale Haase, and a soph, Harry Tistle, against the Knights.

Mueller has been the Warriors' leader this year. He has scored 201 points, an average of 15.5 each time out. In his last two contests however the 5-8 guard has totaled only eight and six points. Teaming with Mueller in the backcourt will be 5-10 Manny, a newcomer to starting ranks who pumped in 21 in MW's 54-45 loss to Conant last week.

At center will be Fritz. In 13 efforts he has 74 points, two of those against Conant. Haase will be playing his initial varsity game tomorrow night. The 6-1 forward has been on the JV unit and it's hoped that he can give Maine more scoring underneath.

Tistle, who has tallied 14 markers in his three varsity games to date, is a questionmark at the other forward. Vying with him for the opening job are seniors Paul Moehling and Pete Kulik. Moehling has 99 points this year while 96 have been tossed in by Kulik. All three are 5-11.

Foul Shots Key Pirate Soph Win

A spectacular performance at the free throw line brought victory to Palatine's sophomore basketball team last Saturday, as the Pirates were out-shot from the floor but still took a 65-51 decision over Wheeling.

Al Elk's sophs, in winning their third straight game and second straight in the Mid-Suburban League, converted 34 of 42 foul shots, an awesome 80.9 percentage. Brian Scholl with eight for eight and Gary Holloway with eight for nine were especially effective.

The teams played evenly through the first quarter, after which Palatine pulled away and was never seriously challenged again. Balanced scoring keyed the Pirate win, with Don Spence getting 19 points, John Lang 15, and Scholl and Holloway 12 each. For Wheeling's sophs, now 4-5 over-all, Phil Smith also had 19 and John Cammarato had 17.

FV JV's in 8th Mat Win

Number eight was easy for Forest View's junior varsity wrestlers. . .

The Falcons JV matmen registered their eighth triumph last Saturday. Moving their season mark to 8-0 they swamped Niles East 43-11.

In eight of the bouts won by FV there was no competition. Niles had to give up forfeits in eight different weight classes. Winning forfeits for Forest View were Don Cappelen (95 pounds), Bob Urban (120), Clay Hadick (133), Mike Casey (138), Al Knoblauch (154), Bruce Lampert (165), Hank Tasche (180) and Al Gildemeister (heavyweight).

Only points in actual competition for the Falcons were garnered by Stan Rohner. He gained a 4-3 decision win at 145.

Lions Ripped By Cardinals

Arlington High School missed a gymnastics shutout by one point Saturday at LaGrange.

Coach Tom Walhouse's powerful Cardinal varsity overwhelmed the Lions, 95-37, yielding a third place on the trampoline to miss a perfect score.

The victory was the seventh straight in dual action for Arlington with Walthouse sending his Cards against Niles East (there Friday) and Glenbard West (there Saturday).

Walthouse will have the services of senior Bert Schmitt for the weekend set. Schmitt, a versatile performer, has been sidelined with a shoulder muscle injury.

JIM JOHANNESEN continued his fine efforts for the Cardinal varsity, taking three more firsts for 21 team points. Johannesen showed a 159 routine on the parallel bars, 149 on the horizontal bar, and 141 in tumbling.

Arlington swept the first place awards. Johannesen had three but the others went to Tom Riesing on the trampoline (136), Henry Taylor on the side horse (159), and Roy Rettburg on the rings (148).

Arlington's frosh-soph squad also remained unbeaten in seven meets with an 83-49 victory over LaGrange.

Jack Finch was a double winner with victories on the parallel bars (38) and rings (40). Wayne Crockett topped the side horse with a 54 card, and Guy Jessogne had a 35 on the trampoline.

St. Viator Tackles St. Mel Five Friday

Nomellini isn't alone in his fear of taking a team into the St. Mel gym. Six other Chicagoland Prep League coaches feel the same way.

There's a natural aid to playing at home in familiar surroundings, but St. Mel outfits enjoy an even greater advantage in what reporters have labeled an "antiquated, oversized closet."

Nomellini took a solid club to St. Mel last winter and absorbed a 66-56 whipping. St. Viator pounded St. Mel in Arlington Heights, 75-60.

THE TRIP to St. Mel Friday will conclude first round activity for the Lions. St. Viator will return home Saturday to entertain St. Ignatius.

The Lions suffered two losses last weekend to drop two games below .500 for the season, and what really hurt was that both games could have gone the other way.

St. Viator was tied with highly regarded St. Patrick with 30 seconds remaining and fell, 55-48. St. Joseph nipped the Lions the following night in a ragged affair, 48-47.

NOMELLINI'S CREW now stands 3-3 in Chicagoland Prep League competition and is tied with St. Mel for fourth place. DeLaSalle (6-0) and St. Pat's (5-1) are running 1-2 with the Chargers knocking off the Shamrocks last Saturday, 61-48.

Disciplinary action has shelved Lion regular Johnny Loughman, a 5-9 guard, and has forced some shuffling of the varsity personnel. Nomellini has been kicking around the idea of working Dan Collins, a 5-10 junior, into a backcourt slot.

Collins has been turning in steady performances as a forward but is at a decided disadvantage because of his height.

JOHN GREGORY, a 5-7 junior, started against St. Joseph at guard last Saturday. Emille Bataille, a 6-1 senior, is another possibility for that slot opposite junior Frank Hogan, the club's top scorer.

St. Viator won't be getting its first look at the 1965-66 St. Mel team this Friday. The Lions dropped a 65-59 decision to the Knights in holiday tourney play at St. Joseph in what Nomellini termed "our worst game of the year."

Bob Slingerland is in his first year as head man at St. Mel, and the brother of the St. George coach has guided his club to a 9-5 overall mark.

THE KNIGHTS are a young team. Two sophs and three juniors see extensive action with only one senior in a starting role.

Johnny Ryan, a 5-9 senior guard, is St. Mel top scorer in Chicagoland play with 102 points in six outings, a 17.0 average.

Bob Fields (5-9), Ron Smith (6-4), and John Reiter (6-5) are also averaging in double figures for St. Mel. Smith is a sophomore who is labeled "an outstanding prospect."

Tony Bowden (6-2) is the other soph on the first six. He joins Smith and Reiter under the basket.

In a shocker St. Mel lost at home for the first time this season last Saturday. St. George was outscored from the field by 11 baskets but showed a 32-7 advantage at the free throw line in an 80-77 victory.

ST. IGNATIUS, St. Viator's opponent Saturday evening, authored its first win of the season last week with a 74-62 win over Holy Cross, but the Wolves are dangerous despite their record.

Jim Enright's club took St. Patrick to the wire before falling by two points, 53-51.

Frank Stankiewicz, a rugged forward, is the Wolves' top scorer for the season and in league play. Stankiewicz is averaging 18.7 points in Chicagoland games despite a two-point night against DeLaSalle.

St. Viator whipped St. Ignatius in an earlier meeting in the Wolves' gym, 88-79.

Pirates-Falcons Tilt

morrow, or for the duration of the MSL journey. The Falcons have lost once already in the league, 66-57 to Prospect last Friday. It followed MSL wins over Maine West (51-48) and Wheeling (66-42) and settled the FV mark at 9-6 for the year.

"We can't," admitted head coach Ken Arneson, "afford to lose another game if we're going to win the conference championship."

HIS TIGHT-LIPPED determination is reflected by Bud Mueller, Palatine's headman, though the Pirates are in a slightly better posture on the tightrope. They are 3-0 in the league now, having also beaten Maine West (74-55) and Wheeling (65-60), plus Dist. 211 rival Conant.

But the Pirates have their sternest tests forthcoming. After hosting Forest View tomorrow, they must play at Prospect a week later in the conclusion of the MSL's first round. Forest View will end the first circuit with Conant, so much can still happen. Hence, the accent on the Pirate-Falcon encounter.

Arneson's tentative alignment for that confrontation is one of the rangiest in the league, with not a boy under six feet. The offensive attack is led by 6-2 senior forward Pat Dunnigan, current holder of the Forest View career scoring record with 726 points in three seasons. He's averaging 16.4 this season, is rated good on defense and is a fine rebounder.

PALATINE'S key to success continues to be balance, a spreading of the efforts of a team that has no singularly outstanding player. It's taken the Pirates to four straight victories, six in their last seven games, and has put them above .500 at 8-7 for the season.

"Balance, I feel, is our main strength," said Mueller. "We've been getting consistent scoring, and the boys have all been doing their jobs. We're just going to have to do a better job now."

The Palatine balance is most clearly illustrated in the cases of forward Paul Kozlicki and forward-center Dave Willy. Each of them, in 15 games, has scored 177 points, an 11.8 per game rate.

That's tops for the club, though forward Jerry McCormick, a veteran who went through a siege of bench-warming, has returned to form with zest. He hit 23 to pace the beating of Wheeling last Friday, and has brought up his season average to over nine points.

The three of them — McCormick, Kozlicki and Willy — now rank second, third and fifth in conference scoring.

THEY'RE AIDED by a pair of strong defensive guards, 6-0 senior Randy McWilliams and 5-8 junior Mike Ferguson. Both are adept ball-hawks and playmakers, and McWilliams has increased his value this year by averaging about nine points a game.

The Palatine threat, however, remains principally a thing of team cohesiveness, with tempo and mood as important to their success as the manipulations of individual players. Mueller thinks they'll be in good shape for the battle upcoming.

"There's no question," he said, "that the boys know this is a big one for them."

Since Arneson and the Falcons seem equally convinced, the tussle on the tightrope looks to be an enthralling one.

Cougars And 'Cats Prepare For Clash

by KEN KNOX

If Friday night's Conant-Wheeling basketball encounter were to be decided by a free throw, the game might never end.

Whatever the misfortunes accumulated by the opposing forces this season—and there have been more than a few by each contingent—they have done one thing very well as of late: shooting free throws. They have, in fact, been shooting them better than most teams in the region.

That success is one of the characteristics by which the opposing teams measure out to a near-equal basis in paper formulas. They also measure out closely in team accomplishments: Wheeling has won three of 14 games and Conant has won four. In the Mid-Suburban League, Conant is in fourth place with a 1-2 mark and Wheeling is last at 0-3. Wheeling has scored an average of 55.3 points a game, and Conant has produced 54.0. The Cougars have surrendered 62.6 a contest, and Wheeling has yielded 66.9.

THE TWO teams—with substantially the same personnel—played twice last season and split. They played once this season—in the consolation finals of the Fenton Holiday Tournament—and Wheeling won 58-54, but after they played to a 52-52 dead heat in regulation time.

So the conclusion is this: when they tangle tomorrow night on Conant's floor, the altercation should be an excellent one.

If either would have an edge on recent performances, it would be Conant. Wheeling has lost four straight, though keeping it close against Deerfield and Palatine. Conant has won two of its last four, beating Grayslake (also beaten by Wheeling) and Maine West, and losing a close dispute with Dist. 211 rival Palatine.

CONANT HAS also been slightly superior in recent foul shooting, but not so much that it will make a huge difference. The Cougars — after 10 games in which they hit for charity at a .503 rate—have boosted that by hitting 57 of 73, a .781 rate, in the last four games. In the MSL, Conant has connected on 41 of 52, or .788.

Wheeling has been the more consistent overall, with 214 for 328—or .652—for all games. In the league, the Wildcats have 39 of 53, or .736.

The changes are evidenced by recalling their game earlier this season, when Conant lost by four. Wheeling made 16 of 22 (.727) in that game, while Conant was 12 for 21 (.571). Now that would be a standoff, if statistics were static.

BUT THEY are not static, so their meeting tomorrow rates with the unpredictable.

The Cougars and headman Rol Berg are not forgetting one truth that rankles them a little: Wheeling, in its two years of basketball existence, has won four games, two of them against Conant.

One difference in those games was the absence both times of Conant's 6-7 center Larry Powell. Wheeling has no one near that size, and though Powell has been troubled this season by sickness and a slow start, his height is a definite threat to the Wildcats. Powell, averaging 10 points a game, is coming off a Maine West contest in which he scored 15 points and pulled down 12 rebounds, so he may be starting to move.

Berg also hopes to get 6-1 forward Dave Sander into the lineup, though he may start with 6-0 Dick Helmer, moved from a guard job for the Maine game. Sander, troubled with a bad ankle and knee, saw only limited action in the Wheeling game at Fenton, but he's getting into shape now. He hasn't been scoring much, but he's aggressive under the boards, and claimed 10 rebounds against Maine.

ALSO RESURGING against Maine was 6-1 forward Bill Lunebach, a boy of fine jumping ability who combined 17 points with 11 rebounds for one of his best performances. He's averaging 10 points a game.

The team's big scorer is 5-10 John Glasshof, who'll probably go at guard against Wheeling. He's been hitting for 13 points a game, and is tied for fifth in MSL scoring with 42 points. He's rated an excellent outside shooting threat.

The other guard slot is open between two aggressive 5-8 performers, Jim Garcia and 10-point-a-game-man Walt Riley.

Wheeling's Mike Owens, hampered considerably by height disadvantages, is planning a starting lineup that averages a little under six feet. It'll rotate around 6-0 center Scott Bischoff, who has been the team's offensive leader in the recent going. Averaging 11.1 points a game, Bischoff has had 40 in his last three to rank seventh in the MSL. He's a good rebounder, and deadly on close-in shots.

THE TEAM'S overall scoring leader is 6-1 forward Tom Neuckranz, who had an average of about 17 for much of the season but tailed off considerably in the three conference games. But Conant cannot discount him.

Pairing with Neuckranz at the other forward will probably be Al Gibbon, a stocky six-footer recently inducted to the starting lineup. He had 10 points his last time out against Palatine.

The guards will be 5-10 Rex Peterson and 5-11 Mark Newman. Peterson is averaging about nine points a game, moves the ball well, and—when he's on—can hit with accuracy from outside. He hit for 16 points against Conant at Fenton. Newman is a good ball-handler who has never hit his form of last season, averaging 8.3 for the season, with only four points in his last two games.

Owens does a lot of substituting in his lineups, and two who will probably see action are Skip Grandt—a good scorer and rebounder in a reserve role—and Jerry Kerr, valued for his ball-handling.

The ladder away from the cellar will be at stake when these two alignments meet. A win by Conant could put the Cougars in good position in the middle of the MSL pack, and a victory by Wheeling would get the Wildcats off the floor. Both teams are no doubt mindful that Maine West, down in their MSL neighborhood, is playing powerful Prospect the same night, so it's a good time to move up.

cause of a back injury.

"We won't know the extent of the problem for some time," Wissen said, "but Dave will be lost for the season."

Lockwood was the fourth leading scorer with the varsity last winter as a soph and had 61 points this year before he was forced to the sidelines.

WISSEN PLANS no changes in his starting alignment Coaches don't tamper with a winning combination, and these Cardinals haven't lost since the first game of the Kankakee holiday tournament.

Arlington has equalled the best start in school hardwood history, reaching their 12th victory on the same day of the month as the 1948-49 outfit. That 1948-49 team went on to win 19 games.

What really pleased Wissen in the wins over Glenbard West and Barrington was the shortage of turnovers, those frustrating losses of the basketball without getting a shot. Arlington only had three turnovers Friday and seven Saturday.

JUNIOR STEVE Allen, who alternates between guard and forward with equal success, was the scoring leader in both wins last weekend and his 22-point effort against Glenbard West pushed him into serious contention for the conference scoring lead.

Allen has 155 points in West Suburban play, eight behind the leader, 6-5 Bud Bocker of Downers Grove.

RIVERSIDE - Brookfield stands 4-4 in league action, two games behind the second place Cardinals, and Ron Nikcevich's outfit is trying to break back into the winning column after two straight losses.

Downers Grove whipped the Bulldogs, 70-58, and LaGrange fashioned a 73-70 win last Friday. R-B had whipped the Lions in an earlier meeting, 70-62.

Only six points separate the top four Bulldog scorers in WSC action. Dave Holub (6-2) is the leader with 110 (13.8 average), but Holub has only scored 13 points in his last two games.

Ken Wall (6-2) and Mark Schmitz (6-3) show identical 13.1 per game averages and Joel Klecka (6-3) is a shade behind at 13.0. Only Sven Nylen (6-1) is not scoring in double figures, and he's settled at a 9.0 standard.

The stage is set. Riverside wants revenge, and Arlington wants that eighth straight.

Cardinal JVs Rout Glenbard For Fifth Win

Arlington's jayvee Cardinals flashed another impressive performance Saturday morning as they shelled Glenbard West, 58-37.

Coach Al Allen's charges, now 5-3 for the season, broke open a tight game with a big second period and gradually pulled away.

George Bergstrom tallied 21 points and pulled down 17 rebounds to spark the Arlington five. Jim Bressler added 13 markers.

"This was easily one of our best games of the season," Allen said.

Arlington will host Riverside-Brookfield Saturday morning.

Cards 'Press' Past Two More Opponents

by FRED BOEDEKER

A good defense is the best offense. The Arlington Cardinals proved the old adage twice last weekend as they relied on their relentless full court press to turn two would-be losses into full scale routs.

Coach Ted Wissen's high flying Cards ran their victory streak to seven in a row as they trounced West Suburban Conference foe Glenbard 80-52 on Friday night and downed neighboring Barrington 61-42 the following evening.

JIM JORGENSEN
Bothers Broncos

The dual victory left the Cardinals with an impressive 12-3 season record and a 6-2 W.S.C. mark — good enough for sole possession of second place behind York's unbeaten Dukes.

THE CARDS' home court victory over Glenbard provided sweet revenge for the locals who had lost an earlier contest to the Hilltoppers by an 84-73 score.

Friday night's game looked as if it might go the same for a while. Glebard opened up a six point lead (23-17) early in the second period while Arlington's offense was floundering. But at this point the Cardinals switched into their stingy pressing defense and the reversal was instantaneous.

The hosts stole the ball three straight times and scored 13 points in the short span of one minute and 38 seconds to forge ahead by a seven point margin 30-23. At half time the lead had been increased to 38-25 and the tide had turned.

The locals continued to apply the press for the remainder of the contest. They outscored the Hilltoppers 23-12 in the third quarter and midway through the final stanza Wissen emptied his bench.

Sharp shooting junior guard Steve Allen led the Cardinals offensively with 22 points on eleven baskets. But Allen had more than ample support from 6-6 center Jim Donches, who collected 20 counters on eight field goals and 4-6 free throws for a career high. Jim teamed with 6-6 forward Bruce Hubbard to outrebound the rangy Hilltoppers. Guard Terry Townley contributed 17 points to the locals' cause on five baskets and 7-10 charity tosses.

Arlington shot .458 from the field against Glenbard, hitting 33 of 72 shots. After a so-so 6-for-16 opening period the Cards sailed along at a .490 clip the rest of the way. They were 10-for-18 in the third quarter.

Kirk Biggs, the Bards' forward, copped scoring honors for the evening with a 26 point performance. He had bettered that total only once this season — a 27 point outburst against the Cards in their last meeting.

WISSEN'S BOYS picked up where they left off in Saturday's non-league contest against host Barrington. Arlington raced out to a 16-8 first quarter lead but the Broncos weren't ready to lie down and die just yet. Don Shoemaker and Jim Jusits got six points each to push Barrington into a 26-24 lead at intermission.

Once again it was the Cardinals' pressing defense that turned the tables. Wissen's quintet employed the press throughout the second half, holding the Broncos to only 16 points. The Cards outscored their hosts 15 to 4 in the third quarter and 21-12 in the final period to effect the 61-42 rout.

Allen was high again for the locals with 20 points on 10 baskets, giving him a total of 21 field goals over the weekend. Jim Jorgensen chipped in with 16 counters and collected more than his share of rebounds. As he achieved his varsity high. Jim had 13 in the concluding quarter.

The Cards will attempt to strengthen their one game hold on second place in the West Suburban Conference and increase their winning streak to eight when they journey to Riverside - Brookfield tomorrow night.

Still Unbeaten

St. Viator's Tankers Win

Holy Cross gave St. Viator's varsity swimmers a decent argument, but Charles Mondi's powerful Lions still remained unbeaten in dual meet competition for 1965-66 last Saturday afternoon.

Rene Tague won two events to spark the Arlington Heights School to a 65 - 30 victory over Holy Cross in a meet that filled the schedule vacancy that resulted when Wheeling dropped swimming.

RICK WITHROW
Tops 400 Free

Tague, who's enjoying a fine senior year, topped the 50 yard freestyle in 23.3 and the 100 freestyle in 54.1. He was an easy winner in both events.

Rick Withrow gave the Lions a first in the 400 freestyle when he splashed to a 4:47 clocking, two and nine-tenths seconds ahead of Holy Cross' Carroll.

RICK KALINOWSKI topped the breast stroke in 1:11.4 and also worked with Mike Gibler, Joe Herrity, and John Massey on the victorious 200 medley relay.

Ken Sophie gave the Lions their other individual first when he headed the diving event with a 62.05 rating.

St. Viator won the 400 freestyle relay with a team of Kevin Shea, Massey, Bob Brown, and Jim Cronin. They showed a 3:58.6 clocking.

THE LION frosh-sophs also remained unbeaten with a 72-23 thumping of Holy Cross.

Bill McCaffrey and Ed Vallely were double winners for the frosh-sophs. McCaffrey won the 150 freestyle in 1:34.7 and 50 backstroke in 30.8, and Vallely headed the 50 free (26.6) and 100 free (1:00.2).

Other Lion winners in the individual events were Dave Mullan in diving and Lou Hibbs in the 50 fly.

St. Viator also won both relays.

Cardinal Frosh Whipped on Mat

Arlington scored in only four bouts Saturday in dropping a 30-16 frosh wrestling decision to LaGrange.

The Cardinals tallied with a decision by Jack Dabbert at 120 pounds and Wally Bednarz at 180, pin by McCoy at 154, and a forfeit at 145.

Pirates Clip Wildcats On 4th Period Surge

by KEN KNOX

White hunters will tell you this: if your game is tiger in Sumatra, puma in British Columbia or Wildcat on the Wheeling basketball floor, there is a certain intangible you must possess if you are to conquer your quarry with a minimum of clawing to yourself.

It is, at the very least, commendable to be endowed with what ball floor, there is a certain intangible you must possess if you are jugular." In brief, it's the ability to strike quickly and surely when the quarry is at bay, when it's reeling from the pursuit and the assault. It's the ability to strike then and end the challenge.

JERRY McCORMICK
Dominant Force

In athletics, it has its most graphic demonstration in the boxing ring when the pugilist — sensing that his opponent has drifted into the woozy phase— will dispatch him to the mat with swift efficiency.

THE INSTINCT is more subtle in the game of basketball, where the product is not a quick and final demise of the opponent, but a changing of the character of the contest. It's the ability to press a momentum to the point where triumph is out of reach for the opponnt, either physically or psychologically. It's the transformation of a perilous two-sided confrontation into a one-sided romp, accomplished by trampling the opponent with a flurry of basketball wizardry at that opportune moment when he has staggered.

So what, you ask, is the point of all this?

Only this: that Friday night — on Wheeling's basketball floor — there was a splendid illustration of how a team does and does not utilize the instinct.

Palatine's basketball Pirates — seeking to retain their portion of the Mid-Suburban League leadership — had no less than five opportunities to smite Wheeling's Wildcats before the final buzzer, to reduce their threat to the minimum.

FIVE TIMES the Pirates had the cutlass poised for the final stroke, and four times the instinct failed them. The fifth time — a period of two minutes and one second in the final quarter — the instinct was there.

In that fourth quarter, Bud Mueller's Pirates put the game with Mike Owens' Wildcats at the point where it couldn't be retrieved, and Palatine held on for a 65-60 win. For Palatine, it was the fourth victory in succession, placing them at 3-0 in the MSL and above .500 — at 8-7 — for the full season. For Wheeling, the loss was the third straight in the MSL and dropped the season mark to 3-11.

The Palatine victory was again one of fine team balance, with all five starters over or near double figures. But one individual was illuminated by his contributions. Pirate veteran Jerry McCormick was the dominant force. The 6-1 forward totaled 23 points, more than any Pirate collected in one game this season, and 10 of which came in that crucial fourth quarter.

THE PIRATES went into the last period with a lead of 46-41, with the advantage having changed hands five times before that in the shaky contest. Four times until then Palatine had started to spurt away from the 'Cats, who had the first quarter lead but had to go on the defensive afterward. All four times the instinct for destruction had failed Palatine, as the Pirates rushed to margins of five to eight points and dominated the play, but then allowed the hosts to close in again.

In the fourth quarter, the margin went to 48-41 as McCormick dropped in a shot from the corner. But center Scott Bischoff — who with guard Rex Peterson had kept Wheeling alive all through the game — began to turn the momentum. Thirteen seconds after McCormick made his shot, Bischoff dropped in a short jumper. Palatine took the ball, Bischoff stole a pass, banked in a shot, and it was 48-45.

The Pirates lost the ball again, and a Skip Grandt shot made it 48-47 with six minutes to go. Wheeling began to flash the killer instinct.

IT WAS THEN that Palatine did what it had threatened to do almost from the game's beginning. At 5:45, the ball was worked in to guard Mike Ferguson, who put in a shot from under the basket. From then until 3:44, Wheeling could do nothing. Palatine ran 11 straight points, six of them on field goals by McCormick. Ferguson added a free throw in the flurry and junior Doug Spruance — in at center for foul-troubled Dave Willy — popped in a shot from the key to run the score to 59-47.

Wheeling flurried with four straight points, but that surge was stopped when Paul Kozlicki — fouling out while doing it — drove through the 'Cats for a layup. The game was simply a scramble after that, as the teams played it out with some reckless passing and shooting.

The game was one in which both teams seemed to evidence a certain reluctance for victory, and in the end, Palatine had done just enough to win it. Wheeling had taken its first quarter lead on some good shooting, while the Pirates looked uninspired and hit only three of 15 shots. Palatine began to move after that, but only in spurts, sufficient to keep the Pirates ahead but not free of the threat. Wheeling's own mistakes kept the 'Cats from getting an advantage, with several key turnovers crimping the losers.

In the end, there were three telling factors. The Pirates shot much better from the free throw line — 17 for 26 — than they had in the past, so the opponents staved even there. The Pirates negated Wheeling's top scoring threat, keeping forward Tom Neuckranz to six points in the game, two on free throws at 3:04 of the third period, and four on field goals in the last 40 seconds. And, most importantly, the Pirates had that instinct when they needed it the most.

Take Cage Tilt 66-57

Knights Slip by FV; Get 9th Win in Row

by MICHAEL HESS

The magnificent seven keep rolling along . . ...

Prospect's cage force isn't the usual quintet but, instead, is a starting five plus two. That "suptet" has now won nine straight.

Most recent victim of the Knights' hoop streak was Forest View. The Falcons became casualty number nine last Friday. FV fell by a 66-57 count.

TONY KULASA
When It Counts Most

With that triumph Prospect remained atop Mid-Suburban League standings, tied at 3-0 with Palatine. Overall the crew of coach Dick Kinneman is now 12-3. Forest View is 2-1 in the M-SL and 9-6 for the season under headman Ken Arneson.

THE KNIGHTS' standout seven this year have been starters Tom Lundstedt, J. D. Thorne, Dan Agard, Tom Beard and Tony Kulasa plus subs Dave Kingman and Craig Wolf. Only they played against FV but it was Kulasa who turned in the game winning performance.

Kulasa, a 5-11 guard, topped all scorers in his team's struggle with the Falcons. He pumped in 21 points. Oddly enough, that's just the second time Kulasa has hit double figures this campaign. His previous high was 10 in the Pontiac tourney final so he's hitting highest when it counts most.

Other honors in the game were well divided. Lundstedt and Kingman did well for Prospect while Howie Brasch and Jim Buckholz kept Forest View hopes alive.

Lundstedt, far below his usual floor output, made only two of 10 goal attempts. He totaled 18 points however because he sank 14 of 20 at the line. That showing tied a school mark for most free throws set in 1963 by Ron Moehling, who made 14 of 19 in a 70-57 loss to Proviso East.

WORKING OFF THE bench, Kingman accrued three buckets, six foul tries and eight rebounds. He was also aggressively successful on defense.

For the Falcons, Brasch was tops. The 6-3 junior, who doubles at forward and center, has learned his way around a varsity court in a hurry. Brasch missed just one of eight field goal shots and one of three from the line for 16 points and he grabbed six rebounds.

Buckholz backed up Brasch with a steady job at guard. In the back court slot Buckholz proved himself an adept ball-handler, good outside shot and playmaker of high potential. He had 10 points.

It was Buckholz and Brasch who opened FV scoring in the Prospect contest. Each popped in field goals to put their team up 4-2 after two minutes of play. Kulasa tied it up on a 10-footer and the teams traded basket for basket until Brasch's jumper sent Forest View ahead 15-14 going into quarter two.

KULASA BEGAN THE second period by sinking a 16-footer and following with a foul toss. When Thorne connected from the corner the Knights held a 19-15 advantage. Brasch and Pat Dunnigan made goals for the Falcons to tie it at 19 apiece before Prospect made its move.

Kingman, Kulasa, Lundstedt and Thorne all made two-pointers before Brasch added the next marker for FV. The tally then was 27-20.

Before the half closed Forest View twice came within three of the leaders. First at 28-25 and then 31-28 Prospect was almost caught. But, Lundstedt made two at the line to open the first gap and Kulasa hit from 22 feet to open the second to 33-28 as the intermission began.

That first half was played almost without an error. The Knights committed no turnovers, that's no bad passes and no violations. The Falcons had three turnovers. A different situation prevailed in the next half when there were 14 turnovers.

Quarter three opened fast. Brasch and Kingman traded goals, Jim Baumgardt made one from five feet and Prospect led 35-32. However, after Lundstedt's three point play and successful floor attempts by Kingman and Thorne, the Knights had their biggest advantage, 42-32.

THEN, WITH THE clock showing 6:14, both teams got stuck.

FV switched to a half-court zone press effectively stopping Prospect but the Falcons' offense also got bogged down. Neither side scored for over three minutes, the Knights didn't register a field goal for 12 minutes, Forest View produced just one goal during the next seven minutes. The game came to a complete standstill except for foul shots.

Before the final period Prospect had four at the line, FV five and that lone goal, by Buckholz, and the scoreboard read 46-38 as finishing action started.

Lundstedt had six free throws, Kingman two and Kulasa two as the Knights' margin became seven, at 56-49, with 3:45 left. The Falcons quickly came back on foul shots by Jim Borgardt, a Buckholz steal and lay-up and Brasch's 10-footer. Kingman's free throw made it 57-55 with 2:16 left.

AT THAT JUNCTURE Kulasa again came through in the clutch. He flipped in a goal at 2:05 from eight feet out, the initial two-pointer for his squad since 6:14 of the previous period. Prospect was up by four and Forest View got only two more points.

Before it was over Kulasa chipped in the last two of his 21 total; Lundstedt made his 14th and record-tying foul throw; Brasch got FV's final markers; and Kingman ended it with a tap-in only five seconds before time ran out.

In the encounter the Knights clipped the nets for a percentage of 42.2 (19 of 45) from the floor and 70.0 (28 of 40) at the line. Just a shade behind, the Falcons made 21 of 54 (38.9 per cent) in goal tries and 15 of 22 (68.2 per cent) in foul chances.

One side-light to the game was that the outcome continued Prospect's cage domination over Forest View. Never, in eight varsity contests, has an FV quintet defeated the Knights. The magnificent seven rolled along in that respect also.

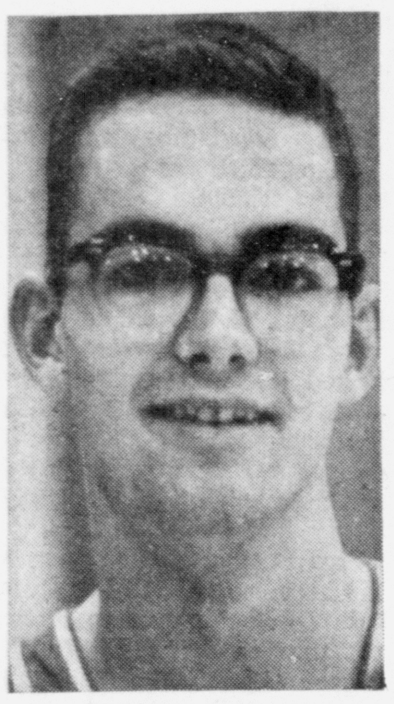
Cards 'Press' Past Two More Opponents

by FRED BOEDEKER

A good defense is the best offense. The Arlington Cardinals proved the old adage twice last weekend as they relied on their relentless full court press to turn two would-be losses into full scale routs.

Coach Ted Wissen's high flying Cards ran their victory streak to seven in a row as they trounced West Suburban Conference foe Glenbard 80-52 on Friday night and downed neighboring Barrington 61-42 the following evening.



JIM JORGENSEN
Bothers Broncos

The dual victory left the Cardinals with an impressive 12-3 season record and a 6-2 W.S.C. mark — good enough for sole possession of second place behind York's unbeaten Dukes.

THE CARDS' home court victory over Glenbard provided sweet revenge for the locals who had lost an earlier contest to the Hilltoppers by an 84-73 score.

Friday night's game looked as if it might go the same for a while. Glebard opened up a six point lead (23-17) early in the second period while Arlington's offense was floundering. But at this point the Cardinals switched into their stingy pressing defense and the reversal was instantaneous.

The hosts stole the ball three straight times and scored 13 points in the short span of one minute and 38 seconds to forge ahead by a seven point margin 30-23. At half time the lead had been increased to 38-25 and the tide had turned.

The locals continued to apply the press for the remainder of the contest. They outscored the Hilltoppers 23-12 in the third quarter and midway through the final stanza Wissen emptied his bench.

Sharp shooting junior guard Steve Allen led the Cardinals offensively with 22 points on eleven baskets. But Allen had more than ample support from 6-6 center Jim Donches, who collected 20 counters on eight field goals and 4-6 free throws for a career high. Jim teamed with 6-6 forward Bruce Hubbard to outrebound the rangy Hilltoppers. Guard Terry Townley contributed 17 points to the locals' cause on five baskets and 7-10 charity tosses.

Arlington shot .458 from the field against Glenbard, hitting 33 of 72 shots. After a so-so 6-for-16 opening period the Cards sailed along at a .490 clip the rest of the way. They were 10-for-18 in the third quarter.

Kirk Biggs, the Bards' forward, copped scoring honors for the evening with a 26 point performance. He had bettered that total only once this season — a 27 point outburst against the Cards in their last meeting.

WISSEN'S BOYS picked up where they left off in Saturday's non-league contest against host Barrington. Arlington raced out to a 16-8 first quarter lead but the Broncos weren't ready to lie down and die just yet. Don Shoemaker and Jim Jusits got six points each to push Barrington into a 26-24 lead at intermission.

Once again it was the Cardinals' pressing defense that turned the tables. Wissen's quintet employed the press throughout the second half, holding the Broncos to only 16 points. The Cards outscored their hosts 15 to 4 in the third quarter and 21-12 in the final period to effect the 61-42 rout.

Allen was high again for the locals with 20 points on 10 baskets, giving him a total of 21 field goals over the weekend. Jim Jorgensen chipped in with 16 counters and collected more than his share of rebounds. As he achieved his varsity high. Jim had 13 in the concluding quarter.

The Cards will attempt to strengthen their one game hold on second place in the West Suburban Conference and increase their winning streak to eight when they journey to Riverside - Brookfield tomorrow night.

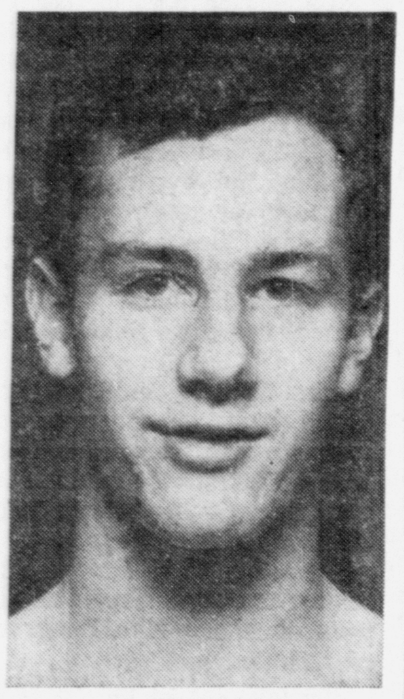
Still Unbeaten

St. Viator's Tankers Win

Holy Cross gave St. Viator's varsity swimmers a decent argument, but Charles Mondi's powerful Lions still remained unbeaten in dual meet competition for 1965-66 last Saturday afternoon.



RICK WITHROW
Tops 400 Free

Rene Tague won two events to spark the Arlington Heights School to a 65 - 30 victory over Holy Cross in a meet that filled the schedule vacancy that resulted when Wheeling dropped swimming.

Tague, who's enjoying a fine senior year, topped the 50 yard freestyle in 23.3 and the 100 freestyle in 54.1. He was an easy winner in both events.

Rick Withrow gave the Lions a first in the 400 freestyle when he splashed to a 4:47 clocking, two and nine-tenths seconds ahead of Holy Cross' Carroll.

RICK KALINOWSKI topped the breast stroke in 1:11.4 and also worked with Mike Gibler, Joe Herrity, and John Massey on the victorious 200 medley relay.

Ken Sophie gave the Lions their other individual first when he headed the diving event with a 62.05 rating.

St. Viator won the 400 freestyle relay with a team of Kevin Shea, Massey, Bob Brown, and Jim Cronin. They showed a 3:58.6 clocking.

THE LION frosh-sophs also remained unbeaten with a 72-23 thumping of Holy Cross.

Bill McCaffrey and Ed Vallely were double winners for the frosh-sophs. McCaffrey won the 150 freestyle in 1:34.7 and 50 backstroke in 30.8, and Vallely headed the 50 free (26.6) and 100 free (1:00.2).

Other Lion winners in the individual events were Dave Mullan in diving and Lou Hibbs in the 50 fly.

St. Viator also won both relays.

Cardinal Frosh Whipped on Mat

Arlington scored in only four bouts Saturday in dropping a 30-16 frosh wrestling decision to LaGrange.

The Cardinals tallied with a decision by Jack Dabbert at 120 pounds and Wally Bednarz at 180, pin by McCoy at 154, and a forfeit at 145.

Pirates Clip Wildcats On 4th Period Surge

by KEN KNOX

White hunters will tell you this: if your game is tiger in Sumatra, puma in British Columbia or Wildcat on the Wheeling basketball floor, there is a certain intangible you must possess if you are to conquer your quarry with a minimum of clawing to yourself.

It is, at the very least, commendable to be endowed with what ball floor, there is a certain intangible you must possess if you are jugular." In brief, it's the ability to strike quickly and surely when the quarry is at bay, when it's reeling from the pursuit and the assault. It's the ability to strike then and end the challenge.

In athletics, it has its most graphic demonstration in the boxing ring when the pugilist — sensing that his opponent has drifted into the woozy phase— will dispatch him to the mat with swift efficiency.

THE INSTINCT is more subtle in the game of basketball, where the product is not a quick and final demise of the opponent, but a changing of the character of the contest. It's the ability to press a momentum to the point where triumph is out of reach for the opponnt, either physically or psychologically. It's the transformation of a perilous two-sided confrontation into a one-sided romp, accomplished by trampling the opponent with a flurry of basketball wizardry at that opportune moment when he has staggered.

So what, you ask, is the point of all this?

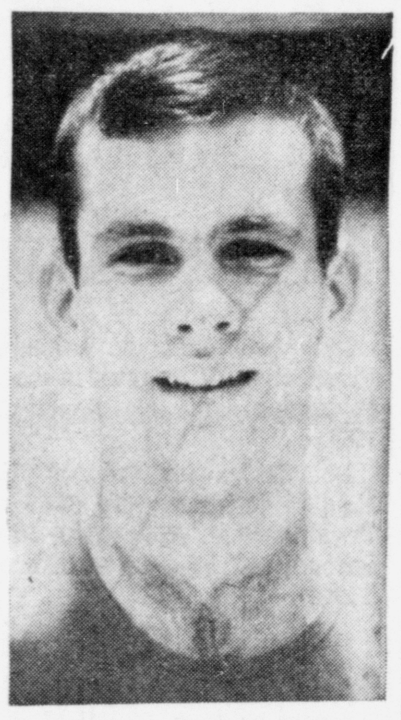
Only this: that Friday night — on Wheeling's basketball floor — there was a splendid illustration of how a team does and does not utilize the instinct.

Palatine's basketball Pirates — seeking to retain their portion of the Mid-Suburban League leadership — had no less than five opportunities to smite Wheeling's Wildcats before the final buzzer, to reduce their threat to the minimum.

FIVE TIMES the Pirates had the cutlass poised for the final stroke, and four times the instinct failed them. The fifth time — a period of two minutes and one second in the final quarter — the instinct was there.

In that fourth quarter, Bud Mueller's Pirates put the game with Mike Owens' Wildcats at the point where it couldn't be retrieved, and Palatine held on for a 65-60 win. For Palatine, it was the fourth victory in succession, placing them at 3-0 in the MSL and above .500 — at 8-7 — for the full season. For Wheeling, the loss was the third straight in the MSL and dropped the season mark to 3-11.

The Palatine victory was again one of fine team balance, with all five starters over or near double figures. But one individual was illuminated by his contributions. Pirate veteran Jerry McCormick was the dominant force. The 6-1 forward totaled 23 points, more than any Pirate collected in one game this season, and 10 of which came in that crucial fourth quarter.



JERRY McCORMICK
Dominant Force

THE PIRATES went into the last period with a lead of 46-41, with the advantage having changed hands five times before that in the shaky contest. Four times until then Palatine had started to spurt away from the 'Cats, who had the first quarter lead but had to go on the defensive afterward. All four times the instinct for destruction had failed Palatine, as the Pirates rushed to margins of five to eight points and dominated the play, but then allowed the hosts to close in again.

In the fourth quarter, the margin went to 48-41 as McCormick dropped in a shot from the corner. But center Scott Bischoff — who with guard Rex Peterson had kept Wheeling alive all through the game — began to turn the momentum. Thirteen seconds after McCormick made his shot, Bischoff dropped in a short jumper. Palatine took the ball, Bischoff stole a pass, banked in a shot, and it was 48-45.

The Pirates lost the ball again, and a Skip Grandt shot made it 48-47 with six minutes to go. Wheeling began to flash the killer instinct.

IT WAS THEN that Palatine did what it had threatened to do almost from the game's beginning. At 5:45, the ball was worked in to guard Mike Ferguson, who put in a shot from under the basket. From then until 3:44, Wheeling could do nothing. Palatine ran 11 straight points, six of them on field goals by McCormick. Ferguson added a free throw in the flurry and junior Doug Spruance — in at center for foul-troubled Dave Willy — popped in a shot from the key to run the score to 59-47.

Wheeling flurried with four straight points, but that surge was stopped when Paul Kozlicki — fouling out while doing it — drove through the 'Cats for a layup. The game was simply a scramble after that, as the teams played it out with some reckless passing and shooting.

The game was one in which both teams seemed to evidence a certain reluctance for victory, and in the end, Palatine had done just enough to win it. Wheeling had taken its first quarter lead on some good shooting, while the Pirates looked uninspired and hit only three of 15 shots. Palatine began to move after that, but only in spurts, sufficient to keep the Pirates ahead but not free of the threat. Wheeling's own mistakes kept the 'Cats from getting an advantage, with several key turnovers crimping the losers.

In the end, there were three telling factors. The Pirates shot much better from the free throw line — 17 for 26 — than they had in the past, so the opponents stayed even there. The Pirates negated Wheeling's top scoring threat, keeping forward Tom Neuckranz to six points in the game, two on free throws at 3:04 of the third period, and four on field goals in the last 40 seconds. And, most importantly, the Pirates had that instinct when they needed it the most.

Take Cage Tilt 66-57

Knights Slip by FV; Get 9th Win in Row

by MICHAEL HESS

The magnificent seven keep rolling along . . ..

Prospect's cage force isn't the usual quintet but, instead, is a starting five plus two. That "suptet" has now won nine straight.

Most recent victim of the Knights' hoop streak was Forest View. The Falcons became casualty number nine last Friday. FV fell by a 66-57 count.

TONY KULASA
When It Counts Most

With that triumph Prospect remained atop Mid-Suburban League standings, tied at 3-0 with Palatine. Overall the crew of coach Dick Kinneman is now 12-3. Forest View is 2-1 in the M-SL and 9-6 for the season under headman Ken Arneson.

THE KNIGHTS' standout seven this year have been starters Tom Lundstedt, J. D. Thorne, Dan Agard, Tom Beard and Tony Kulasa plus subs Dave Kingman and Craig Wolf. Only they played against FV but it was Kulasa who turned in the game winning performance.

Kulasa, a 5-11 guard, topped all scorers in his team's struggle with the Falcons. He pumped in 21 points. Oddly enough, that's just the second time Kulasa has hit double figures this campaign. His previous high was 10 in the Pontiac tourney final so he's hitting highest when it counts most.

Other honors in the game were well divided. Lundstedt and Kingman did well for Prospect while Howie Brasch and Jim Buckholz kept Forest View hopes alive.

Lundstedt, far below his usual floor output, made only two of 10 goal attempts. He totaled 18 points however because he sank 14 of 20 at the line. That showing tied a school mark for most free throws set in 1963 by Ron Moehling, who made 14 of 19 in a 70-57 loss to Proviso East.

WORKING OFF THE bench, Kingman accrued three buckets, six foul tries and eight rebounds. He was also aggressively successful on defense.

For the Falcons, Brasch was tops. The 6-3 junior, who doubles at forward and center, has learned his way around a varsity court in a hurry. Brasch missed just one of eight field goal shots and one of three from the line for 16 points and he grabbed six rebounds.

Buckholz backed up Brasch with a steady job at guard. In the back court slot Buckholz proved himself an adept ballhandler, good outside shot and playmaker of high potential. He had 10 points.

It was Buckholz and Brasch who opened FV scoring in the Prospect contest. Each popped in field goals to put their team up 4-2 after two minutes of play. Kulasa tied it up on a 10-footer and the teams traded basket for basket until Brasch's jumper sent Forest View ahead 15-14 going into quarter two.

KULASA BEGAN THE second period by sinking a 16-footer and following with a foul toss. When Thorne connected from the corner the Knights held a 19-15 advantage. Brasch and Pat Dunnigan made goals for the Falcons to tie it at 19 apiece before Prospect made its move.

Kingman, Kulasa, Lundstedt and Thorne all made two-pointers before Brasch added the next marker for FV. The tally then was 27-20.

Before the half closed Forest View twice came within three of the leaders. First at 28-25 and then 31-28 Prospect was almost caught. But, Lundstedt made two at the line to open the first gap and Kulasa hit from 22 feet to open the second to 33-28 as the intermission began.

That first half was played almost without an error. The Knights committed no turnovers, that's no bad passes and no violations. The Falcons had three turnovers. A different situation prevailed in the next half when there were 14 turnovers.

Quarter three opened fast. Brasch and Kingman traded goals, Jim Baumgardt made one from five feet and Prospect led 35-32. However, after Lundstedt's three point play and successful floor attempts by Kingman and Thorne, the Knights had their biggest advantage, 42-32.

THEN, WITH THE clock showing 6:14, both teams got stuck.

FV switched to a half-court zone press effectively stopping Prospect but the Falcons' offense also got bogged down. Neither side scored for over three minutes, the Knights didn't register a field goal for 12 minutes, Forest View produced just one goal during the next seven minutes. The game came to a complete standstill except for foul shots.

Before the final period Prospect had four at the line, FV five and that lone goal, by Buckholz, and the scoreboard read 46-38 as finishing action started.

Lundstedt had six free throws, Kingman two and Kulasa two as the Knights' margin became seven, at 56-49, with 3:45 left. The Falcons quickly came back on foul shots by Jim Borgardt, a Buckholz steal and lay-up and Brasch's 10-footer. Kingman's free throw made it 57-55 with 2:16 left.

AT THAT JUNCTURE Kulasa again came through in the clutch. He flipped in a goal at 2:05 from eight feet out, the initial two-pointer for his squad since 6:14 of the previous period. Prospect was up by four and Forest View got only two more points.

Before it was over Kulasa chipped in the last two of his 21 total; Lundstedt made his 14th and record-tying foul throw; Brasch got FV's final markers; and Kingman ended it with a tap-in only five seconds before time ran out.

In the encounter the Knights clipped the nets for a percentage of 42.2 (19 of 45) from the floor and 70.0 (28 of 40) at the line. Just a shade behind, the Falcons made 21 of 54 (38.9 per cent) in goal tries and 15 of 22 (68.2 per cent) in foul chances.

One side-light to the game was that the outcome continued Prospect's cage domination over Forest View. Never, in eight varsity contests, has an FV quintet defeated the Knights. The magnificent seven rolled along in that respect also.

Knights Whip FV Gymnasts

Tumbling and horizontal bar strength led Prospect gymnasts to a 79½-52½ victory over Forest View last Friday.

At the frosh-soph level it was a different story. There FV came out ahead 74½-57½ due mainly to tramp and high bar showings.

With those totals the Knights varsity mark became 4-2 under Coach Rick Farris and 3-2-1 was the F-S standard. The Falcons varsity record dropped to 3-5 under headman Gay Hughes but a lift to 6-2 resulted on the lower level.

In varsity action Prospect captured positions one, two and three on the mats and H-bar. Bob Goffinski, with a 154, Rick Burger and Mike Coughland ended that way on the mats while Dane Jennings, 112, Bruce Boult and John Hardt were the top bar trio.

OTHER FIRSTS for the Knights went to Rick Carr, Vince Franzone, and Stu Bedford. Carr won on the trampoline with a 148 while ratings of 124 and 154 were good enough to give Franzone and Bedford honors on the rings and parallel bars.

Lone best in any event for Forest View went to Mike Damore. He had a 135 for his sixth win of the season on the side horse.

Others who did well for Prospect were Bruce Cole, Jeff Long and Bill Nendel. Cole was second on the horse as was Long on the P-bars while Nendel took third on the tramp.

Dave Hippensteel, Bill Wineland and Garth Freeman were others who placed high for FV. Seconds on the tramp and rings went to Hippensteel while Wineland and Freeman gained thirds on the P-bars and rings.

Four firsts went to Forest View at the frosh-soph level. Jim Evens won on the tramp to pace a Falcons sweep of the event while Rog Kratowicz took the high bar, Bill Bell the rings and Gregg Murphy tumbling.

LOWER LEVEL winners for the Knights were Bruce Bernard and Jim Matson. Bernard gained honors on the P-bars and Matson on the horse.

Others who did well for FV were Glenn Owsiany, Dale Simon and Mike Stargardt. All took seconds. Runner-up spots for Prospect went to Kurt Straub, Bill Van Sky and Steve Bang.

FV Tankmen Lose 84-11 To Deerfield

Forest View swimmers were sunk by an 84-11 margin last Thursday. The culprit was Deerfield which handed FV its 7th straight defeat.

Only tankmen to finish higher than third in the meet for the Falcons was Harold Abrahamson. He took runner-up honors in the 50 yard freestyle event with a timing of 26.0 seconds.

At the frosh soph level the results for Forest View were much improved over the varsity's showing. There the Falcons were topped 68-27 and took two firsts.

Top honors in the medley relay event went to FV. A lower level team of Ray Bauer, Knut Bauer, Phil Nychay and Brad Davis ended ahead in a time of 2:02.5. "They did an outstanding job for us," commented Forest View tank coach Keith North.

The other first for F-S Falcons went to Nychay. He won the 50 yard butterfly race with a time of 28.9 seconds. The frosh-soph season record at FV is now 1-6.

Viator Frosh Dumped, 45-38

A cold second period proved costly Saturday evening as St. Viator's frosh basketball team dropped a 45-38 decision to host St. Joseph.

The Lions enjoyed a 12-7 lead after one period but could put through only four points in the second stanza.

St. Viator climbed within two points of the hosts in the concluding period before the Chargers staged a flurry to put the game out of reach.

Arlington Ties Lion Matmen

RON THOMPSON
Clutch Victory

Although every match is important in a wrestling meet, the heavyweight tussle often is packed with the most drama.

Because this match is the final event on the program, meets can be won or lost there.

The heavyweight encounter has taken on added significance for Arlington High School's varsity squad in the past two West Suburban Conference meets.

THE CARDINALS of coach Julius Fliehler dropped a league battle with Downers Grove by two points on a pin at heavyweight and tied LaGrange last Saturday thanks to a decision at heavyweight.

Trailing 21-18 with one bout remaining, Arlington battled into a tie with LaGrange on Ron Thompson's thrilling 2-0 conquest of Greg Benes.

Thompson scored with an escape in the second period and added one point of riding time for the decision.

ARLINGTON had opened with a victory at 95 pounds as Jim Whitnell fashioned an easy 12-1 conquest of Scott Novotny, jumping out in front 5-0 in the first period. The win was Whitnell's eighth in dual meet action.

LaGrange bounced back with a decision and pin before Arlington's Tom MacCarthy emerged with a 0-0 tie at 120. Bruce Conti celebrated his return to competition with a 7-4 win over Bruce Layer at 127 pounds.

Chip Douglas gave Arlington a one-point lead with a 5-1 win at 133, scoring a reversal and predicament in the second period, but the Lions regained the advantage at 138 and moved five points on top at 145. Arlington's Dave Gooding suffered his first dual meet loss of the year at 138.

DON LINDMARK gave the Cards two markers with a 3-3 tie at 154, and Mike Jones racked up his ninth straight dual meet success with a pin in 3:33 at 165 pounds.

A 4-2 victory by LaGrange's Oscar Sliva at 180 pushed the Lions back into a three-point lead and set up the dramatic heavyweight finale.

Arlington will host Riverside-Brookfield Friday evening at 6:45 and will journey to Hinsdale Saturday afternoon for a meet at 1:45.

Wheeling Frosh Take Two Wins

Wheeling made it two out of two in freshman basketball competition with Palatine last Saturday, gathering up A and B level wins.

In the A game, the Wildcats outscored Palatine in every quarter and ended on top 65-54, bringing the victors' season record to 5-3. Wheeling's Carl Fricke and Palatine's Scott Smith tied for scoring honors with 21 points apiece, Fricke's on seven field goals and seven free throws, and Smith's on 10 buckets and a free throw. Don Wright had 15 points for Wheeling, while Bill Mazanet and Gary Davis led Palatine with eight and seven rebounds.

Wheeling's frosh B team advanced to a 7-1 season mark with a 55-47 triumph. Ken St. Onge led the way with 13 points on six baskets and a free throw.

Knights Tip FV On Frosh Mats

A slim 26-24 margin was enough to give Prospect frosh wrestlers their sixth straight victory in a meet against Forest View last Friday.

For the freshman Knights, now 6-1 for the year, there were three pins in the action with FV. They went to Chuck Olson (95 pounds), Tony Lassaroni (145) and Larry Sander (180). Decisions for the winners were gained by Bruce Busse (103) and Jack Costello (138).

Three pins were also taken by the Falcons. Don Winkleman (127), Jim Smith (133) and Lohrman (154) all downed their opponents while Bill Sundblom (112), Bill Dehaven (120) and Jim Pierson (heavyweight) took decisions. Forest View is 3-5-1 for the season.

Only scoring difference between the two teams came at 165 pounds. Prospect's Kim Eagrelius won by default and that provided the slim two-point margin.

Falcon JV Cagers Trim Knights 44-36

Only two teams have beaten Prospect's JV cagers in their 28 games since November 23, 1964.

Deerfield, which edged the Knights junior varsity 55-53 on December 19, 1965, was first. Second, last Friday, was Forest View.

In a contest decided at the free throw line, the Falcons topped Prospect 44-36. While the Knights held an 11-9 field goal edge, FV won by hitting 26 of 36 foul tries to just 14 of 22 for Prospect.

AS A RESULT of the struggle, Forest View's season record under coach Bob Rees became 8-3 over-all and 2-1 in Mid-Suburban League play. The Knights, under Don Arseneau, hold the same M-SL mark and are 9-2 for the year.

Tom Grafton, of Prospect, opened the battle against Forest View by sinking a foul shot and lay-up field goal. From that 3-0 deficit the Falcons came back and, led by Ted Lambert's five points, were up 8-7 after one quarter.

In period two FV got hot. Bob Arnold, Dennis Lynch and Rich Gillespie put in four markers apiece while Lambert added three to give Forest View a 17-8 margin in the quarter and 25-15 lead at the half. Grafton, with 14 points before the intermission, had all but one of his team's tallies.

Mike Mueller paced a Knights' surge in the third period. He popped in eight points to help pull Prospect to within three, at 35-32, going into the last seven minutes.

DURING THOSE closing moments, however, FV moved further ahead. Arnold and Frank Calvello, with three and five respectively, did the bulk of the winner's scoring to establish the final totals. The Knights made only four points in the final quarter.

High man in the game was Grafton with 19 points, seven from the line. He was backed by teammate Mueller's 12 which included four foul tosses.

Arnold was best for the Falcons. He had 13 points, seven of which came at the line. Calvello and Lambert put in 10 and six free throws apiece and finished with 10 and 8 points.

Card Frosh Win, 47-42

A second half explosion carried Arlington High School's frosh 'A' Cardinals to a 47-42 victory over Glenbard West last Saturday morning.

Coach Tom Pitchford's outfit trailed 32-23 at the intermission but outscored the Hilltoppers 24-10 over the final 14 minutes.

Jim Baumgartner paced the balanced attack with six baskets for 12 points. Dennis Meacham and Dean Schmelzer collected 11 each.

Arlington will host Riverside-Brookfield Saturday morning at 9:30.

Drops Two Cliff-Hangers

Lions' Five Suffers Frustrating Weekend

by BOB FRISK

St. Viator went down for the count twice last weekend but took both "fights" to the final round.

St. Patrick and St. Joseph delivered the knockouts in two Chicagoland Prep League bouts which weren't decided until the closing seconds.

The Shamrocks broke a tie Friday with a seven-point flurry in the final 30 seconds of their 55-48 victory. St. Joseph ran off eleven straight points in less than two minutes of the fourth period Saturday and held on for a 48-47 win.

The double loss dropped coach Larry Nomellini's Lions into a tie with St. Mel for fourth place in the Chicagoland, three full games behind pace-setting DeLaSalle and two behind runner-up St. Pat's.

THERE HAS TO be a winner and loser in every basketball game, but the effect of any defeat is more painful in the cliff-hangers, the struggles to the wire where victory is so close.

The Lions were tied with highly regarded St. Patrick with 30 seconds remaining Friday when the Shamrocks' 6-7 Joe Burke battled under the basket for a clutch three-pointer, netting a layup and a free throw.

St. Pat's added four more free throws in the closing seconds to set up a deceiving seven-point advantage.

The Lions blew a seven-point lead in the final stanza at St. Joseph, as they fell to the Chargers for the third time this season.

ST. VIATOR and St. Pat's traded blows in the first period Friday evening, but the Shamrocks shot out to a nine-point cushion midway in the second stanza. The visitors were still up by seven with 1:04 remaining when the Lions fought back.

Dan Collins put in two free throws and after St. Pat's Burke netted a turn-around jumper John Loughman and Frank Hogan hit for the Lions, cutting the Shamrock lead to four points (29-25) at the intermission.

St. Pat's didn't relinquish its lead in the third period but they couldn't pull away from the stubborn hosts, missing the first shots on three one-and-one free throw attempts.

THE LIONS made their move in the final period after the Shamrocks had climbed into a six point, 42-36 lead.

Paul Dumke's two free throws ignited the Lion explosion and a full court press bewildered the Shamrocks. Collins hit from the side after Dumke stole the ball and in less than two minutes St. Viator had gained a 44-44 tie.

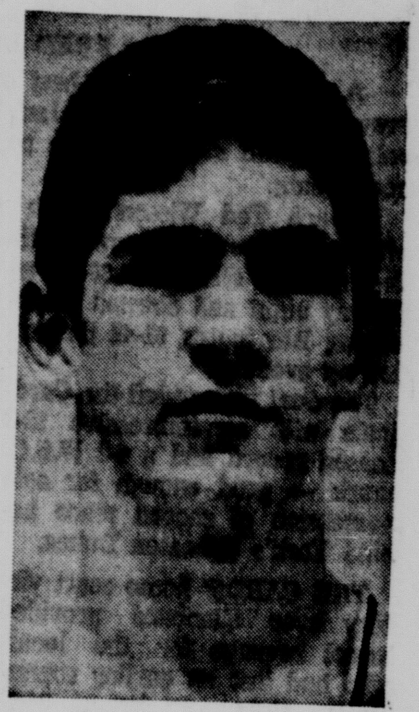
Paul Pomplun's nifty drive on the base-line knotted the score, but two Shamrock free throws put the Lions in a hole again. Hogan pulled them out this time with a 20-footer at 3:46.

The Lion defense slipped up and let Shamrock soph Carlos Martinez pop in a two-pointer without any argument, but Loughman knotted the count again with a basket from the corner.

WITH ONE minute remaining and the Lions in control Loughman drove for the basket but his shot was off, and the Shamrocks took control, calling a timeout.

When play resumed St. Pat's worked the ball around until Tony Bertucca spotted Burke under the basket. The big Shamrock center missed on his first attempt but regained possession and didn't miss a second time.

Burke was fouled on his basket and a free throw gave St. Pat's a 51-48 lead. When Loughman missed a drive seconds later the Shamrocks took over again and four free throws in the closing 13 seconds sealed the victory.



FRANK HOGAN

THE SECOND half of a frustrating weekend came twenty-four hours later in Westchester when the Lions saw apparent victory slip out of their grasp in a wild fourth period.

Hogan engineered a rush that vaulted the Lions into a seven-point (42-35) lead with 6:27 remaining, and the Chargers' 6-4 center Tommy Miller was on the sidelines with a sprained ankle to offset St. Viator's loss of Dumke on five fouls.

But the loss of Miller didn't bother the Chargers. They ran off eleven straight points in less than two minutes and climbed from a seven-point deficit into a 46-42 lead.

TURNOVERS bothered both clubs throughout the loosely-played contest, but they killed St. Viator in that two-minute stretch. Six Charger points came within a space of 28 seconds.

The Lions didn't give up at this point and Hogan and Bataille clicked from the line to cut the Charger lead to one point, 46-45, with 4:09 left.

But this wasn't St. Viator's night. After Bataille dropped in a free throw at 4:09 the Lions didn't score another point until a goal-tending rap gave Hogan a basket with eight seconds remaining.

St. Joseph only scored two points in that four-minute period, but those two points were decisive in the victory.

The Lions jumped out on top 13-8 after one period but fell behind by one, 24-23, at halftime. They took a 36-35 lead into the fatal fourth quarter.

Hogan was high for both clubs with 23 points, 15 coming in the final half.

Frosh-Soph Also Wins

Wheeling Gymnasts Beat Palatine Unit

Wheeling's gymnasts dominated Palatine's on both the varsity and frosh-soph level last Friday, running up an 86½ to 45½ count on the senior plane and an 85-47 total among the freshmen and sophomores.

The varsity triumph was the third in the first 10 meets for Wayne Selvig's Wildcats, and he hailed it as the team's best showing of the season. It gave Wheeling a 1-1 mark in the Mid-Suburban League competition.

Joe Toth's Pirates slipped to 2-4 over-all with the defeat, and are 0-2 in the league.

WHEELING had only one boy finish lower than fourth in the varsity meet, and showed its greatest strength with a sweep on the trampoline. Jerry Fontecchio won with a two-judge score of 108, followed by Dick Dyson and Bob Johnson.

Fontecchio and Dyson also finished 1-2 in tumbling, with Fontecchio getting 131 points for first. Palatine's Gordon Hominick was third with 93 points.

Wheeling made it 1-2 on the high bar and the parallel bars, with Johnson ruling the high bar with a 116 score and Fred Hudson second, and Mike Bangs totaling a fine 156 score to lead Greg Shornden in a 1-2 finish on the parallel bars.

The Wildcats made a sweep of the individual firsts by also winning on the side horse and the rings. Wayne Coats was master on the side horse, totaling 128 points with Don Savage third. On the rings, Jim Bowker scored 153 to win, and Lonny Davis was third.

PALATINE'S best was offered by Randy Keller, who tallied 13 team points. Keller had a third on the high bar, a third on the parallel bars and a second on the rings.

Also scoring high for the Pirates was Dave Chidley, second on the side horse with a 117 score.

Dave Donaldson's sophs ran their season mark to 7-3-1 by handling Jim Woodward's team on the lower level, taking five individual firsts. Leading Wheeling was Steve Geiger, first on the parallel bars, second on the side horse and second on the rings.

John Whittington had a first on the high bar and a second on the parallel bars, while Dick Orna tallied 12 team points with a first on rings and second on the high bar.

The other Wheeling firsts came from John Grund on the trampoline and Kim Butler on the side horse.

The next action for Wheeling is home against Conant at 4:30 p.m. Friday, while Palatine heads to Forest View for a 4:15 Friday match.

Wheeling's Jayvees Edge Palatine 44-43

By a free throw with 12 seconds to go, Wheeling's junior varsity basketball team defeated Palatine's Friday night. The final — after a fourth period comeback — read Wheeling 44, Palatine 43.

The free throw was launchel from the hands of Tom Gozdecki. He had been fouled by Palatine's Bob Hoffman, moments after Hoffman had missed a free throw with the score tied 43-43. As it was, Hoffman almost pulled it out for Palatine after that, launching a 30-footer that bounced off the front rim as the buzzer ended the game.

The game was not that close until the fourth period. It began with the two teams alternately dominating the first two quarters.

TED ECKER'S Wildcats ruled period one 17-9, and seemed to have a momentum going. But Chuck Johannson's Pirates came back in the second quarter. They went ahead 18-17 on a field goal by Dick Smith at 4:27 and kept going until they had turned 14 consecutive points into a 23-17 lead. They were up at the half 30-24.

The game was played on even terms in the third period, with Palatine adding another point to its advantage. But in the fourth quarter, the leaders crumbled. They lost center Fred Sanborn and forward Dave Freeman on fouls and could hit only one shot from the floor as Wheeling ruled the period 12-4.

Wheeling tied the score at 41-41 on a field goal by Rick Bruce at 3:30. Palatine took a temporary advantage on a pair of free throws by Smith, but with 50 seconds left, Greg Fedyski tied it and the setting was in order for Gozdecki's moment.

For the game, Palatine's Smith was high with 16 points. Wheeling had fine balance, with Fedyski getting 10, Bruce eight and Jay Newman and Bruce seven each.

The decision left both teams with 1-2 marks in Mid-Suburban League play, with Wheeling 3-6 and Palatine 3-7 overall.

Knights Whip FV Gymnasts

Tumbling and horizontal bar strength led Prospect gymnasts to a 79½-52½ victory over Forest View last Friday.

At the frosh-soph level it was a different story. There FV came out ahead 74½-57½ due mainly to tramp and high bar showings.

With those totals the Knights varsity mark became 4-2 under Coach Rick Farris and 3-2-1 was the F-S standard. The Falcons varsity record dropped to 3-5 under headman Gay Hughes but a lift to 6-2 resulted on the lower level.

In varsity action Prospect captured positions one, two and three on the mats and H-bar. Bob Goffinski, with a 154, Rick Burger and Mike Coughland ended that way on the mats while Dane Jennings, 112, Bruce Boult and John Hardt were the top bar trio.

OTHER FIRSTS for the Knights went to Rick Carr, Vince Franzone, and Stu Bedford. Carr won on the trampoline with a 148 while ratings of 124 and 154 were good enough to give Franzone and Bedford honors on the rings and parallel bars.

Lone best in any event for Forest View went to Mike Damore. He had a 135 for his sixth win of the season on the side horse.

Others who did well for Prospect were Bruce Cole, Jeff Long and Bill Nendel. Cole was second on the horse as was Long on the P-bars while Nendel took third on the tramp.

Dave Hippensteel, Bill Wineland and Garth Freeman were others who placed high for FV. Seconds on the tramp and rings went to Hippensteel while Wineland and Freeman gained thirds on the P-bars and rings.

Four firsts went to Forest View at the frosh-soph level. Jim Evens won on the tramp to pace a Falcons sweep of the event while Rog Kratowicz took the high bar, Bill Bell the rings and Gregg Murphy tumbling.

LOWER LEVEL winners for the Knights were Bruce Bernard and Jim Matson. Bernard gained honors on the P-bars and Matson on the horse.

Others who did well for FV were Glenn Owsiany, Dale Simon and Mike Stargardt. All took seconds. Runner-up spots for Prospect went to Kurt Straub, Bill Van Sky and Steve Bang.

FV Tankmen Lose 84-11 To Deerfield

Forest View swimmers were sunk by an 84-11 margin last Thursday. The culprit was Deerfield which handed FV its 7th straight defeat.

Only tankmen to finish higher than third in the meet for the Falcons was Harold Abrahamson. He took runner-up honors in the 50 yard freestyle event with a timing of 26.0 seconds.

At the frosh soph level the results for Forest View were much improved over the varsity's showing. There the Falcons were topped 68-27 and took two firsts.

Top honors in the medley relay event went to FV. A lower level team of Ray Bauer, Knut Bauer, Phil Nychay and Brad Davis ended ahead in a time of 2:02.5. "They did an outstanding job for us," commented Forest View tank coach Keith North.

The other first for F-S Falcons went to Nychay. He won the 50 yard butterfly race with a time of 28.9 seconds. The frosh-soph season record at FV is now 1-6.

Viator Frosh Dumped, 45-38

A cold second period proved costly Saturday evening as St. Viator's frosh basketball team dropped a 45-38 decision to host St. Joseph.

The Lions enjoyed a 12-7 lead after one period but could put through only four points in the second stanza.

St. Viator climbed within two points of the hosts in the concluding period before the Chargers staged a flurry to put the game out of reach.

Arlington Ties Lion Matmen

RON THOMPSON
Clutch Victory

Although every match is important in a wrestling meet, the heavyweight tussle often is packed with the most drama.

Because this match is the final event on the program, meets can be won or lost there.

The heavyweight encounter has taken on added significance for Arlington High School's varsity squad in the past two West Suburban Conference meets.

THE CARDINALS of coach Julius Fliehler dropped a league battle with Downers Grove by two points on a pin at heavyweight and tied LaGrange last Saturday thanks to a decision at heavyweight.

Trailing 21-18 with one bout remaining, Arlington battled into a tie with LaGrange on Ron Thompson's thrilling 2-0 conquest of Greg Benes.

Thompson scored with an escape in the second period and added one point of riding time for the decision.

ARLINGTON had opened with a victory at 95 pounds as Jim Whitnell fashioned an easy 12-1 conquest of Scott Novotny, jumping out in front 5-0 in the first period. The win was Whitnell's eighth in dual meet action.

LaGrange bounced back with a decision and pin before Arlington's Tom MacCarthy emerged with a 0-0 tie at 120. Bruce Conti celebrated his return to competition with a 7-4 win over Bruce Layer at 127 pounds.

Chip Douglas gave Arlington a one-point lead with a 5-1 win at 133, scoring a reversal and predicament in the second period, but the Lions regained the advantage at 138 and moved five points on top at 145. Arlington's Dave Gooding suffered his first dual meet loss of the year at 138.

DON LINDMARK gave the Cards two markers with a 3-3 tie at 154, and Mike Jones racked up his ninth straight dual meet success with a pin in 3:33 at 165 pounds.

A 4-2 victory by LaGrange's Oscar Sliva at 180 pushed the Lions back into a three-point lead and set up the dramatic heavyweight finale.

Arlington will host Riverside-Brookfield Friday evening at 6:45 and will journey to Hinsdale Saturday afternoon for a meet at 1:45.

Wheeling Frosh Take Two Wins

Wheeling made it two out of two in freshman basketball competition with Palatine last Saturday, gathering up A and B level wins.

In the A game, the Wildcats outscored Palatine in every quarter and ended on top 65-54, bringing the victors' season record to 5-3. Wheeling's Carl Fricke and Palatine's Scott Smith tied for scoring honors with 21 points apiece, Fricke's on seven field goals and seven free throws, and Smith's on 10 buckets and a free throw. Don Wright had 15 points for Wheeling, while Bill Mazanet and Gary Davis led Palatine with eight and seven rebounds.

Wheeling's frosh B team advanced to a 7-1 season mark with a 55-47 triumph. Ken St. Onge led the way with 13 points on six baskets and a free throw.

Knights Tip FV On Frosh Mats

A slim 26-24 margin was enough to give Prospect frosh wrestlers their sixth straight victory in a meet against Forest View last Friday.

For the freshman Knights, now 6-1 for the year, there were three pins in the action with FV. They went to Chuck Olson (95 pounds), Tony Lassaroni (145) and Larry Sander (180). Decisions for the winners were gained by Bruce Busse (103) and Jack Costello (138).

Three pins were also taken by the Falcons. Don Winkleman (127), Jim Smith (133) and Lohrman (154) all downed their opponents while Bill Sundblom (112), Bill Dehaven (120) and Jim Pierson (heavyweight) took decisions. Forest View is 3-5-1 for the season.

Only scoring difference between the two teams came at 165 pounds. Prospect's Kim Eagrelius won by default and that provided the slim two-point margin.

Falcon JV Cagers Trim Knights 44-36

Only two teams have beaten Prospect's JV cagers in their 28 games since November 23, 1964.

Deerfield, which edged the Knights junior varsity 55-53 on December 19, 1965, was first. Second, last Friday, was Forest View.

In a contest decided at the free throw line, the Falcons topped Prospect 44-36. While the Knights held an 11-9 field goal edge, FV won by hitting 26 of 36 foul tries to just 14 of 22 for Prospect.

AS A RESULT of the struggle, Forest View's season record under coach Bob Rees became 8-3 over-all and 2-1 in Mid-Suburban League play. The Knights, under Don Arseneau, hold the same M-SL mark and are 9-2 for the year.

Tom Grafton, of Prospect, opened the battle against Forest View by sinking a foul shot and lay-up field goal. From that 3-0 deficit the Falcons came back and, led by Ted Lambert's five points, were up 8-7 after one quarter.

In period two FV got hot.

Bob Arnold, Dennis Lynch and Rich Gillespie put in four markers apiece while Lambert added three to give Forest View a 17-8 margin in the quarter and 25-15 lead at the half. Grafton, with 14 points before the intermission, had all but one of his team's tallies.

Mike Mueller paced a Knights' surge in the third period. He popped in eight points to help pull Prospect to within three, at 35-32, going into the last seven minutes.

DURING THOSE closing moments, however, FV moved further ahead. Arnold and Frank Calvello, with three and five respectively, did the bulk of the winner's scoring to establish the final totals. The Knights made only four points in the final quarter.

High man in the game was Grafton with 19 points, seven from the line. He was backed by teammate Mueller's 12 which included four foul tosses.

Arnold was best for the Falcons. He had 13 points, seven of which came at the line. Calvello and Lambert put in 10 and six free throws apiece and finished with 10 and 8 points.

Card Frosh Win, 47-42

A second half explosion carried Arlington High School's frosh 'A' Cardinals to a 47-42 victory over Glenbard West last Saturday morning.

Coach Tom Pitchford's outfit trailed 32-23 at the intermission but outscored the Hilltoppers 24-10 over the final 14 minutes.

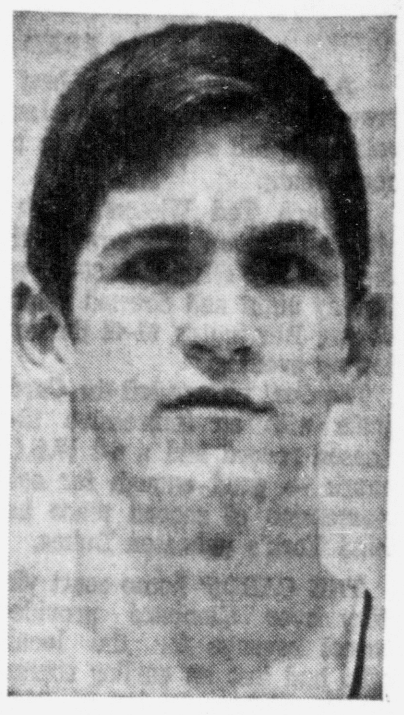
Jim Baumgartner paced the balanced attack with six baskets for 12 points. Dennis Meacham and Dean Schmelzer collected 11 each.

Arlington will host Riverside-Brookfield Saturday morning at 9:30.

Drops Two Cliff-Hangers

Lions' Five Suffers Frustrating Weekend

by BOB FRISK



FRANK HOGAN

St. Viator went down for the count twice last weekend but took both "fights" to the final round.

St. Patrick and St. Joseph delivered the knockouts in two Chicagoland Prep League bouts which weren't decided until the closing seconds.

The Shamrocks broke a tie Friday with a seven-point flurry in the final 30 seconds of their 55-48 victory. St. Joseph ran off eleven straight points in less than two minutes of the fourth period Saturday and held on for a 48-47 win.

The double loss dropped coach Larry Nomellini's Lions into a tie with St. Mel for fourth place in the Chicagoland, three full games behind pace-setting DeLaSalle and two behind runner-up St. Pat's.

THERE HAS TO be a winner and loser in every basketball game, but the effect of any defeat is more painful in the cliff-hangers, the struggles to the wire where victory is so close.

The Lions were tied with highly regarded St. Patrick with 30 seconds remaining Friday when the Shamrocks' 6-7 Joe Burke battled under the basket for a clutch three-pointer, netting a layup and a free throw.

St. Pat's added four more free throws in the closing seconds to set up a deceiving seven-point advantage.

The Lions blew a seven-point lead in the final stanza at St. Joseph, as they fell to the Chargers for the third time this season.

ST. VIATOR and St. Pat's traded blows in the first period Friday evening, but the Shamrocks shot out to a nine-point cushion midway in the second stanza. The visitors were still up by seven with 1:04 remaining when the Lions fought back.

Dan Collins put in two free throws and after St. Pat's Burke netted a turn-around jumper John Loughman and Frank Hogan hit for the Lions, cutting the Shamrock lead to four points (29-25) at the intermission.

St. Pat's didn't relinquish its lead in the third period but they couldn't pull away from the stubborn hosts, missing the first shots on three one-and-one free throw attempts.

THE LIONS made their move in the final period after the Shamrocks had climbed into a six point, 42-36 lead.

Paul Dumke's two free throws ignited the Lion explosion and a full court press bewildered the Shamrocks. Collins hit from the side after Dumke stole the ball and in less than two minutes St. Viator had gained a 44-44 tie.

Paul Pomplun's nifty drive on the base-line knotted the score, but two Shamrock free throws put the Lions in a hole again. Hogan pulled them out this time with a 20-footer at 3:46.

The Lion defense slipped up and let Shamrock soph Carlos Martinez pop in a two-pointer without any argument, but Loughman knotted the count again with a basket from the corner.

WITH ONE minute remaining and the Lions in control Loughman drove for the basket but his shot was off, and the Shamrocks took control, calling a timeout.

When play resumed St. Pat's worked the ball around until Tony Bertucca spotted Burke under the basket. The big Shamrock center missed on his first attempt but regained possession and didn't miss a second time.

Burke was fouled on his basket and a free throw gave St. Pat's a 51-48 lead. When Loughman missed a drive seconds later the Shamrocks took over again and four free throws in the closing 13 seconds sealed the victory.

THE SECOND half of a frustrating weekend came twenty-four hours later in Westchester when the Lions saw apparent victory slip out of their grasp in a wild fourth period.

Hogan engineered a rush that vaulted the Lions into a seven-point (42-35) lead with 6:27 remaining, and the Chargers' 6-4 center Tommy Miller was on the sidelines with a sprained ankle to offset St. Viator's loss of Dumke on five fouls.

But the loss of Miller didn't bother the Chargers. They ran off eleven straight points in less than two minutes and climbed from a seven-point deficit into a 46-42 lead.

TURNOVERS bothered both clubs throughout the loosely-played contest, but they killed St. Viator in that two-minute stretch. Six Charger points came within a space of 28 seconds.

The Lions didn't give up at this point and Hogan and Bataille clicked from the line to cut the Charger lead to one point, 46-45, with 4:09 left.

But this wasn't St. Viator's night. After Bataille dropped in a free throw at 4:09 the Lions didn't score another point until a goal-tending rap gave Hogan a basket with eight seconds remaining.

St. Joseph only scored two points in that four-minute period, but those two points were decisive in the victory.

The Lions jumped out on top 13-8 after one period but fell behind by one, 24-23, at half-time. They took a 36-35 lead into the fatal fourth quarter.

Hogan was high for both clubs with 23 points, 15 coming in the final half.

Frosh-Soph Also Wins

Wheeling Gymnasts Beat Palatine Unit

Wheeling's gymnasts dominated Palatine's on both the varsity and frosh-soph level last Friday, running up an 86½ to 45½ count on the senior plane and an 85-47 total among the freshmen and sophomores.

The varsity triumph was the third in the first 10 meets for Wayne Selvig's Wildcats, and he hailed it as the team's best showing of the season. It gave Wheeling a 1-1 mark in the Mid-Suburban League competition.

Joe Toth's Pirates slipped to 2-4 over-all with the defeat, and are 0-2 in the league.

WHEELING had only one boy finish lower than fourth in the varsity meet, and showed its greatest strength with a sweep on the trampoline. Jerry Fontecchio won with a two-judge score of 108, followed by Dick Dyson and Bob Johnson.

Fontecchio and Dyson also finished 1-2 in tumbling, with Fontecchio getting 131 points for first. Palatine's Gordon Hominick was third with 93 points.

Wheeling made it 1-2 on the high bar and the parallel bars, with Johnson ruling the high bar with a 116 score and Fred Hudson second, and Mike Bangs totaling a fine 156 score to lead Greg Shornden in a 1-2 finish on the parallel bars.

The Wildcats made a sweep of the individual firsts by also winning on the side horse and the rings. Wayne Coats was master on the side horse, totaling 128 points with Don Savage third. On the rings, Jim Bowker scored 153 to win, and Lonny Davis was third.

PALATINE'S best was offered by Randy Keller, who tallied 13 team points. Keller had a third on the high bar, a third on the parallel bars and a second on the rings.

Also scoring high for the Pirates was Dave Chidley, second on the side horse with a 117 score.

Dave Donaldson's sophs ran their season mark to 7-3-1 by handling Jim Woodward's team on the lower level, taking five individual firsts. Leading Wheeling was Steve Geiger, first on the parallel bars, second on the side horse and second on the rings.

John Whittington had a first on the high bar and a second on the parallel bars, while Dick Orna tallied 12 team points with a first on rings and second on the high bar.

The other Wheeling firsts came from John Grund on the trampoline and Kim Butler on the side horse.

The next action for Wheeling is home against Conant at 4:30 p.m. Friday, while Palatine heads to Forest View for a 4:15 Friday match.

Wheeling's Jayvees Edge Palatine 44-43

By a free throw with 12 seconds to go, Wheeling's junior varsity basketball team defeated Palatine's Friday night. The final — after a fourth period comeback — read Wheeling 44, Palatine 43.

The free throw was launchel from the hands of Tom Gozdecki. He had been fouled by Palatine's Bob Hoffman, moments after Hoffman had missed a free throw with the score tied 43-43. As it was, Hoffman almost pulled it out for Palatine after that, launching a 30-footer that bounced off the front rim as the buzzer ended the game.

The game was not that close until the fourth period. It began with the two teams alternately dominating the first two quarters.

TED ECKER'S Wildcats ruled period one 17-9, and seemed to have a momentum going. But Chuck Johnannson's Pirates came back in the second quarter. They went ahead 18-17 on a field goal by Dick Smith at 4:27 and kept going until they had turned 14 consecutive points into a 23-17 lead. They were up at the half 30-24.

The game was played on even terms in the third period, with Palatine adding another point to its advantage. But in the fourth quarter, the leaders crumbled. They lost center Fred Sanborn and forward Dave Freeman on fouls and could hit only one shot from the floor as Wheeling ruled the period 12-4.

Wheeling tied the score at 41-41 on a field goal by Rick Bruce at 3:30. Palatine took a temporary advantage on a pair of free throws by Smith, but with 50 seconds left, Greg Fedyski tied it and the setting was in order for Gozdecki's moment.

For the game, Palatine's Smith was high with 16 points. Wheeling had fine balance, with Fedyski getting 10, Bruce eight and Jay Newman and Bruce seven each.

The decision left both teams with 1-2 marks in Mid-Suburban League play, with Wheeling 3-6 and Palatine 3-7 over-all.

Cards' Swimmers Suffer Losses to Riverside, Niles

Arlington's swimmers made trips to Riverside-Brookfield and Niles East last week but couldn't bring home any victories.

Riverside toppled the Cardinal varsity, 64-30, and tripped up the frosh-sophs by an almost identical 65-30 margin.

Niles East emerged with 60-35 and 73-22 victories.

John Erickson was the individual varsity standout against R-B as he splashed to firsts in the individual medley (2:26.2) and breaststroke (1:12.8).

Dick Tucker gave John Gardner's Cardinals a first in the 50 freestyle with a swift 23.7 clocking, and Lowell Christy ruled the backstroke field with a 1:06.9.

ARLINGTON showed its most strength in the backstroke with Sarbaugh adding a third to Christy's victory for six team points.

The Cardinals picked up four firsts at Niles East with Erickson again ruling the breaststroke. The Arlington standout turned in a 1:11.1 clocking this time to win the event by over three seconds.

Dick Robinson claimed two firsts for the locals with a 25.1 in the 50 freestyle and 57.4 in the 100, and Dick Witcher showed a 51.11 card in topping the diving alignment.

CARY OLIVER was the standout for the Arlington frosh-sophs. He took firsts in the backstroke (31.1) against Riverside and topped both the individual medley (1:14.3) and backstroke (30.8) against Niles East.

Witcher, working with the frosh - sophs, topped the diving competition against Riverside - Brookfield.

Arlington will journey to Elgin Friday afternoon for a meet at four o'clock and will hook up in the Titan Relays Saturday at Glenbrook.

Prospect Gymnasts Defeat Barrington

Victory number five and triumph number three in a row were picked up by Prospect varsity gymnasts last Saturday. They beat Barrington 69½-62½.

The Knights only gained two firsts in the meet but had enough balance to come out on top. Rick Carr and Bob Goffinski captured those top honors.

Carr was judged at 57 and 70 for a 127 on the trampoline. He was only three points ahead of teammate Bill Nendel, whose 124 put him in the runner-up spot on the tramp. Bill Wendling was fourth for Prospect.

Goffinski, with a 74, 69, 143, was best in tumbling. Backing him up was Rick Burger with a 127 and Mike Coughlin with 113 in third and fourth respectively.

SECOND places were taken by the Knights in all other events. Bruce Boult was second on the horizontal bar while similar positions went to Jim Anderson on the side horse, Vince Franzone on the rings and Jeff Long and Stu Bedford, who tied for second on the parallel bars.

The Prospect varsity record, under coach Rick Farris, is now 5-2.

At the frosh soph level there was also a victory for the Knights. They got four firsts and whipped Barrington 77½ - 54½.

Roy Hardin won on the H-bar for Prospect. Steve Bang was best in tumbling, Erhardt tops on the P-bars and Bill Van Sky first on the rings. Van Sky also took second on the parallel bars and Erhardt a third on the high bar.

OTHERS WHO did well for the younger Knights were Bruce Bernard, Jim Mattson and Kurt Straub. Bernard was second in tumbling and third in P-bars competition while Mattson was runner-up on the horse. Straub was second on the high bar.

The Prospect frosh-soph record for headman Fred Gaines is now 4-2-1.

Prospect's Matmen Take 27-16 Triumph From Bronco Unit

"Rebound" is a word most commonly associated with basketball but Prospect wrestlers did some "rebounding" of their own last Satruday.

In a previous meet, on the day before, the Knights matmen had been defeated by Forest View. However, the charges of coach Dick Mudge came back to whip Barrington's grapplers 27-16 on Saturday.

THE MEET opened with Prospect's Gary McMorrow losing a decision at 95 pounds. After Dave Holmes drew at 103, Mike Mohr lost another decision in his 112 pound bout and the meet score was 8-2 with the Broncos on top.

At 120 Bill Kalvog narrowed the gap to 8-7 by pinning his Barrington opponent but Jeff Hensen, at 127, was decisioned. Totals at that point showed the Knights were trailing 11-7. But, Prospect won the next five matches.

Jim Herod decisioned his 133 opponent and Vince Curry put the Knights ahead in the meet for the first time, by a 13-11 margin, with a decision triumph at 138. In the following two bouts Prospect wrestlers took decisions. Gary Cobe won at 145 and Pete Smith turned in a similar result at 154. The score then was 19-11.

With the next weight class, 165, the Knights put the final victory out of reach. Marty Destafanis pinned his opponent making the score 24-11 and, with just two matches left, Barrington couldn't catch up.

IN THOSE LAST bouts Tom Nading lost on a pin at 180 and Kim Schier set the final meet totals at 26-16 by getting a decision in the heavyweight class. Schier won over a Barrington opponent who had out-weighed him by over 100 pounds.

Though Prospect was again performing without the services of standout Rick Bertoglio, who weighs in at 145, coach Mudge's crew still upped their season record to 6-3-1 with a win. The Knights will attempt a further move up tomorrow (Friday) when they host Maine West.

Loss Given FV

A 38-15 margin sent Forest View's frosh wrestlers down to defeat before Niles East last Saturday.

Picking up points for FV were only four grapplers. Jim Lohrman won with a pin at 154 pounds while Bill Sundblum took a decision at 112. A forfeit went to Gene Cushing at 145 and, at 95 pounds, Mike Walden gained a tie.

Mt. Prospect Club Enjoys Big Weekend

The Illinois State Outdoor Speed Skating championships, twice postponed, were skated last Friday night under perfect weather and ice conditions.

The juvenile boy skaters sparkled from the Mount Prospect Skating club. The Prospect club has three state co-champions, John Audo, Gary Jonland and Bobby Knight. Audo bombed off the starting line in the 1/6 mile event and never let up fighting off the challenges of teammates Tom Tagney, second, and Knight who finished third. In the half mile final, Jonland took charge and with Knight right on his heels maintained a blistering pace right to the finish to win.

Bob Haenisch, Prospect's steady midget skater, had the state title wrapped up as he led the 220 yard sprint into the blast turn, where he was bumped off stride and went down. Bob came back later to win the quarter mile event. Mary Cunningham, junior girl, pushed Diane Holum of the Northbrook club to a 21.3 seconds state record in taking her second place medal in the 220 yard final. Jim Zuckermandel took a fourth in the one mile senior men's event as his reward for his night's work.

TIM JILEK, plagued by a continuing run of bad skating luck, made both finals in the junior boys class. But falls cut his opportunities to score in the final races. The little Prospect bantams swept both their events with Tom Grunnah, the winner, Rich Vehe, second and Jim Tagney in the third spot both times.

On the following day, the Prospect club headed for the Tribune Silver Skates at Humboldt Park in Chicago.

When the big show was over on Sunday, they took back two pairs of silver skates, one of second place chrome, one of third place bronze and four medals awarded for other place awards.

Bob Haenisch, won the Midget Boys Silver Skates, equalling one of his father's past achievements. Coach Herman Haenisch won his skates 25 years ago as an intermediate boy.

IN THE JUVENILE Boys final Prospect had five of eight finalists on the starting line. Gary Jonland powered his way off the line with Bobby Knight moving alongside like his shadow and for the entire 440 yard distance they skated like a team of runaway horses until Jonland, who had position on the flags, took an advantage and won the race by a stride. Billy Grady took a well earned fifth and John Audo, caught in heavy traffic due to a bad start, earned the sixth.

Tim Jilek skated with more determination than usual trying for one of the top spots in the Junior boys final. In a wild and fast race he lost his rightful finishing spot in a judging mix-up at the finish line and accepted the compromised sixth place medal award.

Jim Zuckermandel skated a good race in the two mile men's final, finishing for the fifth place medal. But scrappy Mary Cunningham gave it the big try for her skates and might have made it on a less windy day. But the wind proved too much of a handicap and she tired in the last few yards and had to be content with a pair of Bronze skates.

Mount Prospect will be well represented in the National Championships in St. Paul this coming weekend. Coach Herman Haenisch will lead a group of seven skaters, parents and well wishers into a weekend of hectic skating activity.

Score 37-11 Triumph

Wheeling Matmen In Big Win at Palatine

Wheeling kept itself in contention in Mid-Suburban League wrestling last Friday, whipping Palatine 37-11 on the Pirate mats.

For Art Kraft's Wildcats, now 4-6 for the season, it was the second victory in three MSL duals. John Ellis' Pirates remained without victory with the setback, drifting to an overall mark of 0-10, and 0-3 in the league.

Wheeling won at nine of the 12 weight levels in working out the decision. Rex Meisenheimer started it with a big win at 95 pounds, beating Jim Lynch 16-2. Ray Weidner followed at 103, getting the first of five pin wins recorded by Wheeling. He dropped Mike Lewis of the Pirates at 5:19.

THE OTHER Wheeling pins were achieved by Karl Meisenheimer, in 1:50 at 120 pounds; Matt Porzell in 2:48 at 145; Rich Haddock in 2:46 at 154; and Ray Pace in 3:26 at 180.

Decision victors for Wheeling were Al Eisenstein, 3-2 over Dirk Fuqua at 127; Mike Fluegel, 3-0 over Bill Schroeder at 138; and Paul Berwanger, 2-0 over Bill Peterman at 165.

Palatine took its points at 112, where Dave Bettinger beat Ken Brown 9-0; at 133, where Howie Tuttle made it 6-0 over Jerry Hawkinson; and in the heavyweight meet, where John Reed pinned Frank Abboreno in 2:52. Reed is now 3-0 in MSL grappling, with all his wins on pins.

The next meet for the Wheeling wrestlers is at home this Friday, with Conant the visitor. Palatine will compete at Forest View, also on Friday evening.

Wheeling Gymnasts Whip Rich Central

Double one-sided triumphs were turned in by Wheeling gymnasts last week against Rich Central.

The 'Cats varsity won 87½ - 43½ while the frosh-sophs came out on top 94-38. The varsity record is now 4-7 and a 8-3-1 mark belongs to the lower-level entry.

AGAINST Rich Central the varsity Wheeling entry gained all six firsts. They went to Wayne Coats, side horse; Fred Hudson, horizontal bar; Mike Bangs, parallel bars; Jim Bowker, rings; Jerry Fontecchio, trampoline; and Dick Dyson, tumbling.

Runner-up spots went to 'Cats in every event. Dyson was second on the tramp and Fontecchio second in tumbling. On the horse Mike Allen was second while Jim Rainer, Greg Shornden and Craig Ovesky were number two performers on the H-bar, P-bar and rings. Shornden was also third on the tramp.

At the frosh-soph level Wheeling was one, two, three in every event except the parallel bar.

FIRSTS for Wheeling against RC went to Dick Rainer, on the high bar and rings; Steve Gieger, on the side horse and P-bars, John Grund, on the tramp; and Jim Kriskern in tumbling. Rainer was also second on the parallel bars and third on the horse while Geiger was third on the rings.

Others who did well for Wheeling's F-S unit were Dick Orna, Mike Hughes, Kim Butler and John Koffler. All took seconds.

Forest View Drops 3rd Grappling Dual

A third dual meet defeat was given Forest View's varsity wrestlers by Niles East last Saturday. Final score was 23-19.

Five wins were turned in by Falcons grapplers in the action against NE.

TOM MANN won for FV at 95 pounds with a pin in 5:45. Forest View lost the next five bouts and the meet score was 17-5 before the forces of coach Hal Henson could pick up another point.

The Falcons' Mark Beatty lost 13-4 at 103 pounds and a 3-1 count sent down Steve Dehaven at 112. George Taylor suffered a pin loss in 1:44 at 120 and both Ron McKisic and Bob Best were shutout. McKisic was blanked 5-0 at 127 and Best held scoreless, at 7-0, in his 133 pound match.

Ray Vith, by a 7-2 margin gained the next win for FV. He won at 138 pounds and was followed, at 145, by the 8-2 triumph of Jim Kubik which made the meet score 17-11. After Pete Phillips was decisioned 6-0 at 154 the tally was 20-11.

FOREST VIEW won the 165 and 180 pounds bouts. Brian Lampert won 5-2 at 165 and a forfeit gave Mike Severns the honors at 180. At that juncture FV had crept back to within one, at 20-19, with just one match left.

That match was in the heavyweight class. Entered there for Forest View was Phil Reder. Carrying FV hopes for triumph, Reder was edged 6-4 and the Falcons lost 23-19.

Pirates In Soph Mat Triumph

Wheeling took an early lead, but Palatine's sophomore wrestlers roared through the heavier weights to dominate a Saturday grappling dual with the Wildcats. The final was 31-15.

Arv Herstedt's Pirates, now 6-2 for the year, are unbeaten in two Mid-Suburban League duals. The loss was only the second for Wheeling, along with six wins and a tie.

IN THE MEET, two boys remained undefeated. Wheeling's Dan Stavros, meeting Greg Hoover at 154, escaped a pin and eventually won 16-13 in a rugged match that brought his personal mark to 9-0. Palatine's Pat Donahue had little trouble at 180, winning 14-5 and running his mark to 11-0.

Palatine's Don Speer had won at 95, but Wheeling came back with victories by Rick Abrams (103), Israel Lopez (112), Ted Milbratz (120) and Thad Mikols (127) to lead 12-3. But Palatine, besides the Donahue win, gained a forfeit victory from Bob Esmail (133) and pin wins from Steve Hein (138), Chuck Goodman (145) Leon Molway (165), and Bob Prochnow (heavyweight).

FV Soph 5 Tips Knights

A 19-14 edge in quarter three was enough to provide Forest View sophs with a 52-48 margin over Prospect last Saturday.

The contest opened with an even first quarter as each side threw in nine points. Before the half FV assumed a 19-17 lead. Then came the third period advantage which put the Falcons up 38-31 going into the final quarter. The Knights just couldn't catch up.

HIGH SCORER in the contest was Forest View's Earl Thomas. He had 18 points and also pulled down 19 rebounds. Backing him for FV were Thor Hibbler and Fred Lauing. Each had 10 and Hibbler had nine rebounds in his first game with the sophomore quintet.

"The boys really came through," commented winning coach Rog Steingraber. "It was a great team victory against a taller Prospect team." The Falcons are now 6-4 for the season.

Best in a balanced Knights attack, in which seven boys made the scoring column, was Forrest Haney. He had five field goals and two foul shots for 12 points. Next high was Norm Klein with eight points. Prospect sophs are also 6-4 for the season.

For 7th Win

FV's Matmen Whip Knights

Three decisions in the final three matches gave Forest View a 24-15 wrestling victory over rival Prospect last Friday.

Those crucial bouts for FV went to Brian Lampert, Mike Severns and Phil Reder and helped lift the Falcons' dual record to 7-2. The Knights own a 5-3-1 mark for the year.

Action in the meet began with Forest View's Tom Mann and Prospect's Gary McMorrow tying 6-6 at 95 pounds. That result left Mann with a 2-0-1 varsity standard and ended a four match win string for McMorrow.

At 103 the Knights moved out in front. Dave Holmes took his eighth bout of the year, against four losses and a tie, by topping FV's Mark Beatty 6-1. Evening meet totals at 5-5 was the Falcons' Steve Dehaven who whipped Mike Mohr 10-4 at 112. Each now carries a personal 7-6 mark.

ANOTHER BOUT and meet tie resulted when George Taylor and Bill Kalvog drew 2-2 at 120. Taylor is 3-6-1 for the season and Kalvog 7-3-1. Prospect went ahead again with decisions gained by Jeff Hansen and Jim Herod in the next two bouts.

Hansen took a 7-4 decision from Ron McKisic at 127 pounds. Herod, becoming 8-6 for the year, beat Bob Best, now 4-6, at 133. The meet's third tie was a 4-4 count at 138 pounds between Ray Vitha and Vince Curry. That made the score 15-9 with five matches left.

Forest View didn't lose another bout.

The Falcons' Kim Kubik slipped by the Knights' Gary Cobe at 145 pounds. The tally there was 6-3 as Kubik upped his personal record to 11-2-1. After Dave Phillips gained a 5-1 triumph over Pete Smith at 154 pounds the meet score was knotted at 15 each.

Then came Lampert, Severns and Reder.

Lampert won 11-4 over Prospect's Marty Destafanis at 165. Severns pounded Tom Nading 11-3 at 180. In the heavyweight bout Reder blanked Kim Schier 4-0. Lampert is 6-4 and Severns 11-2 while Reder is now 4-2.

THOSE THREE set the final meet totals of 24-15 and gave Forest View a 1-2 mark in Mid-Suburban League action. Prospect is 2-1 among conference grapplers.

The Knights were hampered in their efforts against FV by the loss of Rick Bertoglio. Bertoglio, who wrestles at 145 pounds and is 12-1 for the year, was injured and could not compete.

Take 12 Firsts

Falcons' Gymnasts Crush Wheaton N.

All 12 firsts were taken by Forest View gymnasts in a two level triumph over Wheaton North last Saturday.

Six top spots went to FV's varsity which whipped Wheaton 93-39. A 93½-37½ margin resulted for Falcons frosh-sophs from their six bests.

AS A RESULT of the brilliant showing, Forest View's varsity record under coach Gay Hughes was set at 4-5. A standout mark of 7-2 is the present possession of the younger Falcons and their director Hal Sprehe.

Taking firsts for the varsity were Dave Hippensteel, Jim Olmon, Mike Damora and Garth Freeman.

Hippensteel won on the trampoline and rings. He won on the tramp with a 131 and on the rings with 126. That tramp victory was the eighth of the season there for Hippensteel, who has also won four times on the rings.

Placing ahead of all others on the horizontal bar and in tumbling was Olmon. He was judged at 81 for his H-bar routine and at 100 in tumbling. Olmon also took a third on the parallel bars.

Damore and Freeman won on the side horse and P-bars. Damore had a 132 on the horse along with a third in tumbling while Freeman, who also was second on the rings, was rated best at 91 on the parallel bars.

ANOTHER WHO did well for FV was Tony Damico. He was third in tramp and tumbling events. Bill Wineland was second on the P-bars and third on the rings.

At the frosh-soph level the firsts were divided among six performers. Glenn Owsiany took the tramp while Dale Simon won the horse, Gary Gathman the high bar, Mike Stargardt the P-bars, Bill Bell the rings and Gregg Murphy tumbling.

Gathman was also second on the parallel bars to get the most individual points for FV's frosh-sophs. Another high scorer was Gary Dimas who was second on the tramp and third in tumbling.

Grove Freshmen Matmen Blanked

All 12 bouts were lost by Elk Grove's freshman wrestlers in a meet held last Saturday. The opponent was Maine South which shut out EG 38-0.

The Grove grapplers were bested in one decision bout, four forfeits and seven pins. The losers season record now stands at 0-8.

Cards' Swimmers Suffer Losses to Riverside, Niles

Arlington's swimmers made trips to Riverside-Brookfield and Niles East last week but couldn't bring home any victories.

Riverside toppled the Cardinal varsity, 64-30, and tripped up the frosh-sophs by an almost identical 65-30 margin.

Niles East emerged with 60-35 and 73-22 victories.

John Erickson was the individual varsity standout against R-B as he splashed to firsts in the individual medley (2:26.2) and breaststroke (1:12.8).

Dick Tucker gave John Gardner's Cardinals a first in the 50 freestyle with a swift 23.7 clocking, and Lowell Christy ruled the backstroke field with a 1:06.9.

ARLINGTON showed its most strength in the backstroke with Sarbaugh adding a third to Christy's victory for six team points.

The Cardinals picked up four firsts at Niles East with Erickson again ruling the breaststroke. The Arlington standout turned in a 1:11.1 clocking this time to win the event by over three seconds.

Dick Robinson claimed two firsts for the locals with a 25.1 in the 50 freestyle and 57.4 in the 100, and Dick Witcher showed a 51.11 card in topping the diving alignment.

CARY OLIVER was the standout for the Arlington frosh-sophs. He took firsts in the backstroke (31.1) against Riverside and topped both the individual medley (1:14.3) and backstroke (30.8) against Niles East.

Witcher, working with the frosh - sophs, topped the diving competition against Riverside - Brookfield.

Arlington will journey to Elgin Friday afternoon for a meet at four o'clock and will hook up in the Titan Relays Saturday at Glenbrook.

Prospect Gymnasts Defeat Barrington

Victory number five and triumph number three in a row were picked up by Prospect varsity gymnasts last Saturday. They beat Barrington 69½-62½.

The Knights only gained two firsts in the meet but had enough balance to come out on top. Rick Carr and Bob Goffinski captured those top honors.

Carr was judged at 57 and 70 for a 127 on the trampoline. He was only three points ahead of teammate Bill Nendel, whose 124 put him in the runner-up spot on the tramp. Bill Wendling was fourth for Prospect.

Goffinski, with a 74, 69, 143, was best in tumbling. Backing him up was Rick Burger with a 127 and Mike Coughlin with 113 in third and fourth respectively.

SECOND places were taken by the Knights in all other events. Bruce Boult was second on the horizontal bar while similar positions went to Jim Anderson on the side horse, Vince Franzone on the rings and Jeff Long and Stu Bedford, who tied for second on the parallel bars.

The Prospect varsity record, under coach Rick Farris, is now 5-2.

At the frosh soph level there was also a victory for the Knights. They got four firsts and whipped Barrington 77½ - 54½.

Roy Hardin won on the H-bar for Prospect. Steve Bang was best in tumbling, Erhardt tops on the P-bars and Bill Van Sky first on the rings. Van Sky also took second on the parallel bars and Erhardt a third on the high bar.

OTHERS WHO did well for the younger Knights were Bruce Bernard, Jim Mattson and Kurt Straub. Bernard was second in tumbling and third in P-bars competition while Mattson was runner-up on the horse. Straub was second on the high bar.

The Prospect frosh-soph record for headman Fred Gaines is now 4-2-1.

Prospect's Matmen Take 27-16 Triumph From Bronco Unit

"Rebound" is a word most commonly associated with basketball but Prospect wrestlers did some "rebounding" of their own last Satruday.

In a previous meet, on the day before, the Knights matmen had been defeated by Forest View. However, the charges of coach Dick Mudge came back to whip Barrington's grapplers 27-16 on Saturday.

THE MEET opened with Prospect's Gary McMorrow losing a decision at 95 pounds. After Dave Holmes drew at 103, Mike Mohr lost another decision in his 112 pound bout and the meet score was 8-2 with the Broncos on top.

At 120 Bill Kalvog narrowed the gap to 8-7 by pinning his Barrington opponent but Jeff Hensen, at 127, was decisioned. Totals at that point showed the Knights were trailing 11-7. But, Prospect won the next five matches.

Jim Herod decisioned his 133 opponent and Vince Curry put the Knights ahead in the meet for the first time, by a 13-11 margin, with a decision triumph at 138. In the following two bouts Prospect wrestlers took decisions. Gary Cobe won at 145 and Pete Smith turned in a similar result at 154. The score then was 19-11.

With the next weight class, 165, the Knights put the final victory out of reach. Marty Destafanis pinned his opponent making the score 24-11 and, with just two matches left, Barrington couldn't catch up.

IN THOSE LAST bouts Tom Nading lost on a pin at 180 and Kim Schier set the final meet totals at 26-16 by getting a decision in the heavyweight class. Schier won over a Barrington opponent who had out-weighed him by over 100 pounds.

Though Prospect was again performing without the services of standout Rick Bertoglio, who weighs in at 145, coach Mudge's crew still upped their season record to 6-3-1 with a win. The Knights will attempt a further move up tomorrow (Friday) when they host Maine West.

Loss Given FV

A 38-15 margin sent Forest View's frosh wrestlers down to defeat before Niles East last Saturday.

Picking up points for FV were only four grapplers. Jim Lohrman won with a pin at 154 pounds while Bill Sundblum took a decision at 112. A forfeit went to Gene Cushing at 145 and, at 95 pounds, Mike Walden gained a tie.

Mt. Prospect Club Enjoys Big Weekend

The Illinois State Outdoor Speed Skating championships, twice postponed, were skated last Friday night under perfect weather and ice conditions.

The juvenile boy skaters sparkled from the Mount Prospect Skating club. The Prospect club has three state co-champions, John Audo, Gary Jonland and Bobby Knight. Audo bombed off the starting line in the 1/6 mile event and never let up fighting off the challenges of teammates Tom Tagney, second, and Knight who finished third. In the half mile final, Jonland took charge and with Knight right on his heels maintained a blistering pace right to the finish to win.

Bob Haenisch, Prospect's steady midget skater, had the state title wrapped up as he led the 220 yard sprint into the blast turn, where he was bumped off stride and went down. Bob came back later to win the quarter mile event. Mary Cunningham, junior girl, pushed Diane Holum of the Northbrook club to a 21.3 seconds state record in taking her second place medal in the 220 yard final. Jim Zuckermandel took a fourth in the one mile senior men's event as his reward for his night's work.

A 19-14 edge in quarter three was enough to provide Forest View sophs with a 52-48 margin over Prospect last Saturday.

The contest opened with an even first quarter as each side threw in nine points. Before the half FV assumed a 19-17 lead. Then came the third period advantage which put the Falcons up 38-31 going into the final quarter. The Knights just couldn't catch up.

HIGH SCORER in the contest was Forest View's Earl Thomas. He had 18 points and also pulled down 19 rebounds. Backing him for FV were Thor Hibbler and Fred Lauing. Each had 10 and Hibbler had nine rebounds in his first game with the sophomore quintet.

"The boys really came through," commented winning coach Rog Steingraber. "It was a great team victory against a taller Prospect team." The Falcons are now 6-4 for the season.

Best in a balanced Knights attack, in which seven boys made the scoring column, was Forrest Haney. He had five field goals and two foul shots for 12 points. Next high was Norm Klein with eight points. Prospect sophs are also 6-4 for the season.

For 7th Win

FV's Matmen Whip Knights

Three decisions in the final three matches gave Forest View a 24-15 wrestling victory over rival Prospect last Friday.

Those crucial bouts for FV went to Brian Lampert, Mike Severns and Phil Reder and helped lift the Falcons' dual record to 7-2. The Knights own a 5-3-1 mark for the year.

Action in the meet began with Forest View's Tom Mann and Prospect's Gary McMorrow tying 6-6 at 95 pounds. That result left Mann with a 2-0-1 varsity standard and ended a four match win string for McMorrow.

At 103 the Knights moved out in front. Dave Holmes took his eighth bout of the year, against four losses and a tie, by topping FV's Mark Beatty 6-1. Evening meet totals at 5-5 was the Falcons' Steve Dehaven who whipped Mike Mohr 10-4 at 112. Each now carries a personal 7-6 mark.

ANOTHER BOUT and meet tie resulted when George Taylor and Bill Kalvog drew 2-2 at 120. Taylor is 3-6-1 for the season and Kalvog 7-3-1. Prospect went ahead again with decisions gained by Jeff Hansen and Jim Herod in the next two bouts.

Hansen took a 7-4 decision from Ron McKisic at 127 pounds. Herod, becoming 8-6 for the year, beat Bob Best, now 4-6, at 133. The meet's third tie was a 4-4 count at 138 pounds between Ray Vitha and Vince Curry. That made the score 15-9 with five matches left.

Forest View didn't lose another bout.

The Falcons' Kim Kubik slipped by the Knights' Gary Cobe at 145 pounds. The tally there was 6-3 as Kubik upped his personal record to 11-2-1. After Dave Phillips gained a 5-1 triumph over Pete Smith at 154 pounds the meet score was knotted at 15 each.

Then came Lampert, Severns and Reder.

Lampert won 11-4 over Prospect's Marty Destafanis at 165. Severns pounded Tom Nading 11-3 at 180. In the heavyweight bout Reder blanked Kim Schier 4-0. Lampert is 6-4 and Severns 11-2 while Reder is now 4-2.

THOSE THREE set the final meet totals of 24-15 and gave Forest View a 1-2 mark in Mid-Suburban League action. Prospect is 2-1 among conference grapplers.

The Knights were hampered in their efforts against FV by the loss of Rick Bertoglio. Bertoglio, who wrestles at 145 pounds and is 12-1 for the year, was injured and could not compete.

Take 12 Firsts

Falcons' Gymnasts Crush Wheaton N.

All 12 firsts were taken by Forest View gymnasts in a two level triumph over Wheaton North last Saturday.

Six top spots went to FV's varsity which whipped Wheaton 93-39. A 93½-37½ margin resulted for Falcons frosh-sophs from their six bests.

AS A RESULT of the brilliant showing, Forest View's varsity record under coach Gay Hughes was set at 4-5. A standout mark of 7-2 is the present possession of the younger Falcons and their director Hal Sprehe.

Taking firsts for the varsity were Dave Hippensteel, Jim Olmon, Mike Damora and Garth Freeman.

Hippensteel won on the trampoline and rings. He won on the tramp with a 131 and on the rings with 126. That tramp victory was the eighth of the season there for Hippensteel, who has also won four times on the rings.

Placing ahead of all others on the horizontal bar and in tumbling was Olmon. He was judged at 81 for his H-bar routine and at 100 in tumbling. Olmon also took a third on the parallel bars.

Damore and Freeman won on the side horse and P-bars. Damore had a 132 on the horse along with a third in tumbling while Freeman, who also was second on the rings, was rated best at 91 on the parallel bars.

ANOTHER WHO did well for FV was Tony Damico. He was third in tramp and tumbling events. Bill Wineland was second on the P-bars and third on the rings.

At the frosh-soph level the firsts were divided among six performers. Glenn Owsiany took the tramp while Dale Simon won the horse, Gary Gathman the high bar, Mike Stargardt the P-bars, Bill Bell the rings and Gregg Murphy tumbling.

Gathman was also second on the parallel bars to get the most individual points for FV's frosh-sophs. Another high scorer was Gary Dimas who was second on the tramp and third in tumbling.

Grove Freshmen Matmen Blanked

All 12 bouts were lost by Elk Grove's freshman wrestlers in a meet held last Saturday. The opponent was Maine South which shut out EG 38-0.

The Grove grapplers were bested in one decision bout, four forfeits and seven pins. The losers season record now stands at 0-8.

Five Clustered

Ladies' Action 'Like Tenpins'

When chronicling the events in a bowling league, there's only one expression to adequately depict a close clustering of the teams.

You must say: they're bunched tighter than tenpins.

So it is with the Paddock Women's Classic Traveling League after the second week of action in the second round.

No more than one point represents the difference among five of the six teams. And the sixth team — River Rand Bowl —has at least a couple points.

Steve's Restaurant and Striking Lanes remained in first place Saturday night, a product of their 2-2 split. Each team has five points, while clustered with four are Lattof Chevrolet, Morton Pontiac and Rolling Meadows Bowl.

LATTOF RETURNED to the form that delivered it the first round championship, smiting Morton Pontiac 3-1 and bulling up into the tight pack. Rolling Meadows Bowl won the dispute over who would escape the cellar, beating River Rand by the same score.

Though Steve's won two of its three games with Striking Lanes, Striking managed the tie by accumulating a huge margin in game one. Striking ruled that meeting by 118 pins, and Steve's simply coundn't collect enough the rest of the way to get the point for total pins.

Steve's Winnie Lohse was high for the match, rolling a 562 that included a 210 game. Evelyn Elarde, with a 211 first game, ended with 547 for Striking, with Eunice Whitmore 11 pins back.

Lattof and Morton split their first two games on fairly close terms, but Lattof wrapped up the match and pinfall bonus with an 845-801 third game victory.

Lattof had two solid series—a 561 from Vi Douglas and 550 from Peggy Harris — to guide the victory. Morton's scoring was low, save Ruthmary Baurhyte's sturdy 198-196-187—581.

THE EVENING'S biggest bowling was reserved for the River Rand-Rolling Meadows Bowl match. RMB claimed all the evening's individual and team bests, yielding only to a powerful River Rand team performance in the third game.

Jean Ladd was the individual headliner, rolling a high 212 game, and adding a 193 and 200 for a high 605 series. RMB's 921 first game and 2615 series were also highs. River Rand's best was Hazel Steiger's 548.

With the teams so tight, it's obvious that something must change this weekend in the action at River Rand Bowl. Striking Lanes and Morton will meet, as will River Rand Bowl and Steve's and Lattof and Rolling Meadows Bowl.

Paddock Stars To Meet With Chicago Squad

Paul Krumske and his Chicago Meister Brau Classic league team will bowl a three-game match against the Paddock Classic All-Stars at Beverly Lanes in Arlington Heights on Sunday, Feb. 6, at 2:30 p.m.

Krumske, the choice of newspapermen as bowler of the half century, is sports director for the Peter Hand Brewery of Chicago and led his team to the city championship last year.

The Paddock Classic All-Stars were selected by a vote of the league bowlers. George Schmidt of Addison captains the powerful Paddock entry.

Check these sports pages next week for details on the two teams that will collide at Beverly Lanes.

LaGrange Tops Cardinal Sophs

LaGrange's frosh-soph wrestlers posted six decisions, two ties, a pin, and forfeit Saturday in rolling to a 32-12 victory over Arlington High School.

The only Cardinal points came on a 3-2 victory by Dave Morong at 95 pounds, ties by Douglas at 133 and Lance Navik at 138, and pin by Kelly Reid at 145.

Reid is unbeaten in dual meet competition for the 1965-66 campaign.

The winners in the Men's Division were Carmen DiGregorio Jr. (756), Diana Swartz (753), Jeff Green (718), and James Koko (702); Women's Division — Richard Goecks (694), John Spezlo (689), Brian Wicklund (688), and Wayne Damato (675); Junior's Division — Bill Martinsen (1178), Richard Trammell (1160), Danny Passarella (1159), and Dave Dutton (1145).

At Striking Lanes

Gert Goffinski and Mary Sims, bowling for Prospect Catering, fired 780 and 712 efforts in the Striking Ladies Classic, and Lu Schoenberger of the Doll House had a 758.

In Second Round PCTL Play . . .

Rail Blanked Again; Three Tied At Top

How the mighty have fallen . . .

Of the eight teams in the Paddock Classic Traveling League, only one has yet to score a point after two weeks of the PCTL's round two.

The unfortunates are the men of The Brass Rail, so recently hailed as the champions of the first round. They were blanked again Saturday night, as Concourse Sports Chalet — one of the league's steadily - improving teams — made a 7-0 vault into a three-way tie at the top.

Also balanced at the pinnacle are Brim's Pioneer Lanes and Karlsen Pharmacy, both 5-2 victors, Brim's over Morton Pontiac and Karlsen's over City Welding Sales and Service. Jeffery Lanes also won 5-2, and pushed up to the middle of the bunch with its victim, Bill Cook Buick.

SPORTS CHALET had such a consistent team performance against the Railers that it could afford an off night from Ray Neumann, who settled for 494. Tony Sasso was tops for Chalet, totaling 191-231-202—624. But close behind were Mike Wagner with 614, Bob Gill with 597 and Tom Kouros with 560. Brass Rail's best was a 568 from Don Oberg.

Pioneer also had four strong series around a weak one, and it meant defeat for Morton. Bob Krisch had 234-208-190—632 for Pioneer, with Larry Thon checking in at 606, George Schmidt 588 and Ron Sheldon 585.

Bob Glaser was two shy of the 600 circle as he led Morton with 598. Morton bowled well enough to win a lot of matches, but Pioneer — at Morton's home Beverly Lanes — just had too much.

CITY WELDING also took a beating at home, as Karlsen Pharmacy started slowly, then rushed to a 2927 team series at Thunderbird Bowl. Warren Karlsen, with a 195-223-201—629 was best, with Joe Simonis adding a 621. Lobby Lobinsky had 602 for the losers, buoyed by a 223 third game.

BILL HARRIS

The evening's best individual game and series were wrapped into one by Bill Harris, as he led Jeffery Lanes' beating of Bill Cook, a beating that missed being a shutout by the margin of three pins in game two.

Harris had a 200-176-257—633 effort, 50 better than teammate Hec Healey's second best. Bill Cook's best was even lower than that, as Al Jordan led with 569.

The Buick men were the third team in the league to lose at home in the evening's play, as they were dropped at Rolling Meadows Bowl. Only Sports Chalet — at Gunnell's — was a home winner.

At least a little cracking of the clump at the top is due this weekend, as front-runners Karlsen Pharmacy and Sports Chalet collide at Gunnell's. Pineer — the other leader — will tangle with fourth place Bill Cook Buick at home, while Morton Pontiac and City Welding gather at Thunderbird and The Brass Rail seeks those first points in meeting Jeffery Lanes at River Rand.

In Hockey Action

Arlington Records Two Tourney Wins

The high-flying Arlington Warriors laid claim to the North West Suburban Hockey title with twin victories over Mount Prospect (5-3) and Park Ridge (2-1).

The mid-week encounter against Prospect saw the high school age Warriors pour in thirty four shots on goal with goals by Whibbs, Rocca, Edwards, Wadzita and Urlbacker.

Outstanding defensive work was shown by Rocca, Svast, Roach, Sanders and Kenny.

ON SUNDAY afternoon, Arlington opened a best of three title series against Park Ridge at Rec Park. The game was played in a wide open style, but it was not until the third period that Park Ridge broke the scoreless tie.

The Warriors roared back at 10:40 with the Wadzita-Whibbs-Irlbacker line cashing in on Wadzita's goal on Rocca's assist. Finally at 12:40, Sayre took Edwards' pass on left wing, stick handled around the last defender and drilled a thirty foot slap shot in the upper corner of the net.

Other individual heroes were Weber and Ewart in the nets; Rios, Kenny, Alace and Sanders on defense; Horan, Klingberg, Kennedy, Scharff, Summers, Proebstle and Solderberg on the front lines. The four star winners were Wadzita, Sayre, Rocca and Edwards.

This series resumes at Park Ridge, at 12:00 p.m. on Saturday, January 29.

IN THE ILLINOIS State Hockey Tourney, the Warriors lost a 7-4 decision to the Dundee Aces at the Polar Dome.

The fast moving Punch Line of Edwards, Proebstle and Sayre each contributed a tally. "Skip" Whibbs and Paul Rocca, easily the most improved forward and defenseman in the league, completed the scoring.

Standout As Prep

Rich Jones, the University of Illinois' 6-7 sophomore basketball center, earned All-State honors for three years as a prep in Memphis, Tenn., and was a high school All-American as a senior.

Falcons JV Matmen Stops Prospect 30-16

"Unbeatable" is fast become the correct label for Forest View's junior varsity wrestlers.

Last Friday the FV JV grapplers won their seventh straight meet of the season. Making their record 7-0 they whipped Prospect 30-16.

Thus far this season the Falcons, under coach Maury Levy have compiled rather amazing statistics to go along with their won-lost mark. Through seven encounters they hold a 249-35 meet point edge over all opponenets, a 25-5 margin in pin victories and a 60-23-2 mark in all bouts.

GETTING DECISION wins for Forest View against the Knights were John Martin (103 pounds), Bob Hansen (112), Bob Urban (120), Mike Casey (138) and Hank Tasche. Al Knoblauch (154) and Al Gildemeister (heavyweight) helped FV by taking pins. Bruce Lampert registered a default victory at 165.

Picking up points for Prospect and coach Tom Porter were four different matmen. Rick Basch (95) took a pin triumph as did Luke Dicci (133). Decisions for the Knights went to Marty Krause (127) and Joe Koza (145).

The Prospect junior varsity record for the year was changed to 4-3 overall and 2-1 in Mid-Suburban League action. Forest View is 3-0 and first in the M-SL.

Track Practice Starts Tuesday

Arlington will launch indoor track practice next Tuesday at the Wheeling High School facilities.

The Cardinals, coached by Bruce Samoore, will kick off their schedule on Thursday, Feb. 24, at Prospect.

Five Clustered

Ladies' Action 'Like Tenpins'

When chronicling the events in a bowling league, there's only one expression to adequately depict a close clustering of the teams.

You must say: they're bunched tighter than tenpins.

So it is with the Paddock Women's Classic Traveling League after the second week of action in the second round.

No more than one point represents the difference among five of the six teams. And the sixth team — River Rand Bowl —has at least a couple points.

Steve's Restaurant and Striking Lanes remained in first place Saturday night, a product of their 2-2 split. Each team has five points, while clustered with four are Lattof Chevrolet, Morton Pontiac and Rolling Meadows Bowl.

LATTOF RETURNED to the form that delivered it the first round championship, smiting Morton Pontiac 3-1 and bulling up into the tight pack. Rolling Meadows Bowl won the dispute over who would escape the cellar, beating River Rand by the same score.

Though Steve's won two of its three games with Striking Lanes, Striking managed the tie by accumulating a huge margin in game one. Striking ruled that meeting by 118 pins, and Steve's simply coundn't collect enough the rest of the way to get the point for total pins.

Steve's Winnie Lohse was high for the match, rolling a 562 that included a 210 game. Evelyn Elarde, with a 211 first game, ended with 547 for Striking, with Eunice Whitmore 11 pins back.

Lattof and Morton split their first two games on fairly close terms, but Lattof wrapped up the match and pinfall bonus with an 845-801 third game victory.

Lattof had two solid series—a 561 from Vi Douglas and 550 from Peggy Harris — to guide the victory. Morton's scoring was low, save Ruthmary Baurhyte's sturdy 198-196-187—581.

THE EVENING'S biggest bowling was reserved for the River Rand-Rolling Meadows Bowl match. RMB claimed all the evening's individual and team bests, yielding only to a powerful River Rand team performance in the third game.

Jean Ladd was the individual headliner, rolling a high 212 game, and adding a 193 and 200 for a high 605 series. RMB's 921 first game and 2615 series were also highs. River Rand's best was Hazel Steiger's 548.

With the teams so tight, it's obvious that something must change this weekend in the action at River Rand Bowl. Striking Lanes and Morton will meet, as will River Rand Bowl and Steve's and Lattof and Rolling Meadows Bowl.

Paddock Stars To Meet With Chicago Squad

Paul Krumske and his Chicago Meister Brau Classic league team will bowl a three-game match against the Paddock Classic All-Stars at Beverly Lanes in Arlington Heights on Sunday, Feb. 6, at 2:30 p.m.

Krumske, the choice of newspapermen as bowler of the half century, is sports director for the Peter Hand Brewery of Chicago and led his team to the city championship last year.

The Paddock Classic All-Stars were selected by a vote of the league bowlers. George Schmidt of Addison captains the powerful Paddock entry.

Check these sports pages next week for details on the two teams that will collide at Beverly Lanes.

LaGrange Tops Cardinal Sophs

LaGrange's frosh-soph wrestlers posted six decisions, two ties, a pin, and forfeit Saturday in rolling to a 32-12 victory over Arlington High School.

The only Cardinal points came on a 3-2 victory by Dave Morong at 95 pounds, ties by Douglas at 133 and Lance Navik at 138, and pin by Kelly Reid at 145.

Reid is unbeaten in dual meet competition for the 1965-66 campaign.

Falcons JV Matmen Stops Prospect 30-16

"Unbeatable" is fast become the correct label for Forest View's junior varsity wrestlers.

Last Friday the FV JV grapplers won their seventh straight meet of the season. Making their record 7-0 they whipped Prospect 30-16.

Thus far this season the Falcons, under coach Maury Levy have compiled rather amazing statistics to go along with their won-lost mark. Through seven encounters they hold a 249-35 meet point edge over all opponenets, a 25-5 margin in pin victories and a 60-23-2 mark in all bouts.

GETTING DECISION wins for Forest View against the Knights were John Martin (103 pounds), Bob Hansen (112), Bob Urban (120), Mike Casey (138) and Hank Tasche. Al Knoblauch (154) and Al Gildemeister (heavyweight) helped FV by taking pins. Bruce Lampert registered a default victory at 165.

Picking up points for Prospect and coach Tom Porter were four different matmen. Rick Basch (95) took a pin triumph as did Luke Dicci (133). Decisions for the Knights went to Marty Krause (127) and Joe Koza (145).

The Prospect junior varsity record for the year was changed to 4-3 overall and 2-1 in Mid-Suburban League action. Forest View is 3-0 and first in the M-SL.

Track Practice Starts Tuesday

Arlington will launch indoor track practice next Tuesday at the Wheeling High School facilities.

The Cardinals, coached by Bruce Samoore, will kick off their schedule on Thursday, Feb. 24, at Prospect.

In Second Round PCTL Play . . .

Rail Blanked Again; Three Tied At Top

How the mighty have fallen . . .

Of the eight teams in the Paddock Classic Traveling League, only one has yet to score a point after two weeks of the PCTL's round two.

The unfortunates are the men of The Brass Rail, so recently hailed as the champions of the first round. They were blanked again Saturday night, as Concourse Sports Chalet — one of the league's steadily - improving teams — made a 7-0 vault into a three-way tie at the top.

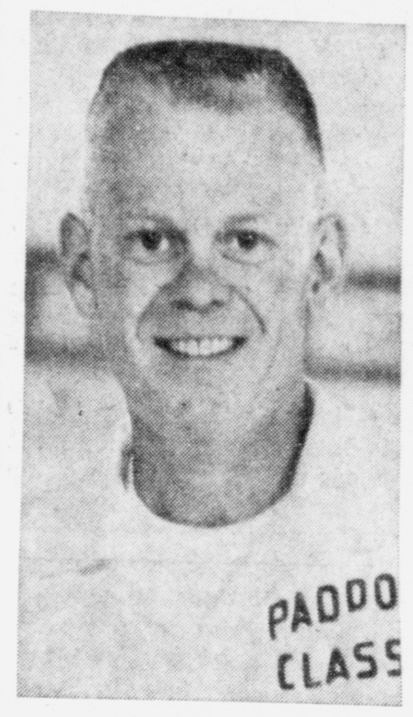
Also balanced at the pinnacle are Brim's Pioneer Lanes and Karlsen Pharmacy, both 5-2 victors, Brim's over Morton Pontiac and Karlsen's over City Welding Sales and Service. Jeffery Lanes also won 5-2, and pushed up to the middle of the bunch with its victim, Bill Cook Buick.

SPORTS CHALET had such a consistent team performance against the Railers that it could afford an off night from Ray Neumann, who settled for 494. Tony Sasso was tops for Chalet, totaling 191-231-202—624. But close behind were Mike Wagner with 614, Bob Gill with 597 and Tom Kouros with 560. Brass Rail's best was a 568 from Don Oberg.

Pioneer also had four strong series around a weak one, and it meant defeat for Morton. Bob Krisch had 234-208-190—632 for Pioneer, with Larry Thon checking in at 606, George Schmidt 588 and Ron Sheldon 585.

Bob Glaser was two shy of the 600 circle as he led Morton with 598. Morton bowled well enough to win a lot of matches, but Pioneer — at Morton's home Beverly Lanes — just had too much.

CITY WELDING also took a beating at home, as Karlsen Pharmacy started slowly, then rushed to a 2927 team series at Thunderbird Bowl. Warren Karlsen, with a 195-223-201—629 was best, with Joe Simonis adding a 621. Lobby Lobinsky had 602 for the losers, buoyed by a 223 third game.



BILL HARRIS

The evening's best individual game and series were wrapped into one by Bill Harris, as he led Jeffery Lanes' beating of Bill Cook, a beating that missed being a shutout by the margin of three pins in game two.

Harris had a 200-176-257—633 effort, 50 better than teammate Hec Healey's second best. Bill Cook's best was even lower than that, as Al Jordan led with 569.

The Buick men were the third team in the league to lose at home in the evening's play, as they were dropped at Rolling Meadows Bowl. Only Sports Chalet — at Gunnell's — was a home winner.

At least a little cracking of the clump at the top is due this weekend, as front-runners Karlsen Pharmacy and Sports Chalet collide at Gunnell's. Pineer — the other leader — will tangle with fourth place Bill Cook Buick at home, while Morton Pontiac and City Welding gather at Thunderbird and The Brass Rail seeks those first points in meeting Jeffery Lanes at River Rand.

In Hockey Action

Arlington Records Two Tourney Wins

The high-flying Arlington Warriors laid claim to the North West Suburban Hockey title with twin victories over Mount Prospect (5-3) and Park Ridge (2-1).

The mid-week encounter against Prospect saw the high school age Warriors pour in thirty four shots on goal with goals by Whibbs, Rocca, Edwards, Wadzita and Urlbacker.

Outstanding defensive work was shown by Rocca, Svast, Roach, Sanders and Kenny.

ON SUNDAY afternoon, Arlington opened a best of three title series against Park Ridge at Rec Park. The game was played in a wide open style, but it was not until the third period that Park Ridge broke the scoreless tie.

The Warriors roared back at 10:40 with the Wadzita-Whibbs-Irlbacker line cashing in on Wadzita's goal on Rocca's assist. Finally at 12:40, Sayre took Edwards' pass on left wing, stick handled around the last defender and drilled a thirty foot slap shot in the upper corner of the net.

Other individual heroes were Weber and Ewart in the nets; Rios, Kenny, Alace and Sanders on defense; Horan, Klingberg, Kennedy, Scharff, Summers, Proebstle and Solderberg on the front lines. The four star winners were Wadzita, Sayre, Rocca and Edwards.

This series resumes at Park Ridge, at 12:00 p.m. on Saturday, January 29.

IN THE ILLINOIS State Hockey Tourney, the Warriors lost a 7-4 decision to the Dundee Aces at the Polar Dome.

The fast moving Punch Line of Edwards, Proebstle and Sayre each contributed a tally. "Skip" Whibbs and Paul Rocca, easily the most improved forward and defenseman in the league, completed the scoring.

Standout As Prep

Rich Jones, the University of Illinois' 6-7 sophomore basketball center, earned All-State honors for three years as a prep in Memphis, Tenn., and was a high school All-American as a senior.

Roselle Ford Entry Tops Men's Meet

GRETSCHEL GOLF BALL SUPPLY of the Bowlwood Sports league at Bowlwood Recreation fashioned a 3024 total to tie the Casters for second place in the Paddock men's tournament, five pins behind the champs. There's no place like home . . . for a bowling team.

Just ask the members of the Roselle Ford entry of the Hoffman Industrial league.

Roselle Ford took home the top prize Sunday in the 15th edition of the popular Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap bowling tournament for men.

The event was staged at Hoffman Lanes in Hoffman Estates and that's home for the Roselle Ford bowlers during regular league play.

Actually, the champs gave the host lanes its only representation among the prize winners in the bowling spectacular which attracted 102 teams and 510 keglers.

A 3029 total pinfall with handicap was the best any team offered at Hoffman Lanes last weekend, and that effort was worth $188.75 in prize money, a large traveling trophy, and five individual trophies for Roselle Ford.

Dan Smith, Walter Wicklund, George Marbach, Harry Anton, and Russel Sines worked for the champs with Sines turning in the top series, a 552 that included a 206 game.

Wicklund was next in line for Roselle Ford with a 539 and he opened at 214, the best single game by the titlist.

Other scores for Roselle Ford were a 518 by Marbach, 498 by Anton, and 454 by Smith.

The champs established their 3029 in the 5:20 p.m. shift Sunday and didn't receive any serious arguments from the teams that went off at 7:45 in the concluding alignment.

Gretschel Golf Ball Supply from the Bowlwood Sports league at Bowlwood and the Casters of the Martin Metals loop at Rose Bowl tied for second in the men's meet with identical 3024 totals.

Both runnerup squads bowled in the first shift Sunday afternoon and came in at 3024. Gretschel worked with a 402 handicap and the Casters had a 750.

HIGH GAME OUT OF MONEY
	Brass Rail Restaurant, Paddock Classic	TR	989	10.00

Ed Kroeger was high for Gretschel with a 562, and he was on his way to a booming series before checking in at 147 in the third game. Ed opened with a 202 and followed that with a 213.

Dave Dunn had a 555 for Gretschel with a 206 high game, and Jack Lemcke fired a 531. Rounding out the squad were David Pickering with a 514 and Richard Kroeger with a 460.

The Casters received a 495 from Tom Cowan, 488 from Fred Moloznik, 486 from Frank Rincon, 403 from Dick Shewczyk, and 402 from Neil Berndt.

Coloramic Tile of the St. James Holy Name league at Elk Grove Bowl was fourth with a 3019, but there was a gap of 16 pins between fourth and fifth.

Six teams topped 3000 in total pins. Team No. 2 of the Thunderbird Commercial (3003) and Heights Liquors of the St. Alphonsus Holy Name division at Gunnell's (3001) also topped the magic 3000 mark.

The 3029 that took the big prize was only the eleventh best among winning efforts in the history of the Paddock tourney. Highland Motors still ranks No. 1 in that department with a fine 3166 in the 1963 spectacular.

Although the Paddock Classic League entry, normally a strong title contender in the men's tourney, didn't crack the money list, the bowlers did salvage the high game out of the money.

Warren Olson, Herman Simonis, John Giovannelli, Don Oberg, and Ted Zimmerman combined for a 989 scratch in their opening game with Zimmerman authoring a 245.

Al Jordan of Hal Lieber's Bowlers shop in the Rolling Meadows Manor loop fashioned the tourney's big series with a 672 on games of 226-181-265. But Al was still 29 pins shy of the series standard of 701 held by Dave Catherwood.

Other impressive efforts in the Paddock men's tournament were a 636 by Warren Karlsen, 628 by John Guster, 625 by Ted Geiersbach, 621 by Lynus Grant, 614 by Ted Zimmerman, 613 by James Niccolai, and 610 by Warren Olsen.

There's no place like home . . . for a bowling team.

Just ask the members of the Roselle Ford entry of the Hoffman Industrial league.

Roselle Ford took home the top prize Sunday in the 15th edition of the popular Paddock Publications Inter-League Handicap bowling tournament for men.

The event was staged at Hoffman Lanes in Hoffman Estates and that's home for the Roselle Ford bowlers during regular league play.

Actually, the champs gave the host lanes its only representation among the prize winners in the bowling spectacular which attracted 102 teams and 510 keglers.

A 3029 total pinfall with handicap was the best any team offered at Hoffman Lanes last weekend, and that effort was worth $188.75 in prize money, a large traveling trophy, and five individual trophies for Roselle Ford.

Dan Smith, Walter Wicklund, George Marbach, Harry Anton, and Russel Sines worked for the champs with Sines turning in the top series, a 552 that included a 206 game.

Wicklund was next in line for Roselle Ford with a 539 and he opened at 214, the best single game by the titlist.

Other scores for Roselle Ford were a 518 by Marbach, 498 by Anton, and 454 by Smith.

The champs established their 3029 in the 5:20 p.m. shift Sunday and didn't receive any serious arguments from the teams that went off at 7:45 in the concluding alignment.

Gretschel Golf Ball Supply from the Bowlwood Sports league at Bowlwood and the Casters of the Martin Metals loop at Rose Bowl tied for second in the men's meet with identical 3024 totals.

Both runnerup squads bowled in the first shift Sunday afternoon and came in at 3024. Gretschel worked with a 402 handicap and the Casters had a 750.

Ed Kroeger was high for Gretschel with a 562, and he was on his way to a booming series before checking in at 147 in the third game. Ed opened with a 202 and followed that with a 213.

Dave Dunn had a 555 for Gretschel with a 206 high game, and Jack Lemcke fired a 531. Rounding out the squad were David Pickering with a 514 and Richard Kroeger with a 460.

The Casters received a 495 from Tom Cowan, 488 from Fred Moloznik, 486 from Frank Rincon, 403 from Dick Shewczyk, and 402 from Neil Berndt.

Coloramic Tile of the St. James Holy Name league at Elk Grove Bowl was fourth with a 3019, but there was a gap of 16 pins between fourth and fifth.

Six teams topped 3000 in total pins. Team No. 2 of the Thunderbird Commercial (3003) and Heights Liquors of the St. Alphonsus Holy Name division at Gunnell's (3001) also topped the magic 3000 mark.

The 3029 that took the big prize was only the eleventh best among winning efforts in the history of the Paddock tourney. Highland Motors still ranks No. 1 in that department with a fine 3166 in the 1963 spectacular.

Although the Paddock Classic League entry, normally a strong title contender in the men's tourney, didn't crack the money list, the bowlers did salvage the high game out of the money.

Warren Olson, Herman Simonis, John Giovannelli, Don Oberg, and Ted Zimmerman combined for a 989 scratch in their opening game with Zimmerman authoring a 245.

Al Jordan of Hal Lieber's Bowlers shop in the Rolling Meadows Manor loop fashioned the tourney's big series with a 672 on games of 226-181-265. But Al was still 29 pins shy of the series standard of 701 held by Dave Catherwood.

Other impressive efforts in the Paddock men's tournament were a 636 by Warren Karlsen, 628 by John Guster, 625 by Ted Geiersbach, 621 by Lynus Grant, 614 by Ted Zimmerman, 613 by James Niccolai, and 610 by Warren Olsen.

OBITUARIES

Please call information for obituaries to
Mrs. Harry Schulze, 253-2352, by Tuesday noon.

William A. Hinz

William A. Hinz, 135 S. Bothwell, Palatine, died Sunday, Jan. 23, in Northwest Community Hospital.

Mr. Hinz, 84, was born in Arlington Heights, and engaged in farming on Palatine Road until his retirement 12 years ago. He was one of a group of retired men known as the "Hot Stove League" which met in Schoppe's Store in Palatine.

He leaves two sons, Embert of Gary, and Kermit of Palatine; a daughter, Loraine Schroeder of Barrington; five grandchildren; one great-grandchild; one brother, Edward Hinz; and sisters, Emma Hinz, Alma Hinz, and Laura Heidorn, all of Arlington Heights.

Funeral services were held at 1 p.m. Tuesday, Jan. 25, at Immanuel Lutheran Church, followed by interment at Randhill Cemetery. Funeral arrangements were made by Tharp Funeral Home in Palatine.

Willard H. Pate

Willard H. Pate, 411 E. Rockwell, Arlington Heights, died Monday, Jan. 24, at Northwest Community Hospital, following a heart attack. He was 60 years old.

Mr. Pate was a partner in Pate Insurance Agency, 111 E. Sigwalt, in Arlington Heights and lifelong resident of the village. He was a member of the First Presbyterian Church.

In addition to his wife, Genevieve, he leaves a son, G. Dale Pate of Arlington Heights; two grandchildren; a sister, Jessie McConagha; and two brothers, Marshall H. and Sherman E. He was preceded in death by another brother, Wilbert W.

Dr. Paul Stumpf will conduct funeral services at 1:30 p.m. Thursday, Jan. 27, at Lauterburg & Oehler Funeral Home, 2000 E. Northwest Hwy., Arlington Heights. Interment will be at Arlington Heights Cemetery.

Stephen Dominick

Stephen Dominick, 210 E. Pine St., Bensenville, a resident of that village for over 33 years, died Friday, Jan. 21, in Sherman Hospital, Elgin. He was 60 years old.

Mr. Dominick was a conductor for the Milwaukee Railroad for 43 years. He was a member of Railroad Trainmen, B.A.R.E., and the 2950 Club.

In addition to his wife, Violet, nee Hayton, he leaves a son, Raymond; daughter-in-law, Patricia, both of Glen Ellyn; and one granddaughter, Donna Rae.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. Monday, Jan. 24, at Geil's Funeral Home in Bensenville. Interment was at Mount Emblem Cemetery.

Lawrence Clark

Lawrence Clark, 1700 N. Clarence Ave., Arlington Heights, died Friday, Jan. 21, in Hines Hospital. He was born March 12, 1895, in Salem, Ohio.

Mr. Clark was a retired truck driver and veteran of World War I.

Funeral services were held Monday, Jan. 24, at 2 p.m., at Haire Funeral Home, the Rev. William Herman officiating. Interment was at Memory Gardens Cemetery.

In addition to his wife, Sydonie, he leaves a daughter, Marcelle Anderson of Marengo, Ill.; and seven grandchildren. He was preceded in death by a son, Clarence. (A15

Rev. M. K. C. Vetter

The Rev. M. K. C. Vetter, 44 Church St., a resident of Addison for 43 years, died Sunday, Jan. 23, in the Lutheran Home and Service for the Aged, Arlington Heights. He was 94 years old.

Rev. Vetter served parishes in Farley, Mo., Junction City, Kan., and Alba, Okla., during his lifetime. He was superintendent of the Lutheran Orphan Home in Addison from 1923 to 1943, and field secretary for the home until his retirement in 1945. For four years after retiring he established missions in Winter Haven and Key West, Fla., which have since developed into flourishing congregations.

He is survived by his wife, Minna, nee Looman; four sons, Rev. Science in the News

Study Role Played by Emotions in Illness

Rochester University has received a special grant from the Public Health Service to study how the mind and emotions may contribute to development of physical illnesses.

The study is based on clinical evidence that seems to indicate that psychological factors frequently influence the onset of physical illness. Investigators will search for information on why and under what conditions people get diseases, and point out ways of predicting and intervening in the onset of disease.

Important to the seven-year study is the concept of "giving up," a psychological state of helplessness often found preceding organic disease.

The investigators will also explore certain types of situations with a high potential for provoking a psychological state. They will study women whose husbands are dying of cancer, the reactions of family members to an accident which has killed several members of the family, acute and chronic grief, and reactions to surgery. Research will also cover studies of subjects predisposed to specific diseases, including ulcers, primarily with the purpose to gain the ability to anticipate relapses and, eventually, to prevent them.

Accidental Poisonings

The University of California Food Protection and Toxicology Center has reported that the great majority of accidental poisonings occur in the home and predominately among children of pre-school age. Additionally, more than 80 per cent are in children under 6 years and in this group poisonings occur most often in the 1 to 3 year-old bracket.

The establishment of community poison-control centers where manufacturers are asked to register product ingredients have made it possible for physicians to react quickly with corrective action.

Aphid Resistance In Potatoes

Biologists at the University of Minnesota have found potato plants with almost complete immunity to aphids. The more than 5,000 plants, included in some 450 different potato plant introductions, came from areas covering the Western hemisphere and were tested with the potato aphid and green peach aphid.

End result of this research is to find ways of incorporating the resistance to aphids into agriculturally acceptable potato varieties. The potato aphid and the green peach aphid are considered the most serious insect pests of potatoes.

Irradiated Wood

Seventy-eight wood-products companies in 32 states have been selected to participate in an Atomic Energy Commission program for the evaluation of radiation processed wood-plastic material.

The process was developed by West Virginia University under contract to the AEC. It involves impregnating wood with a plastic monomer, then treating the wood with ionizing radiation. The radiation changes the plastic molecules, producing a solid, wood-plastic material which has many improved properties while retaining the natural beauty of the original wood. The wood will be processed by the Lockheed-Georgia Company under contract with AEC. The products to be produced include: stadium seating, gun stocks, plywood flooring, baseball bats, bowling alley equipment, and many others.

Research Tool

Man will have few secrets, radioactively speaking, from a Whole Body Counter just completed at the University of Cincinnati Medical Center which is capable of detecting and measuring minute amounts of radioactive materials within the human body. It will be used at the University's Medical Center for improved patient care and research into disease.

The studies are financed by grants from the Division of Biology and Medicine of the Atomic Energy Commission; National Institutes of Health, and the Alvin A. Gould Foundation of Cincinnati.

Electron Microscope

Scientists at the University of Wisconsin, in cooperation with Argonne National Laboratory and Associated Midwest Universities, have begun a two-year experimental program basic to the design of possibly the world's most powerful electron microscope.

The scientists will build an experimental million-volt electrostatic electron accelerator, a high-vacuum beam tube and an electrostatic analyzer for controlling the energy of the beam and measuring its stability.

They hope to achieve a well-focused beam of high-energy electrons of nearly the same energy.

This information is vital to electron microscope design because the quality of the electron beam determines the quality of the magnified image. (A-15

At Illinois Wesleyan

Nancy Louise Staadt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Staadt of 314 S. Evergreen, has been chosen for the Terrapins Club at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington.

Eight girls were selected following the recent try-outs. The girls participated in three training periods during which they were taught the basic skills of water ballet. They were judged on their smoothness and techniques acquired during training. (B10

Survey Predicts Area Land Pinch

Population explosion in northeastern Illinois will result in conflicting demands on available land.

According to a report recently published by the Illinois State Geological Survey, over 6½ million people live within a six-county area in northeastern Illinois. By 1980, this population will approach eight million. Environmental Geology Notes 8, "An Application of Geologic Information to Land Use in the Chicago Metropolitan Region," is concerned with this explosion.

According to the study, additional space will be needed to accommodate streets, roads, highways, expressways, rail lines and airfields. Space also will be needed for industry, homes, recreation, waste disposal, flood and storm runoff and recovery of mineral resources — especially those necessary for construction of the roads, bridges and buildings.

AT THE REQUEST of the Northeastern Illinois Planning Commission, the Geological Survey has made studies of physical features that might permit multiple use of land. The DuPage County study, for example, outlines areas for possible excavation of sand and gravel. At these sites there might be subsequent development of recreational lakes. The sand and gravel pits could also serve as storage areas for floodwater or recharge areas to supplement groundwater storage where large quantities of water are needed.

Competition for space makes it essential that multiple use of land be considered in future urban planning. Without this concept, the construction of homes, for example, on land containing valuable mineral resources, would be inefficient and wasteful use of that land.

The survey report, by James E. Hackett, is available at the Illinois State Geological Survey, Natural Resources Building, Urbana, Ill. (A15

Medical Library To Expand

Physicians on the staff of Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, are working to expand the hospital's medical library. Members voted to increase staff dues by $75 a year with the increase going to expand the library.

Dr. Alexander Ruggie, director of medical education, stated that this would mean about $15,000 this year for additional books and medical journals. Plans call for an addition of 1,000 volumes this year and an additional 150 medical journals.

A NEW MEDICAL library is currently under construction as part of the hospital expansion. The library will be housed on the ground floor of the new west building and will have four times the space presently availalbe.

"A well-equipped library is essential for the continuing education of both staff physicians and members of the hospital's house staff," Dr. Ruggie said.

Study Role Played by Emotions in Illness

Rochester University has received a special grant from the Public Health Service to study how the mind and emotions may contribute to development of physical illnesses.

The study is based on clinical evidence that seems to indicate that psychological factors frequently influence the onset of physical illness. Investigators will search for information on why and under what conditions people get diseases, and point out ways of predicting and intervening in the onset of disease.

Important to the seven-year study is the concept of "giving up," a psychological state of helplessness often found preceding organic disease.

The investigators will also explore certain types of situations with a high potential for provoking a psychological state. They will study women whose husbands are dying of cancer, the reactions of family members to an accident which has killed several members of the family, acute and chronic grief, and reactions to surgery. Research will also cover studies of subjects predisposed to specific diseases, including ulcers, primarily with the purpose to gain the ability to anticipate relapses and, eventually, to prevent them.

Accidental Poisonings

The University of California Food Protection and Toxicology Center has reported that the great majority of accidental poisonings occur in the home and predominately among children of pre-school age. Additionally, more than 80 per cent are in children under 6 years and in this group poisonings occur most often in the 1 to 3 year-old bracket.

The establishment of community poison-control centers where manufacturers are asked to register product ingredients have made it possible for physicians to react quickly with corrective action.

Aphid Resistance In Potatoes

Biologists at the University of Minnesota have found potato plants with almost complete immunity to aphids. The more than 5,000 plants, included in some 450 different potato plant introductions, came from areas covering the Western hemisphere and were tested with the potato aphid and green peach aphid.

End result of this research is to find ways of incorporating the resistance to aphids into agriculturally acceptable potato varieties. The potato aphid and the green peach aphid are considered the most serious insect pests of potatoes.

Irradiated Wood

Seventy-eight wood-products companies in 32 states have been selected to participate in an Atomic Energy Commission program for the evaluation of radiation processed wood-plastic material.

The process was developed by West Virginia University under contract to the AEC. It involves impregnating wood with a plastic monomer, then treating the wood with ionizing radiation. The radiation changes the plastic molecules, producing a solid, wood-plastic material which has many improved properties while retaining the natural beauty of the original wood. The wood will be processed by the Lockheed-Georgia Company under contract with AEC. The products to be produced include: stadium seating, gun stocks, plywood flooring, baseball bats, bowling alley equipment, and many others.

Research Tool

Man will have few secrets, radioactively speaking, from a Whole Body Counter just completed at the University of Cincinnati Medical Center which is capable of detecting and measuring minute amounts of radioactive materials within the human body. It will be used at the University's Medical Center for improved patient care and research into disease.

The studies are financed by grants from the Division of Biology and Medicine of the Atomic Energy Commission; National Institutes of Health, and the Alvin A. Gould Foundation of Cincinnati.

Electron Microscope

Scientists at the University of Wisconsin, in cooperation with Argonne National Laboratory and Associated Midwest Universities, have begun a two-year experimental program basic to the design of possibly the world's most powerful electron microscope.

The scientists will build an experimental million-volt electrostatic electron accelerator, a high-vacuum beam tube and an electrostatic analyzer for controlling the energy of the beam and measuring its stability.

They hope to achieve a well-focused beam of high-energy electrons of nearly the same energy.

This information is vital to electron microscope design because the quality of the electron beam determines the quality of the magnified image. (A-15

Clarence Toner

Clarence Toner, 44, of 617 Oriole Lane, Mount Prospect, died Wednesday, Jan. 19, in Illinois Masonic Hospital, after suffering a heart attack at work. He was a tool and die maker for Western Die & Mold Co.

At Illinois Wesleyan

Nancy Louise Staadt, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Staadt of 314 S. Evergreen, has been chosen for the Terrapins Club at Illinois Wesleyan University in Bloomington.

Eight girls were selected following the recent try-outs. The girls participated in three training periods during which they were taught the basic skills of water ballet. They were judged on their smoothness and techniques acquired during training. (B10

Survey Predicts Area Land Pinch

Population explosion in northeastern Illinois will result in conflicting demands on available land.

According to a report recently published by the Illinois State Geological Survey, over 6½ million people live within a six-county area in northeastern Illinois. By 1980, this population will approach eight million. Environmental Geology Notes 8, "An Application of Geologic Information to Land Use in the Chicago Metropolitan Region," is concerned with this explosion.

According to the study, additional space will be needed to accommodate streets, roads, highways, expressways, rail lines and airfields. Space also will be needed for industry, homes, recreation, waste disposal, flood and storm runoff and recovery of mineral resources — especially those necessary for construction of the roads, bridges and buildings.

AT THE REQUEST of the Northeastern Illinois Planning Commission, the Geological Survey has made studies of physical features that might permit multiple use of land. The DuPage County study, for example, outlines areas for possible excavation of sand and gravel. At these sites there might be subsequent development of recreational lakes. The sand and gravel pits could also serve as storage areas for floodwater or recharge areas to supplement groundwater storage where large quantities of water are needed.

Competition for space makes it essential that multiple use of land be considered in future urban planning. Without this concept, the construction of homes, for example, on land containing valuable mineral resources, would be inefficient and wasteful use of that land.

The survey report, by James E. Hackett, is available at the Illinois State Geological Survey, Natural Resources Building, Urbana, Ill. (A15

Medical Library To Expand

Physicians on the staff of Lutheran General Hospital, Park Ridge, are working to expand the hospital's medical library. Members voted to increase staff dues by $75 a year with the increase going to expand the library.

Dr. Alexander Ruggie, director of medical education, stated that this would mean about $15,000 this year for additional books and medical journals. Plans call for an addition of 1,000 volumes this year and an additional 150 medical journals.

A NEW MEDICAL library is currently under construction as part of the hospital expansion. The library will be housed on the ground floor of the new west building and will have four times the space presently availbe.

"A well-equipped library is essential for the continuing education of both staff physicians and members of the hospital's house staff," Dr. Ruggie said.
